Farmers are hustling for hands. A great complaint about the scarcity of labor. The negroes nearly all seem to be on the move.

The time is fast approaching when our people will have to change their mode of farming, it seems to us, and farm in the way that they can get along with less labor.

OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION.

The Event of the Season.

People who attended the Old Maids' Convention in the opera house Thursday night (and everybody who could find room to get in was there) have felt like rubbing their sides and taking something for sore throat today.

It was 8:30 o'clock when the delegates began arriving, and as each one marched through the audience to the stage they were enthusiastically greeted. The fun began when the first one entered and it did not stop until the curtain dropped at the close.

When the convention was called to order there were the following delegates present:

- Josephine Jane Greene, President
Mrs. A. H. Taft.
Priscilla Abigail Hodge, Secretary
Miss Bessie Jarvis.
Calamity Jane Higgins, Treasurer

Well, it would take a whole newspaper to tell everything they said and did. Each had her own peculiar attire, and each her own interesting part to do and say, and we do not believe either could have been improved upon. Every one was rich. All through there were local hits that just convulsed the audience.

Prof. Make Over and his assistant did not come on until the last act, to change the old maids to whatever they wished, and his wonderful machine added all the more to the fun.

It was all together the most enjoyable entertainment Greenville has had and praise of it is heard on every hand. The convention was gotten up by Mrs. C. T. Munford for the benefit of the Methodist church lot, and the gross receipts were $97.05.

We hear that the Old Maids' Convention contemplate meeting in Ayden soon.

SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT.

By Pupils of Winterville High School.

The young ladies of the Philoalthean Society of Winterville High School gave a delightful entertainment Thanksgiving night in the chapel of the school building. The entertainment consisted of instrumental music and a drama, in three acts, entitled "Rebekah's Triumph."

The cast of eharacters in the drama was as follows:

Mrs. Rokeman—Miss Ida Moere.
Mrs. Delaine—Miss Mollie Bryan.

Rebekah—Miss Mamie Gallo-way.

Clarissa Cadman—Miss Maud Lassiter.

Dora Gaines—Miss Hennie Ragsdale.

Gussie Greene—Miss Myrtie Proctor.

Jennie Woodman—Miss Mayme Ives.

Mellie Dumbar—Miss Addie Cox.

Emma Stevens—Miss Hattie Kittrell.

Maria Gray—Miss Lizzie Burney.

Katie Conner—Miss Mamie Cox.

The young ladies performed their parts splendidly, reflecting credit upon themselves as well as those who instructed them. Those who rendered music before and during the drama were Misses Wood, Hattie Kittrell, Ida Moore, Wilmonth Sutton, Myrtie Proctor and Hennie Ragsdale.

The entertainment was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

The splendid school at Winterville is in a flourishing condition with a large attendance. Prof. Lineberry is very happy in his work, the pupils are all delighted and the people and patrons well pleased. There is no better school.

Winterville continues to be progressive with new improvements on the way all the time.

Excellent Singing.

The Thanksgiving singing in the Baptist church by the children of Sunday school was excellent. They were trained for the service by Miss Minnie Quinn, who with them also decorated the church very appropriately.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF

DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. Thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 8 Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
