WINTERVILLE, N. C., Dec. 7.

Winterville will at any time open wide its arms to have "The Old Maids' Convention" hold its next session here. We have as fine a hall as there is in the county, which will be furnished free of charge. There are also numberless old bachelors and widowers, and if we don't please the girls it shan't be our fault.

[We are authorized by the officers of the "Old Maids' Convention to accept this kind invitation with thanks. The convention will meet with the good people of Winterville at an early date. "Bud Joe" and the other candidates for matrimony should spruce up their best looks, and watch all trains for the arrival of the antiquated sistern.—Ed.]

Land Sale—A Bargain—One farm containing 87½ acres more or less. Nice tobacco, cotton or corn land, 50 acres cleared. Two good tenant houses and other buildings. Adjoins the lands of Henry Cory, Lewis Worthington and others and may be known as the James B. McGowan land. Apply to A. G. Cox.

A plague on "Old Maids' Conventions." It took our best girl from home all day Thursday and Friday and we've had no taste for butter-milk since. We believe in fair women and love 'em too, but away with woman's rights!

Santa Claus Coming—To our friends, customers and the public generally we wish to state that we are carrying a nice and better selected stock of Xmas toys and confectioneries than ever before, and we earnestly solicit your patronage. Yours to please—Harrington, Barber & Co.

Mrs. H. F. Keel and Miss Hattie Nichols were visiting in Greenville Thursday.

Miss Bettie Keel spent Thursday night in the country with Miss Letha McGlohon.

Miss Lena Dawson, of Littlefield, is spending the week with Miss Minnie Cluward.

Dr. B. T. Cox, Mrs. Cox and little Miss Irma Isabelle Dawson have gone to Baltimore to remain several days for the benefit of the little girl's eyes. We all do so hope "Baby Belle" may come back entirely cured.

Dr. Louis Skinner, of Greenville, has charge of Dr. Cox's patients during the latter's absence in Baltimore. Dr. Skinner was here Thursday evening.

W. A. West, of Roanoke Lumber Co. was here Tuesday.

Ed. T. N. Manning left for Dover last Thursday in order to fill his regular appointment at that place.

There seems to be some complaint among our country friends because of the fact we sometimes fail to mention the coming and going of strangers in our midst. They should assist us in procuring the news, for their own as well as others benefit. Any aid they may render will be appreciated.

G. A. Kittrell is now traveling through South Carolina in the interest of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

I Know One Sure Remedy for all obnoxious cold. Its name is Fry's Saline.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.

There has been little that was remarkable about the opening of the Fifty-seventh Congress and the reception of the President's message. There was the usual crush in the senate galleries and on the floor of the House, the usual abundance of flowers, largely provided by the politic lobbyists, and the usual congratulation of the party in the majority. A notable incident in the Senate was the extreme discomfiture of Senator Hanna as the todies gathered around Senator Lodge who is now recognized as the President's representative in the Senate, a position which the Senator from Ohio has occupied with great complacency for a number of years.

The Senate caucus determined to reduce democratic representation on the committees by the adoption of new rules. Heretofore the republicans have been content with a majority of one on all important committees but under the new rules the democrats will be completely barred from representation on a number of the committees among them agriculture, appropriations, finance, civil service, education, labor, Philippines, pensions, post office, etc. This is, of course, a serious violation of the rights of the minority but there is nothing the democrats can do but abide by the rule of the majority and reflect that when it comes to explaining their mistakes to the country the republicans will have only themselves to blame.

I understand that it is the intention of Speaker Henderson to follow the precedent set by the Senate to some extent, at least, and cut down democratic representation on the various House committees. In the House all responsibility for such action will rest on the Speaker and it is therefore possible that he will hesitate about going as far as has the Senate where the action is the work of the majority. There is little doubt that on one ground or another the republicans will appropriate to themselves practically everything worth having.

Among the nearly two thousand bills which were introduced in the House the first day was one by Representative Fowler, of New Jersey, providing for the establishment of a reciprocity commission as recommended by the recent reciprocity convention in this city. Another, introduced by Representative Crumpacker provides for the admission to statehood of Porto Rico and Representative Corliss, of Michigan, has reintroduced his bill providing for the governmental construction and ownership of a Pacific cable.

There will be a bill passed early in the session giving to Mrs. McKinley a pension of $5,000 per annum. There will be no expression of opposition to this bill and, perhaps for that reason, some of the friends of Mrs. Harrison are working to secure the attachment of a rider giving a similar pension to the widow of President Harrison. Considering the fact that Mrs. Harrison married the General so late in life and that she is not in actual need of the pension there will be considerable opposition to the granting of a pension to her but it is possible that a delicacy of feeling about holding up Mrs. McKinley's pension, even though it is entirely due to the rider, may prevent any negative votes in Congress. Russell B. Harrison has come to Washington to lobby for the rider.

The introduction of bills of all kinds and descriptions has begun at a rapid rate. In the House Representative Littlefield, of Maine, has introduced an anti-trust bill drawn on lines similar to those of the measure passed by the House last session. It provides for publicity, as advised in the President's message, but goes much further in its provisions and provides penalties, etc., for combinations of capital which, in view of the caution of the President's message, will hardly meet with the approval of the Senate even if it should pass the House.

Welcome as Sunshine

after a long storm is a feeling of relief when an obstinate, pitiless cold has been driven away by Allen's Lung Balsam. Only people who have been cured of throat-ache and sore lungs by this remedy can quite realize what the feeling is. There is no opium in the Balsam; its good effect is radical and lasting. Take a bottle home today.

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING
 ARE NOW CURABLE
 by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
 About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
 I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
 I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
 Very truly yours,
 F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
 Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

BACHELOR'S SANCTUM, Dec. 7.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

This is to inquire, on behalf of the Brotherhood which I have the honor to represent, if there is to be another Old Maids' Convention here, and if so when, and to state to you that we think forbearance has ceased to be a virtue, and to ask you to discontinue our paper 'till after such sad recurrence is over, as it has contained nothing else of late. O. B.,

Corresponding Sec. Brotherhood of Bachelors.

Old Maids' Convention.

Notwithstanding it had been but a week since their former meeting here, the Old Maids' Convention was greeted with another large audience in the opera house Friday night. Many who saw it before attended again, while those who did not were glad of the opportunity, and it goes without saying that all enjoyed it hugely. The costumes of the sisters were decidedly fetching and in keeping with their reputed ages, while the numerous bright personal hits brought down the house. Prof. Lake Over's machine brought in its work well and there were good tableaux at the close.

The convention this time was for the benefit of the Episcopal church and the receipts were $35.50.

Theatrical.

The Goodwin Young Stock Co., will appear here Dec. 12th, 13th, 14th, in entirely new plays. Opening on Thursday night with the 4 act comedy drama "A Hero in Rags" and closing on Saturday night with the sensational drama, "Quo Vadis." They have 500 yards of special scenery. Specialties changed nightly. See what the Buena Vistor Va. Advocate says of them:

"Decidedly the best repertoire company that has ever held the boards in this city is that of the Goodwin-Young Stock Company which began a week's engagement at the Opera House on Monday evening last. And it is quite evident that they have won the admiration and interest of the best people that go towards making up this cosmopolitan little city, if class of audiences can be taken as a fair judge. Their productions nightly have been of the highest type, each character being so ably presented as to mark each performer an artist. The entire company is made up strictly of ladies and gentlemen who are seeking to entertain those of like character."

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beiger and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.
Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Theford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicine, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. C. F. BIGLER
For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Southside Market.

I have opened a market on the Haskett property in South Greenville, just beyond town limits, and will handle fresh meat, beef, poultry and eggs. Will sell lower than can be had elsewhere. Nothing sold except for cash.
