Surely the young ladies of the school will not leave for the holiday season without allowing us an opportunity of enjoying another of those delightful entertainments they know so well how to arrange. Our people appreciate in the highest degree their kindness in the past, in affording us so much amusement, and hope they will not consider us selfish if we beg for one more evening of their time.

Cold Comfort from Doctors.

Doctors say neuralgia is not dangerous. This is poor consolation to a sufferer who feels as if his face were pierced with hot needles and torn with a thousand pairs of pliers. A word of advice to him: stay indoors and use Perry Davis' Painkiller. The blessed freedom from pain which follows this treatment cannot be told. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

Our $15.00 Suits are so good that we say to you, buy one and you will get the $15.00 back if you don't like the suit.

If we make any sort of mistake, bring the suit back and let us make it right.

Call it our generosity, call it your generosity, call it fairness, call it anything you like.

But do it.

By the way, $15.00 is the place where we can put the most value into our suits. Why?—that's a long story.

The suits tell it.

We do what we say we do.

The King Clothier.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13. In the Senate, Senator Lodge has been working faithfully to explain away all the objections which have been raised against the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Mr. Lodge's efforts to defend the treaty will prove a sine cure compared with the effort he will have to put forth to secure the ratification of any reciprocal treaty with Cuba.

Fire at Tarboro.

The burning of the Riverview Knitting Mills, at Tarboro, Thursday morning, is a disaster to that town as well as a heavy loss to Mr. J. F. Shackelford, the owner. The plant and stock destroyed were worth $50,000 and the insurance was only $32,900. Seventy people were thrown out of employment by the fire, and considering the number of others dependent upon the wages of these seventy for support makes a sad outlook for them.

In Memoriam.

Departed this life on Nov. 16th, 1901, at her home in Grimesland, Pitt county, N. C., Miss Jessie Holliday. Miss Jesse was a beloved member of the Grimesland Sunday school and while we mourn her loss we bow to an Allwise Providence, believing that our loss is her eternal gain. Therefore be it resolved, 1st. That in the death of Miss Jessie the school has lost an efficient teacher and secretary, and the community a faithful friend.

2nd. That we extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy and point them to the Father of the faithful, in whom she trusted.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to THE REFLECTOR for publication, one to the family, and one be spread on our minutes.

By Bringing the Nerves

with opium a cough may be stopped temporarily, but the inflammation of which the cough is a symptom goes from bad to worse. Do not waste time and money on delusive "cough mixtures." Remember that Allen's Lung Balm does not merely put the nerves to sleep. It gets right down to the root of the troubles and so cures even deep-seated affections of the throat and lungs.
