STANDARD PATTERNS.

RICKS & WILKINSON.

Worthy a Word of Commendation.
 Our neighbor, the Greenville REFLECTOR, is twenty years old, and has been under the editorial management of Mr. D. J. Whichard from its first publication. It started as a weekly, but for several years it has been issued as an afternoon daily.
 A few days ago Editor Whichard gave a most interesting account of the paper's career, showing cuts of the first house of publication; also a building in which it was published later, and finally the paper's present own home on an important business corner in the growing town of Greenville.

Editor Whichard's course and perseverance set at defiance the old false idea that a young man can do nothing at home; for he was born and reared in Greenville and has never been out of the town more than a month at a time in his life.

We admire his freedom in acknowledging the guidance of the hand of God in all his work and the frankness with which he expresses his trust in Almighty God, as a business man. Too many men who profess to be servants of God are ashamed to acknowledge their trust in Him to guide them in their business. Mr Whichard has forged a worthy way through difficulties from which many would have turned in dismay. He is to be commended in his good and faithful work for his town and county.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Be Careful.

A more or less superstitious person remarked in the hearing of THE REFLECTOR that he was afraid Greenville would have a Christmas fire. When asked his reason for such fear he replied that such things have been noticed to occur in threes. On the 25th of October the old Masonic Lodge building was burned. On the 25th of November there was another alarm from the school in the old Eborn building, and following this up he is afraid the third will come on December 25th. Of course there is nothing in this beyond "what is to be will be." But all the same it is well enough to admonish people to use every precaution against fire. The usual permission has been given to shoot fireworks and every one indulging is expected to get all the pleasure possible out of it, but at the same time they should be careful not to do any damage.

No Paper Until Saturday.

Printers are human beings like other folks and enjoy a little holiday once in awhile. THE REFLECTOR force have worked hard and faithfully through the year, not missing an issue except on Thanksgiving day, and they deserve a little recreation. So we are going to ask the indulgence of our readers for a few days, it being our purpose not to publish another paper until Saturday. The semi weekly edition for Friday will also be omitted. We take occasion here to wish every friend and patron of the paper a merry Christmas.

The Best Prescription for Malaria
 Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. Price 60c.

Christmas

Neckwear.

Our Furnishing Department

Is fairly abloom with bright, handsome Christmas Neckwear the prettiest creations that the combined efforts of the weaver and silk worm ever produced. Every shape, too, that fashion allows. There is scarcely a man, young or old, who will not receive a Christmas Tie from his wife, sister, or best girl, and we believe that if every lady who buys a Christmas Tie would look here first, that we would sell every Christmas Tie sold in Greenville.

Blount & Bro., it is reported, have purchased the brick store belonging to J. C. Taylor & Bro.

and the S. T. Carson store. Bethel Manufacturing Co., have put in steam power. They expect to make windows, doors and all kind of scroll work. Quite an enterprise for Bethel.

The Greenville REFLECTOR is twenty years old. The present editor, Mr. D. J. Whichard, has been at the helm since 1885. A good newspaper man, energetic and progressive, patriotic and public spirited, the REFLECTOR under his conduct is a faithful, useful publication to its town and section and a true exponent of sound Democratic principles. That David may live to slay every Goliath of difficulties and disappointments that beset the path of the newspaper man and celebrate many more anniversaries of his valuable paper is the wish of the Gold Leaf.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

The Vocal Physiologist says that "more money is thrown away on the education of the human voice than on the support of government. Of every 10,000 voices one may be listened to without pain; of every 100,000 voices one may be listened to with patience; of every 1,000,000 voices one may be listened to with satisfaction; of every 10,000,000 voices one may be listened to with sensations of joy."

Upholds the Teachers.

Justice of the Peace C. D. Rountree had a case before him this morning that was of more than ordinary interest, in that it shows the law will uphold teachers in enforcing discipline in the public schools. The case was W. F. Evans vs. J. K. Barnhill for assault.

Mr. Evans teaches a public school in District 5, Paetolus township. Among his pupils was a brother of Mr. Barnhill, who for misconduct was dismissed from school. The school closed for the holidays on last Friday and Mr. Evans came home Saturday. As he was passing the home of Mr. Barnhill the latter, who it seems took offense at his brother being dismissed from school, met him in the road and made an assault on him. The court found Mr. Barnhill guilty and fined him $10 and costs.
