GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. Dec. 28, 1901.
 C. E. Gardner is here on a visit to friends and relatives.

Misses Anna and Sudie Pittman came home from Kinston to spend Christmas.

Miss Mabel Wooten, of Kinston, is here visiting the Misses Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Walston, of Conetoe, came in Tuesday to spend Christmas with Mrs. Walston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dawson.

Mrs. Ida B. Johnson came in Thursday evening from Kinston to spend a few days with friends.

J. D. Gaskins came Thursday to spend a few days home and will leave for Greensboro Sunday.

W. H. McCotter, of Ayden, is here spending the holidays.

Miss May Dunn, of Kinston, is here visiting Miss Susie Dunn.

Felix Pittman is spending the holidays at Kinston.

Frank Dawson, of Tarboro, is here spending the holidays with the family of S. W. Dawson.

C. J. Tucker and J. L. Patrick have opened up their stock of new goods that have already arrived and are looking for balance of goods on every freight.

L. A. Cobb went to Greenville Wednesday

W. S. Blount has been going around getting up a petition for the postoffice at Grifton. A good many of the most prominent citizens have signed the petition.

There was a Christmas tree for the Christian Sunday school at their church Thursday night.

A. R. Holton, of Ridge Spring, was here Friday.

Misses Sallie and Rosa Lowder came home last week to spend the holidays.

End of the Century Club.

Reported for The Reflector]

The End of the Century Club held its regular semi monthly meeting at Hotel Macon Dec. 10th, Mrs. J. L. Fleming being hostess. Business of great importance was transacted.

The literary programe consisted of two selections, "Tennyson in his Prime," read by Mrs. Quinerly, and "Tennyson in his Old Age," read by Mrs. King.

Mrs. Fleming in her attractive social manner for a little diversion from business gave an "Observation Party," Mrs. Skinner being the most observant.

Refreshments the rarest and most delicious were served.

After a social repartee, we bade the hostess adieu, each one expressing herself as having spent a most delightful evening.

The club will meet with Mrs. Quinerly Tuesday, Dec. 31st, 1901.

Business Change.

A. E. Tucker & Co. have purchased the stock of goods formerly kept by Z. V. Johnson & Co., and will continue the business at the same stand. Mr. Johnson will go to Lynchburg to engage in business there.

This week the Ocoola Band will hold its practices on Tuesday and Friday nights, so as not to interfere with the play to be given under the management of Miss Minnie Quinn in the opera house on Thursday night.

Christmas

Neckwear.

Our Furnishing Department

Is fairly abloom with bright, handsome Christmas Neckwear the prettiest creations that the combined efforts of the weaver and silk worm ever produced. Every shape, too, that fashion allows. There is scarcely a man, young or old, who will not receive a Christmas Tie from his wife, sister, or best girl, and we believe that if every lady who buys a Christmas Tie would look here first, that we would sell every Christmas Tie sold in Greenville.

Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost.

Advertising rates are liberal and can be had on application to the editor or at the office.

We desire a live correspondent in every Postoffice in the county who will send in brief items of news as it occurs in each neighborhood. Write plainly and only on one side of the paper.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1901.

THE REFLECTOR desires to make its best bow to the clever corps of correspondents that have contributed so many interesting letters to the paper during the past year, and to wish each of them a Happy New Year. We hope to continue to receive their letters through the year 1902.

The State has issued a charter to the Kinston & Eastern railroad, with a capital stock of $500,000. The purpose of this company is to build a railroad from Kinston to some point on the Wilmington & Weldon road near Wilmington. It will open a good section of country. Eastern North Carolina needs more railroads and we hope this one will not be long in building.

Hope of Future.

This issue is our "Finally brethren" for the year 1901. We hope 1902 will be a better year with our people than the year just closing has been; that the earth may yield more abundantly, that there may be fewer in the land with empty corn cribs and smokehouses. Counted by those things which we usually count in making a successful, prosperous year, the year now closing has been a hard one with a majority of the people of our State. Let us hope that in 1902 He who in the long ago placed His bow in the cloud and swore by Himself, because there was none greater by whom to swear, that so long as time endures seed time and harvest shall be, will cause the earth to bring forth more abundantly than it did at the last crop gathering. Our people face the coming year with faith and hope and strong determination to do everything possible to make the year 1902 a profitable one.—Monroe Enquirer.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Dec. 28, 1901. Christmas passed off very quietly. No drunkenness was seen in our town.

C. H. James' concert Christmas night at the academy was fine. The old and the young seemed to enjoy it. The house was crowded. After the concert Santa Claus unloaded the tree and give many valuable presents to the little ones.

The white and blacks on Christmas night had a sham battle with fireworks, and they had a lively time. While the battle was going on four bales of cotton belonging to Henry Williamson in J. B. Bunting's yard were set on fire and burned all night. It was discovered next morning about 5 o'clock. Damage about $20.

Fred Gardner and wife, of Everetts, spent Christmas near here with Bill Gardner.

D. C. Moore and Andrew, his son, spent Christmas with their friends in Bethel.

Z. D. McWhorter, of Mount Olive, is spending a few days in Bethel.

The Edgecombe and Pitt county boys had a nice fox chase today. Jumped three and caught one.

W. J. Rollins, of Greenville, spent Friday in Bethel.

Miss Mollie Bryan, of Winterville, returned home yesterday.

R. D. Whitehurst returned Thursday with a carload of fine horses and mules.

Z. F. Highsmith went to Tarboro today on business.

Mrs. W. J. Madra spent today in Bethel with her sister, Mrs. T. A. Carson.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

J. M. Moore returned to Tarboro this morning.

J. L. Fleming went up the road this morning.

Louis Ryan left on the morning train for Norfolk.

Mrs. M. M. Nelson returned to Scotland Neck this morning.

B. W. Moseley returned Saturday evening from Scotland Neck.

Mrs. R. J. Cobb returned this morning from a visit to Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Moore and little son have returned home from their holiday visit to Whitakers.

J. B. Edwards, of Scotland Neck, who has been visiting W. H. Harrington, returned home this morning.

Mrs. J. F. Joyner, of Kinston, who has been visiting her parents at Farmville, left here Saturday evening for her home.

Miss Rosa Winstead, of Rocky Mount, who has been visiting her grandfather, W. M. King, returned home this morning.

R. H. Blackburn, train dispatcher of the Southern Railway at Greensboro, came in Saturday evening and returned today.

Some Movers.

J. A. Brady has moved from the residence which he sold on Fifth street to one of Miss Leila Cherry's houses on Greene street.

J. C. Tripp has moved from West Greenville to the Blow house on the corner of Washington and Third streets.

W. A. B. Hearne and two sisters have moved from Farmville here and occupy the Skinner house with R. M. Hearne in West Greenville.

Roofs Damaged.

Another evidence of the danger of heavy fireworks is shown from the fact that during Christmas the metal roofs of two stores—one belonging to W. H. Harrington and the other to Mrs. M. A. Jarvis—were considerably damaged with canon crackers. In both instances a large hole was torn in the roof by the explosion of the crackers.

Book Club.

Since the organization of the End of the Century Book Club no more delightful or elaborate entertainment than that given by Mrs. Lula White Fleming at its recent meeting has ever been tendered its members. The Club did not meet on Tuesday of last week but will convene tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Mark Quinerly.

Hookerton Union.

The Hookerton Union of the Christian church was held with the church in Greenville on Saturday and Sunday. The business sessions of the union were interesting and well attended. Rev. B. H. Melton, of Wilson, preached excellent sermons Sunday morning and night. The next union will be held with Eden church, in Greene county, fifth Sunday, in March.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Charlie O'Hagan, shooting pistol on street, fined $1 and costs, $3.35.

James F. Taft, discharging pistol in town, fined $1 and costs, $2.95.
