Happy Greeting.

To my friends and customers of Pitt and adjoining counties. Wishing each and every one a happy and prosperous;

New Year.

Thanking each one for their patronage and kindness and ask a continuance of the same.

We wish to Say

We are still knocking out high prices. Our motto always will be Down with high prices.

W. T. LEE & CO.

IS THE CASH WHAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR?

Then you want the attention of the people who have cash to spend They are the people who read and you can attract their attention and their cash in no better way than by putting your advertisement in this paper.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements. And you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.

FLANAGAN COFFIN CO.

FIRE AT GRIMESLAND.

Half the Business Portion of the Town Destroyed.

About one o'clock Tuesday night fire broke out in the store of W. S. Galloway & Co., at Grimesland. The store was situated in the heart of the business portion of the town, on the north side of Main street. All the buildings adjacent were frame structures and the flames quickly spread from one to another until W. S. Galloway & Co., F. Powell, H. H. Proctor, W. M. Moore and J. L. Gibson & Co., were burned out. The fire burned so rapidly that it was impossible to save anything of consequence from the stores. Only two dwelling houses and the Christian church building were left standing on that side of the street.

Over on the south side of the street the stores of J. O. Proctor & Bro., and J. J. Mason & Co., were in great danger. The latter took fire several times but was put out by hard work. Most of the goods were moved out of these stores.

The losses with insurance are as follows:

W. S. Galloway & Co., stock $2,500, insurance $1,500.

F. Powell, stock $500 fully insured.

W. M. Moore, stock and buildings $6,000, insurance $2,500.

H. H. Proctor, stock and buildings $15,000, insurance only $1,000.

J. L. Gibson & Co., stock $1,000, no insurance.

Alston Grimes, buildings $1,000 no insurance.

J. O. Proctor & Bro., damage to stock $1,250 to $1500, insured.

J. J. Mason & Co., damage to stock $700, insured.

This is the first fire Grimesland has had and it is a serious disaster to the town. Such heavy losses with so little insurance makes it very severe on the losers.

The following business hint is from the Raleigh Times: There is no time in the year better suited for securing bargains in many lines than in January and February. They are the months in which the merchants and dealers are anxious to dispose of their winter stocks to make ready for the spring trade, which begins by the first of March, or even earlier in some lines. The wise merchant will realize the necessity of advertising strongly during January and February, and the public will not be slow to buy when the goods are properly set before them. Many people make a practice of buying late in order to get this advantage."

Farewell to Pitt County.

STEDMAN, N. C., Jan. 7, 1902.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I have spent 3 happy years in Pitt and I will ask you to let me thank the people for their kindness to me and mine through your columns.

We are now on the Cokesberg circuit, ten miles east of Fayetteville, having exchanged fields with Rev. J. J. Barker, whom we commend to the kind people of Bethel circuit. Yours forever,
A. D. BEETS.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by Greenville Lodge A. F. & A. M.

We the undersigned committee, appointed to draft suitable resolutions of respect to the memory of Bro. W. G. Windham, beg leave to report:

Whereas, our Supreme Grand Master has seen fit to call from "Labor to Rest," our brother, W. G. Windham, whose connection with Masonry was severed by death on the 23rd day of December, 1901, therefore Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. do resolve,

1st. That Bro. Windham in his social, family and moral life illustrated many of the best tenets of Masonry, and was a good and worthy citizen.

2nd. That we bow with humble submission to the will of Him, who doeth all things well.

3rd. That we extend to his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this their sad hour of bereavement, trusting that they may find comfort in the promises of God's word.

4th. That the Lodge be draped in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge of mourning, for a period of thirty days, as our expression of grief for the loss of our deceased brother.

5th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge, a copy be sent to the family of the deceased brother, and also a copy be sent to the Orphans Friend and Greenville papers for publication.

BARLOW & WILSON'S MINSTRELS.

Opera House, Tuesday, Jan. 14.

The above minstrelsy will appear at the Greenville opera house on the above date and will make a parade in the afternoon. See the following:

"Marvelous voices are possessed by the singers with the great Barlow and Wilson's Minstrels. Among the vocalists are Thos. West, the phenomenal male soprano; L. Sousa, stereopticon singer; Chas. Kaufman, high baritone; Lou. Walsh, primo basso; R. E. Mack, baritone; and the wonderful basso profundo, Chas. McArdel. Willie Rass, the beautiful boy vocalist from the choir of Grace Church, Chicago, will render pretty ballads at each performance.

Barlow and Wilson's Minstrels gave a crisp and clean cut entertainment last night, to a large and fashionable audience. Every feature was new and clever. The olio of novelties was a series of very excellent specialties."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by Greenville Lodge A. F. & A. M.

Whereas, death has removed from the membership of this Lodge, our brother, W. W. Worthington, who died on the 25th day of December, 1901, we therefore resolve, 1st. That in the death of Bro. W. W. Worthington, Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. has lost a useful Mason and a good man.

2nd. That we recognize and with reverence bow to the will of the Supreme Architect of the universe in thus calling from labor to refreshment our worthy brother.

3rd. That the Lodge be draped in mourning and the members wear the usual badge of mourning, for a period of thirty days, as our expression of grief for the loss of our deceased brother.

4th. That a copy of those resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge and a copy furnished each of the town papers and Orphans Friend for publication.

A MEAN LOOKING LETTER HEAD

Has lost many a dollar for business men. If a man is judged by the coat he wears, he is also judged by the letter-head he uses. An artistic, nicely printed letter head may be looked on as a good investment.

It will be done right.
The price for doing it will be right, too.
