STATE NEWS

Happenings in North Carolina.

A buggy factory and some other buildings at Scotland Neck, were burned Tuesday night.

Six buildings at Ahsokie, on the Norfolk & Carolina railroad, were destroyed by fire Wednesday.

Near Viands, Wilks county,
Mrs. Roxie Johnson and two small children were burned to death.
The mother accidentally fell in the fireplace. Her clothes ignited and the flames spread, destroying the house with the mother and her two little ones.

James Holt, of Holt's Mountain,
N. C., a venerable and well-to-do farmer, who has reached the ripe
old age of 88 years, and Miss Jennie Thompson, a maiden lady of the same neighborhood, who has reached the age of 82 years, eloped
to Price's postoffice, in Pittsylvania county, Va., where they were married.

The body of Ed. Brabble, aged 25 years, son of J. F. Brabble, of Oriental, was fished from the dock
there Sunday. The young man had purchased passage and it is thought while on the dock was taken with a fit and felloverboard.
His disappearance from the town created some alarm. Search and inquiry revealed nothing till George Midyette had a dream that prompted a search in the dock, the body being found. Midyette dreamed he was in the dock near Brabble and when his dream was related parties began fishing under the dock with an oyster tong, with the result above.

A Drummer Dies in a Bus.

Concord, Jan. 8—Mr. Harry D.
Smith, of New York, a well-known shoe drummer, arrived last night
from Lincolnton on a delayed train, which got in about 1 o'clock. Mr.
Smith entered the omnibus and was the only passenger. Telling the porter to look after his baggage, he sank into a seat and made no reply to the "all right" of the driver. Opposite Scotia Seminary
the driver Sam Ury, felt a slight blow on his back, which wakened him from a sleep he had fallen into, and looking around found his passenger had fallen across the bus and his umbrella had protruded through the front and this it was that had wakened Sam. He jumped from his box and lifted Mr. Smith to a sitting position and then drove as rapidly as possible to the hotel. Sam knew that Mr.
Smith needed immediate attention and on reaching the curb at the hotel, called Dr. John Reed, who happened to be standing near, but nothing could be done. Mr. Smith was dead before he could be moved from the vehicle. His body was carried into the hotel and his friends telegraphed the sad news
of his sudden death.

Mr. Smith had been on the road for nearly 35 years and was a genial, popular salesman, with friends everywhere he was known. He has had attacks of heart disease and it is supposed this was the cause of his death last night.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1902.

A lengthy and diversified program was presented by Barlow and Wilson's Minstrels at the Academy last night. The program is thoroughly clean and refined.—Richmond Dispatch.

Republican leaders give it out that no more negroes will be appointed to office in North Carolina. This is shabby treatment considering what the negroes have done for these same leaders.—Durham Herald.

$170,000,000 worth of property went up in smoke last year, according to insurance statistics, and yet we go on manufacturing matches, the cause of the trouble, as if there were money in them. It is wonderful what a small hold statistics have upon the people.—Danyville, Va., Free Press.

A Chicago man who labored under the impression that he had been for nineteen years harboring a water snake inside of him, had his impression confirmed with the assistance of the X ray, which showed the snake coiled up apparently comfortable in one corner of his bread basket. The Chicago man will now devote himself industriously to dispossessing that tenant.—Wilmington Star.

A Wisconsin girl who was jilted by her fellow, who had promised to marry her, has sued him for $5,000 damages. She says that in consequence of the jilt she has not only lost him, but thirty pounds of flesh, which she values at $166,66 2/3 a pound. From this he may form some idea of the value of the girl he didn't take, as there is about 125 pounds of her left.—Wilmington Star.

It is trite but true and deserves to be said over and over that it is not fine clothes, nor fine houses, nor broad acres, that make the man or the woman. The meanest and most corrupt and boorish, may wear good clothes, live in fine houses, and own large farms. Likewise, it is not population, nor business houses and plants that go to build up and perpetuate a really prosperous, and successful town. There is need absolutely for good schools and churches and lofty ideals of virtuous living in business haunts everywhere. The really good, are the salt of the earth. A well ordered life in the business circle is a measure, a rebuke, a check to evil and inspiration to right doing that helps with an influence no man can calculate.—Lumber Bridge News.

Andrew Carnegie will give $25,000 toward a $80,000 library to be built in Huntington, W. Va.

No Penalty for Failure to Return Poll Tax.

The discovery has been made that by the laws of 1901, no penalty is attached for the failure to return poll tax. The law of 1899 makes it a misdemeanor for failure to return property and poll tax. The act of 1901 is almost similiar, but either intentionally or by accident, the poll tax clause is omitted as will be seen by a comparison of section 38, page 74, of the public laws of 1899, and section 70, page 102, of the public laws of 1901. A Charlotte magistrate estimates that this defect, if such it is, will lose to Mecklenburg an annual poll tax of at least $5,000.—Charlotte Observer.

To Get His Share.

The systematic advertiser looks over the field to form an estimate of the share of business he can get and the amount he can create by advertising. A certain number of persons, for example, intend to buy new hats. There are others who can be induced to buy new hats through advertisements. If the advertiser has the money he will take as much newspaper space as he thinks necessary. If his means be limited he will take as much space as he can. He will always find the investment profitable.—Philadelphia Record.

When a man gets out of politics the people begin to wonder how much he gets out.

Some fellows draw on their imaginations when they have no bank accounts to draw on.

People with good intentions are sometimes like an alarm clock that doesn't go off.

Some people are such natural born liars that they look ashamed of themselves every time they are caught telling the truth.

Is there any connection between the golf walk and the club foot?

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1902.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME. INTERNATIONAL ADVERTISING CO., 503 LA SALLE ST., CHICAGO, ILL.

Over the Country.

Two trains collided in a tunnel in New York city, killing fifteen people and seriously wounding thirty-odd more.

A caucus of the Democratic members of the Maryland Legislature unanimously selected Arthur P. Gorman as the nominee to the United States Senate. This action is equivalent to his election.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Man was made to mourn and woman was made to furnish the cause.

Many a man gets to the top by using the elevator instead of climbing the ladder.

If we could see ourselves as others see us all oculists would have to work over time.

A DANGEROUS MAN.

Of all the strange methods invented by man to separate him from his trouble the strangest is that devised by one Jose Diaz of the City of Mexico. Jose had a stomach ache. To cure it he made a bolus of dynamite and inserted in it a detonating cap, to which was attached a thread of copper wire. He swallowed the bolus and with the copper wire hanging from his lips went out to seek an electrical connection. He met a policeman first and under questioning explained the situation. After an official consultation Jose was taken into the suburbs. He was made to lie down, and a long rope was fastened to his feet. Then the copper wire was made fast to a fence, and three policemen at the other end of that long rope drew Jose and the detonator apart. The dynamite remained in his interior department, however, and Jose is now shunned as a dangerous character.

She Can't Laugh.

Susie E. Jenkins, twenty years old, of Philadelphia, says: "I have seen nearly all the funny shows that have come to Philadelphia in recent years, and not one of them could make me laugh. My mother has often tried to make me laugh by tickling me, but even that won't work. Ever since I can remember people have been telling me funny stories and cutting up all sorts of capers in the hope that I could be induced to smile, but all their efforts have been in vain. No; I have never consulted a doctor about it, for I have always enjoyed perfect health. I want to exhibit myself in public, and offer a prize to any one who can make me laugh. It must be a queer sensation."

An Eagle That Fishes in a City.

A handsome bald eagle spends two or three hours every morning catching fish at a place within the city limits in plain view of the passengers on a trolley car line. He perches on an oak tree near the shore of a lake in which carp and catfish are plentiful. When his "eagle eye" spies a fish in the shallow water near the shore, down he swoops and, seizing the fish in his talons, flies back to the tree, where he eats, and then watches for another victim. The bird of freedom has chosen the position well, as the tree is on the extreme end of a long peninsula which no one can approach without being visible for half a mile.—Portland Oregonian.

The tobacco market has only light sales now, there being but little of last year's crop left unsold. Prices continue high.

W. T. Lee & Co. are giving bargains on pretty shirt waist goods, Hamburgs, laces and lots of other things that you should see.

We are having almost spring like weather again, but just wait until court comes next week and there will be a change.

The office over Frank Wilson's store formerly occupied by Dr. R. L. Carr is for rent. Apply to J. B. Cherry & Co. tf.

It was refreshing to see the passenger train come in right on schedule time Thursday evening. May it do so often.

Enterprises that will attract people to Greenville and give them employment is what the town needs. If we fail to have these people will go elsewhere.

We are mailing statements to subscribers at a distance who owe for THE REFLECTOR. We hope every one receiving a statement will send the money promptly.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—The Cuthrell house on Third street, opposite Clark property. Three rooms beside dining room and kitchen. Good water on premises.

J. B. Cherry & Co., enlarge their advertisement to tell of the marvelous January sale inaugurated at their stores for this month. You have only to read over the prices quoted to see that you do not often get the chance at such desirable bargains as they offer.

The Employees of Miscellaneous Factories

There are employed in miscellaneous manufactories in this State, Labor Commissioner Varner says, 11,760 persons, this not including those employed in cotton and woolen mills. Of the 11,760 only 422 are under 14 years. A day's work average 10½ hours. Fifty per cent. of the manufactories pay weekly, 18 per cent. twice a month, 19 per cent. monthly. No less than 49 per cent. report an increase of wages; 43 per cent. report the financial condition of employes as good, 29 per cent. fair, 14 per cent. poor, 2 per cent. bad. Sixty three per cent. oppose employment of persons under 14. The highest average daily wages are $2.08, lowest 58 cents. Eighty-two per cent of the adult employes can read and write. Sixty one per cent. report improvement in education, 51 per cent. improvement in morals, 80 per cent. favor compulsory education.

It is safe to say that the audience enjoyed Barlow and Wilson's better than any other minstrel entertainment that has appeared in Atlanta for years.—Atlanta Constitution.

North Carolina's Burglary Law a Good One.

"Four men convicted of burglary in North Carolina have been sentenced to death by the trial court and the Supreme Court has affirmed the validity of the sentence. Thus we shall soon have the spectacle of four men being hanged for burglary and not murder. That! State is the only one in the Union which makes a capital crime of the offense in question, and public sentiment seems to be strongly arrayed on the side of the law, which rests upon the assumption that a man who engages in burglary is at heart a murderer and intends at the outset to take life if necessary to prevent discovery or capture."—Springfield, Mass., Republican.

North Carolina is not the only State in the Union which makes burglary a capital crime, Burglary may be punished with death in Virginia, too. It would be a very good thing to follow North Carolina's example and inflict the extreme penalty every now and then, so as to keep the criminal element familiar with the law.—Norfolk, Va., Landmark.
