John Cox, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

John Wasmaker says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to building up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor go where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town so well as a paper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated. The man who overlooks his town paper injures himself by injuring his town and townsmen."

A San Francisco firm has been buncoing the Government and the soldiers in the Philippines by shipping them stuffed quinine capsules. In a recent shipment of 7,000,000 capsules it was found that the capsules were filled with starch, with just enough quinine to give them a bitter taste. The starch ought to be taken out of those fellows.—Wilmington Star.

We Fit Any Form.

Mr. STOUT MAN

AND

Mr. SLIM MAN.

This way gentlemen, here's your winter Clothing. Many stout men, slim men and men who require different clothes from the average man give up "ready-made" clothing in despair. We bring them hope. We promise to fit every one directly from our clothing tables—with perhaps a little alteration in some particularly severe cases. We'll surprise you with the clothes; possibly more with the prices—for, being abnormal in shape, you've had to pay a penalty to your taylor, so to speak. We do away with that and charge you no more than we do the ordinary man. Never mind how peculiar your shape may be, bring it in here and we may surprise you by fitting you, as well as by saving you quite a sum of money. Come, see at any rate.

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1901.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 20.

One of the more important events of last week was the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons—the most interesting and largely attended one in many years. The report of Grand Secretary Drewry showed that the order last year experienced one of the most flourishing and satisfactory years of its existence. Steps were taken looking to the purchase of a suitable site in this city for the erection of a Masonic Temple, and a committee was appointed to purchase a wedding gift to be presented to Grand Secretary John C. Drewry (who is to be married this week) by the Grand Lodge. Mr. Drewry's splendid work was highly commended by the Grand Lodge.

The following Grand Officers were elected for the ensuing year: Grand Master, H. I. Clark, of Scotland Neck; Deputy Grand Master, W. S. Liddell, of Charlotte; Senior Grand Warden, F. D. Winston, of Windsor; Junior Grand Warden, S. M. Gattis, of Hillsboro; Grand Treasurer, William Simpson, of Raleigh, Grand Secretary, John C. Drewry, of Raleigh; Director Oxford Orphan Asylum, John W. Cotten, of Tarboro.

Following are the Grand Officers appointed by Grand Master Clark: Rev. A. Marshall, Chaplain; Rev. B. W. Hatcher, Lecturer; T. J. Reed, Senior Grand Deacon; R. N. Hackett, Junior Grand Deacon; E. F. Lamb; F. M. Winchester, Swordbearer; E. W. O'Hanlon, Pursuivant; W. B. McKay and J. G. Snyder, Standard-bearers; R. H. Bradley, Tiler. The officers were installed by Past Grand Master Richard J. Noble, S. L. Parker acting as Grand Marshal. The beautiful jewel of a Past Grand Master was presented to B. S. Royster.

Charters were granted to ten new Lodges. Over 300 delegates were present, representing 280 Lodges, and they made a fine-looking body of men. New life is being infused into the order and it enters upon the new year's work with unusually bright prospects.

STATE FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.

The second meeting of the North Carolina Farmers' Association was held here last week and adjourned to meet here again in August next. The report of Secretary Parker showed the cotton seed situation improved, and the building of co-operative cotton-seed oil mills was recommended. Beyond the delivery of addresses and the appointment of delegates to the good roads convention, which meets here February 10-15, no business of interest was transacted.

VARIOUS MATTERS OF INTEREST.

Cotton advanced to eight cents on the Raleigh market Saturday and is now coming in more largely. Last year this time it brought 9 1/2, and yet the receipts at Raleigh are 6,000 bales less than last year. Only 8,000 bales have been marketed here so far, while on January 20, 1901, nearly 14,000 had been sold. Cotton ought to go to nine cents within a month, it does seem, in all reason—if the market manipulators will permit it.

The State Auditor has completed his report showing the "official" valuation of the tax on real and personal property in North Carolina. The total valuation is $167,449,879, and the total tax assessment thereon (at 21 2/5 cents) is $566,474. There are 27,550,593 acres of land, valued at $115,726,837; and 93,164 town lots, valued at $50,754,581; and 104,816 acres mineral and quarry lands, valued at $877,214. This assessment on the whole is of course far below the actual value of the property, as usual. According to this report we are supposed to own 174,235 horses, 136,471 mules and 1,067 jacks and jennies—bipedal jacks of the human species not included.

It is to be hoped that the efforts of Major E. J. Hale et al., who appeared before the Congressional Committee on Rivers and Harbors, in behalf of improving the navigation facilities of the Cape Fear river, and asking for an appropriation to provide slack-water navigation between Fayetteville and Wilmington, will be successful. All Eastern North Carolina is interested in this matter.

President Elliot of Harvard University will visit the State University, the State Normal and Industrial College and the State A. and M. College in April, spending two days at each, beginning with April 4th and 5th at Chapel Hill, 6th and 7th at Greensboro, 8th and 9th at Raleigh.

Judge Frank I. Osborne, of Charlotte has entered the race for the Senatorship, making the seventh Democratic candidate who desires to succeed Senator Pritchard, and it is hinted that there are still others yet to enter the race.

LLEWEXAM.

Judge Robinson Makes Apology.

Fayetteville, N. C., Jan. 17.—The trouble between Judge Robinson and Hon. John G. Shaw has been settled. Judge Robinson made an apology which Mr. Shaw accepted in the spirit in which it was given. When court convened, Judge Robinson said, speaking to Mr. Shaw, who had been requested to be present:

"Brother Shaw, we are both going over the road of life for our only and last time, and I wish to state that we all make mistakes at times, and that the court is no different from all others; that the court now sees and knows that it acted perhaps rudely towards you on last Monday, but if so, that it was without personal feeling or intent to offend; that, while I make mistakes. I hope that it was never from personal feeling towards any seeming rudeness, which I could not have intended, I make full apology."

It's better to be a back number than not to be numbered at all.

No, Laude, dear, a fisherman doesn't have to be intoxicated to reel.

Sorrow that is drowned in drink will come back to haunt you.

The man who has no confidence in himself can't expect to inspire it in others.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES? ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

Hints on the Proper Lighting of the Dinner Table.

This is the day of new inventions for the comfort and luxury of the home, even if it is also the day of the servant girl question. When you are planning your small dinner party—the adjective is used advisedly, because a big one is always a failure—be sure to light your table from anywhere but above. Just have some one hold a bright or even a shaded light over your head while you stand before a mirror and see the telltale shadows that fiendishly catch every wrinkle or blemish, every point that tells of fatigue or is not perfect in face or costume.

There come now for the proper lighting of rooms for social functions the most beautiful designs. A Titania in bronze holds a stem from which spring five graceful branches, each bearing an enameled leaf and tiny electric light, the whole being about two feet in height. Others are a boy in joyous mood, playing with a vine which he has caught about him, and from its tendrils curl the pretty lights, each in a leaf; a dancing girl, a Mephistopheles, a youth in doublet and hose, all most artistic in design and execution and suitable either for the table, where the connecting wires could be carried from the chandelier, leaving that unlighted, or to be placed on brackets or stands at suitable heights, the tubing hidden in twining smilax.

Housecleaning Wrinkles.

No home can be comfortable unless it is not only clean, but thoroughly clean. If carpets are not thoroughly swept, glass and china really clear and bright, the effect is almost as bad as if they were really dirty. A cleaner that will keep the furniture looking nice, remove the stains and soil and does not cost a great deal in time and money is a great boon to housewives. To reach this end there is nothing better than a mixture of linseed oil and kerosene. If the article to be polished is very much soiled, wash it thoroughly with warm soapy water, drying as quickly as possible. Then with a flannel rag dipped in a mixture of two parts linseed to one of kerosene rub the surface thoroughly. Let it stand awhile until you have rubbed another piece and then with a perfectly clean piece of flannel, free from oil, polish until it shines to your taste. Bronzes and bent ironwork, fenders and grate fixings all look brighter and fresher for a little rubbing with the oily rags, and the room and its furnishings that you have thus treated present a look of dainty, refined cleanliness that is worth a great deal of work and infinite trouble to produce.

Novel Use For Kites.

Kites have been used with great success as a means to stop partridges rising and flying from cover where it is wished to keep them for shooting. The birds will not rise when kites are flying above them, fearing, doubtless, attack.

Proof that it Pays.

The theory of Marshall Field & Company, of Chicago, is that "advertising is profitable only when its cost is borne by the profits upon increased business." Whenever it is practicable the section of the store which the advertising is chiefly intended to promote is charged with the cost of the advertising. As the house continues to take great deal of space in the newspapers, it is obvious that the advertising increases the business. —Philadelphia Record.

Warming China.

Where fine china must be warmed before use if there is no plate warmer pass all the pieces through warm water and dry quickly. Sometimes putting them before a brisk fire will be sufficient. In serving Welsh rabbits or any dishes that cold plates will make unpalatable use some heavy china that will stand a high degree of heat. In pouring hot chocolate, tea or coffee into a fine china cup put a silver spoon in first. This will prevent cracking of the cup as well as of the brilliant glaze that is on all fine china. The same rule holds good for chocolate pots and soup tureens. China should never have a quick change of temperature. If brought from a cold closet, it should stand in a warm place before anything hot touches it.

Left Over Turkey or Chicken.

A delicious way to use cold left over turkey or chicken is to mold the white meat with cranberry jelly. Put a layer of strained cranberry sauce in the bottom of a mold and over this a layer of the meat finely chopped and seasoned. Add more cranberry and another layer of meat, alternating the two till the bowl is full. Put a weight on top and set away to chill and harden. When ready to serve, turn out on a dish and garnish with celery tips.

A Delightful Cold Cream.

Put a teacupful of sweet cream, the thicker the better, into a lined saucepan and heat to boiling point. Let cool. Do this three times and after heating the third time stir in while hot the strained juice of one lemon, two tablespoonfuls of strained cucumber juice, half a tablespoonful of glycerin and half a tablespoonful of honey. Stir till cold. Add a few drops of any scent you like to perfume it and store in pots for use.

No Doubt at All.

Mistress—Did you tell the lady I was out?
Servant Girl—Yes, ma'am.
Mistress—Did she seem to have any doubt about it?
Servant Girl—No, ma'am; she said she knew you wasn't.

E. T. Lanier, of Kinston, who was visiting his brother, J. C. Lanier, returned home Saturday evening.

Misses Neta Hardee and Lillie Patrick, of Snow Hill, who have been visiting relatives near here, returned home Sunday.

J. S. Mundy, of Newark, and S. Streit, of New York, came in Saturday to visit Ola Forbes and to hunt birds a few days.

Masonic Funeral.

There was a very large attendance at the funeral of Mr. W. M. Brown, Sunday afternoon, at the Brown burial ground five miles from town. The funeral service was led by Rev. H. M. Eure, of the Methodist church, followed with the Masonic burial ceremony. More than sixty Masons took part in the service.

Exchanged Pulpits.

Revs. H. M. Eure and J. N. Booth gave their congregations a surprise Sunday night by exchanging pulpits without previous announcement, Mr. Eure preaching in the Baptist church and Mr. Booth in the Methodist church. We know that the Baptist congregation heard an excellent sermon that they greatly enjoyed, and some of the Methodist brethren tell us they were equally delighted with their sermon.

Died.

Mrs. Mary Whichard, widow of Mr. W. G. Whichard, a soldier who was killed in the civil war, died Sunday night at her home near Grindle creek. She was in her 81st year and leaves three daughters, all of whom are married.

Mrs. Fannie Langley, wife of Mr. T. H. Langley, near Pactolus, died Sunday afternoon. The husband and several children are left to mourn her death.
