MARRIAGES.

Whichard-Woolard.

On Wednesday afternoon, 22nd inst., at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. K. Woolard, in Carolina township, Mr. LeRoy Whichard and Miss Lena Woolard were married by Rev. W. O. Winfield.

They were attend by J. L. Mooring with Miss Bertha Woolard and J. H. Woolard, Jr., with Miss Leroy Mooring. The wedding march was play by Miss Susie Keel.

After the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. M. A. Whichard, where the reception was held. An elegant wedding supper was served to a large number of guests.

The couple received some very handsome bridal presents.

HIGHSMITH-JAMES.

On Wednesday afternoon, 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. G. W. James, in Pactolus township, Mr. John Highsmith and Miss Florence James were married by Elder Sam Moore.

The attendants were Walter James with Miss Tina Tyson, Oscar Williams and Miss Malinda Highsmith, Will Highsmith with Miss Addie Mason, W. L. Nobles with Miss Matilda Williams.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Piney Highsmith, where the reception was held and the wedding supper served.

DANIEL-ROGERS.

On Wednesday, Jan 15th, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the home of Mr. S. M. Jones, in Bethel township, Mr. T. J. Daniel and Miss Ida I. Rogers were married by Elder M. T. Lawrence. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for the home of the bridegroom in Pactolus township, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served.

THOS. J. JARVIS CHAPTER.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

On Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of Mrs. Jarvis and Mrs. W. S. Parker, of Henderson, a children's chapter of Daughters of the Confederacy was organized and named in honor of Gov. Jarvis.

Mrs. Jarvis will instruct the young people in their monthly meetings in Southern history. The new chapter will work for the indigent soldiers of the county and will be active in helping a home monument fund—in gathering flowers and decorating the graves of soldiers killed during the war, and of those who have since died. The officers are: Mrs. Jarvis, leader; Miss Helen Forbes, President; Miss Mai Schultz, Vice-President; Miss Ima Allen, Secretary; Miss Margaret Skinner, Treasurer.

The young people had a great deal of fun in cutting and eating a large cake while looking for the "Lucky Bean." The dividing line was struck by Miss Mai Schultz and Miss Ima Allen. Miss Schultz being the lucky drawer for the bean.

We Fit Any Form.

Mr. STOUT MAN

AND

Mr. SLIM MAN.

This way gentlemen, here's your winter Clothing. Many stout men, slim men and men who require different clothes from the average man give up "ready-made" clothing in despair. We bring them hope. We promise to fit every one directly from our clothing tables—with perhaps a little alteration in some particularly severe cases. We'll surprise you with the clothes; possibly more with the prices—for, being abnormal in shape, you've had to pay a penalty to your taylor, so to speak. We do away with that and charge you no more than we do the ordinary man. Never mind how peculiar your shape may be, bring it in here and we may surprise you by fitting you, as well as by saving you quite a sum of money. Come, see at any rate.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1901.

A correspondent today offers a good suggestion, that Greenville and Pitt county should be represented in the good roads convention to be held in Raleigh next month. It needs no argument to prove that Pitt county ought to have better roads, and our people ought to grasp any opportunity that will improve their condition.

Our neighbors across the line in Virginia have set us a good example for speed and justice in dealing with high crime. Saturday evening an aged lady living near Portsmouth was returning to her home from that city. On the way she was dragged from her buggy by a negro who after getting her to the roadside attempted a criminal assault upon her, being frightened from his purpose by other people coming along the road.

Shortly after President Roosevelt entered the White House a politician called upon him with reference to appointments. After the preliminary expressions of high esteem, unbounded admiration and eternal loyalty he began to disclose his business.

Found Dead in Skiff.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 21.—John L. Pearce, thirty years of age, prominent in social circles in Norfolk and cashier for the Standard Oil Company's branch here, was found dead this morning by a newsboy. The body was in a small skiff in Roanoke dock. No possible clew to the cause of Mr. Pearce's presence in that locality has been found.

His books are in excellent condition and there is nothing to indicate suicide. He had been hunting at Virginia Beach all of yesterday and was in good health and spirits.

FOR SHUFFLING CARDS.

A card shuffling machine has been invented by R. F. Bellows of Cleveland. It should make business poor for crooked card players. The device is complicated, yet simple in its action.

The shuffling machine is a metal box about 12 inches high, 3 inches wide and 6 inches from front to back. All the mechanism is inside. The cards are dropped in at the top and rest on a tiny shelf. Below this there are five small fingers, one on each of five thin steel blades extending across the full width of the machine.

There is now way of telling where any particular card will be found in the pack after they are shuffled. The same card, placed on the top of the pack, will rarely be found twice in the same place after the shuffle.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Sulphuric Acid For Snake Bites.

Those who fear snakes or live where snakes are found will find comfort in the assurance of Dr. John H. Henry of Montgomery that sulphuric acid is a specific. Dr. Henry says:

"The poison of animals and snakes is intensely alkaline, and sulphuric acid taken internally and injected hypodermically, diluted or pure, in the fang puncture immediately kills the poison. This discovery was given by a gentleman who says he has been bitten by snakes and insects over a hundred times. This gentleman takes delight in keeping snakes in his room running all about. Six weeks ago he was bitten in the foot by his big rattler. He immediately used hypodermically the acid, and it did not swell or give him any trouble. He says he fears no poison of animal, snake or insect bites if he has his acid with him."—New York Times.

Fiddles Without Hands.

In Atlanta, a small town in Illinois, lives Frank Clawson, a fiddler whose chief bid for fame lies in the fact that he is without hands. Several years ago he was caught in a blizzard, and both hands were so badly frozen that they were amputated at the wrist. Being somewhat of a mechanical genius, he evolved a contrivance out of heavy wire which enabled him to wield the bow. The matter of fingering was more difficult, but by hard practice he trained the stump of his left hand to make the necessary shifts from one string to another and from position to position. With the fiddle held in place by his chin and knees and with the help of his fingerless arms Clawson manages to play the old time airs with nearly as much success as formerly.

An Unfinished Sentence.

Shortly after President Roosevelt entered the White House a politician called upon him with reference to appointments. After the preliminary expressions of high esteem, unbounded admiration and eternal loyalty he began to disclose his business. "I want to speak to you about Mr. Blank, who holds a small office down in my district." The politician didn't finish his sentence. "What?" exclaimed Roosevelt, interrupting him. "Is that infernal scoundrel still in that place? I had some knowledge of him when I was a civil service commissioner." The politician acknowledged that Mr. Blank was still there and then turned the subject.

Two Quarrelsome Women.

A novel method of suppressing two quarrelsome women has just been adopted in Wilkesbarre, Pa. Day after day they quarreled over their back fence, and their scoldings so annoyed the neighbors that a sixteen foot fence has been erected between their houses. It was put up the other night by masked men and a warning was posted that it should not be torn down. The women were unable to see each other, but they found a hole in the fence and made remarks through that. Then a committee waited on them and said if they quarreled any more they would be driven out of town.

BETHEL ITEMS. BETHEL, N. C., Jan. 15, 1902. Miss Dannie Wood, of Kinston, is visiting friends here. Miss Geneva Gardner, of Greenville, is visiting relatives in this place. B. W. Mosley, of Greenville, is in town buying cotton. H. H. Taylor, of this place, spent Tuesday evening in Parmele. H. L. Nichols, of near Greenville, passed through Tuesday en route to Charleston. Wm. Staton and son spent Tuesday in Tarboro. J. M. Whichard and John Mayo of near here spent Tuesday in Tarboro on business. Rev. J. W. Rose returned from Everetts Monday where he held services Sunday and Sunday night. R. D. Whitehurst is in Norfolk purchasing a fine lot of team. James Taylor of near here, spent Saturday night and Sunday in town. Miss Patience Whitehurst accompanied by Jesse Thomas spent Wednesday in Tarboro. C. H. James is now on the road selling desks and so on. Mr. Powers and wife of Pennsylvania is spending several days here on account of their health. R. L. Gardner, of Kinston, is in town. Willie Peal and Ed. Bryan have accepted a position with street and walker of this place. We wish them much success. Mr. Gardy, of Marylaud, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Overton of this place. Every school house has its room for improvement. Counterfeit money that is passed is not a thing of the past. Every man likes to see the right prevail because we all feel we are on that side. Some wise men don't get so much credit for wisdom as some foolish men who are good guessers. Andrew Carnegie advises men not to let their business worry them. Good advice. If we were half as well fixed as Andrew is he would enter into a contract not to worry for sixteen years.—Wilmington Star.

Shall we always slumber? The heaven is at work in many parts of our country. It requires no argument to prove the necessity for, or benefits to be derived from, better roads.

The better the roads, the cheaper, can produce be marketed. The better the facilities for reaching a market, the better the market. So that purely from the most narrow financial view it is worthy of consideration.

I wonder the pulpits do not take it up, since a slight expenditure would be such a relief to beasts of burden.

Would it not be well—would it not be folly not to—for Pitt county, and Greenville especially, to be represented at the Good Roads Convention at Raleigh next month?

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

C. T. Muntord left this morning for Tarboro.

Mrs. J. N. Hart returned Wednesday evening.

R. Williams returned Wednesday evening from Raleigh.

Miss Olive Daniel returned home Wednesday evening from Dunn.

R. S. Evans returned Wednesday evening from a trip up the road.

Mrs. Parker, of Henderson, who has been visiting here, returned home today.

Mrs. Julian Timberlake and children, of Raleigh, who have been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cotten, of Bruce, returned home this morning.

Mrs. W. S. Parker, who has been a welcome guest of Mrs. Jarvis, and of a number of our citizens during her brief visit, left for her home in Henderson this morning. Mrs. Parker is a daughter of the late Dr. Closs, one of the most noted Divines of the Methodist church that the State has ever produced. Mrs. Parker is a lady of unusual intelligence and culture.

Good Acting.

Those at the opera house last night say the acting of J. H. Thorne in "Rip Van Winkle" was the best that has been seen in Greenville. Thorne is good, always was. "My Uncle's Will" will be presented tonight.

Quick Justice Administered.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 21.—There was quick justice administered to Neal Stanback, the 18 year old negro who on Saturday evening assaulted Mrs. Elizabeth Preifer, a seventy year old white woman a few miles out in Norfolk county. Stanback was caught red handed by a party of white men, brought to the county jail and locked up. Large mobs made attempts to lynch him but failed. Today he was indicted by a grand jury, tried, convicted and sentenced to hang on March 12th. His victim testified against him.

End of the Century Club.

Mrs. K. W. King entertained the book club on Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Parker, the guest of Mrs. Jarvis. Mrs. King's lovely home was again the scene of a charming social gathering, when, despite the very inclement weather, a number of the club members as well as invited guests were present and passed a delightful evening. Among other literary features, the poem of "Barbara Fritchie" was read and discussed in connection with "The True Story" of the said Barbara in the December Munsey. The club will hold its next regular meeting with Mrs. F. G. James.

Tom Yount Shot in Hickory.

Hickory, Jan. 21.—One of the greatest tragedies that has ever taken place inside of the corporation was that occurring last night in the eastern portion of the town when Tom Yount, a well connected young married man, was shot from ambush. The ball, from a 38-calibre pistol, entered through the upper lip, knocking out three front teeth, clipping the tongue and lodging in the right lower jaw. Dr. Chas. H. Menzies, who was at once called to dress the wounds of the victim, said, after a careful examination, if it had not been for the teeth breaking the force of the ball causing the same to range downward, the shot would have been fatal.

There is much exciting comment over the affair and there is a great deal of circumstantial evidence as to the guilty parties, but so far there has not been any arrest.

although one night policeman was on the scene at the time of the shooting, thereafter locating some of the parties in hiding, one of whom was clothed in a woman's garb. Leading up to the tragedy it is said that a fascinating widow of this town has played a part which caused a great deal of jealousy between certain parties. There will probably be several arrests tomorrow, implicating various parties. While Mr. Yount's wound is very painful, and will probably disfigure him for life, it is not thought to be fatal.
