Inventory is completed. Many things have been laid out and marked down. We are not crying out cost, but have reduced prices on all winter goods. It would be impossible to all profits and continue to be of service to ourselves and you. The store that is all the time crying cost and less than cost, must some day meet the inevitable. After the smash the store is of little service to any body. This knows when to begin sacrificing its profits, knows how long to continue and knows when to stop. Every department has suffered the severest cut in prices. Our object is to make room for Spring Goods.

We take occasion here to thank our many friends for their patronage in the past, and invite them to continue their visits to our store when they want bargains in up-to-date goods.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

Baby's Coming

McDonald, Ga., July 18, 1900.
I advise every suffering woman to take Wine of Cardui. While I was going with my other children I was compelled to stay in bed for days at a time, but this time I have taken Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught and have been able to do all my housework without any trouble. I am expecting every day to be confined. My husband thinks Wine of Cardui is the best medicine in the world. He takes a dose of Theford's Black-Draught every night and gives some to the children. He has not lost a day from work this year. He tells his friends about your wonderful medicines and I tell my lady friends to use your Wine of Cardui.
Mrs. GEORGIA LEE.

WINE OF CARDUI

There are thousands of women who shrink in terror at the thought of the baby's coming. But childbirth is one of the workings of Nature and it was not intended to imply torture and agony to the heroic mothers of the race. The woman who suffers torture during pregnancy and at childbirth has usually, by some indiscretion, injured the organs which make her a woman. Neglect of menstrual irregularities leads to ovarian pains, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and the period of pregnancy is necessarily distressing under those conditions. Wine of Cardui will regulate the menstrual function perfectly and eventually make the generative organs strong and healthy. Pregnancy and childbirth have no terrors for the woman who takes this pure Wine. A strong healthy womb will bring its precious burden to maturity with little or no pain. A healthy woman need not fear childbirth. Wine of Cardui completely cures all those troubles familiarly known as "female diseases" and equips the sensitive generative organs for pregnancy and childbirth. It will save any mother much pain and suffering. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1901.

A negro claiming to be deaf and dumb, was begging alms in Greensboro. His collections were liberal enough to afford his filling up on whiskey, and when a policeman went to arrest him it was found that his tongue and ears were both in good working order.

M. L. Dooley, a law agent of the Southern Railway, has entered suit in the Federal court for libel against the Charlotte Observer and Raleigh News and Observer. The cause of the suit is publication made about Dooley's conduct in the recent case at Asheboro where in the Southern Railway was, defendant Dooley thinking such publication a reflection on his character.

A Warning To The Tobacco Growers.

As we have observed elsewhere in this issue, reports indicate a largely increased tobacco acreage in North Carolina this year. The writer makes no claim to the gift of prophecy, and we make no prediction as to prices for this year's crop. But we do wish to warn the tobacco grower against a mistake of which many a cotton grower is now repenting in sack-cloth and ashes.

A year ago cotton prices were good, the cotton mill industry flourishing, and many a farmer in the cotton belt decided to adopt the one crop system for 1901. And he did. The result everybody knows. The one crop cotton farmer of 1901 is in a pitiable condition—in a worse plight than at any other time for years. The cotton crop in North Carolina was remarkably short. If this were all, his condition would not be so bad. But the decrease in price is almost as marked as the decrease in production. And as if this were not enough, the increase in price of food supplies is greater than the decrease in price of cotton or the decrease in cotton production.

With a short crop of his own product and low prices for it, and high prices for the corn, wheat and meat that he must buy, the average cotton farmer needs no lecture upon the disadvantages of the one-crop system. We daresay that the cotton farmers of the State will this year give more attention to home supplies than in any other year since Lee surrendered.

"A wise man learns by the mistakes of others; a fool scarcely by his own." Will the tobacco farmer consider the plight of his brother and learn the lesson it teaches?—Progressive Farmer.

Fny-Balsam Stops the Tickling, and quickly allays inflammation in the throat.

The Allies Who Have Gotten Relief.

It is beautiful and pleasant to see brethren dwell together in unity, and likewise agreeable to see allies stand together. Wherefore we are grieved, as well as amazed, to see some of the Democratic orators criticize the recent appointments of Colonel Harrison Skinner and Hon. Benjamin Franklin Keith. It is perfectly natural that the Republicans should be disappointed and disgusted, but were we Democrats and Col. Harrison Skinner and Hon. B. Franklin Keith not all orators together a few short years ago? Did we not want to fuse with Col. Harrison and his squab on State offices and issues in 1896? Did we not actually fuse with them on the electoral ticket that year? And was not Hon. Benjamin Franklin on that very electoral ticket for this congressional district, and did not all of us, excepting those who didn't, vote for him and for the Populists electoral candidates? To be sure we did, with the exceptions noted. Then what ails us now that we should object to these noble allies having relief? It is true that Col. Harrison has transferred his allegiance to the Republican party and the gold standard, but he was ever a shifty citizen, and even when "with us" was recognized as a gentleman of adjustable principles. It is true, also, that the Hon. Benjamin Franklin now says that 16 to 1 is "dead," but shall we go back on a gentleman simply because he has discernment enough to know a corpse when he sees it? In other words, should auld acquaintance be forgot? Nay, nay, Pauline! The Observer gives these recent allies the glad hand and extends them its most cordial congratulations upon having landed.—Charlotte Observer.

Cincinnati had, before he skipped, a remarkably able financier. He managed on a salary of $25 a week, as book-keeper, to build up a shortage of $400,000, and they haven't yet discovered exactly how he did it.—Wilmington Star.

Gypsies in the Valley.

Gypsies being wanderers on the face of the earth, they have no fatherland, but if there is one country more than another where they feel at home and in which they have been fairly treated on the whole that country is Hungary. Two things have brought the two folk together. The gypsies are born musicians, and the Magyars are born dancers. For some reason or other the Magyar thinks fiddling is beneath him. The gypsy is quite content that it should be so, for no instrument save the bagpipes can supply the wild dance music which the Hungarian loves so well as the violin can. Gypsy bands are thus in great demand in Hungarian towns, and many of the players make a lot of money. Let a gypsy band but strike up a gay tune, and in a few minutes men and women will be seen dancing like mad, some of them during the fury of the moment lavishing money upon the musicians. It is "the thing" even for peasants to hire a gypsy band for their private junketings, and it is said that Hungarian nobles have ruined themselves largely because of the sums of money they have spent upon orchestras of gypsies.

Kelvin's Appropriate Keynote.

The jubilee of the submarine cable, says the London Express, recalls a little story of Lord Kelvin. At the time Professor Thomson, as he was then, was engaged on his deep sea soundings work he was one day discovered by a visitor experimenting with a long coil of wire. "What is that for?" inquired the visitor, pointing to the wire. "Making sounds," replied the professor. "Ah," said the guest jocularly, "what kind of note does it give off?" "The deep C, of course," came the answer like a shot, accompanied by the well known twinkle in the professor's eye.

Nordau Likes Markham.

Mr. Edwin Markham's verse is the object of the queer approbation of the erratic Dr. Max Nordau. "Edwin Markham," he declares, "is a great poet. I place him higher than Walt Whitman, as his form is more artistic and beautiful. There is sometimes a Miltonic ring in his verses and Swinburnian richness in his rhymes and rhythms. And as to his philosophy and emotion, they are of the noblest kind. It honors Americans that Mr. Markham's poetry should have been able to create at once a sensation among them."

English, You Know.

London tailors make a fortune in New York every spring and fall. They send their representatives over from London, and the latter put up at the best hotels in New York city and take innumerable orders for suits of clothes from the younger members of the swell clubs who cannot go over and who desire to own English clothes with the English mark in the neck of the coat.—New York Sun.

He Walked.

An insurance officer who claims to be the only man in his business who ever talked business to J. Pierpont Morgan remarked the other day: "I could more easily see the hundred hardest men in San Francisco than do it again. Never mind how I did it. I walked in on Morgan at the office one day and stated my business. "How did you get in here?" said he. "I walked in," said I. "Well, walk out," said he. "I did."

Drive It Home.

Some men think that by making a great stir for a little time they gain a permanent advantage. This is far from the truth. How quickly a thing is forgotten, but perhaps they try and crowd too much into them. One event usurps another in importance, and the panorama of daily incidents diverts the mind from ceaseless concentration on one particular thing. Day by day the happenings increase in number and importance, and the public mind is ever being conducted to a new channel of thought and consideration. The necessity for continuous advertising was never more pronounced than at the present time. A passing flash causes but a moment's reflection. Permanent drive it home advertising marks an impression that lasts.—The Travelling Partner.

The trouble with people who make fools of themselves is that they seem to enjoy it so thoroughly.

PYTHIAN DISTRICT MEETING.

Tar River Lodge Entertains Royally and Scores a Brilliant Success.

The fourth annual district meeting of the Knights of Pythias for the second district of North Carolina, was held Wednesday night with Tar River Lodge, No. 93, at Greenville, and was in every way a great success. Every lodge in the district but two was represented. A special train came over from Kinston bringing representatives from that town, Wilson and Goldsboro, the latter having their Pythian cornet band along to furnish music.

In all there were nearly a hundred visitors present, Goldsboro being represented by 40, Kinston 22, Rocky Mount 15, Tarboro 6, Washington 6, Smithfield 3, Wilson 3. New Bern and Elizabeth City sent no representatives.

The first exercises took place in Castle Hall where lodge was called to order by Chancellor Commander H. W. Whedbee, who surrendered the gavel to District Deputy Grand Chancellor E. W. Smith, of Rocky Mount. Upon taking the chair Mr. Smith delivered an interesting address congratulating the Pythians upon their work.

The gavel was then passed to acting Grand Chancellor J. Robert Jordan who presided while the routine business of the district meeting was transacted and reports heard from the several lodges.

This was followed by conferring the Rank of Knight on a candidate of Tar River Lodge by the degree team from Rocky Mount.

At the conclusion of the degree work which was beautifully done Chancellor Commander H. W. Whedbee delivered the address of welcome which was responded to by J. H. Hood, of Goldsboro, on behalf of the visitors.

This was followed by several addresses: "Our Obligations as Pythians" by J. L. Fleming; "How to Retain Members," by H. H. Wilson, of Kinston; "Endowment Rank" by G. R. Royster, State Agent; "The Better Pythian the Better Man," by J. H. Hood, of Goldsboro.

A little past 11 o'clock the Pythians all repaired to the opera house where the banquet was served, each member of the home lodge taking a lady with him. There were covers for two hundred and very few vacant seats were left.

The menu, which was served by the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church, consisted of oyster cocktail, raw oysters, banquet wafers, fritzers, boned turkey, celery, cranberry sauce, fried oysters, pickles, peauntine sandwiches, chicken salad, beaten biscuit, olives, fruit salad with whipped cream, frosted oranges, cakes fruit, dripped coffee. The arrangement of the tables and decorations of the opera house were beautiful.

The banquet over, L. I. Moore took charge of the assembly as toast master and announced the following:

"Pythian Duty and Fellowship" responded to by J. Robert Jordan.

"The Young Men and Pythianism," responded to by A. A. Haynes, of Tarboro.

"District Meeting," responded to by Dr. H. D. Harper, of Kinston.

"Pythianism, its Aims and Objects," responded to by Dr. John Rodman, of Washington.

"Why We Love Pythianism," responded to by T. T. Thorne, of Rocky Mount.

"The Ladies," responded to by F. F. Dawson, of Wilson.

"The Daughter of the Confederacy," responded to by E. T. Dickinson, of Smithfield.

"The Old Guard," responded to by Gov. T. J. Jarvis.

All these responses, well as as the addresses in the hall, were excellent and highly complimented. The local lodge presented each visitor with a handsome badge as a souvenir of the meeting.

It was nearly 2 o'clock when the exercises closed, all pronouncing it among the best district meetings they had attended.

IS THE CASH WHAT YOU ARE LOOKING FOR?

Then you want the attention of the people who have cash to spend. They are the people who read and you can attract their attention and their cash in no better way than by putting your advertisement in this paper.

Advertising

in THE REFLECTOR will bring you success. Don't lag behind in the race, but let the people know what you are here for.

The easiest, quickest and best way to sell anything is to advertise it in THE REFLECTOR. Such an advertisement goes straight to the people, they learn what you have to sell and you reap the benefit.

We have just purchased a large supply of bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements, and you are at liberty to use them. If you don't know just what you want to say, we will help you get up your advertisement. That is our business, to help you talk to the people.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.

Southside Market.

I have opened a market on the Baskett property in South Greenville, just beyond town limits, and will handle fresh meat, beef, poultry and eggs. Will sell lower than can be had elsewhere. Nothing sold except for cash.
