STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

The 70-year old "student" at the A. and M. College, who has been studying dairying, is critically ill with pneumonia.

It appears that North Carolina is to indulge in a six-team baseball league again the coming season—Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington and New Bern, and two other towns will be "in it."

Secretary of the Navy Long will visit Salem during the coming Easter celebration there by the Moravians. He will accompany Judge-Advocate S. C. Lemly, who figured in the Schley inquiry, and who is a native of Salem.

The Penitentiary directors have contracted to hire "all unemployed convicts" in the State Prison to an Atlanta, Ga., firm, which will utilize them in the manufacture of pants and overalls within the prison walls. The State is to receive 62½ cents per day for each convict so employed.

Of 33 applicants for license to practice law the Supreme Court has refused nineteen and licensed 14—and the chances are that 50 per cent. of those licensed will not be able to earn a respectable livelihood at the business. The "professions," especially the legal one, have been sadly overdone in North Carolina for a number of years.

"Around the Pan With Uncle Hank."

This is the title of a handsome and unique illustrated volume descriptive of the Pan-American Exposition, published by the Nut Shell Publishing Co., 1059 Third Avenue, New York. "Uncle Hank" visited the great Buffalo Fair and enraptured at the sights with appreciative knowledge of what he saw, he tells about in his own peculiar and inimitable style.

The work is by Thomas Fleming. It is a handsome volume, profusely illustrated with over 450 illustrations. New edition now ready. Price, $2.00. Will be sent, express charges prepaid on receipt of price if your local dealer cannot supply you. Address the publishers as above.

The New York Sun of Jan. 11th, says this of the book:

The reader may make up his mind to be pleasantly overwhelmed by the opulence and vivacity of "Around the Pan," published by the Nut Shell Publishing Company, 1059 Third Avenue, New York.

The wonders begin with the frontispiece picture of President McKinley, drawn in a single line beginning at a point on the cheek bone and going round and round in a constantly widening circle, with waverings and downbearings of the pen in the proper places to secure detachment and shading. We are told that this portrait "is considered the most unique work of its kind in the world," and if there are degrees of uniqueness we are willing to believe that this is most the thing of which there are no duplicates. Of course there is text in addition to the pictures and we should be surprised indeed to hear from any purchaser the opinion that he had not got his money's worth.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

Prominent Tarborzan Dead.

Mr. Oscar F. Adams, the oldest and one of the most respected citizens of Tarboro, died there last night, in the 82nd year of his age. Mr. Adams was for many years a citizen of Washington and was also known in Greenville. He is survived by four children, Mrs. C. B. McKeel, of Washington, Mrs. W. E. Fountain and Miss Rose Adams, of Tarboro, and George W. Adams, engineer of the U. S. Navy.

A telegram was received here Saturday by Mr. Lovit Hines, stating that his son, Mr. Harvey Hines, attending school at Oak Ridge Institute was seriously ill, and that he should come at once. Mr. and Mrs. Hines left on the evening train. A telegram was received from them Sunday stating that Harvey had appendicitis. Later telegrams stated that complications had set in and that his condition was very critical. The young man is very popular and has many friends in Kinston who hope that his condition will soon be beyond the danger point.—Kinston Free Press, 10th.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

E. B. McLawhorn is quite sick.
W. E. Moore left Monday evening for New Bern.
Adrian Savage and R. L. Smith went to Norfolk today.
L. F. Waters returned Monday evening from Plymouth.
Tap Starkey came in Monday evening from Washington.
J. T. Meadows returned Monday evening from Henderson.
Miss Roxie Marks returned Monday evening from Tarboro.

Mrs. Lucy Abbott, of Grifton, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Rountree, returned home Monday evening.

Cincinnati Building.

THE REFLECTOR has received a beautifully engraved invitation reading as follows:
The citizens of Cincinnati cordially invite you to the formal opening of the Cincinnati Building at the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition at Charleston, S. C. February 15, 1902, and to make their building headquarters when in Charleston at any time during the Exposition.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:
Ben Hanrahan drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.30.
Oliver Smith, driving on side walk, fined one penny and costs, $1.96.
John Bickey, drunk and disorderly, judgment suspended on this promise to leave town and never return.
David James, assault with deadly weapon, bound over to Superior Court.

An Educational Meeting.

A conference between the Governor and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and a number of leading educators has been planned to be held in the Governor's office at Raleigh, on Thursday 11:30 a. m. The general purpose of the conference will be to discuss the best methods by which the rural public schools may be strengthened, and to organize a systematic movement to secure the adoption of the principle of local taxation therefor. Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, County Superintendent, has been invited to attend but is not sure yet that he can go.

Just a Few Instances.

Here are a few instances of how advertising in THE REFLECTOR pays, all occurring in the last few days.
One man in a short local advertised a lost watch key. Just after supper the key was handed to him.
Another advertised a stray hog taken up. Next morning the owner called for the hog.
Another advertised potatoes to sell. In a short while he had no potatoes, all being sold.
Another advertised a lost watch charm. Before bed time it was known who had the charm. And so it goes.
There is no use arguing that it pays to put what you have to say in THE REFLECTOR. People read this paper.

You Know What You are Taking When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

Everybody Realizes Now That He Was Right.

Many people who "felt out" with Grover Cleveland a few years ago and could find no abuse too bad to hurl at him, are now looking at things in a different light, and are ready to admit that the Old Man was right—that he is the greatest living American. It took them a long time to see that they had erred, not him, but it is gratifying to see that they are getting back in the old, familiar path. And there are a great many more doing this than is generally supposed.
