NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 12.

At a meeting of the Missionary society last Sunday night a very interesting paper was read by Miss Annie Lee Staley, and Prof. Lineberry in his usual logical and convincing way entertained an audience on the subject of missions.

Misses Mimie and Dora Cox spent Sunday in the country at the home of G. E. Jackson.

A. G. Cox left this morning to attend the good roads convention which meets in Raleigh.

Miss Mollie Bryan returned from Hanrahan Monday evening.

J. B. Galloway, of Grimesland, spent the day with R. G. Chapman last Sunday.

The children of J. W. Sparks have returned from their visit to Kinston.

The best opportunity you will ever have to buy a cheap buggy.—We are going to sell out our stock of 100 buggies at the following low prices: Best leather quarter top buggies at $52.50. Best open buggies at $42.50. These buggies are all hand made and none but first-class material has been used, and you will miss a bargain if you fail to purchase one of our buggies. The above are cash prices. Yet you can get a buggy on time if satisfactory arrangements are made.—Hunsucker Carriage Co.

Josh Manning saw his best girl in Ayden, Sunday.

W. A. West, of the Beaufort County Lumber Company, has been visiting J. D. Cox for a day or two.

Walter McLawhorn, of Grifton, spent Monday with W. L. House.

Miss Carrie Wesson, of Ayden, is visiting friends here.

Misses Susie Beddard and Debbie Manning spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Littlefield.

There seems to be considerable talk about tobacco fines and orders are coming right along. Keep the talk up and let the orders come. We can furnish the fines.—A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

C. D. Hooks was visiting in Goldsboro last week.

W. B. Wilson, of Greenville, and Miss Lizzie Blow, of Greensboro, paid us a very pleasant visit last Saturday.

J. Ben Higgs came to see us and spent a short while here Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Galloway on her way home from a visit up the country, stopped over Saturday night to visit her children, who are attending school here. She returned to her home, Grimesland, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Alexander, of Vandemere, spent the day here yesterday.

J. R. Smith, of Ayden, had business here Tuesday.

Our little friend, Miss Irma Isabella Dawson, of Littlefield, is visiting her aunts, Mrs. Dr. B. T., and Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Greenville Boy Elected.

In the election of officers for the next commencement of Horner Military School at Oxford, we notice that Sergeant W. B. Wilson, Jr., of Greenville, was chosen first assistant Marshal. Walter deserves any honor his schoolmate can bestow upon him.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1902.

The vice-President of the City Savings Bank of Detroit, stole something over $1,000,000 of its funds and broke the bank. That was a big haul, and he ought to get a correspondingly big sentence to the penitentiary.

A son of President Roosevelt, who was attending school in Massachusetts, is dangerously ill with pneumonia. Because of this severe illness, the President, who is at the bedside of his son, had to abandon his contemplated trip to the Charleston exposition this week.

Suit for $200 has been brought by a Wake county man against the Register of Deeds of Durham county because the latter issued a marriage license in which the man's daughter was a participant, she being under age. The girl and her sweetheart run away from Wake and went to Durham where they got married.

Mr. George H. Lacy, of Southern Pines, this State, writes a letter to the Washington Post in which he proposes an amendment restricting the right of the State to make their own rate of interest, and have a rate for all the States and Territories not exceeding 3 per cent. Low interest would help many people, but Mr. Lacy will not live to see his proposed amendment adopted.

A Real Short Story.

A well known figure in Wellington (New Zealand) streets is Jacob Joseph, the Hebrew capitalist. He drives in a stylish turnout and wears blue glasses. But he has been stone blind since boyhood, when he tried to frighten a servant girl by playing ghost with a sheet over his head. She clutched his face, and in her excitement her thumbs destroyed his sight.—Sydney Bulletin.

When It Rains.

The law connecting temperature and maximum amount of water vapor is such that a hot and a cold body of air, neither of which is saturated or contains all the water it is capable of holding in a state of vapor, may when mixed become more than saturated, so that some of the vapor is condensed and rain falls.

That Australian Flag.

The adoption by Australia of a flag of her own has brought about a good deal of a flurry in London and particularly among military and naval men. Admiral de Horsey, for example, says: "The ancient British flag is good enough for the whole empire. Why should Australia adopt a flag?"

Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees.

When it is given out that ex-Representative J. W. Atwater, of Chatham—first Democrat, then Populist, then Democrat again—has become a Republican, and ex-Senator Marion Butler being informed of the fact, smiles approvingly and says that Atwater has at last "gotten right," what is the inference? It is, plainly, that ex-Senator Butler, who used to rail against "both the old parties," is himself a Republican, as a good many people have been thinking for the past few months. The Democratic party, to which he originally belonged, and the Populist party which he organized in North Carolina and which he has since lost, can both possibly afford to lose him to the Republicans, but the people of North Carolina cannot afford to lose sight of the meaning of his defection. The meaning is that the agitator who goes abroad inciting hatred between classes insisting that everything is wrong and that he is the man and the only one to set things right, is, every time, a fakir, who is out for what he can make. We do Mr. Butler the justice to say that he has made everything there was to be made in the game. Having played it to the limit, he has dropped out and joined the capitalistic class, being now a stockholder in and promoter of a hot air company, or something of the kind while the dupes who used to hang upon his words and who put money in his pocket and put him in public position are standing around, first on one foot and then on the other, feeling very much, no doubt, like a parcel of fools.

ARE YOU DEAF? HEAD NOISES? ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the deafened ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 720 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

How to Make Walnut Candy. The meats of hickory nuts, English walnuts or black walnuts may be used, according to preference. After removal from the shells in as large pieces as practicable they are to be placed on the bottoms of tins, previously greased, to the depth of about half an inch. Next boil two pounds of brown sugar, a half pint of water and one gill of good molasses until a portion of the mass hardens when cooled in a cup of cold water. Pour the hot candy on the meats and allow it to remain until hard.

Little Strokes. A crippled boy leaned on the churchyard gate. Admiring the fast setting sun; Some children were frolicking under the trees, Rejoicing their day's work was done; The bells rang out from the old church tower; The birds caroled forth their sweet lays; The incense of blossom hung thick in the air. All nature delighted in praise.

And the boy cried aloud: "The children can play. The flowers brightly bloom o'er the sod; The bells and the birds all unite in his praise. But what can I do for my God?" He sighed as he thought what a poor useless life His weakness compelled him to spend; He never could hope to be first in the strife, So longed for his sufferings to end.

When, raising his eyes to the forest, he saw The ax being laid to the oak. Blow fell upon blow from the woodman's strong hand. Yet only a small splinter broke. Then a gleam of comfort awoke in his breast; Or was it his angel that spoke, Whispering so gently, "Take courage, faint heart; Reflect on the oft given stroke?"

End of the Century Club.

On Tuesday Feb. 4th Mrs. F. G. James at her home on Fifth street entertained the Club in a most enjoyable manner.

After the transaction of business there was a general discussion of articles of importance in January magazines. Mrs. Will F. Harding read a beautifully written paper on "The Passing of Arthur."

The hostess furnished a delightful entertainment for her guests, having puns on different books, Mrs. Little won the prize. After the social entertainment the Club was invited in the dining room where luxuries the most tempting were served.

Several toasts were given, after which adjournment was in order. The Club will meet with Mrs. Jordan Feb. 18th.

Horse Did Not Like His Load.

A man, his wife, their daughter, and some new furniture all in the same cart, with the horse pulling the load trying to run away, was the centre of attraction on the street for awhile Tuesday evening. The efforts of the man to see-saw the horse down to a walking gait, with cries of "whoa" from the female part of the cargo and their anxiety to stop the ship until they could get out and walk, made quite an amusing spectacle, which was all the more laughable when it was seen no damage was done.

Joints Like Rusty Hinges

are among the consequences of rheumatism. The sufferer can move knees and elbows but the effort makes him wince. He rejoices when a good rubbing with Perry Davis' Painkiller drives the stiffness out and brings the freedom of motion back. No wonder our grandfathers believed heartily in this beneficent liniment. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.
