THE SUNSHINE SISTERHOOD.

In the language of Emerson, "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm," and should I prove too great an enthusiast, seek utterance in the tongue of Dryden.

"Errors like straws upon the surface flow, He who would search for pearls must dive below."

On Feb. 7th, 1902, the Sunshine Sisterhood was entertained by Mrs. J. W. Perkins, and it is to her we owe our enthusiastic turn to the study of poets, hence our desire for culture, culture which redresses our balance and warns us of the dangers of solitude.

It is not a compliment, but a disparagement, to consult a person only on theatres or eating, and whenever he appears considerably to turn the conversation to the he is known to fondle. In the Norse heaven of our forefathers Thor's house had five hundred and forty floors, and man's house has five hundred and forty floors. His excellence is facility of adaptation. We must leave our pets at home when we go into the street, and meet men on broad grounds of good meaning and good sense.

The antidotes against organic egotism are the range and variety of attractions, as gained by acquaintance with the world, with men of merit.

Books are the negative pictures of thought and the more sensitive the mind that receives their images, the more nicely the finest lines are reduced. A woman reading after a man follows him as Ruth followed the reapers of Boaz, and her gleanings are often the finest of the wheat.

Another enjoyable feature of the evening was "Feeding the Blind Man," the most successful competitor being Mrs. J. J. Perkins.

Our kind hostess was ever on the alert as to our pleasure as was proven by her elaborate preparations to satisfy the "inner man."

After guessing the well selected conundrums we began to disperse, bidding our hostess a pleasant good night and trying to express to her as well as words could indicate, the pleasure of the evening.

AYDEN NOTES.

AYDEN, N. C. Feb. 13, 1902. D. D. Bonner spent Monday night here.

E. L. Taylor, of Richmond, spent Tuesday night in town.

Jos. P. Gulley, of Raleigh, spent Tuesday night here.

Miss Ebbie Langley, from near House station, is visiting relatives here.

G. W. Sumrell, of Kinston, was here Tuesday night.

Misses Leona Roberson and Alice Grimes, of Robersonville, are spending some time here with friends here.

J. J. Stroud was in town Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Anderson and Miss Mary Moye went to Farmville Saturday and returned Sunday.

Our town is improving. We are to have an exchange office here soon.

Miss Arah Davis has been quite sick with pneumonia, but we are glad to know she is convalescent now.

Miss Emma Lee, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Taylor, returned to her home in Dunn Tuesday night.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 190

There are people who will take advantage of the comic valentine to show their spite, and thus evidence the littleness of their own soul. However, just so the world does not know it they think it is all right, but the littleness is there just the same.

A sensation has been caused in Forsyth county by the Solicitor of the district indicting four or five hundred persons for failure to list their taxes. One young man whose poll tax would have amounted to $2.40, settled his case for $9.80. It would be cheaper to list taxes at the proper time, as all good citizens ought to do.

Congressman Small has received from Mr. E. B. Ficklen, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade of Greenville, N. C., resolutions passed by that board requesting Congress to repeal the special war tax on tobacco. Speaking of Greenville Mr Small said:

"Greenville is now one of the largest tobacco markets in the State, it being the largest in the east except Wilson. The men engaged in that business in Greenville are intelligent and progressive. The production of tobacco has very largely increased in the territory tributary to Greenville, and they raise probably the finest grade of tobacco in the State."—Washington City correspondence of Raleigh Post.

The same woman who has money enough to have her red hair called golden tresses can steal and have it called kleptomania.

Nine men out of ten who start at the top reach the bottom, but nine out of ten who start at the bottom stay there.

When a young man begins to know how much less he knows than he thinks he knows then he knows something that is really worth knowing.

If some preachers were only smart enough to put a side door in his church he would have it filled with men who would go in from force of habit.—New York Press.

General J. S. Carr, commander of the North Carolina Division of the United States Confederate Veterans, is making arrangements for a through train from Raleigh to Dallas, for the accomodation of those who may wish to attend the reunion at Dallas.

At his home, two miles from Aurora, Beaufort county, John R. Oaton was foully murdered by some person or persons, at present unknown, on Sunday night.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

An Apology Which Failed to Satisfy the Persons Interested.

Once two gentlemen attended a temperance meeting and on returning home by a dark and narrow lane were thrown out of their conveyance. The incident closed with these words:

"Fortunately both men were sober."

The editor received an angry letter from one of the gentlemen concerned, with a request for an apology.

He was equal to the occasion. "In our account of the unfortunate accident to Messrs. —," wrote the editor, "we stated that fortunately both men were sober. It appears this statement has given great offense. We therefore beg to withdraw it."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Precision.

"I hear you are building a new house."
"Yes. I couldn't very well build an old one, you know."

Rightly Named.

"I hear O'Brien is working again," said the barber.
"Yes," said the bailiff. "He's working for the traction company."
"I thought it was for the telephone company."

"No, the traction company is what they call the street car company."

"What do they call the telephone company?"

"The distraction company, I guess."—Chicago News.

Assurance.

"What!" exclaimed her father.
"Why, on that income you would both starve."

"No fear of our starving," replied her lover bravely. "We have figured out that you are too tender hearted to let us try to live on my income alone."—Philadelphia North American.

The Fiances.

Mrs. Malaprop—That's young Mr. Jenkins. He's engaged to be married, you know.

Mrs. Gable—Indeed! And is that the young woman with him now?

Mrs. Malaprop—Yes; that's his fiancee.—Philadelphia Press.

Dyspepsia Averted.

Mrs. A.—I sent my daughter to a cooking school to fit her for marriage.

Mrs. B.—Was the experiment a success?

Mrs. A.—No; the man she was engaged to found it out.—Judge.

He Knew.

"What would man do without woman?" exclaimed the moralist.

"Well," replied the thoughtful and observant child, "he'd have a pretty hard time, for he wouldn't have anybody to blame for everything."—Chicago Post.

Little of Both Perhaps.

"Mr. Meekton's wife said yesterday that she was never going to speak to him again," said the woman.

"You don't say so!" exclaimed her husband. "Is she angry or trying to be considerate?"—Washington Star.

Diplomatic.

Richmond—How do you manage to have your flat so comfortably heated?

Bronxborough—We rent one of our rooms to the janitor's brother-in-law.—Philadelphia North American.

Inordinate Vanity.

"Jackson loves to see his name in print, does he?"

"I should say so. Why, the morning after he was married he got up at 5 o'clock to read the wedding notices in the papers."—Town Topics.

ARE YOU WISE—A great many people suffer through ignorance. They don't know that for all inflammation there is no remedy so equal Mexican Mustang Liniment.

an easy way

and a sure way to treat a case of Sore Throat in order to kill disease germs and insure healthy throat action is to take half a glassfull of water put into it a teaspoonful of

Mexican Mustang Liniment

and with this gargle the throat at frequent intervals. Then bathe the outside of the throat thoroughly with the liniment and after doing this pour some on a soft cloth and wrap around the neck. It is a POSITIVE CURE.

25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

IT MAY BE YOU have long been troubled with a running sore or ulcer. Treat it at once with Mexican Mustang Liniment and you can depend upon a speedy cure.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

A man of strong will can make any woman do anything that she wants to.

A little bit of sweetness comes out of a kiss every time you take one off the same lips.

It isn't necessary for a man to be a hypnotist in order to get his mind concentrated on the toothache.

To name a cigar after an actress doesn't make it draw any better.

Most men are too clumsy to fall in love gracefully.

Few people are so greedy as to take both sides of an argument.

It is well to profit by our mistakes, but it is better not to make any.

It's a good thing to wear your sack cloth and sprinkle your ashes on the icy pavement.

The money some men owe doesn't trouble them so much as the money they would like to owe.

So many Ohio banks have been robbed recently that a bill has been introduced in the Legislature fixing the penalty of life imprisonment for persons convicted of robbing or attempting to rob a safe.

Rev. T. H. Pelham, of Pelham, in this State, will have a good deal to square up when the balance sheet is struck. He has married 1,700 couples and most of them young run-aways who didn't know any better.—Wilmington Star.

A Day of Horror.

Sunday, February 9, 1902, will be memorable as a day of death and devastation in the United States. The loss of life and property by fire was appalling. Here follows the terrible summary:

Paterson, N. J.—Hundreds of families left shelterless; thousands more deprived of employment; firemen fatally hurt; property loss, $8,000,000.

St. Louis—Hotel burned; eleven lives lost, many persons injured.

Philadelphia—Church of the Crucifixion burned; stone works destroyed, and minor fires.

Jersey City—Lehigh Valley wharf and boats burned, loss $500,000.

New York—Two children burned to death in their home.

Brooklyn—Great wagon plant destroyed; loss, $300,000.

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beigler and thousands of other women, and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.
Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Theford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicine, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

W. H. Cox came over from Kingston this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jarvis went to Raleigh today.

Mrs. W. A. Bright went to Parmele this morning.

Miss Pattie Skinner went to Henderson this morning.

Bruce Sugg came in from Rocky Mount Wednesday evening.

Dr. J. C. Greene, of LaGrange, came over this morning to visit his mother, Mrs. E. S. Greene.

F. C. Toepelman, of Henderson, Superintendent of the Carolina and Virginia Telephone Co., came in Wednesday evening.

Prof. H. P. Harding of this town who has since September been Superintendent of the graded school at Oxford, has been elected Superintendent of the graded schools at New Bern, and has accepted.

Another Greenville Boy Honored.

Prof. Harry P. Harding after organizing, systemizing and putting the Graded School of Oxford upon a safe basis, has been elected Superintendent of the Graded Schools at New Bern and will return to his former field of operations.

Married.

On Sunday, 9th inst., at the home of W. G. Stokes, in Carolina township, Mr. J. H. Roberson and Miss Jennie Warren were married by Esquire W. H. Williams. The attendants were J. L. Mooring with Miss Cora Roberson, D. E. Whichard with Miss Ethel Rorster, John Perkins with Miss Susie Ross, J. T. Warren with Miss Effie Ross.

Handsome Work.

Wednesday Mr. E. G. Flanagan showed us a beautiful centre table that was made by Mr. Newton, one of the workmen of the Greenville Manufacturing Company. The table is made of walnut inlaid with pearl, and in the top were inserted squares of wood a lighter color that formed a perfect checker board. The whole is a splendid piece of work.

Meeting in Methodist Church.

Rev. H. M. Eure is preaching excellent sermons in the meeting he is conducting in the Methodist church. The congregations are large and the interest good. If the Christians do their duty there is no reason why as good, if not a better, meeting can be held by the home preacher as if some evangelist was called in. If church members would be given less to worldliness, and be more filled with the Spirit, as the preacher spoke about last night, God's power would be as manifest in the saving of souls now as in pentecostal days.

Death of Dr. J. H. Baker.

Tarboro, N. C. Feb. 13.—Tarboro again mourns the loss of an aged and most worthy citizen, in the death of Dr. Jos. H. Baker, which occurred at 9 o'clock last night. His condition had been critical for sometime, and thrice were his absent loved ones called to his bedside, but through the prayers of his numerous friends, and by the aid of the best medical skill, death was stayed until last night.

Dr. Baker was in his 70th year. He was a member of the State Legislature in 1867, the Constitutional Convention in 1868, and was Mayor of Tarboro in 1898.

The Best Prescription for Malaria
Hills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chilli-Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no Pay. Price 50c.
