A REPRESENTATIVE GATHERING.

Earnest, Vigorous Young Men Meet in Convention.

The Twenty sixth annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North Carolina will take place in Charlotte March 8-11. It will be unlike any Convention ever held in previous years. Not more than one half a dozen topics will be discussed, as the Convention will confine itself to the discussion of several vital, live subjects, which have to deal with the religious life of men. It will, in every respect, be a Twentieth Century Convention. Practically every important college and many preparatory schools for boys will send delegations of their choicest men. City and town Associations will be represented by some of their leading men. Railroad men from several terminal points are also coming to participate in the Convention program.

This year the Convention will open on Saturday evening, closing on Tuesday night. Sunday will be a red letter day in Charlotte. There will be services in nearly all of the prominent churches, with union meetings at night, addressed by some of the most prominent Association leaders in North America. In the afternoon there will be a great mass meeting for the men of Charlotte. The local Association hopes to have over a thousand men present at this service. Mr. Augustus Nash, the Religious Work Secretary of the Cleveland, Ohio Association, will address this mass meeting for men. Among other prominent speakers who are to participate in the Convention, are Messrs. Don O. Shelton of New York City, C. L. Gates of Atlanta, H. E. Rosevear of Louisville.

The music will be a special feature. The Executive Committee having secured Mr. E. O. Sellers of Washington, D. C. to have general charge of this feature.

A cordial invitation is extended to every Pastor in North Carolina and to all men who are interested in their fellow men. Young men from towns and rural districts where there are no Associations, will be especially welcome. It will be necessary, however, for them to secure the proper credentials. By writing to A. G. Knebel, State Secretary Y. M. C. A. Asheville, N. C., within the next ten days, these credentials and all other information will be promptly forwarded.

The good people of Charlotte will entertain all delegates. The majority of the railroads have granted reduced rates. It would be well, however, to see your local ticket agent in advance, and ascertain whether or not he has received instructions.

Governor Taft says the Filipino women are better than the men, in which respect the Filipino women are just like the women of other countries.

Do Not Be Afraid

to look the facts squarely in the face. That cough, hacking and persistent, accompanied by tightness in the chest and spitting of sticky mucus, is a sign of consumption. Common sense dictates the use of Allen's Lung Balsam, an honest remedy, since it contains no opium; an efficient remedy, since it heals the irritated, inflamed throat and lungs, and so prevents a deep-seated cold from running into incurable forms of consumption.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1902.

Judge Purnell has ordered that after this date all prisoners sentenced to services in the penitentiary in the U. S. Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina shall be sent to Atlanta, Ga., instead of to Nashville, Tenn., as heretofore.

Mr. Harvey Hines, who was reported dangerously ill at Oak Ridge ten days ago, with appendicitis, has greatly improved, and it is expected that he will be brought to Kinston in a day or so in company with his parents, who left on a telegraphic summons Saturday a week ago, to be at his bedside.

"A dog is awfully afraid of a ghost," said Mr. E. T. Casler. "For a long time Col. H. C. Jones has been arguing that a dog was a firm believer in spooks and he finally convinced me that he was right. One night a dog came to the back part of my house and began to howl. He would give two or three loud wails, wake up everybody in the neighborhood and then he would go to sleep. About the time people were preparing to go to sleep, thinking that the dog had gone out of business and dismissed the choir, he would open his head for another song. The thing maddened me. I remembered what Col. Jones had said, and I put on my longest white robe and bath slippers and fixed to look solemnly. It was a summer night; and, garbed as I was, I stepped softly out on the back porch, got a tree between me and the dog and walked softly toward him. When I was about 10 feet from the dog, who had his head up and was baying a classic melody at the moon, I stepped out from behind the tree, folded my arms across my chest and standing perfectly motionless looked sorrowfully at the dog. Well, sir, that dog instantly developed the "biggest case of nerves I ever saw. He gasped for a time or two, and then began bounding backwards till he got to the fence, when with a long howl he started madly across the country. I cured that dog. I know him. He lived a few blocks below my house and after the ghostly episode I used to watch him when he came by my place. He never failed to cross the street a couple of blocks below and when he passed my house on the opposite side of the street his bristles were up, his ears were in the air and he was the picture of fear. Wonder whose ghost he thought I was?"—Charlotte Observer.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 19.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I believe our friend, Hon. J. B. Grimes, is doing a worthy deed in getting up the essay contest. Our boys and girls should know as much about our great people who have been so faithful to our State as it is possible for them to learn, and this will be a good plan to encourage the reading of our State history. It seems to me that his premium for best essay gives place for a premium for second best essay, and if there is no objection on the part of those interested I will be glad to offer a gold pen for second best essay. The same plans suggested for first premiums are all right. A. G. Cox.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co. are selling buggies extremely low and still they are high grade hand made buggies. Their open buggies are going at $42.50 and their top buggies at $52.50. These prices only hold good for one hundred jobs on hand. You had better come and select your buggy soon. Your suggestion, Mr. Editor, that country correspondents furnish more news items in place of personals is timely but really it is a bad rule that fails to balance. Why not make the case more applicable at home?

C. R. Robbins, of Rocky Mount, A. C. L. inspector, came down Monday night to repair a car disabled on siding.

C. A. Fair left on the 17th as a delegate to attend the convention of Jr. O. U. A. M. at Wilmington.

We are still going ahead building carts and wagons fast as we can and so far have been able to fill orders very promptly. We are also working some very fine material and can suit you in that respect.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. Sol. Jones and two little daughters, of Bethel, spent last Saturday with her daughter who is attending school here.

Don't forget the debate Friday night. Public is invited. If you get in a hurry for your fence to be put up we can furnish you with fencing on short notice.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Owing to snow we had no Sunday school or prayer meeting Sunday.

We learn that W. H. Stocks, who lives near here, is very low. Sleigh riding was all the go Sunday.

Helen Keller's First Earnings.

There is a pretty story in connection with the series of articles which Helen Keller, the wonderful blind girl, has written for The Ladies' Home Journal, telling about her own life from infancy to the present day. She always has shrunk from the publicity which follows successful literary work, and it was with great difficulty that she was persuaded to take up the task of preparing her autobiography. She had, however, set her heart on owning an island in Halifax harbor for a summer home, and in a spirit of fun the editor of The Journal offered to buy it for her, or to provide the means to buy it. When the work of writing appeared especially irksome Miss Keller was reminded of her desire to become a land-holder, and it spurred her on. Just before Christmas she completed the first chapter of her marvelous story; and on Christmas morning she received from her publishers a check for a good round sum. Her delight may be imagined, for this was the first money of any account which she had ever earned. "It is a fairy tale come true," she said. "Whether she will really carry out her plan to buy the island remains to be seen."

ARE YOU DEAF? HEAD NOISES? DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you truly and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Some of the fresh mullets lately handled by our marketmen have been of enormous size.

The passenger train came in exactly on time Tuesday evening. A good record for this kind of weather

The melting snow is causing the river to rise some, but it makes the water too cold for shad to come up stream.

Mr. W. B. James is telling of a good shot he made Tuesday, getting a total of seven partridges at one fire.

At night now you can hear the hunters as they stand around telling of the game they bagged during the day.

The snow yet covers the ground except in roadways and foot paths. Hunters say it has melted but little in the fields.

T. W. Wood & Son, of Richmond, advertise their seed in this paper. Their seed are fresh and of the best varieties.

The weather man has little respect for people's feelings in promising more snow tomorrow. We hope he will miss it.

The other churches will not hold their usual weekly prayer meetings tonight, owing to the meeting in progress in the Methodist church. There will be services in the latter church at 7:30.

Old maids and old bachelors are not the only people who have been disappointed in love.

A Second Prize.

As will be seen from our Winterville correspondent today, Mr. A. G. Cox offers a prize for the second best essay on State history as a supplement to the gold medal offered by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes for the best essay by any pupil in Pitt county. This second prize makes the contest more interesting and Mr. Cox is to be commended in offering it. He is always interested in everything along educational lines.

IN MEMORIAM

Of Edmund Chesson Taft.

The Angel of Death came on Sunday last to a bright and happy home, and claimed from among them a sweet, pure flower just in half bloom.

He was a sweet and innocent boy, the pride of his mother and to his father a joy; but the Angel of God in His wisdom knew best, when he carried this child to His Eden of rest.

His mother had taught him his prayers at her knee, and told him of God and His infinite love, and how, in His goodness, He who can all things see, had prepared a bright home for His loved ones above.

So let us not weep for our dear little Ed, and stand and sigh as though he were dead, but look upon the sweet, innocent face with joy, and think of him now as the Master's own boy.

Sweet little darling, light of the home, looking for some one, beckoning come, right as a sun beam, pure as the dew, anxiously looking, mother, for you.

At Rest.

The funeral of little Edmund Chesson Taft took place this morning at 10 o'clock. Services were held in the Methodist church conducted by Rev. H. M. Lure, Rev. F. A. Bishop assisting. The interment was in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. I. A. Sugg, J. G. Moye, F. C. Harding, J. A. Ricks, M. Cherry, Z. P. Vandyke, Frank Wilson and J. M. Reuss.

Our Luck.

As almost everybody else has been going hunting this week, the editor tried his luck for a couple of hours Tuesday afternoon, the first time he has handled a shot gun in many years. Being such an inexperienced Nimrod our luck is worth speaking of. We took an even dozen shells along. Three of the shots were misses, four others bagged twenty-three birds, the remaining five being singles. Don't ask too many questions about the kind, but there were enough larks and blackbirds in the bag to make a pie.

To Have Monkeys Pick Cotton.

A Memphis dispatch tells of a fellow who is traveling in Arkansas accompanied by several western capitalists with the view of purchasing a large tract of land to cultivate cotton. And when that is done this fellow proposes to sail for Africa, and bring back a ship load of monkeys to take the place of the Arkansas darkey in picking the cotton. He has lived in African jungles and understands monkey talk as well as he does any of the other African dialects. The southern darkey should rise up at once and protest against that kind of imported labor.—Wilmington Star.

Two Thousand Perished.

Baku, Transcaucasia, Feb. 17.—Details which are slowly arriving at Baku from Shamaka show that two thousand persons, mostly women and children, perished as a result of the earthquake there last week and that four thousand houses were destroyed. Thirty-four villages of the country surrounding Shamaka also suffered.

To add to the terror of the neighborhood, a volcano near the village of Marasy, eastward of Shamaka, has broken out into active eruption. A great crevasse has appeared, whence immense flames and streams of lava are being thrown out. The course of the river Geonchaika has been altered in consequence of its bed being dammed with earth which had been dislodged by the earthquake.

Some people never know what they want until they can't get it.

The people who give gratuitous advice may as well save their breath.

Keep Up a Brisk Attack

upon that bad cold, and do not wait for it to "wear itself out." Perry Davis' Pain-killer is a powerful ally. Use it liberally, with warm, sweetened water. Rub it well into the inflamed throat and sore chest; and when the foe has taken flight you will understand why time and spasmodic competition make no difference in the popularity of the one Frinkiller—Perry Davis.
