NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 22.

As an inducement to marriage a certain bachelor of our acquaintance has been offered a lot, 1,000 feet of lumber and a nice set of furniture. It certainly seems this is the opportunity, if the other requisite can be found.

C. A. Fair returned Thursday evening from Wilmington where he had been in attendance upon a meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Jr. O. U. A. M. as a representative of the council at this place. Mr. Fair was elected a member of the executive committee, which is quite an honor.

Hunsucker buggies are going, must go and will go. They are good goods. The public realize this fact and are showing their appreciation. These goods cannot be excelled. Come and see.

This early in the season the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. have shipped nearly 1,000 cotton planters and the season has barely begun.

There seems to be no cessation of pupils entering our school. One by one they continue to come. Enlargement of all the buildings has become an actual necessity. An indomitable will and a never ceasing perseverance will accomplish most anything, and here we realize this as a truth indeed.

J. L. Hobgood and W. B. Wingate have congratulated each other and smiled. They are both girls. It seems to be nice. We don't know.

W. L. Hurst left Friday morning to visit friends in Halifax and Martin counties.

H. F. Keel went to Parmele on business yesterday.

Sheriff Jenness Harrington, of Greenville, was here a short while Friday morning summoning jurors for the various terms of court.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard came up from Kinston yesterday and will fill his first appointment as pastor of the Missionary Baptist church next Sunday morning and night. The members of this church can truly congratulate themselves in being so fortunate as to secure the services of this eminent divine for the coming year.

W. B. Wingate having purchased the large and comfortable home place of W. J. Wyatt, moved his family there last week.

J. E. Fleming, of Pine Log, was in to see us yesterday.

The popularity of the Tyndall tobacco truck is attested by the numerous orders constantly received at the office of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

From present indications the acreage in both cotton and tobacco will be greatly increased. The farmers wish to raise more cotton seed than cotton.

Statue to Sir Walter Raleigh.

The committee in charge of the fund to erect a suitable statue to Sir Walter Raleigh at the capitol of our State, have sent two contribution boxes to Greenville in which to receive donations. One of these boxes has been placed in THE REFLECTOR business office and the other at Hotel Bertha. It is hoped liberal donations to the fund will be sent from Greenville.

AT THE CLUB.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-hour man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. In short, the store where the good dresser always finds the thing he wants without paying an extra price for style. If you are interested in Clothing and Haberdashery with character, come in.

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 22, 1902.

It looks now like Raleigh will get an auditorium. The committee at the head of the movement have purchased the academy of music building and will spend several thousand dollars improving it. Raleigh is not taking hold of this matter any too soon.

The old maxim that nothing will in the end thwart true love was once again exemplified Wednesday night in the marriage of Mrs. Cornelia Benton to Mr. J. E. Gosleen. This was the second time that marital vows had been taken by this couple. It will be recalled that a few years ago they were, or they thought, at least she, and he so claimed, married. A few days afterwards he was arrested on a charge of bigamy. He claimed he thought he had secured a divorce, but he was convicted and sent to the penitentiary. She made the statement at that time that she loved him and didn't care if he had six wives, she would marry him in the end. About a year ago he was pardoned. He secured a divorce and renewed his suit to Mrs. Benton. Wednesday night they were married by Rev. N. E. Coltrane at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. J. B. Taylor. They will make their future home in Kinston.—Kinston Free Press.

The Ill Wind

that blows nobody good is bent on errands of mischief in the fall and winter. It produces that most dangerous of common complaints a bad cold. Your cold will not become bronchitis, nor consumption if you make timely use of Allen's Lung Balsam. Take it frequently until the cough and the stopped up feeling in the chest are gone. Contains no opium and will not disturb digestion.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 21.

That the House of Representatives has ceased to be a deliberative body and has degenerated into a mere machine doing the bidding of a small number of men, by courtesy called leaders but actually dictators, has been appreciated for a number of years by those in close touch with its workings, but never in its history have the high handed and tyrannical methods adopted by the present Speaker and his colleagues to secure the passage of the war revenue repeal bill been equalled or even approached. The proceedings last Monday were a source of humiliation to every member of the House possessed of sufficient intelligence to comprehend their meaning.

Since the passage of the revenue bill the House has accomplished no important legislation. The Senate has passed the bill providing for a permanent census bureau and has fixed upon next Monday for final debate and vote on the Philippine revenue bill. The Senate Committee on Agriculture is considering the oleomargarine bill and the indications are that it will pass. It is quite probable that the committee will eliminate the clause relating to renovated butter for, as a Senator from Iowa pointed out yesterday when I asked him of the likelihood of the bill's passing the Senate, Congress has no authority to legislate in regard to the manufacture of any food product unless it is on the ground that it is for the purpose of raising revenue and there is no tax placed on renovated butter by the present measure. Moreover the bill fails to define renovated butter and it will be a question as to what is renovated and what is not.

This morning the President's decision on Admiral Schley's appeal was made public. It bears every evidence of having been rendered in the bureaucratic atmosphere with which Mr. Roosevelt has seen fit to surround himself and the conclusions bear the indelible proof of having been induced by the specious arguments of such men as Long, Lemly, Hanna et alius. Mr. Roosevelt valiantly shields himself behind the decision of his "revered predecessor" and finds no occasion for reversing Mr. McKinley's judgment. He alleges that, while Sampson was only technically in command, it was a "captain's battle." In his efforts to avoid doing full justice to Admiral Schley, however, he forgets to accord credit to "the men behind the guns" the builders of the American ships and the manufacturers of the American powder. If Mr. Roosevelt imagines that his decision will conclude the matter, he is mistaken, as Senator Mason, of Illinois, announces his intention to push his resolution in the Senate to the full extent of his ability.

Marvelous Elixir of Life Discovered by Famous Doctor-Scientist that Cures Every Known Ailment.

Wonderful Cures Are Effected That Seem Like Miracles Performed—The Secret of Long Life of Olden Times Revived.

The Remedy is Free To All Who Send Name and Address.

After years of patient study, and delving into the dusty record of the past, as well as following modern experiments in the realms of medical science, Dr. James W. Kidd, 2858 First National Bank building, Fort Wayne, Ind., makes the startling announcement that he has surely discovered the elixir of life. That he is able with the aid of a mysterious compound, known only to himself, produced as a result of the years he has spent in searching for this precious life giving boon to cure any and every disease that is known to the human body. There is no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claim and the remarkable cures that he is daily effecting seems to bear him out very strongly. His theory which he advances is one of reason and based on sound experience in a medical practice of many years. It costs nothing to try his remarkable "Elixir of Life," as he calls it, for he sends it free, to anyone who is a sufferer, in sufficient quantities to convince of its ability to cure; so there is absolutely no risk to run. Some of the cures cited are very remarkable, and, but for reliable witnesses would hardly be credited. The lame have thrown away crutches and walked about after two or three trials of the remedy. The sick, given up by home doctors, have been restored to their families and friends in perfect health. Rheumatism, neuralgia, stomach, heart, liver, kidney, blood and skin diseases and bladder troubles disappear as by magic. Headaches, backaches, nervousness, fevers, consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs or any vital organs are easily overcome in a space of time that is simply marvelous. Partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, dropsy, gout, scrofula and piles are quickly and permanently removed. It purifies the entire system, blood and tissues, restores normal nerve power, circulation and a state of perfect health is produced at once. To the doctor all systems are alike and equally affected by this great "Elixir of Life." Send for the remedy today. It is free to every sufferer. State what you want to be cured of and the sure remedy for it will be sent you free by return mail.

Greenville does not pay much attention to holidays—except Thanksgiving and Christmas—but works right on just like on other days.

Harding in Jail.

L. B. Harding, who was implicated with two negroes in stealing tobacco from warehouses in Kinston, an account of which we published from the Free Press, was arrested at Washington and taken back to Kinston. A preliminary trial was held, being completed Friday. Harding was held for Superior court under a $300 bond, and failing to give the bond was remanded to jail. The negroes were also committed to jail.

Assaulted His Wife.

A white man named Fon Pollard, living near Parker's X roads, was arrested this morning on a warrant sworn out by his wife and committed to jail. The warrant charges him with assault. Pollard has been on a spree for some days that brought on "monkeys." He had a pistol while making the assault and discharged the weapon, but fortunately the ball did not strike his wife. He will be kept in jail until he gets sober enough to stand trial.

The festive locust family will make their 17-yearly appearance in this country in June, and according to a map just published of the "dates" booked they hope to play to crowded houses from Philadelphia to Washington, throughout Western North Carolina and Northern Georgia, and from the Ohio river straight through to the lakes.

There will be "music in the air" in the merry month of June, when the 17 yearers and the candidates spring up from all portions of the earth.

The people may prepare for the worst.—Raleigh Post.

A Hurry Up Medicine.

Every housekeeper recognizes the need of effective remedies to be used in emergencies; when something must be done right away. Such a remedy is Perry Davis' Painkiller, for sprains and bruises, for strained muscles and for the aches and pains resulting from blows and falls. Its mission of mercy began sixty years ago. It is used in all countries. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

Couldn't Stand Both at Once.

The Hickory Times-Mercury says that there is not a barroom in a Republican county in this State. Perhaps that is true. Barrooms and Republican rule all in same county here in North Carolina is an affliction greater than a merciful Providence sees fit to inflict upon us.—Monroe Enquirer.

AT THE THEATRE.

Aiden Benedict's Fabio Romani.

The attraction at Opera House, March 1st, will be the popular and well-known Melodrama "Fabio Romani" which is now in its 13th, year of uninterrupted success. This fact as dramatized by Chas. M. Chase of Marie Correlli's famous Novel, "The Vendetta," itself is the proof of the merits of this well-known production. The play will be presented with all the attention to detail that marked its original production in New York City. Entire new scenery has been painted for the present season and special attention has been paid to the earthquake scene in the last act, which is one of the most realistic stage effects now before the public and must be seen to be appreciated. The company presenting the play has been carefully selected, every member being an artist in their particular line. Mr. Walter Lawrence who created the part of Fabio will again appear in the title role, Miss Martha Beauford as Nina, the unfaithful wife, and Mr. Claude Scares as Guido the false friend, being highly spoken of by the press wherever the company has appeared.

As an additional feature for this season Mr. Benedict has Miss Ollie Cooke who will appear in her celebrated Serpentine Fire and Stereopticon dances. Prices 25, 50, 75cts. Seats on sale at White's Thursday, Feb. 27.
