The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say.

BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT.

Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean Clear est of clinkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March 5. Twenty years ago the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Methodist church was performed in Greenville, the contracting parties being our life long friends, the Hon. Fernando G. James and Miss Mangie Cherry. Yesterday we were pleasantly reminded of the occasion by the reception of an invitation to attend the 20th anniversary of their marriage. We regret exceedingly our inability to be present, but we wish for these, our friends of a lifetime, a happy evening on the 8th and may the remaining years of their life be many, replete with golden sunshine and refreshing showers; may no dark clouds e'er mar their skies and that eternity shall hold in store for them its richest blessings is our fervent prayer.

The Hunsucker buggies are being rolled out continually. You had better come before the special offer on the one hundred closes.

Tyndall tobacco trucks are being ordered every day. About 200 of these trucks have been ordered during the past five days. Don't fail to prepare your rows for the use of these trucks.

Misses Cora and Sadie Carroll, from the country, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Miss Nannie Beddard, of Fremont, spent part of Sunday with Misses Effie and Hattie Kittrell.

Quite a crowd of our young people attended church at Reedy Branch last Sabbath.

Leonard Hamilton went alone to Grifton Sunday morning. He returned in the afternoon bringing a friend with him.

The tar heel carts and wagons made by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are making a reputation second to none. Hundreds of purchasers will testify to this statement.

A. G. Cox will buy your light-wood posts. Bring them along.

Miss Mimie Cox was visiting the family of her uncle, W. J. Jackson, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Anna Speight spent a short while with Miss Mollie Bryan one day this week.

Heber Nichols was here Monday.

We are going to be leaders in tobacco flues this season. Every set carefully made, joints arranged to wire together and thus there is no danger of flues coming apart. Send your orders to A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Now is the season when you should repair fence. We can supply you with wire fence at reasonable prices. We have a large stock on hand and continue making.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

The free school for this district closed last Friday.

A. L. Blow, of Greenville, paid us a pleasant visit yesterday.

To Have Operation Performed.

Capt. Geo. J. Smith left this morning for St. Luke's Hospital at Richmond, Va., to have an operation performed on his arm. He has been suffering for some time with a disease in his arm similar in its effects to rheumatism. He expects to be gone about two weeks.—Kinston Free Press, 4th.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1902.

Charles Broadway Rouss, the merchant prince of New York, died in that city Monday. He was born in Woodsboro, Md., in 1836, but first engaged in business in Winchester, Va. He served in the Confederate army and at the close of the war in 1865 engaged in business in New York, continuing there until his death. For several years he was totally blind and offered one million dollars to any one who could restore his sight. Mr. Rouss amassed a large fortune and was very liberal with his wealth, having made several princely gifts for endowing colleges and erecting monuments.

With so much complaint of bad roads wouldn't you think that everybody who has to travel them would be interested in having them better? Yet if such a thing as road tax was mentioned there are people who would hold up their hands in horror.—Greenville Reflector.

Our contemporary has unearthed the worm which destroys the chances of public road improvement, the indisposition of those who need them most to submit to a tax for such improvement. Whenever enough citizens of a community to demand such a tax develop the work can be inaugurated. An extra tax of from 15 cents to 25 cents on each hundred dollars of value as assessed for taxation would not add more than from $1.00 to $3.00 each to the taxes of fully eighty per cent of the taxpayers outside of the towns. And when the tax is levied upon the whole county the cities and towns in most of them would pay from sixty to seventy-five per cent of the full sum of tax. And yet our country friends have been the most persistent opponents of a road tax.

Strange it is, but true. Will the sad experience of the present have much effect in bringing about a change?—Raleigh Post.

A North Carolina paper prints the following: We know that talking and laughing around the grave do not disturb the corpse; but, oh, how painfully harsh and cruel they fall upon the ears of the warm-hearted and sympathetic, and especially the bereaved. Of course, people talk their business and laugh around a dead dog or horse, but should there not be a difference when we are burying a human being?

France has the distinction of having more dogs to the square acre than any other European country, 2,864,000 in all, or 75 to every 1,000 inhabitants. And France isn't much of a country for sausage, either.—Wilmington Star.

CORPSE ENTITLED TO BAGGAGE.

It has been decided, in a case in this city that a dead man has the same baggage rights as a live one in railroad travel. A funeral party, consisting of five persons and a corpse, was going from Binghamton to a Western town. According to the regular rules, a full fare ticket was purchased for the corpse, although it was to be transported in the coffin inside the baggage car. The party had six large trunks, which on being weighed, were found to exceed the limit of 150 pounds for each of the five live persons, the total weight being a few pounds less than 900 pounds. The baggage master demanded the regular pay for the extra baggage. It was then suggested that inasmuch as the corpse had a full fare ticket, the dead man was entitled to regular baggage privileges, and the baggage man was asked to check the sixth trunks on the dead man's ticket.

This was the first time that the baggage man had ever heard of such a point being raised, and he was puzzled. He refused to check the trunk on the dead man's ticket, but agreed to refer the matter to headquarters, with the understanding that the excess was in favor of the travelers.

The chief of the baggage department of the road was himself puzzled by the peculiar question, and he referred it to the General Traffic Managers' Association at their next meeting. This body of men representing all of the important lines of the country, has decided that where a regular full fare ticket is purchased for the transportation of a corpse, the ticket carries with it the regular baggage privilege of not to exceed 150 pounds.—Binghamton, N. Y., Dispatch.

Groom, 107; Bride to be, 97.

John Barlow, of Oak Ridge, a small settlement in the southeastern part of this county, who will reach the age of 107 years in a few weeks, is said to be courting with prospects of making her his fifth wife a well-known widow with 97 years to her credit. Mr. Barlow is a wonderfully preserved old man. He frequently takes long walks through the country and by his retentive memory has for 75 years been a court of last resort on boundary line disputes. He has very accurate knowledge of the topography of the country which surrounds Sloanville, Schoharie county, and Oak Ridge and Charleston, Montgomery county. He has been a farmer all his life and elected as highway or road commissioner many times. He has never been compelled to consult a physician or require the services of a dentist or oculist. He is bald-headed and his face is adorned with shaggy white whiskers. Mr. Barlow says he has drunk whiskey and chewed and smoked tobacco nearly all his life. He has two sons, who are great-grandfathers, thus making the old man a great great-grandfather. If the rumor of his fifty marriage turns out to be true the whole country neighborhood in which he lives will give the bride and groom a send-off that they will remember until the end of their days.—Cauajoharie, N. Y., Dispatch.

A call has been issued for a State convention of colored men in Raleigh on April 15 "for the purpose of reorganization and to have a calm discussion of what plan is best to pursue, and for the purpose of creating a greater stimulus for improvement in the industrial and educational conditions of our people."

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT THE INTERNATIONAL BUREAU OF EAR TREATMENT, 300 LA SALLE ST., CHICAGO, ILL.

Spring Coming.

And you will soon want lighter clothing. How about that?

Last Spring Suit

you placed away for another season? Get it out now and bring it down for a cleaning and overhauling. Can make it look like a new suit. Don't wait until warm weather brings on the rush but come while you can be served promptly. Any kind of tailor work done.

PAUL METRICK, The Tailor.

Drawing Trade.

By bold and increasing advertising in the newspapers a New York store has grown from a little neighborhood shop to a great department concern. It is miles away from the shopping section of the city, but it draws people from all quarters. It has been proved that people will go out of their way to deal at a place which is noted for the extent, variety, quality or prices of its goods and the courtesy and promptness of its salesmen; and which at the same time is full and persistently advertised.—Philadelphia Record.

Merely a Reminder.

Bear in mind that Perry Davis' Painkiller is just as good for internal as for external troubles. It will stop the agonizing cramps in the bowels which follow exposure to cold and wet when taken internally and will cure strains, sprains and bruises when applied externally. It should be administered in warm water, slightly sweetened. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis.

Greenville, N. C.

HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT

This department is being added to all the time. Nearly every day there is something new. We will only call your attention to a few specialties.

Nickle Plated Ware.

This is the most serviceable ware you can get. It is a heavy nickle plate on a copper body, so it is almost indestructible. We have this ware in coffee and tea pots different sizes, butter and sugar dishes, milk and water pitchers serving dishes, syrup pots, cuspidors, waiters, &c. If you use this ware once you will never want any other kind for it is the best.

Crockery and China Ware.

It is no use to say anything about this department for everybody knows we are the crockery people in this part of the world. We always carry a large stock and you can select the pieces for a

Dinner and Tea Set to suit yourself, which is much better than having to buy what you do not want. Did you ever use any of these new goods in Anti-Rust Ware.

It is guaranteed never to rust. Come in and ask for it. In fact we carry almost everything needed to fit up your kitchen, bedroom, sitting-room, or parlor. All we want you to do is to come in and call for what you want. We try to keep the very best in each of our departments and think we can please you both in price and quality. All we ask is a trial.

While Wise Doctors

are studying the bacillus of consumption, thoughtful laymen realize that a bad cold accompanied by coughing, sore throat and tightness across the chest is too serious a matter for delay or experiment. They also realize that Allen's Lung Balsam cures a common cold in a day or two. Obstinate cases take more time, of course.
