Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

The Sun is Seldom on Time.

The sun does not keep good time. He is almost always too slow. Once about the middle of April he is just on time, then not again before the middle of June.

At the beginning of September he joins the clock a third time, and lastly once more late in December. Now it would seem as if he were startled at the way he had neglected us.

In February he fell back until he was fifteen minutes late. By the beginning of March he had made up five minutes of his loss, and before the month is over he will have caught up to within five minutes of the schedule.

meanwhile the days have been growing longer very rapidly. We begin March with our nights longer than our days. We end it with our days longer than our nights. In the one month we have added to the length of our day an hour and twenty minutes, a bigger gain than any other month can show. — Professor S. C. Schmucker, in the March Ladies' Home Journal.

The lazy man seldom has a chance to rest on his laurels.

No, Maude, dear; drum music is not sold by the pound.

Success sometimes depends upon the things we don't do.

Learn to expect the unexpected and it will never happen.

The cornet player is scarcely a horny handed son of toil.

The milkman doesn't know much about the cream of society.

The sweetest music to the egoist is when he blows his own horn.

The trouble about justice is that very often we don't like it when we get it.

It's the thoughtless people who think only of themselves.

The young man who sows his wild oats depends upon irrigation.

The long marriage engagement is indeed a slow match.

HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT

This department is being added to all the time. Nearly every day there is something new. We will only call your attention to a few specialties.

Nickle Plated Ware.

This is the most serviceable ware you can get. It is a heavy nickle plate on a copper body, so it is almost indestructible. We have this ware in coffee and tea pots different sizes, butter and sugar dishes, milk and water pitchers serving dishes, syrup pots, cuspidors, waiters, &c. If you use this ware once you will never want any other kind for it is the best.

Crockery and China Ware.

It is no use to say anything about this department for everybody knows we are the crockery people in this part of the world. We always carry a large stock and you can select the pieces for a

Dinner and Tea Set

to suit yourself, which is much better than having to buy what you do not want. Did you ever use any of these new goods in Anti-Rust Ware.

It is guaranteed never to rust. Come in and ask for it. In fact we carry almost everything needed to fit up your kitchen, bedroom, sitting-room, or parlor. All we want you to do is to come in and call for what you want. We try to keep the very best in each of our departments and think we can please you both in price and quality. All we ask is a trial.

Monument Fund.

Not many coins have been dropped in the contribution boxes placed in THE REFLECTOR business office and at Hotel Bertha to receive donations to the Sir Walter Raleigh monument fund. The fund ought to grow faster in a town like Greenville.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

FARMVILLE, N. C., Mar. 7.

Ray West, of Fieldsboro, went to Tarboro Wednesday and returned Thursday.

Miss Emma Potter, of Snow Hill, who has been visiting Mrs. A. D. Hill, left for Baltimore this morning where she will purchase her spring millinery.

If our commissioners would place an annual tax of $1 on the worthless, vagabond dogs that trace about over town and run after the buggies, many of them would be killed, while the income from those remaining, if used to level the rough bridges, and fill in around the tiling, would add greatly to the comfort of all.

Jesse Speight and B. W. Moseley, of Greenville, were in town yesterday.

A distinguished educator recently visiting here, said, "This is the best place I could mention to build a fine, permanent school." Owning property elsewhere, he said, was all that kept him from coming here.

Miss Pearl Moore and Mrs. W. R. Horne are visiting friends and relatives in Greenville.

The college is not in operation now. The other schools are full. The school facilities are very inadequate and many children are staying at home because there is no where to go.

I will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting taxes due for the year 1901:

C. D. Smith's Store, Beaver Dam Township, Monday, March 10 at 10 a. m.

Farmville, Monday, Mar. 10, at 12 o'clock.

Falkland, Wednesday, Mar. 12. Gum Swamp church, Belvoir township, Thursday, Mar. 13, at 9 a. m.

Bethel, Thursday, Mar. 13, at 12 o'clock.

Stokes, Carolina township, Friday, Mar. 14.

Pactolus, Friday, Mar. 14.

Ayden, Contentnea township, Friday, Mar. 14.

Johnson's Mills, Switt Creek township, Friday Mar. 14.

Grimesland, Chicod township, Friday, Mar. 14.

Under the law this is the last call for taxes before adding cost. All who fail to pay by March 15, will be levied on and the cost added to their taxes.

The Constitutional Amendment provides that no one can vote who fails to pay his poll tax.

Pay your taxes in time to save costs and to save your vote.

Sheriff.
