The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say.

BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT.

Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean a clear rest of linkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

THE RALEIGH STATUE.

Contribution from School Children Suggested.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

As a teacher it gives me great pleasure to know that an effort is being made to erect a statue in Raleigh to the memory of Sir Wal-eigh.

Allow me to offer the suggestion that the school children of Pitt county make a special contribution to the fund being raised for this purpose.

I am sure if each teacher will lay the matter before his or her pupils, it would be but a pleasure to our school children to contribute something for this worthy work.

I feel sure the editor of THE REFLECTOR, who already has boxes in charge to receive contributions for the statue, would also receive and forward a special donation coming from the schools of the county.

W. F. EVANS.

[It will give THE REFLECTOR pleasure to receive and forward such donations as the school children make, and the name of the school contributing will be forwarded with amount to the committee at Raleigh.—Ed.]

Meeting Closed.

The meeting which has been in progress in the Methodist church for the past four weeks closed Sunday night. Notwithstanding the snow and rain the congregations were good, and interest manifested all through it. Visible results: Six professions and five accessions. Rev. Mr. Enre greatly endeared himself to the people by his faithfulness and interest in their salvation.

Adam and Eve belonged to the very "first family," and yet they were never heard to boast of their aristocratic ancestry.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of in the privacy of their homes. You can be cured without distressing publicity. With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

Belen, Miss., March 9, 1900.
I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theford's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicines I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.

MONDAY, MARCH 10, 1902

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 10.

There will be no bill passed by this Congress designed to reduce Southern representation in Congress. Senator Pritchard writes to a Republican paper, the Hendersonville Times, to that effect, and among other things, says: "The Crumpacker measure is the only one now pending before Congress, and I am opposed to that. I shall be able to deal with other measures as they arise. You may say to all that I am unalterably opposed to a force bill or anything akin to it. I think we are capable of working out our own destiny if let alone."

Senator Pritchard, it has been granted, could defeat such legislation if he so desired, and now it is settled that he has already practically done so—to his credit be it said.

EXPOSING INSURANCE FRAUDS.

Apropos of the vigorous efforts which Commissioner of Insurance Young has been making to protect the insurable public of this State from the illegal machinations of unsoond insurance companies, which operate through methods that cheat the State out of revenue also, it is encouraging to note that our people are waking up to the injury they are doing themselves and the irreparable injustice done their families by patronizing such frauds and are patronizing only the best companies. By the way, the company that probably does the largest business in North Carolina at this time, the Old Mutual Benefit, of Newark, N. J., has sent out its annual statement for last year, and the figures presented must make a man feel secure if he is insured in a company like that. For instance, the company's assets amount to $76,839,027.69. Receipts from premiums in 1901, over $11,000,000. Number of policies written last year, 18,589, insuring policy-holders to the amount of $38,849,699. Total amount of insurance in force January 1, 1902, $294,368,51. Paid claims caused by death of policy-holders, endowments, annuities, etc., last year, $8,337,836.34. There is no sounder or better company in the world than the Old Mutual Benefit, which has been doing business for fifty-seven years. The new President, Hon. Frederick Frelinghuysen, is one of the greatest financiers and most successful business men in the United States.

VARIOUS MATTERS OF INTEREST.

It having been "norated around" that Senator Simmons favored Locke Craig's candidacy for the United States Senatorship, Mr. Simmons desires it to be stated that he is not taking sides in the fight this year and will not exert himself for or against either of the candidates—I believe there were seven or eight at the last round up.

Reaping the Harvest.

Sin or shame in young or old is always to be deplored. And it is especially sad to see a young person's life ruined by a sinful act, and sad to see a young being reaping a harvest that has been sown in a moment, but when that being has an old gray-haired mother who must go out with her loved one into the harvest field under the scorching sun and with him reap the harvest, or alone, in the bitterness of her grief sit at her fireside while the darkness gathers about her and the winds tell her of the sins of her darling child. Last week a young man of good family, just entering noble manhood who had sown his seed in a moment, crossed the threshold of our State penitentiary for a long term, leaving an old mother at home, who bade him good-bye with a broken heart, as she wailed, "My baby, my baby boy, how can you leave your poor old mother, so lonely, my poor baby boy." To her he was the same little fellow that had gone to sleep in her arms just a few years ago, but to the world he was the last young man, who in a moment of drunken anger had murdered his friend. Long after her dear old back shall have become bent with reaping, the harvest will still be unfinished.—Burlington News.

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1902. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. Then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL BUREAU, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT

This department is being added to all the time. Nearly every day there is something new. We will only call your attention to a few specialties.

Nickle Plated Ware.

This is the most serviceable ware you can get. It is a heavy nickle plate on a copper body, so it is almost indestructible. We have this ware in coffee and tea pots different sizes, butter and sugar dishes, milk and water pitchers serving dishes, syrup pots, cuspidors, waiters, &c. If you use this ware once you will never want any other kind for it is the best.

Crockery and China Ware.

It is no use to say anything about this department for everybody knows we are the crockery people in this part of the world. We always carry a large stock and you can select the pieces for a

Dinner and Tea Set

to suit yourself, which is much better than having to buy what you do not want. Did you ever use any of these new goods in Anti-Rust Ware.

It is guaranteed never to rust. Come in and ask for it. In fact we carry almost everything needed to fit up your kitchen, bedroom, sitting-room, or parlor. All we want you to do is to come in and call for what you want. We try to keep the very best in each of our departments and think we can please you both in price and quality. All we ask is a trial.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. James' Twentieth Marriage Anniversary.

It is not of often occurrence in North Carolina that a paper prints the marriage of a couple, and then twenty years later the same paper gives account of the anniversary of the same couple. But THE REFLECTOR has that privilege today.

In THE EASTERN REFLECTOR on the 15th of March, 1882, was an article from which we now take the following extract: "The marriage of our talented young townsman, Fernando G. James, Esq., to Miss Mangie, eldest daughter of our esteemed County Treasurer, James B. Cherry, Esq., took place in the Methodist church in this place, Wednesday, March 8th, 1882, at 8:30 o'clock P. M. * * * The bridal party, consisting of thirteen couples, filled up each aisle, keeping perfect time to the wedding march skillfully played by Mrs. Ada M. Cherry. They were as follows: Chas. Dozier, of Tarboro, with Miss Bettie Sutton, of Greenville; L. V. Morrill, of Greenville, with Miss Van Jenkins, of Edgecombe; Richard Williams, Jr., with Miss Lelia Cherry, both of Greenville; C. M. Bernard, of Greenville, with Miss Carrie Caldwell, of Greensboro; Andrew Joyner with Miss Maggie Cherry, both of Greenville; W. L. Brown, of Greenville, with Miss Annie Jones, of Greensboro; W. B. Wilson with Miss Lula Dancy, both of Greenville; W. B. Brown, of Greenville, with Miss Lula Borden, of Goldsboro; J. D. Pearce, of Greenville, with Miss Emma Langley, of Pactolus; Thomas McKay, of Clinton, with Miss Bettie Dancy, of Greenville; D. L. James with Miss Nina Cherry, both of Greenville. * * * The bride entered with her father, and the groom with his best man, Col. I. A. Sugg. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the bride's father's."

Twenty years is a long time, yet seems all too quick when it is past. For Mr. and Mrs. F. G. James these years have been full of happiness and prosperity, bringing to them honors in life, and the warmest esteem of a wide circle of friends.

On Saturday evening, March 8th, they celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage. They had with them several of those who participated at their marriage, as those of our readers familiar with the names and changes wrought by marriage can see.

The elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. James, on Fifth street, was a scene of beauty on this occasion. Approaching the house the front was brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns. The decorations and color effects of the parlor were white, of the library red, and of the dining-room pink.

At the door the guests were welcomed by W. B. Wilson with Mrs. M. M. Nelson, who directed them to the parlor, in the west end of which stood Senator and Mrs. James under a large canopy of white chrysanthemums, their faces as happy as twenty years ago. In this room they were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cherry, Mrs. A. C. Davis (formerly Miss Borden) of Goldsboro and Mrs. J. W. Goodwin (formerly Miss Bettie Dancy) of Philadelphia.

Returning to the hall from the parlor the guests were served with lemonade by Burt James with little Miss Mary Goodwin, of Philadelphia and Blount Pearce with little Miss Mary James.

At the entrance to the library R. L. Carr with Miss Bessie Jarvis greeted the guests and directed them to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Little and J. B. Cherry, Jr., with Miss

Under the law this is the last call for taxes before adding cost. All who fail to pay by March 15, will be levied on and the cost added to their taxes.

The Constitutional Amendment provides that no one can vote who fails to pay his poll tax.

Pay your taxes in time to save costs and to save your vote.

O. W. HARRINGTON, Sheriff.

Ada Wooten who served pickled oysters. In this same room were also displayed the gifts to Mr. and Mrs. James from their host of friends. These gifts were all in china, more than a hundred and twenty-five in number, and remarkably beautiful.

C. B. Mayo with Miss Nina James next took charge of the guests and ushered them into the dining room. Here was a large candelabra with twenty lights, underneath which was a handsomely decorated table from which Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Ragsdale (formerly Miss Bettie Sutton) R. Williams with Miss Leila Cherry and Mrs. Lula Cleve (formerly Miss Dancy) served salads, sandwiches, cheese wafers, olives and biscuits. Ices were served by C. M. Jones with Miss Clara Bruce Forbes, T. M. Hooker with Miss Pattie Skinner, and W. H. Dall with Miss Louise Latham.

There was a large attendance at the reception, and it was about the handsomest assemblage ever seen in Greenville.

All wish Senator and Mrs. James many more happy anniversary of their marriage.
