The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say.

BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT.

Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean Clear rest of clinkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

WHITE QUILTS.

A Financier.

Not long ago a western Kansas politician was asked by his wife to lay aside politics long enough one day to dig the potatoes in the garden. He consented, and, after digging for a few minutes, went into the house and said he had found a coin. He washed it off, and it proved to be a silver quarter. He put it in his jeans and went back to work. Presently he went to the house again and said that he had found another coin. He washed the dirt off it, and this time it was a silver half dollar. He put it in his jeans.

"I have worked pretty hard," said he to his wife. "I guess I'll take a short nap."

When he awoke he found that his wife had dug all the rest of the potatoes. But she found no coins. It then dawned upon her that she had been "worked."—Argonaut.

Reaching the Homes.

In Printers' Ink an experienced advertiser deplors the disposition of new advertisers to use the magazines instead of the daily newspapers, since they are sure to form a poor opinion of the results of good advertising. He concludes thus: "General advertisers are just beginning to awaken to the power of the daily press. In the past few years some of the leading advertisers have left the magazines almost entirely for the daily newspaper. The advertisers who sell for home consumption first broke ranks and employed mediums which reach the homes first and most often—the daily press."—Philadelphia Record.

The Schools Must Continue.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, County Superintendent, publishes a notice giving an order of the County Board of Education that the school committeemen of the several districts keep the public schools open until all the money apportioned to their respective districts is used. It seems that in several districts this order has been disregarded and the committeemen have caused the schools to be closed. It looks strange, to say the least, that those committeemen, when the money is given to their districts, are not willing to have the schools open as the law directs.

Girl Stolen by Father.

A very singular occurrence happened in Grove township last Friday. Mr. Willie Turnage, of that section, had won the affections of a Miss Fowler, and it seems that the father was willing to the match but the rest of the family were not. The father being determined to let love take its course stole the girl from his own home and took her to the home of Mr. McKinsey, where she was joined in marriage to Mr. Turnage. He is 19 years of age and the bride is also of 19 summers. Elder Turner performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends.—Dunn Banner.

The trouble with most people who can't sing is that they don't know it.

You Know What You are Taking. When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

Beauty is Health.

Walnut Lake, Ark., June 3, 1900.

I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody. After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the menses, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before.

Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL.

Womanly health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form. This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering. Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of those terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb! Beauty flees quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face. Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. Every druggist in this city handles $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1902.

The latest heard from the Wilcox trial at Elizabeth City today was that the Judge was delivering his charge to the jury. The result of the trial will probably be known tomorrow.

President Roosevelt has engaged a professional wrestler to go to the White House twice a day and have a tussle with him. The President's reason given for this is that he is getting too fat and wants the exercise to keep his flesh down. A few hours with an axe at the wood pile or with a hoe in the garden might serve as good a purpose, if not be quite so sporty.

At the recent term of Brunswick county Superior court Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson sentenced a white man to three years in the penitentiary and a negro to five years. Later as Judge Robinson was passing the jail on his way to the court house the two prisoners called him through the window, hurled vile epithets at him and defied him in most abusive terms. Judge Robinson ordered the prisoners brought back in court, and learning they had also been giving the sheriff much trouble he changed their sentences to seven years.

The fact that Pres. McKinley's doctors' bill will exceed $100,000 makes it clear enough that we shall have a congressional debate quite as sharp as anything that arose over Garfield's physicians. If the doctors get their haul it will not be until they hear what is thought of their grasping demands.—Kinston Free Press.

Quite true, but the aforesaid doctors will not care a fig what is said about them or how much they are held up to public scorn, just so they get the money. In this day the money pile is esteemed more highly than honor. It matters not how the money comes, just so it comes, the man who has it is worshipped according to the size of his pile. Good, old fashioned honesty is a scarce article.

Let it be known that a man is entitled to a receipt from the sheriff for his poll tax for 1901 by paying that tax, although he does not pay any other tax that he may owe. A delinquent may pay only his poll tax for 1901, although he owes other taxes, and on demand the the sheriff is obliged to give the required receipt. Don't forget this.—Pittsboro Record.

NOTICE.

To School Committeemen Pitt County.

At the meeting of the Board of Education held on the 1st day of February an order was passed directing the various committees of the County to continue their schools until they had taught out what money had been apportioned to the schools for this year. This order was put on each notice sent the Committees at that time. Some of the committeemen have disregarded this order and closed their schools. You are hereby notified again that it is the order of the Board that you continue your schools until the money apportioned has been used.

March 19, 1902.

W. H. RAGSDALE, Co. Supt. Schools.

Farmers are leaving certain parts of this state for other sections of the country and while we wish them all prosperity, we know that nine out of ten will meet disappointment. Many men have left the state and returned with fortunes, but many more have become too poor to get back. It is not so much in the locality as in man, yet if a man cannot make more than a living in a country that grows everything that he consumes there is small chance for him anywhere.—Durham Herald.

The New York Journal places Senator Simmons in the list of Senators favoring the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people, and places Senator Pritchard among those who are playing mum on the subject. The Journal's poll classes the present Senators as follows: For popular election, 31; against, 19; non committal, 24. Divided into parties, 15 Democrats, 13 Republicans, 1 Silver and 1 Fusionist favor election; 5 Democrats and 14 Republicans, oppose, and 4 Democrats and 20 Republicans are non-committal. McLaurin, of South Carolina, is counted among the Democrats in the non committal list.—Winston Sentinel.

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you cordially and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 729 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. The other day a priest presented himself to the cashier of the Parker House, in Boston, and handed him $50, for which he asked a receipt. When asked to whose account the money should be credited the priest replied that it came from one of his flock, who had requested him to hand it to the Parker House cashier, and to have it credited to the conscience fund, without revealing the identity of the person for whom he was acting. The money was credited as directed.

The Lambs that Wait for Mary.

Under the above heading the Michigan Ledger gets off the following as a true story, told in verse about Mary's little lamb, up to date:

"Mary had a little lamb, it followed her to church, and stood around the door like an owl upon its perch. Why don't the little lamb come in, the watchful people cried? Why Mary told the silly thing to watch for her outside. So you each gentle maiden, may one and all still find some sheephead waiting near the door, if you admire that kind."

The above should be read and fully digested by those who stand around church doors on Sundays, also by Mary, who is on the inside.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We the undersigned, constituting the Local Board of Underwriters, in the town of Greenville, N. C., and Pitt county, hereby give notice that on account of excessive fire losses caused by the use of Terra Cotta flues, we cannot accept risks in or on any building in which there is a Terra Cotta flue, or a brick flue improperly constructed. So many fires originate from this source that all of the first class Companies condemn them as a menace to property, and the insuring public carrying as they do, one fourth of the value of the property insured, it is to their interest to have brick flues safely arranged.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

H. E. Johns, of Raleigh, is here for a day or two.

J. B. Cherry, Jr., left this morning for Baltimore.

Jesse Speight returned from Norfolk Thursday evening.

R. O. Jeffress returned Thursday evening from Tarboro.

Miss Eula Quinn came home this morning from Winterville.

Frank Cowell came up from Washington Thursday to visit his parents.

Donnell Gilliam, of Tarboro, came down Thursday evening to attend court.

Mesdames W. H. White and W. M. Brown returned Thursday evening from Baltimore.

A. A. Forbes returned this morning from Winterville where he had been instructing the new brass band.

Mrs. H. L. Fennell and children, of Wilmington, arrived Thursday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. H. A. White.

Rev. H. M. Eure went to Ayden Thursday evening to assist his brother in a meeting the latter is conducting there.

Mrs. J. W. Goodwin and two children, of Philadelphia, who have been visiting relatives here, left this morning for their home.

The S. S. Society.

The S. S. Society met with Miss Blanche Managan at her home on Fifth street March 7th, 1902. There were ten members and two visitors present.

After the business of the hour had been satisfactorily disposed of all present entered into the fun of the evening with lively interest.

First on the program was the usual quotation contest, Miss Lina Sheppard, being the successful contestant, carried off the first prize.

Next came twelve famous American Beauties, and, as Mrs. Bootn guessed the greatest number of these, won the second prize.

At ten o'clock dainty refreshments were served by our fair hostess, who left nothing undone that could give pleasure to her guests.

All too soon came the hour for dispersing and it was with much reluctance that we bade each other good-night. REPORTER.

Our Old Men.

Among the names of the greatest North Carolinians who are still active and useful, upon whose head has fallen the snow that never melts, may be named our two honored and able ex-United States Senators, Matthew W. Ransom and Thomas J. Jarvis, both in vigorous health, leading in all enterprises that call for wisdom and active effort. In every line of business and profession in North Carolina among the most active and progressive will be found men over seventy. They have faith in the future, they are planting trees whose fruit they will never eat and setting an example of thrift and industry that young men will do well to emulate.—News and Observer.
