MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE.

This is the Verdict Against Wilcox.

A little past 10 o'clock Saturday night the jury on the case against Jim Wilcox, charged with the murder of Miss Nell Cropsey, rendered a verdict that the prisoner was guilty of murder in the first degree.

Judge Jones in passing sentence upon Wilcox set April 25th as the day of execution. The defendant's counsel took an appeal to Supreme court.

Throughout the entire trial Wilcox showed no concern whatever, and displayed no emotion at the sentence.

While some believe to the contrary, the great majority of people throughout the State and country regard the verdict as a righteous one.

OLD SCHOOL BOOKS.

Must Be Exchanged Before July 1st.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has sent the following letter to all County Superintendents:

I enclose a printed list of books adopted for use in the public schools by the State Text-Book Commission and of prices and exchange prices of these books. I desire to call attention to the fact that the use of these books in the public schools will be compulsory, under the law, after July 1, 1902, and that, if old books now in use are not exchanged before that time the exchange prices, according to the contract entered into with the publishers by the State Text-Book Commission, can not be taken advantage of by patrons of the public schools. I wish to urge you, therefore, to send written official notice to all the teachers in your county urging them to notify all children and patrons of their schools, and to give notice to all the people of your county through your county paper urging them to take advantage of these exchange prices before July 1, 1902. If the patrons of the public schools fail to avail themselves of these low exchange prices before the beginning of the next school year, they will find themselves under the hard necessity of being compelled to buy new books at the full price, and their old books, will be left as useless property on their hands. This would mean, of course, a great loss to the people of the State and a decided gain to the publishers. Any book that has been used or could have been used by any child in the public schools of North Carolina before July 1, 1902 may be exchanged for a new book of like grade upon the same subject at the price quoted.

I send you under separate cover 300 copies of this letter. Send a copy to every teacher and school committeeman. Very truly yours,
J. Y. JOYNER,
Supt. of Public Instruction.

THE REFLECTOR has noticed that in some schools the old books continue to be used, and in some instances people in buying books are calling for the old books. All should read this letter from the State Superintendent and comply with the law.

If you lend joy you will not have to borrow trouble.

Start Girls Right!

Many beautiful girls become invalids for life, because at the crucial period of puberty they pay no attention to the laws of health. Mothers should protect their daughters' health by giving them necessary information and proper treatment. When the menses come on a girl unawares in her inexperience she is either frightened into convulsions, or scared into trying to check the flow. Many girls have checked the flow and it has never started again. And as a result they have grown pale-faced, with "crow-tracks" on their cheeks, and dark half-moons under their eyes. A dose of taken every morning after a girl is twelve years old will bring the menses on properly and keep them regular. It will help her to develop into attractive womanhood and equip her for the duties of wife and motherhood. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Hollywood, Asbury Park, N. J., February 3, 1900.
I read your advertisement in regard to Wine of Cardui in the Baltimore American, and it so favorably impressed me that on my visit to Baltimore during the holidays I purchased a bottle of it for my adopted daughter, who was suffering with female troubles. She had been under the doctor's care for some time, and when her periods would come on her suffering was something terrible. I induced her to try it and the first dose brought on her menses. She took it regularly according to the directions, and was greatly relieved. To use her own words, "It saved my life." J. WESLEY CROSS.

MONDAY, MARCH 24, 1902

Some people in discussing the law relative to a failure to pay poll tax by May 1st depriving the delinquent of the right to vote in the succeeding election, have asked if this law applies in municipal elections as well as in State and county elections. The law does so apply. You must have your poll tax receipt from the town Tax Collector to enable you to vote in the town election, just the same as you must have your poll tax receipt from the Sheriff to enable you to vote in the State and county election. And these receipts must be obtained before May 1st.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 24.

We have certainly passed through a diversified climatical experience during the past week, with the thermometer dancing up and down between 70 and 20 degrees, from summer heat to twelve below the freezing point between suns—and of course the perennial spring prediction of the killing of the peach crop is again heard.

Now, in most States those who can afford it journey a long distance to seek a "change of climate" (one of the favorite prescriptions of the family physician), but in North Carolina we don't have to do that, the climate comes to us, in all sorts of temperatures and garbs, and the poor as well as the rich may "enjoy" it, if they can.

Notwithstanding this great blessing the subjects of neuralgia and rheumatism and corns and the like think they have a kick coming to them against the weather-maker, to say nothing of the timid individuals who scare themselves half to death with thoughts of possible attacks of grip and pneumonia and an early introduction to a newly-dug grave.

GREENSBORO AND THE STATE CONVENTION.

The joint meeting of the Democratic State Executive and Central Committees, which is to set the time and select the place for holding the next Democratic State Convention, begins here to-morrow night, and you are notified to brace yourself against a surprise in case Greensboro gets the convention instead of Raleigh. At this writing it looks very much like that will be the result of the Piedmont city's tall hustling and the capital city's comparative inactivity and block-headedness.

VARIOUS MATTERS OF INTEREST.

Senator Pritchard, who is now State Chairman of the Republican party, has issued a call for a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee to meet at Greensboro April 5, at which meeting the time and place for the next Republican State Convention will be fixed.

Ex-Attorney General Zeb Vance Walser may be nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Seventh District, it is announced. State Senator Cam. Morrison's friends are booming him for the Democratic nomination in the same district.

Col. A. B. Andrews, First Vice President of the Southern Railway, who has been ill with acute indigestion for two weeks, is still confined to his room, his many friends will regret to learn.

The State Sunday school Convention in session at Fayetteville last week adjourned to meet in Kinston next March. Professor Crowell was re-elected President, S. M. Smith, Secretary; Joseph Weathers, Treasurer; N. B. Broughton, Chairman Executive Committee.

What is a Farm Worth.

My old friend William H. Plumb, of Bangor, N. Y., wants me to tell him what a farm is worth that gives an annual income of $600, and what is the value of a cow that gives $15 net in milk and butter a year. According to the system of a farm book keeping with which I have long been familiar, this $600 income means that there is that sum left after deducting the cost of seeds, planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing the crops, paying wages of all the help, feeding the hands and all the stock, clothing the family, paying the taxes, pew rent, tickets to the circus, buying a new horse or two, repairing the carriages, wagons and implements, expenditure for chewing tobacco, smoking tobacco, pipes, a few gallons of whiskey now and then, etc., world without end. Such a farm is too valuable to sell at any price. As for the cow—why, she is worth, according to the same system of book-keeping, a good currying and three bran-mashes a day.—New York Press.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We the undersigned, constituting the Local Board of Underwriters, in the town of Greenville, N. C., and Pitt county, hereby give notice that on account of excessive fire losses caused by the use of Terra Cotta flues, we cannot accept risks in or on any building in which there is a Terra Cotta flue, or a brick flue improperly constructed. So many fires originate from this source that all of the first class Companies condemn them as a menace to property, and the insuring public carrying as they do, one fourth of the value of the property insured, it is to their interest to have brick flues safely arranged.

In speaking in Saturday's issue of this beautiful drama to be presented in the opera house on Tuesday night, April 1st, under the management of Mrs. A. L. Blow, THE REFLECTOR stated that it was for the benefit of the Episcopal church. This was a mistake on the part of the paper. The play will be for the benefit of The King's Daughters and the Osceola Band jointly. The mistake in the former announcement is regretted but it was purely a mistake of the paper and not the fault of the management. The play should be well patronized as the cause is worthy.

WHILE YOU ARE ASLEEP

Your advertisement in THE REFLECTOR goes right along with its work.

REFLECTOR advertisements work all the time building business for the wise advertisers

If you want people to visit your store put your advertisement where it will be read, that is in

THE REFLECTOR

People read this paper for what there is in it, and they will see what you have to say.

If you have not time to write the advertisement yourself or don't know just what you want to say, let us know and we will help you get it up.

We have bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements which you can use for the asking.
