you placed away for another season? Get it out now and bring it down for a cleaning and overhauling. Can make it look like a new suit. Don't wait until warm weather brings on the rush but come while you can be served promptly. Any kind of tailor work done.

PAUL METRICK,
The Tailor.

During the five years past the number of depositors in savings banks in the United States has grown from 5,200,000 to 6,400,000, and the sum of their deposits has increased from $1,940,000 to $2,640,000. This is certainly a remarkable showing, and attests the thriftiness of the American people as well as the universality of prosperity in the United States.—Philadelphia Record.

EASTER IN THE CHURCHES.

The Day Much Enjoyed in Greenville.

Easter Sunday gave us beautiful weather and there were large congregations at all the churches which held service.

METHODIST.

Services were held at the usual hours morning and evening, Rev. H. M. Eure preaching excellent and appropriate sermons. A feature of the morning service was a duet "Why Seek Ye the Living Among the Dead" sung very beautifully by Misses Nina James and Bruce Forbes, with chorus by the full choir.

EPISCOPAL

Morning and evening prayer were conducted at the usual hours, with sermon by Rev. F. H. Harding. In the afternoon infant baptism was administered to three children. The church was appropriately decorated for Easter.

BAPTIST.

The pastor was absent, but interesting services were held both morning and evening. The morning service was led by Mr. M. A. Allen at which talks were made by himself and Prof. W. H. Ragsdale. The singing was by the children of the Sunday school. The evening service was led by Prof. Ragsdale and the talks were by himself and Messrs. J. W. Bryan, A. M. Allen and C. D. Rountree. A splendid feature of the music at this service was a trio, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" sung by Miss Minnie Quinn and Messrs. J. T. Matthews and W. F. Burch, accompanied by Miss Lina Sheppard on organ and Miss Ima Allen and Mr. Ola Forbes with violins.

CHRISTIAN.

No services at this church in the morning, but at night Rev. W. H. Laughinghouse preached to a large congregation. His subject was "Purity of the Church," and he gave his hearers many points for meditation that will be productive of much good if put into practice.

A correspondent of "The Record," doubtless the mother of children, writes in most despondent strain of the disparity in the distribution of this world's goods. The poor have so little; the rich so much. Apparently the poor woman thinks that if the rich would divide with the poor there would be plenty for all. This is a mistaken view. Among the estimates of inordinate wealth in the hands of single persons Mr. Rockefeller is credited with the possession of $275,000,000, yet if this wealth were distributed among the people of the United States there would only be four dollars apiece for every one. Our millionaires, if they should all make a square divide with their less fortunate fellow-citizens, would not be able to contribute a month's wages of a well placed workingman to the per capita wealth of the mass. But the envious poor do not take a mathematical view of the difference between rags and brocade.—Philadelphia Record.

Gold has such a glamour that few people can resist the temptation to make it a god.

Baby's Coming

McDonald, Ga., July 18, 1900.

I advise every suffering woman to take Wine of Cardui. While I was going with my other children I was compelled to stay in bed for days at a time, but this time I have taken Wine of Cardui and Theodora's Black-Draught and have been able to do all my housework without any trouble. I am expecting every day to be confined. My husband thinks Wine of Cardui is the best medicine in the world. He takes a dose of Theodora's Black-Draught every night and gives some to the children. He has not lost a day from work this year. He tells his friends about your wonderful medicines and I tell my lady friends to use your Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. GEORGIA LEE.

WINE OF CARDUI

There are thousands of women who shrink in terror at the thought of the baby's coming. But childbirth is one of the workings of Nature and it was not intended to imply torture and agony to the heroic mothers of the race. The woman who suffers torture during pregnancy and at childbirth has usually, by some indiscretion, injured the organs which make her a woman. Neglect of menstrual irregularities leads to ovarian pains, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and the period of pregnancy is necessarily distressing under those conditions. Wine of Cardui will regulate the menstrual function perfectly and eventually make the generative organs strong and healthy. Pregnancy and childbirth have no terrors for the woman who takes this pure Wine. A strong healthy womb will bring its precious burden to maturity with little or no pain. A healthy woman need not fear childbirth. Wine of Cardui completely cures all these troubles familiarly known as "female diseases" and equips the sensitive generative organs for pregnancy and childbirth. It will save any mother much pain and suffering. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

MONDAY, MARCH 31, 1902

To the far west of us there are more snow storms and blizzards, and to the south-west big floods and freshets. Verily, we have the most favored section of the continent. This is something prospective settlers might well consider.

Democratic Prospects Excellent.

It is not at all improbable that the Democratic party will be the victor in the approaching congressional canvass. This is frankly conceded by some of the shrewdest Republican politicians in Congress. A triumph this year would open up highly interesting possibilities for 1904. Feud-ment and demoralized as the national Democratic organization is, the history of the party reveals a wonderful capacity for getting together under circumstances that seemed to render such a consummation impossible. No great amount of harmony, no loving embraces by the leaders of the opposing factions, will be indispensable to a successful struggle for control of the House of Representatives. The Democrats made gains in 1898 not by getting together on the Chicago platform, but by ignoring that declaration of faith. They are likely to do much more of such ignoring this year, because an overwhelming majority of Democratic voters abhor one or more of the Chicago planks that were so solemnly reaffirmed at Kansas City in 1900 by the deciding vote of Prince David, of Hawaii. Should they win this year's prize, that victory might bring about a harmonization, for they know that harmony must be a condition precedent to a hopeful campaign in 1904.—Washington Post.

Saw Hatteras Inverted.

To few men in their sober senses is granted the privilege of seeing Cape Hatteras upside down, but according to the statement of Capt. John H. Tawes, of the Diamond shoal lightship, such a phenomenon was witnessed recently by those on the lightship. Captain Tawes writes: "Not only have we seen Cape Hatteras upside down, but even the ships that passed us on March 10 and 11 seemed to be sailing bottom upward. On Monday night there was a light wind from the north-northeast.

"I had retired early. The man on lookout between 10 and 1 o'clock p. m., was the first to see what was undoubtedly a mirage. He did not understand it at all and became very uneasy. Running below, he called to me and said he thought that the ship was near the beach. He said he could see the town of Hatteras all lighted up and thought that he had drifted in shore many miles and was about to ground.

"I was on deck and on the double quick, and, much to my surprise, saw that what he told me was true. I could see the small and large lights of Hatteras showing very plainly and we seemed to be quite close to them.

"I did not know what to think of it until I took a survey of things. I wondered at first if old Davie Jones had shattered our six-ton mushroom anchor and was taking us in on the shoals. Things looked so upside down that I took my deep-sea lead to get soundings and was glad indeed to find that the good old ship was still in the channel with 30 fathoms of water between her and the bottom.

"The lookout man told me that he had often seen rivers of rum and mountains of sugar and dolphins chasing flying fish, but never before had he seen a lightship chasing a lighthouse upside down.—Wilmington Dispatch.

A Kitchen Time Table.

The following rules for "time of cooking" should be pasted in a prominent place in the kitchen and given frequent reference:

Eggs (soft), coffee, clams, oysters, three to five minutes.

Green corn, small fish and thin slices of fish, five to ten minutes.

Potatoes, macaroni, squash, celery, spinach, cabbage, twenty to thirty minutes.

Rice, sweetbreads, peas, tomatoes, asparagus, hard boiled eggs, fifteen to twenty minutes.

Young beets, carrots, turnips, onions, parsnips, cauliflower, thirty to forty-five minutes.

String beans, shelled beans, oyster plant, forty-five minutes to one hour.

Fowls, mutton, veal, two or three hours; corned beef, smoked tongue, fresh beef, three to four hours, and ham, four to five hours.

A Safe Light.

A safe light for going about with where there are inflammable materials, as into a storeroom, may be made as follows: Take a long bottle of pale glass and put into it a piece of phosphorus the size of a pea. Upon this pour pure olive oil heated to the boiling point until the bottle is about one-third full and cork tightly. When light is needed, take the cork out and allow the air to enter, subsequently recorking. The empty space in the bottle will then become luminous and give quite an effective light. If it becomes dim, it can easily be revived by uncorking the bottle for a few seconds. One bottle will last a whole winter. Small bottles may also be prepared in this way and carried in the pocket.

How to Make Snaps.

Snaps are made by rubbing half a pound of butter into two pounds of flour. Then add half a pound of brown sugar and a level tablespoonful of ground ginger. Pour in, mixing all the while, one pint of New Orleans molasses. The dough must be moist, not wet. Take it out on the board, knead until it becomes elastic, roll very thin, cut with a small round cutter and bake in a moderate oven until a light brown. The dough may be cut into small fancy shapes, in which form they please children very much.

Candlesticks.

The variety in candlesticks is noticeable this season, and the prices are as varied as the range. A pair of serviceable and pretty candle holders in crystal may be had for a dollar, and a couple of classic miniature columns in brass are scheduled at 85¢.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and admission free. SOLD HIS SEAT.

A Joke That Held Good on Exchange.

Jesse Speight is telling a good one that occurred while he was in New York a few days ago. He was a visitor on the stock exchange. Stocks had been moving along quite dull for a few minutes, when one man thinking to have a little fun and create some life, arose and cried, "I'll take $8 for my seat."

"I'll take it," cried another, by the time the offer was made.

"I mean the seat of my pants," continued the seller.

"That's all right," followed the buyer, "I claim my purchase."

The seller wanted to declare the joke off, but the crowd would not let him. They rushed around him, and cutting off the seat of his pants handed the piece to the purchaser who in turn handed over his $8.

Hazel Kirk.

Many seats were sold at Burch's today for Hazel Kirk Tuesday night. Admission is 50, 35 and 25. Owing to the length of the drama it will be necessary to begin early and the curtain will rise promptly at a quarter to 8 o'clock. Doors will open at 7. Be in your seats in time not to miss any of the play.

Tobacco Plants Scarce.

Mr. W. M. Smith, of Falkland, was here today and told us he had been examining his tobacco beds and found plants very scarce. This led him to inquire of his neighbors and also of people along the road, and same condition was reported by them. He says if this is general, the farmers will not be able to have as large acreage in tobacco this year as intended. How are the plants in other sections?
