New White Goods Welcome.

Color is eliminated from the card today. White goods first in store displays as they will be in your thoughts, we trust. Ten years ago—yes, four or five years, even—who would have dreamed of the beauty to be brought out in fabric art without a touch from rainbow tints? Pure white, but so varied have been the dreams of designers, so cleverly have loom wizards wrought, that there is hardly a limit to variety. White has only been thought of as a repellent for summer's heat. The sheerest effects have been sought, but now however white fabrics—cheviots madras and piques are brought out in rich style assortment. White has overstepped the limits of summer months and hereafter will be an all the year round factor

WHITE PIQUES in a large variety of the up-to-date styles and designs in Imported Piques that are worth your while to inspect at 12½, 15, 20 and 25c.

WHITE LAUNNS in Lace Striped and Hemmed Stitched Pattern at 10, 12½, 15, 18, 20, 25, 35, 40 and 50c. Such a line has never before been your pleasure to see in Greenville at the above price.

WHITE DIMITIES in all of the newest designs and weaves, dots, stripes and lace stripes, at 8 1/3, 10, 12½, 15, 18, 20, 22½, 25 and 30c.

WHITE MADRAS in Crepe De Chine designs with Satin stripes that will retain its luster after it is laundered at 30 and 35c.

WHITE INDIA LAUNNS.
1000 yards India Lawn that can't be matched at 8c, our white goods sale price 5c.

500 yards India Lawn that was a bargain at 10c, in this sale at 8 1/3c.

500 yards India Lawn that we have offered at a value at 12½c go in this sale 10c.

250 yards India Lawn that was sold for 15c for 12½c.

250 yards India Lawn that you can't find any to match them at 20c, go in this sale at 15c; the 25c kind at 20c; the 30c kind at 22½c. You can't afford to let them go unnoticed as it will be your loss and your friends gain. This sale can't possibly last over 5 days at the longest.

JEWELERS "DO" A VIRGINIA TOWN.

They Make Many Bills and Leave—Supposed Young Thieves Held at Weldon.

Suffolk, Va., April 7.—People in Smithfield, Va., are trying to learn the whereabouts of two jewelers, P. Weinburg, 30 years old, and George Frank, aged 26 years. Having opened a jewelry shop in the Jamestown Hotel, the men received many watches and clocks for repair, and their style of living caused the extension of credit for clothing and other bills. The men are said to have left the town with all but the cheaper watches, and, it is alleged, left unpaid many bills. The Smithfield police say the same men have operated in Norfolk, Va., and Wilson and Goldsboro, N. C. There is a reward for their capture.

Three boys who gave names of Willie Butts, Wilbur Cooper and Vernon Skinner, were today detained in Weldon, N. C. A search revealed on their persons a quantity of smoking tobacco, money and pocket knives. Weldon people suspect the youngsters of burglary and are seeking to learn of robberies in other cities.

Negro in Flames.

Birmingham, Ala., April, 7.—Race feeling is running high today at Tuscumbia, the result of the excitement yesterday over the attempt to arrest a negro desperado, Will Reynolds.

Reynolds shot two citizens dead, mortally wounded three others and inflicting a number of minor casualties. The battle ended at length only in setting fire to the house which served as his fort, driving the negro back into the flames.

A squad of militia was called out to take charge of the situation yesterday, which remains on duty. Sheriff Gassaway went to the cabin early yesterday afternoon to arrest Reynolds, who was barricaded in his home. At a distance of 300 yards the negro fired his repeating rifle. The sheriff and his companions were wounded. Also the sheriff's brother. An alarm was given and the citizens who responded immediately surrounded the house and fired it, riddled Reynolds with bullets and threw his body in the flames.

Too Much For Reuben.

"Yes, sir," said Uncle Reuben as the graphophone stopped, "that's mighty good—mighty good!"

"Just wait awhile," said the youth, as he slipped on another record, "and I'll explain it to you."

"Oh, I understand it all right," responded Reuben. Understand it all except one thing."

"What's that?" asked the youth.

"Well," answered Reuben with an abashed grin, "I understand how these sleight-o'-hand fellows pull big rabbits and pigeons out o' little hats, but I'll be danged if I understand how you get a full brass band in that box."—Chicago, Ill., Gazette.

Why Take Any Chance

with some new and untried medicine for such serious troubles as diarrhoea, cramps, dysentery, when you should know that for over half a century Painkiller has cured millions of cases? Look out for imitations, there is only one genuine, "Perry Davis'."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1902.

Smallpox has broken out again in Norfolk among the negroes, and there are fears that it may spread. The city authorities are actively at work to prevent its further progress. May they be successful.

President Roosevelt and party left Washington Monday afternoon for the Charleston exposition. We notice Senator Tilman was one of the party. There is another Tillman down there who will not devote much time to him.

Albert T. Patrick, the lawyer accomplice in the murder of Wm. M. Rice of New York, has been sentenced to be put to death on May 5th. According to the law of New York Patrick will be electrocuted at Sing Sing prison. An appeal has been taken to the Supreme Court, which will work a stay of execution.

The News and Observer's "North Carolina's Ten Years of Progress" edition came out yesterday and it shows wonderful enterprise. Many of the leading towns in the State have good "write ups" and make a good showing for the State. The publishers have done a great work for the State, and deserve the thanks of its citizens. A State like an individual need not sit still and expect the world to push it on whether it will or no. North Carolina needs to be advertised that its wonderful resources may be known.

From the Charlotte Observer we clip the following:

That Newbern will have a public library is only a question of a short period. Messrs. T. A. Green, A. D. Ward and O. H. Guion have been appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Andrew Conegie about his offer of $5,000, based upon this city giving a guarantee of $500 of five years.

Greenville might take a step in the same direction. A public library for Greenville would mean more for Greenville than a cotton factory. Frequently the question is asked why are so many of the boys who are raised in Greenville turn out bad. One answer would be, that there is so little inducement for them to do other wise while on the other hand there are many and great opportunities for going to the bad. A public library and reading room attached where the young men and women may go and spend profitably and pleasantly a part of their leisure time would be a good financial investment.

LEAVE THE DOCTOR

HEARNE & COMPANY, GROCERS.

THE GREAT TOBACCO WAR.

Charter of th Imperial Company Filed in Richmond—What It Means.

Richmond, April 7.—A copy of the charter of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain and Ireland, together with the articles of the association and a power of attorney to James MacDonald to represent the corporation in this country, was filed in the Chancery Court here today. The primary object of the association is to acquire and take over certain of the principal tobacco manufacturing concern in the United Kingdom, to carry on not only the business of manufacturers but that also of planters and growers exporters, importers and merchants.

The company may prepare for market, manufacture, buy and sell tobacco together with machinery, and may own tobacco saloons, cafes, or carry on the business of refreshment contractors and licensed victuallers. They may charter ships or vessels; may undertake all kind of financial guarantee and indemnity business as well as all kinds of agency business; the company may lay out land for building proposes, may acquire licenses and enter into agreement with governments or authorities supreme, municipal or local. The capital stock of the company is £6,000,000.

Another item of interest in tobacco circles is that letters received here from England states that the independent factories in England which allied themselves with neither the American Tobacco Company, nor the Imperial, are likely to develop into an unexpected power and may even take the stand of a rival of the Imperial Company for British favor. They are showing a disposition to buy considerable tobacco at present and apparently renew business. The retailers, say the letters, appear disposed to back up the independent factories.

THE OLD MAN SEEKS REVENGE.

Yesterday morning in the vicinity of Elm City, there was a runaway marriage, in which Wiley Wells, who stole the girl, loses a hand and came very near losing his life, while the bride, Jennie Mann, and the groom, Julius Williams are happily sailing on the sea of bliss.

It seems as if the old man was opposed to his daughter receiving the attentions of Mr. Williams, on the grounds of some trival matters; and he too claiming that the groom was unable and for the lack of energy could not support the bride as he (Mann) would have his daughter live.

Yesterday morning Wells went to the home of John Mann and as previously arranged between the contracting parties Miss Mann left her home with him and were later joined by Williams, who was lying in wait for them. They drove to the home of Squire Winstead and were happily married. After the ceremony the trio boarded a buggy and made their way for Elm City. Coming in sight of the old man's home, they found the angry father with a double barreled shot gun, waiting and seeking an explanation. Wells was beckoned to and at his command went over to argue with Mann, but before he reached him he received the contents of the gun, which took effect in his right hand narrowly escaping his right side. Mann had nothing more to say. He had received the revenge sought, and was satisfied. He was not after his new son in law nor his daughter, but the man who stole and delivered. After the marriage and shooting were over and the angered father regained his right mind, he expressed deep regrets; but judging from his aim and fire he must have intended killing Wells.

Dr. E. G. Moore, assisted by Mr. Henry White, dressed the wounded hand. The hand will have to be amputated.—Wilson News.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES? ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would not cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you very truly and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Your treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Boer Women Killed.

Amstredam, Monday, 7.—Delarey in his message to Kruger accuses the British soldiers of placing Boer women as a screen against his attacks. He says a number of Boer women have been killed. He asserts that his own wife was captured by Methuen, whom he defeated on March 7th, and she is now wandering near Veldt with her six children. The mother was driven to Klerksdrop after being robbed of her cattle. Delarey mentions specific cases where women prisoners have been murdered.

Mooreville has a suburb inhabited by negroes exclusively, known by the euphonious name of "Slab Town." Saturday night an episode occurred there that will not be forgotten soon. A blind tiger wagon came along as the shades of evening gathered and offered liquor for sale by the keg, very cheap. The kegs held five gallons each and were offered for $5. The negroes, after sampling the whiskey, set about to get up the money for two kegs. They succeeded in raising $7.75 and the liberal dealers concluded to sell and wait till some other time for the balance, $2.25. They received their money and departed. The negroes at once set about for a division of their purchase. They began to pour, but only a pint of whiskey could be poured from each keg. They could hear a liquid shake about in the kegs but it would not come out. They took out the head of one of the kegs by the removal of a hoop. Inside they found a pint flask ingeniously fastened in the bung hole of the keg and entirely surrounded by water. Thus they paid $7.75 for one quart of whiskey with nine and three-fourths quarts of water to weaken it. There is no clue as to who the guilty parties are, but when they come back after the $2.25 still due they will be nabbed or mobbed.—Ex.

When the Toys Went to Bed.

Upon the nursery shelf they lay,
The Whistle and the Drum;
They had no music now to play,
For night and rest had come.
"I'm rather glad," the Whistle said
In whispers soft and low,
"That John is safely tucked in bed;
He blows so hard, you know."
"Oh, dear!" replied the solemn drum
In tones of grief and care,
"The way he beats his 'rumpy tump'
Is more than I can bear.
But now's the time to rest," it said,
"And very glad are we,
And if he could be kept in bed
How nice the world would be!"

Beware of the celluloid comb for there is no telling when it will flare up and raise a racket. A Pennsylvania woman wasn't doing a thing the other day but sitting in her house by the window playing with her baby, when the sun shining through the window ignited her celluloid comb, caused an explosion and burned nearly all the hair off her head.—Wilmington Star.

Gov. McSweeney Says He will Not Allow Fight to be Pulled Off in Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., April 7.—After an extended conference with President Wagener and a committee of business men of this city, Governor McSweeney announced at midnight tonight that he would not allow the Jeffries Fitzsimmons fight to be pulled off in Charleston. He said it was the first time the matter had been brought to his attention officially, and as the law was very pointed he could not take any other course. He added that he would call out the militia, if necessary, to prevent the contest.

A Woman Publicly Horsewhipped a Farmer.

James Flannerty, a farmer residing near Buchanan, was publicly horsewhipped on Main street by Zetta Timms, the divorced wife of Howard Osler, a professional wrestler of South Bend, Ind.

The woman used a rawhide with telling effect, repeatedly striking her victim across the face. Flannerty took refuge in a clothing store, where he was followed by the enraged woman, who again chastised him before he managed to escape.

The woman alleges that Flannerty grossly insulted her. Flannerty claims he never saw her before she attacked him.—Chicago Record.

The new president of the Western Union Telegraph company began his career as a messenger boy. This seems to upset the theory that the messenger boy never gets there.

Sorry He Cut the Shoe.

We were coming down Tarboro streets Saturday and were accosted by a man who came hobbling along on one foot and a stick, with a shoe that had been severely axed in his hand, enquiring the way to a shoe shop. Seeing his condition we asked him the cause and the way it happened. He replied by saying that he cut the flesh through to the bone, and giving that part a severe whack. But he said he didn't mind the foot, but the shoe—they were his Sunday shoes and it had not been three weeks since he paid $2.15 for them. To be in keeping with sympathy for him we expressed sorrow for him in his being so unfortunate as to cut his Sunday shoe, and the pity of not having on his every day brogans.—Wilson News.
