This is Greenville's Fastest Growing Store.

WHY?

BECAUSE no other store Anywhere is so diligent in the interests of the buying public to which it looks for support.
BECAUSE nothing but absolutely reliable merchandise is admitted here at any price--that point is of vital import.
BECAUSE the prices we ask are the lowest known to the merchandise world for goods of the quality we sell.
BECAUSE every sale that we make is backed by an absolute personal guarantee of satisfaction to the smallest detail.
BECAUSE every thing is done to promote your personal comfort while shopping, and to fulfill the most exacting requirements.
And so we might continue to name reason after reason almost without end. No really careful buyer will pass the offers we make without investigating them, Look at this double column full of Economy opportunities for this week:

It was a surprise to many who were present in the Senate when Senator Bailey urged the adoption of his resolution providing for an investigation of the constitutional right of the President to appoint special ambassadors to the coronations of Edward VII and the young Alfonso, to hear Senators Lodge and Spooner admit that they believed the President had exceeded his rights, and there were many republican senators who by nods of approval appeared to agree with them.

The State has chartered, among some of Greensboro's latest manufacturing enterprises, the Greensboro Hardwood Manufacturing Company, with $25,000 capital, Neill Ellington, J. C. Bishop, and others being the incorporators. It will manufacture many articles from hard woods.

The Bar of Pitt county have unanimously endorsed Hon L. I. Moore, the present able Solicitor of the Third District for re-nomination and election. Mr. Moore has fully merited this endorsement.—Raleigh Post.

We Shall Be Pleased to See You. You Are Always Welcome Here

About that Spring Suit. Of course you read the clothing advertisements in the newspapers, and you get in a quandary as to where you will buy the suit. We want all the patronage we possibly can get. We would like it if we had a cinch on all the clothing selling in Greenville. We certainly sell more clothing than any other store in town, and the only reason we do not sell it all is because all the buyers do not come to see our goods and ascertain the real saving in prices. We are not offering $18 suits for $7.50, nor $15 suits for $6, and we never advertise any such false inducements. This we do: WE SELL YOU A BETTER SUIT OF CLOTHES FOR $7.50, $10, $12 or $15 than you can buy anywhere else for the same price.

By comparison you will find this to be true. The same ratio of saving applies on our Boys' and Children's Clothing. You will find our prices on Furnishings much more reasonable than others, while in Hats we save you 50c to $1. If you investigate, we will add one more customer to our growing trade.

FRANK WILSON,

THE KING CLOTHIER.

MONDAY, MAY 19, 1902

At Norfolk this week the Elks are holding a street carnival. It will attract many visitors to the city.

The executive committee have selected Hendersonville as the place for holding the next meeting of the North Carolina Press Association and named June 25th as the date.

If the meeting of the State Press Association had been set for a later date—say after the Democratic State convention—it would have better suited the convenience of some of the brethren.

A terrible riot occurred in Atlanta Saturday. Four policemen and three negroes were killed. The city was thrown into great excitement and the military had to be called out to restore quiet.

If Greenville wants the passenger train connections suggested recently in THE REFLECTOR, the people should interest themselves in the matter. We believe the changes can be secured if the proper effort is made.

J. R. Whichard, a native of Greenville and the founder of THE REFLECTOR, but who for nearly two years has resided in Albany, Ga., is publishing The Dixie Fancier, a monthly magazine of sixteen pages devoted to the poultry industry. To people interested in poultry raising this is a useful publication, and the subscription price is only 25 cents a year.

The following figures, just given out by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, show the amount raised and disbursed on account of the public schools of the State last year: Receipts, from poll tax, $328,403; property, $525,257; special local, $15,545; special poll, $404; fines, $25,412; liquor license tax, $79,280; from State Treasury (legislative appropriation) $101,401; from other sources, $45,934. Total, $1,119,746. Of this amount $1,091,276 was expended, leaving a balance of $227,854. Of the amount paid teachers $621,628 went to whites and $219,561 to negroes. The county treasurers received $22,589 of this school money in commissions.

HEARNE & COMPANY,

GROCERS.

The Conference of the Methodist Church, South, in session at Dallas, Tex., heard with unusual attention the report of the educational committee urging a closer and more careful study of the Bible in the theological seminaries. It would seem a strange recommendation to have to make, if we did not read in the papers every week some story like that of the licensing by the Elizabeth, N. J., Presbytery of two theological students who stated that they believed the account of Adam and Eve a myth, and hence could not believe in the atonement, because if there were no Adam and Eve, there was no fall, and hence no need of the propitiatory sacrifice of Christ. In the theological seminaries, it is said, books about the Bible are taught more than the Bible itself, which is doubtless the cause of the increasing unbelief in the modern pulpit.—Charlotte Observer.

The prevalence of the deep seated unbelief among the youngest generation of young men, especially—is not to be wondered at, when the very first lines of the Bible are regarded as a myth—not only by such young worthies as those above referred to—but by men old in the ministry. How can the church expect to be broadened, and brought to a higher state of Godliness, when such cattle—the supposed bearers of spiritual truth—are turned loose to prey upon the vital of the church, as it were. How tame the injunction of the Presbytery, that they must preach sermons from texts they could believe. Give us more wholesome Bible teaching in our public and private schools.

In a Nutshell.

The whole matter is summoned up briefly in this paragraph from Printer's Ink: "There is some good in all advertising and all advertising does some good; but the best advertising and the advertising which does the greatest good is daily newspaper advertising."

A Cheap Stock Food.

One of the cheapest foods that can be grown for stock, and which can be cut and used at almost any stage of growth, may be secured by sowing corn in rows (not using too much seed) and cultivating it one way. Should the pasture grass run short the young corn may be cut down daily, in sufficient quantity as required, and fed as green and succulent food, which will be highly relished by stock.—Philadelphia Record.

If an educated man is unfitted to take a practical hold on life he is not worth educating, or the education is a misfit.

If a good face is a letter of recommendation a good heart is a letter of credit.—Bulwer.

Divorces are becoming so numerous that one term marriages are no longer fashionable.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made By The Orange, Virginia, Observer

Faith may move mountains, but it is money that moves mankind.

If ignorance is bliss a vast number of people ought to be supremely happy.

Some men are like an active volcano—a stream of lava is constantly rolling from the mouth.

There is a vast amount of deceit in the world. Often the man who has a settled look is deep in debt.

Miss Mary Macline, of Butte, Montana frankly confesses that she loves the devil. There are many others, but they don't say so.

Honesty, in these times, is regarded much in the same light as an article of merchandise—its value is determined by the extent to which it will pay.

While digging for grub worms
for bait across Parrott's bridge yesterday Mr. Jasper Harper found a lot of minnie balls imbedded in an old stump. They tell their own story.—Kinston Free

Mr. C. E. Young, who has been spending some days here working for the Equitable insurance company, presided at the organ in the Presbyterian church Sunday. His playing was superb.

After a Bride.

Mr. H. M. Snuggs, of Albemarle, who once lived in Greenville several years, came down Friday evening on a happy mission. He will wed Miss Lillie Baker tomorrow morning and they will leave at once for his home.

Beautiful Monument.

Dr. E. A. Mayo has had a beautiful monument placed at the grave of his little son, Alfred, in Cherry Hill cemetery. The monument is a white marble figure of an angel, child size, standing on a pedestal, one hand pointing upward the other holding flowers as if to drop them on the grave.

Rabbit in Mail Box.

While Mr. J. W. Potter, mail carrier of rural free delivery route No. 1, was on his route Saturday, he found a rabbit in one of the mail boxes. He took the rabbit out of the box and found around its neck a string to which was a card addressed to a young lady in Greenville and a note requesting Mr. Potter to deliver it. He brought the rabbit in with him and delivered it promptly as directed.

Children's Chapter D. C.

Barely indeed has a happier or busier group of young people been seen than that which greeted the eyes of a chance visitor at the residence of Mr. M. A. Allen, on Saturday evening last, when Miss Ima Allen entertained the T. J. Jarvis Chapter, of which she is the remarkably capable Secretary.

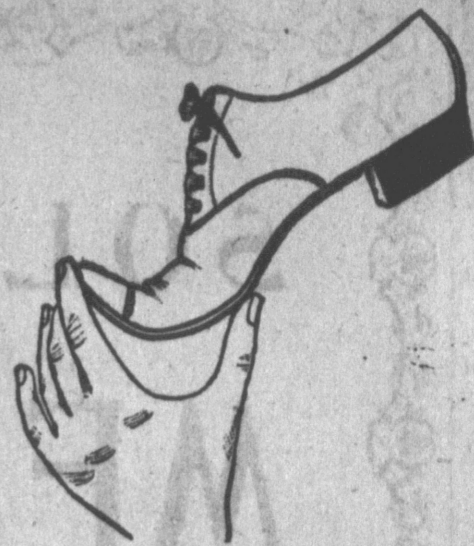

The young people had met with their own officers, opened their service and transacted their business in a methodical manner that won encomiums from the bank officials and all who were cognizant of their methods.

In a contested game of questions and answers Misses Lottie Skinner and Lee Brown won the prizes for solving the highest number.

Still owing a small sum which they had borrowed on the soldiers' monument erected on Saturday, 10th, this chapter will give a lawn party on the court house square on tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon, from 5 to 10 o'clock when ice cream and cake will be served. The public are invited to patronize us.
