Ricks & Wilkinson

This is Greenville's

Fastest Growing Store.

WHY?

BECAUSE no other store Anywhere is so diligent in the interests of the buying public to which it looks for support.

BECAUSE nothing but absolutely reliable merchandise is admitted here at any price--that point is of vital import.

BECAUSE the prices we ask are the lowest known to the merchandise world for goods of the quality we sell.

BECAUSE every sale that we make is backed by an absolute personal guarantee of satisfaction to the smallest detail.

BECAUSE every thing is done to promote your personal comfort while shopping, and to fulfill the most exacting requirements.

And so we might continue to name reason after reason almost without end. No really careful buyer will pass the offers we make without investigating them, Look at this double column full of Economy opportunities for this week:

White India Linen, White Persian Lawns, White Piques. The prices start at 5c and by an easy rising scale run up as high as 75c.

French, Austrian and Japanese Fans in all the latest new creations in Crepe paper, Silk Gause and all floral designs 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.

Zephyr Dimities.

Something entirely new this season, and just as pretty as they are new. We could offer them as a bargain at 12c, but this week we say 8c.

MRS. W. H. RAGSDALE DEAD.

One of Our Best Women Taken From Earth.

Sunday evening, June 1st, just as the golden sun was shedding its dying rays o'er the earth death entered a happy home in our midst and robbed it of its joy and light, taking the devoted wife and mother.

At that moment the spirit of Mrs. Bettie Ragsdale, beloved wife of Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, County Superintendent of schools, was taken from earth and borne on angel wings to heaven, the home of the redeemed in Christ. While hearts left behind are crushed beneath their grief, for her there is joy in the presence of her Savior whom she loved and served while with us on earth.

Mrs. Ragsdale had been sick about two weeks, and while all was done for her that loving care and skilled attention could perform, death was relentless and could not be stayed, and the broken hearted husband, the motherless children, the aged parents and sorrowing sister can only look through their sorrow with resignation to God and say "Thy will be done." All hearts overflow with sympathy for the afflicted ones, but 'tis only God who can really comfort and sustain them.

Mrs. Ragsdale was in her 41st year. She was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sutton and a sister of Mrs. D. J. Whichard and of the late Mrs. H. Sheppard. On her 24th birthday—Sept. 16, 1885—she was married to Prof. W. H. Ragsdale. The husband, five children, father, mother and one sister and other relatives survive her. She was a member of the Baptist church, a loyal Christian, a devoted wife, a loving mother, a true and faithful friend. All loved her for her beautiful character and kind disposition. Her death is a loss to the entire community and all deeply feel the sorrow.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. N. Booth in the Baptist church at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the interment was in Cherry Hill cemetery. The coffin was covered with many beautiful floral tributes.

The pall bearers were Dr. W. H. Bagwell, Messrs. W. B. Wilson, W. L. Brown, J. S. Smith, J. N. Hart, F. G. James, J. B. Cherry and M. A. Allen.

His Father Dead.

Sunday morning Mr. J. P. Hilliard, Jr., received a telegram from Plymouth announcing the death of his father, Mr. J. P. Hilliard, Sr., aged 62 years. He drove to Bethel to take the evening train for Plymouth to attend the funeral.

FARMING THAT PAYS.

It used to be possible to make money on farms where no other crop than cotton was planted, but that was in the days when the staple commanded prices that are now impossible. Under conditions as they exist today an occasional cotton crop may be made and marketed with profit, but the loss resulting from the very next season's operations will in all probability throw the balance on the other side of the ledger. The "all cotton" farmers are getting poorer every year, but still they are in evidence in this as in every other section of the cotton-producing States. There are hundreds of farmers of the other class mentioned who are "getting there with both feet" in the race for prosperity and financial independence. They are not neglecting cotton altogether, but make it of secondary importance among products of the farm. Their first concern is for food crops for man and beast, out of which is set aside a sufficient quantity for the maintenance of the farm from year's end to year's end. The money that comes in is clear profit, and doesn't have to be posted against family groceries and interest accounts.—Albany, Ga., Herald.

The farmer who depends upon a single crop for his support, will surely come to see his error when it is too late. He cannot possibly go upon the one crop plan, whether it be that of cotton or tobacco, and expect to succeed. We have known instances of this kind, and never yet knew it to come half way up to expectation. The farmer should grow his food supplies, first—then raise cotton or tobacco as a money crop extra.

Both plans have been tried many times, and the successful farmers of today, with rare exceptions, the farmers who are making any money along this line, are those who have adopted a plan of diversified farming. Farming will pay at all times, if properly done, but the one-crop kind never did pay and never will. That lesson might as well be learned one time as another. The sooner the better.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. Atorpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." John L. Wooten.

It's the fellow with a pull who is generally pushed to the front.

A man may know his own mind, and not know very much at that.

It's generally the lazy chap who feels that he is too good for his job.

WHAT URGES YOU TO PATRONIZE THIS STORE?

EVERYTHING THAT GOES TO MAKE A SATISFIED CUSTOMER.

HEARNE & CO., GROCERS.

Speaking of listing the Pittsboro Record says the following:

It is a sad commentary upon the frailty of our weak human nature that so many men—and many of them considered good church members—resort to all kinds of tricks to evade paying their just taxes. So many persons either do not list all their taxables or do not list them at their true value. Honest tax-payers are interested in getting all other tax payers to pay their just share of taxes. As a certain amount of taxes must be raised every year, if any persons evade payment of their share, others must make it up by paying more than they otherwise would pay.

One great trouble is that the list takers in many counties do not understand, or at least do not properly discharge, their duties. They are not generally accustomed to their duties and are without experience. In many counties new or different list-takers are appointed every year, and of course being without experience in the business they are not so efficient as if they had been list takers before. Any list taker could and would discharge his duties better the second year than the first, and thousands of dollars more would be paid in taxes every year if experienced list takers were appointed in every county.

Ready to Yield.

"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles and found it a certain cure," says S. R. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They always yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cures skin diseases, all kinds of wounds. Accept no counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

Senator Pettus, of Alabama, says that the secret of living long is to work. "I am eighty-one," he adds, "and happy and healthy as a boy. I notice that all of my neighbors who got rich and retired are dead. I never got rich, and I never retired. The most fatal disease I know of is to quit work. It kills every time. Keep working and you'll keep alive."

A Lazy Man's Logic.

"Don't you yearn for fame?" said the ambitious youth.

"Why should I?" answered the able but indolent person. "Fame merely means that somebody will write an article about you for the encyclopedia."

"Well?"
 "There are more articles in the encyclopedia now than anybody feels like reading."—Washington Star.

Mystery Explained.

Mrs. Hayrix—I can't see how they fellows what sends out th' weather reports kin tell what kind o' weather is goin' tew be tomorrow.

Uncle Hiram—I dunno, but I kinder suspect mebbey they git their information outen th' almanacks, b'gosh.—Chicago News.

Some Knowledge.

He—The young man who is paying attention to Miss Gotrox? Yes; he's a lawyer.

She—I understand he doesn't know anything about law.

He—Well, he knows enough about law to see that there's more money in matrimony.—Puck.

Concession Proved It.

Hook—Miss Antique is beginning to show her age.

Nye—Yes, the last time I called she let me look over the family Bible.—Philadelphia Record.

Some people can squeeze a lot of enjoyment of a lemon.

The chronic bachelor has an equal aversion for a new woman and a new baby.

When you hear a girl say that diamonds are vulgar you may be pretty sure she hasn't any.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. John L. Wooten.

Perhaps the two hardest things to find are a needle in a haystack and a pretty girl who doesn't know it.

MISS IDA M. SNYDER,

Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

ME NSTRU AL irregularities are generally the beginning of a woman's troubles. With the vitality at a low ebb, the blood weakened, the digestion disordered, she goes about pale-faced, hollow-eyed and haggard, a piteous contrast to the blooming health of her former self. But over 1,000,000 women have found health again by taking Wine of Cardui. As a regulator of the menstrual periods Wine of Cardui has never been known to fail. It has seldom failed to restore perfect health, even in the most persistent and aggravated case of weakness.

Miss Ida M. Snyder.

to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would use more intelligence in the matter of medicines, observing results, they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElee's Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

You may secure the same relief as Miss Snyder, if you take Wine of Cardui as she took it. Theodor's Black-Draught is the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui and it is a liver and bowel regulator which assists greatly in effecting a cure. If you take these medicines according to directions, the relief and cure is simple. Some cases are cured quickly and others take longer because the disease has run longer. Remember how Miss Snyder took Wine of Cardui and has health. The same medicines are offered you to-day.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

WILL MAKE AFFIDAVIT

New-Lease of Life for an Iowa Postmaster.

Postmaster R. H. Randall of Dunlap, Ia., says: "I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and resulting evils for years. Being unable to obtain permanent relief, I resolved to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Before I had taken one bottle I knew I had found what I had long looked for. After a few bottles I was cured of a soreness in my left side that I had not been free from for over ten years. I am better today than for years. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure has given me a new lease of life. "If any suffering person will use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I believe, if it is a diseased stomach from which they suffer, that they will receive permanent relief. Anyone wishing can have a sworn statement as to the gentleness and truthfulness of this statement."

This testimonial is the voluntary statement of a man who has suffered, found relief and wants others to receive the same benefits. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure any case of stomach trouble. It rests the stomach by digesting what you eat. The rest alone would restore health. But Kodol Dyspepsia Cure also contains tonics which build up the organ and hasten the good results. You don't have to diet. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. Helps children, too.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure Cures all Stomach Troubles.

Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 51. bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size.

A BABY KANGAROO.

There is a baby kangaroo, just born, at the zoological park upon which are fastened the hopes and ambitions of every one connected with the big animal place. He came into existence only a few days ago and marks a new era in the history of the zoo, for he is the first infant kangaroo to show his tiny head at the zoo and one of the few ever born in captivity. So far his head is the only part of his small body that has been seen. He has not yet left his mother's pouch, but is content and will be for some time to view the world from between his parent's paws.

The day he was born his mother immediately placed him in the pouch made for that purpose by nature, whence he has not yet issued. Every now and then he thrusts a delicately formed head into the open air and surveys the surroundings. Each appearance is hailed with delight by the animal men.

The head of the baby resembles that of a black and tan puppy. The eyes are bright and clear, nearly black in color, while the infant's ears are a delicate pink.—Washington Times.

His Calculation Was Correct.

Professor Truman Henry Safford is one of the most remarkable lightning calculators now living.

One day a gentleman who had heard of his powers and wished to make a test said to him:

"I have a little problem for you, Professor Safford. I was born Aug. 15, 1870, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. This is June 20, 1901, and it is just 3 o'clock. Now, can you tell me my age in seconds?"

The great man frowned, bent his head and began to walk rapidly up and down, twisting his mustache and clasping and unclasping his hands in his nervous way. After a moment or so he returned the answer, which was somewhere near three billions.

The gentleman produced a paper containing the problem worked out and said, with a superior smile:

"Well, professor, I'll give you credit for great genius, but you're several thousands out."

The professor stretched out his hands for the paper and, running over the calculation, said contemptuously:

"No; you are. You've left out the leap years!"

A New Way to Dun.

Summer Necessities

Nothing is so good to soothe a hot irritated skin as TALCUM POWDER. It has become a toilet essential. Some claim that our ALLEN'S TEN CENT TALCUM is as good as any. Others say our MENNEN'S TWENTY-FIVE-CENT TALCUM is superior to anything made, but all agree that the name of COLGATE & COMPANY the makers of Cashmere Bouquet Soap, is a guarantee of best quality, and we have their Talcum Powder at Fifteen Cents per box—a window full. Come quick.

What Women Admire in Men.

Women abhor cowards and still more sneaks, though I regret to say they often endure cads in a way that belies their intelligence and good taste. They have a quite pathetic desire to look up to men, to feel men their superiors in strength of body and of mind in calmness of judgment and clearness of intellect. And it is, indeed, a pity that men so often seem to go out of their way to destroy their most cherished illusions.

Above everything a woman admires strength in a man. It may be strength of body—she will worship a Hercules with the brain of a guineapig. It may be strength of intellect—she will adore a savant with the body of a Gibbon monkey. It may be strength of character—she will break her heart for a politician or a financier who is unswervingly wrapped up in dreams of personal advancement, and who possesses no more heart than an oyster. But strength in some form she craves unceasingly. It is an hereditary instinct that has been bequeathed to her through Eve's first disappointment when Adam was tried in the balance and found wanting. Woman, secretly conscious of her own physical weakness and lack of intellectual strength, demands strength from man to make up for her own deficiencies. Even the strongest women, strong in body and mind, well balanced as Athene herself, though they may shield and protect the weakness of the men they love and stoop to help them, will never do so without a secret feeling of contempt which is destruction of all ideals.

Man, in spite of that dplorable start made by Adam, was intended to be woman's protector and refuge from all harm.—Lady Campbell, in London News.

"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curran of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
