Reflections of a Bachelor.

Two people married can live on less than the same two people engaged.

After a man has gambled in matrimony Wall street and horse racing are tame speculations.

It takes genius to explain to a woman for the 999th time how you surely know that you love her.

A pretty girl with big soft eyes can teach a man anything in the world but common sense.

The trouble with great moral forces is that they don't take care of the rent and the butcher's bill.

Ready to Yield.

"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salvo for piles and found it a certain cure," says B. R. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salvo. Cures skin diseases, all kinds of wounds. Accept no counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

HOW WE CHANGE.

Greenville Continues to Spread Herself.

"Buzzard's Roost" has become a thing of the past and the place now exists only in memory. Time was, even within the knowledge of this generation, when that portion of Fifth street between Evans and Cotanch, was on every big day, and especially on Tuesday's in-court week, the rendezvous of horse swappers for miles around, the swapping going on well into the night. All manner of horse flesh was carried there to be traded, and the worst specimens of humanity were the denizens of that quarter. It was a tough section on trading days, and one who placed high value on a sound head and a whole body was careful how he frequented it. In fact "Buzzard Roost" was famous for almost anything, and got so bad that later the town authorities actually were impelled to adopt an ordinance forbidding the congregating of persons on the streets for the purpose of swapping horses, etc.

Mirabile dictu! Things are not that way now, and "Buzzard's Roost" has lost its prestige. Now all that street is going up in business houses, some of them nice brick buildings, too. And the town has purchased a large corner lot down there on which to erect a market house and city hall. The suggestion has been made that the name of that street will yet be changed to Wall street. Be that as it may, wonderful changes are taking place and what was once old "Buzzard Roost" is now becoming one of Greenville's good business streets. Let the improvements continue.

Leads Them All.

"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curran of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. THE EVIL EFFECTS OF STRIKES.

The effect of the coal strike is now being felt in Charlotte, and the 40's, and several of the cotton mills in this section are seriously concerned as to future supply. A fortnight ago The Observer was informed by local coal dealers that this region would hardly be affected by the strike, but now concern over the situation is becoming general in the South as well as everywhere else.—Charlotte Observer.

The evil effects of the coal strike are beginning to be felt by others than the strikers themselves. And this is one of the phases of strikes never considered by the agitators who are willing to order a strike on the slightest pretext. The strikers are entitled to a degree of sympathy because of the blind fashion in which they follow the lead of irresponsible leaders, themselves enjoying the fruits of large salaries sapped from the hard earned wages of the laborers, on the plea that the interests of the laborer are being looked after. If these so called leaders would consult the best interests of their followers, there would be fewer strikes, and more contentment among the employes. Nearly all of them are satisfied with their condition, or should be, and yet because there are a few who think they deserve more pay or shorter hours, thousands of women and children dependent upon the day's wages for support are obliged to suffer for the necessities of life.

District Attorney Harry Skinner, having completed his work for the term, left yesterday to spend a season at his home in Pitt county. It is but due Mr. Skinner to say that his work throughout has been conducted with the high ability his friends had a right to expect, fulfilling his duty to the government only asking punishment when justice seemed to justify it. Mr. Skinner will make a popular as well as efficient prosecuting officer.—Raleigh Post.

Some of the counties which applied for aid from the $100,000 given by the State to keep the public schools open four months got the money after a number of their schools had closed. Now some of them want to use the money for building or improving school houses, and ask if they can so use it. They are told most decidedly no; and that it can only be used for paying teachers for the specific purpose named. It is suggested that they re-open their schools.—Raleigh cor. Charlotte Observer.

Unlike a horse, you can drive a man to drink, but you can make him take water.

St. John's Day at the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Many of the readers of our paper know but little of this great institution located at Oxford, in Cranville county. There are comparatively few who are familiar with its objects, its history and the valuable work that is being done there.

About thirty years ago the Masons of North Carolina established at Oxford a home for indigent orphan children. The establishment was opened with less than a dozen children, but it has continued to grow in numbers and increase in usefulness until the number is now over two hundred and fifty.

The 24th day of June, as is known by all Masons, is one of the anniversary days celebrated by the Order, and for a number of years past this celebration has been held at the Asylum at Oxford. This year there will be a special meeting of the Grand Lodge there on that day to consider matters of importance to the Craft, among which will be the consideration of the question of a Masonic Temple.

There are many Masons who have never visited the Asylum and really know but little of the great work that is being done there. As every American citizen should see the capital of his country once at least, so should every Mason of North Carolina see this great charitable institution at least one time. The gathering at Oxford this year will be a large one. The exercises will be of unusual interest. Besides the meeting of the Grand Lodge, an open air concert will be given by the children of the Asylum, which is always highly entertaining, and the Annual Address will be delivered by Hon. Matt. W. Ransom, one of North Carolina's greatest orators.

Friends are requested to bring baskets. Tables for dinner will be provided in the beautiful Asylum grove. Will have a good old-fashioned basket picnic.

Reduced rates on all the railroads will be given and a convenient schedule run. The Superintendent and other officers of the Asylum extend a cordial invitation not only to the Masons, but to the public generally to visit Oxford on the 24th of June. We feel sure that all who go will have a pleasant and interesting time and can see what a great work is going on under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. Atorpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." John L. Wooten.

Pen Picture of Ibsen.

Ibsen, plainly dressed though he usually is in a tightly buttoned black frock coat, is something of a dandy within his limited scope. His shirts are ever spotless, and his ties are irreproachable. This is the only form of vanity of which the stern looking doctor is guilty. For the rest, he is a rather taciturn individual, given to few words, uttered in an abrupt manner, and he pays little heed to outward manifestations of politeness. He is at his best after a hearty meal, but is hardly a clubbable person at any time.

Victoria's Skeptical Grandson.

There is a little story about Prince Edward of Wales told in The British Weekly, which declares it to be perfectly true. He said the other day to a lady who was visiting the royal children in their nursery, "Do you think that great-grandmamma is quite happy in heaven?"

"Yes, dear," replied the lady.
"Don't you think so?"

"Well, I am not quite sure," answered the little prince. "You see, she will have to walk behind the angels there, and here she always walked in front."

A "Gassisty" Incident.

Harry Lehr, New York's popular
"Squire of Dames," was importuned by a young woman from the west for an introduction to Mrs. Astor.

"What can I give for introducing you?" objected Mr. Lehr.
"I don't know you."

"Of course not," persisted the other. "Therefore it may make a hit and be a big card for us both."

Women take a lot of consolation from the fact that it's the sins of the fathers that are visited upon the children.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief, I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. John L. Wooten.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
