Great Cut in Prices of High Class Wash Dress Fabrics and Silks

Although most houses wait until the end of the season to make reduction, it has never been our policy to do so. We put a time limit on goods, and if not sold within that period, they must go. This week we offer among other great values many of our finest novelties at prices far below cost of importation, an opportunity customers can thoroughly appreciate with the season all before them.

All of our White Goods, Lawns, Dimities, Silks, Chiffons, Mercerized Gingham, Piques, in white and figured, have been reduced 25 per cent.

Also 10,000 yards Challeys and Scotch Lawns 4 1/2 yard. Fine sheer quality, pin dots, rosebud all over effects, fancy stripes and figures, white and tinted, full assortment. Lot not broken. (This quality elsewhere 7c yd.)

4th. That we tender to the bereaved members of brother Jones' family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their great affliction.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. John L. Wooten.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June 18.

Testimonial.—I am a practical wheel and wagon builder with twenty years experience and I can say with candor that your cart wheels and Tar Heel Wagons are the best wheels and wagons I have ever handled or examined. I have been in your factory and examined the material you use and the work before it was painted and know whereof I speak. No one will make a mistake in buying your cart wheels or wagons.—John L. Harrington, Lewiston, N. C. To A. G. Cox M'fg. Co.

David Percer, a very old gentleman from the Clay Root section of this county, is here on a visit to his daughters, Mrs. R. G. Chapman and Mrs. J. H. C. Dixon.

We predict that our farmers are going to house their tobacco crop this season cheaper and in better style than usual because they are using Tyndall trucks.

Mrs. W. J. Mumford, of Ayden, was visiting Mrs. F. O. Cox last Friday.

Jim Green and Josh Manning went to Black Jack Sunday.

Misses Kate Chapman and Mimie Cox were visiting friends at Calico Sunday.

Misses Rosa and Eunice Cox are visiting the Misses Mumford at Ayden.

E. B. Ficklen and Frank Skinner, of Greenville, were with us a short while yesterday.

The A. G. Cox M'fg. Co. are making several styles tobacco flues, but the style that is used where the furnace is built like a T is considered the safest and best and will doubtless be in general use before many years.

Miss Hattie Nichols left yesterday to visit relatives in Goldsboro.

Miss Alice Tripp has been visiting Mrs. J. D. Cox this week.

It is no unusual occurrence to see from 30 to 40 tobacco trucks leave here in a day, and still the A. G. Cox M'fg. Co. keep a good supply on hand.

The A. G. Cox M'fg. Co. shipped about 1,500 yards of wire fence down the road yesterday for use in the stock law territory.

Mrs. Ambrose Johnson, of Greenville, is visiting her parents near here.

Mrs. A. G. Cox and Miss Mimie left yesterday to visit relatives at Littlefield.

A. G. Cox M'fg. Co. seem to be adding a new line of work in the way of making window and door frames. They have been getting several orders in this line during the past few weeks and they are putting up all right jobs.

Potatoes.

The prices quoted for potatoes today were as follows:

Philadelphia, Fancy rose $3.50, reds $3.

New York, Bliss $2.50 to $3, rose higher.

Ready to Yield.

"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles and found it a certain cure," says S. R. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They always yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cures skin diseases, all kinds of wounds. Accept no counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

GOING AWAY?

IF SO, see that your trunk contains a good stock of vacation stuff. You'll need Outing Shirts, Ties, Collars Cuffs, Fancy Hosiery, and perhaps a suit of nice Underwear. All the fixings a gentleman needs and a good assortment of each sort at prices with which he will not think of finding fault. Step in before you leave.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1902.

The Supreme Court continues to hand down opinions, but their decision on the Greenville bond injunction has not yet come to light.

Kinston, Wilson and Goldsboro have recently had directories made giving the population of their respective towns. Kinston is given 6,300, Wilson, 6,792 and Goldsboro 8,312. This would be a good thing for Greenville to do. The last government census gave this town a population of 2,565 in the actual corporate limits, but there is hardly a doubt that there are now nearly twice that number of people in Greenville. A new census and directory of the town would show this.

Handling Mail on the Great Lakes.

A small yachtlike white steamer dances over the swells of the Detroit River to meet and exchange messages and salutes with every one of the passing ships—a little midget servant to this enormous commerce. Without this tiny steamer, says the Chicago Inter Ocean, the lake commerce would be as helpless as we of the cities and towns ashore would be without the postman and the post-office.

This method of handling United States mail is the only one of its kind in existence, and the idea of a floating postoffice mail to and receives mail to and from ships at full speed is only another illustration of the wonders and far-reaching benefits of our wideawake postal system.

The books of the United States Treasury Department in Washington now contain the names of nearly 4000 ships that constitute this Great Lakes marine. The fresh water sailors to whom this fleet is intrusted would, in numbers, make the population of a large city. They are, therefore, fairly entitled to some means of communication with their homes and families in the States bordering the lakes, and with friends far away, and the little white steamer performs this service as perfectly as can be desired.

Before the establishment of this delivery it was difficult to send letters to any one aboard ship, although the Great Lakes, and their voyages back and forth were past the shores of eight States, with a population of 29,000,000, and their ports of call included six cities of over 100,000 population each. This may seem strange, but it is easily explained by the fact that the greater number of lake steamers "run wild."

Lots of people burden themselves by putting on more airs than they can carry.

The prize fighter is generally closefisted.

New Jersey's Great Revenue From the Combinations.

Secretary Maguire, of the State board of assessors, today turned over to State Comptroller Morgan the schedule of assessments levied for this year against corporations that have come to this State for their charters. Of these there are 4,648 and the tax assessed against them foots up $1,960,874.

There are all told about 15,000 corporations operating under the laws of New Jersey. The list filed today includes what are termed "veivets" by the State officials. It is probable that half a million dollars additional taxes will be collected from the corporations. The list does not include taxes on railroad or canal property, or on the quasi-public corporations using the streets of the various municipalities.

New Jersey has authorized the issuance of stock aggregating $200,000,000,000.—Philadelphia Record.

Congressman Cowherd, of Missouri, relates that he was making a campaign speech last fall when he was annoyed by the frequent interruptions of a countryman who seemed bent on making trouble. "My friend," said the speaker, determining to squelch the disturber, "haven't you heard the story of how a braying ass put to flight the entire Syrian army?" "Don't you be afraid of this audience," shouted back the object of this pointed rebuke; "there ain't no danger of it stampeding. You've done tested it!"

Admirers of Admiral Schley in Baltimore want the name of North avenue, in that city, changed to Schley avenue. The present name is no longer appropriate, the northern boundary of the city having extended far beyond the avenue.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. Atorpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." Another Remedy for Potato Bugs.

Mr. D. C. Stroup called a few days ago and gave us the following recipe for killing potato bugs. "Chop fine the small branches of cedar limbs. Boil long enough to get all the strength—some four or five hours. After cooling, spray enough to wet plant." Mr. Stroup says he has tried this and it is sure death to potato bugs.—Morganton News Herald.

Advertising is a Legitimate Business.

There is no luck about advertising, no chance, no scheme. It is legitimate, straightforward business from beginning to end, from the day the campaign is started clear up to the close of business at the finish. Advertising is a legitimate, reasonable means of gaining an end. The advertisement which appeals best is that which is planned with the greatest intelligence, contains the greatest volume of honest intention and speaks in frank, unequivocal words about reliable goods and about the careful, painstaking methods of those who are handling the business; presents in the best way logical arguments for the purchase of goods from the merchant in question. This is advertising that will pay.—Advertising World.

A school teacher recently received the following note: "Please excuse James from school, as his grandmother is dead. I shall see that it doesn't happen again."

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
