Great Cut in Prices of High Class Wash Dress Fabrics and Silks

Although most houses wait until the end of the season to make reduction, it has never been our policy to do so. We put a time limit on goods, and if not sold within that period, they must go. This week we offer among other great values many of our finest novelties at prices far below cost of importation, an opportunity customers can thoroughly appreciate with the season all before them.

All of our White Goods, Lawns, Dimities, Silks, Chiffons, Mercerized Gingham, Piques, in white and figured, have been reduced 25 per cent.

Also 10,000 yards Challeys and Scotch Lawns 4½c yard. Fine sheer quality, pin dots, rosebud all over effects, fancy stripes and figures, white and tinted, full assortment. Lot not broken. (This quality elsewhere 7c yd.)

Fisherman's Luck.

Once upon a time, not over two weeks ago The editor went a fishing And stayed all night, But came back empty 'Cause fish wouldn't bite.

There was better luck on a stay at home catch today, however, when Mr. W. R. Whichard brought us a bunch of fine perch he caught in Sheppard's pond. He says this proves fish were there even if we couldn't catch them.

'One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles,' says D. Scott Curran of Loganton, Pa. 'One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. Died in Raleigh.

Mr Eugene Tucker, of this county, who the first of last week was taken to the State Hospital at Raleigh for treatment, died there Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. He was in his 29th year and a son of Elder Henry B. Tucker. He had a large number of friends and relatives in this section who regret his death.

The remains will be brought to Greenville on Friday evening's train and taken at once to the family burial ground, about four miles from town, for interment.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

A Great Day for the Fraternity.

This was a memorable day for Greenville Masonic Lodge and the visiting brethren, as well as for the people of the town and community. It was the occasion of the public installation of officers of the lodge and picnic in the Academy grove. Though the weather was warm and sultry it proved a good day for the exercises out of doors and the occasion was enjoyed by every one.

The lodge assembled at 10:30 o'clock and after the greetings and formal opening a line of march was formed and headed by the Osceola Band proceeded to the Academy grove which had been well prepared for the exercises. There was a large stand for the speaker and officers, appropriately decorated with colors, evergreens and Masonic emblems. Adjoining this was another stand for the band and in front were seats for the audience.

There were about a hundred Masons in the procession, lodges at Raleigh, Windsor, Adoniram, Tarboro, Williamston, Kinston, Snow Hill, LaGrange, Grifton, Coxville, Grimesland, Farmville, Robersonville, Ayden and Vanceboro being represented among the visitors.

Reaching the grove Hon. F. G. James took charge as master of ceremonies, and the following officers of Greenville Lodge were installed by Past Master H. Harding:

R. Williams, W. M.
R. L. Carr, S. W.
J. R. Moore, J. W.
W. B. Wilson, Treas.
J. M. Reuss, Sec.
W. F. Harding, S. D.
A. J. Griffin, J. D.
H. B. Harris, Tiler.
J. E. Starkey and C. S. Forbes, Stewards.

At the conclusion of the installation Col. Harry Skinner introduced Grand Senior Warden Francis D. Winston who delivered the address. Judge Winston spoke first of the antiquity of Masonry, then of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, bringing out many important facts both interesting and instructive to the fraternity and audience. The address was a gem of oratory and eloquence and all who heard it were delighted.

After the exercises a sumptuous dinner was served. The entire occasion was a fine success and passed off most pleasantly.

Same Complaint Here

There is much complaint in town about chickens running at large. Folks who allow their chickens to trespass on their neighbors have no right to complain if the chickens should be killed and this is the quickest way to dispose of the trouble get a shot gun and turn loose. Under the law chickens have no more right to run at large than cattle, hogs or horses.—Statesville Landmark.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. John L. Wooten.

THERE'S a big difference between getting fitted and staying fitted in Summer Clothes. It is easy enough for a clothier to put a coat on you, button it up nicely, smooth out the wrinkles and say "That's a good fit." But how is it after the first rain, or when you have worn it a month? That's when the tailoring shows—if there's any tailoring in it. Whether you pay us $5.00 or $1.00 for a Flannel, Crash or Serge Suit, we owe you a fit all Summer. Don't forget it. We are as anxious as you can possibly be to have it a success. If we fail, it's on us—so you see you are safe.

SUNDAY DESECRATION.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I feel that something ought to be said upon this very important question. The sabbath, both as a religious and civil institution, is rapidly losing its hold upon the hearts and lives of our people. By a great many it is treated with utter indifference. By one class, it is a day of recreation and pleasure. By another class it is used to do what, they claim, is necessary work. I am told that there are a good many farmers throughout this, and other counties, some of whom are influential, who deliberately cure tobacco on Sunday, and claim that it is an absolute necessity. It is not a necessity. No man has the moral or civil right to cultivate any crop that necessitates his violating both the law of God and his State to save it, or to plant so much of it that he knows, in the beginning of the year, he will have to use God's holy day to gather it. I know of successful tobacco growers who say that it is not a necessity, and that whoever does it, does it simply because he wants to. Now if one man, or one set of men, can set aside one law, then others may set aside another, if it is to their interest to do so. When the love of money becomes so strong, and so completely controls the thought and life that both civil and divine law are mercilessly trampled under foot we are on dangerous ground. Who can foresee the final result?

We speak out in no uncertain terms against anarchy, when directed at the heads of governments, or other high officials, but the wilful violation of any law is anarchy to a certain extent. One of the definitions of the word is lawlessness. This reckless disregard for the Sabbath, and the law of the State respecting it, is one of the opening wedges that will, in its very nature, lead to the violation of other laws. In this Sunday question are principles involved which touch the heart of our State and nation. Men are not contented to violate moral and civil law themselves, but drag with them their laborers, who for the most part are ignorant, and need the uplifting influence of their employers, and rightfully should expect it, rather than be taught, by precept and example, to disregard the law of God and man. The laborer is told, in some cases, they will be paid extra for Sunday work, and in others, they are told right to their faces they must work on Sunday or lose their job. In the latter case it is the exercise of force, in the former bribery.

But the authority of God is above all other authority, and He says: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy servant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates." People may try to persuade themselves that there is no harm, but the God of heaven and earth says differently. It is high time for every good man and woman, who are interested in good morals, and the upholding of the law of the State to rise up in their might against it. H. M. EURE.

How Grand Viziers Die.

Of the latest 200 grand viziers of the sultan of Turkey not more than twenty-four have died naturally. One hundred of them were poisoned, and thirty-six of the others were either beheaded or drowned in the Bosphorus. Of the remaining forty the cause of death cannot be traced, but from the silence of Turkish historians on the subject their end was evidently not happy. One of the viziers was only four hours in office, and another occupied the position for only ten minutes, being strangled at the end of that time.

Blackburn and Frye.

Senators Frye and Blackburn are very good friends. Nothing delights the president pro tem. of the senate more than to imitate the Kentucky accent of Blackburn. He declares that the other day when Blackburn was in the marble room a man asked him if Senator Hoar was on the floor of the senate.

"No, suh," replied Blackburn, according to the Frye version; "Senator Ho' is not on th' flo'. He went out that do' at half past fo'."

An Odd Classification.

A custom house decision on fleas has been rendered in Switzerland. A package marked "Trained Fleas" reached Geneva. The nearest analogy the collector could find was that of June-bugs, which had been ruled as "edibles." The case went from one official to another till it reached headquarters at Berne, whence after much investigation and deliberation the conclusion was reached that the fleas came under the head of "wild animals in a menagerie."

Died.

Mrs. Harriet Congleton, wife of Mr. James R. Congleton, of Carolina township, died Wednesday. She leaves a husband and five children. In her death the county loses an excellent woman.

Ancient Aprons.

An object of much interest to the visiting Masons here today were two ancient aprons of very beautiful design, owned by D. J. and C. B. Whichard. They are family heirlooms, having been worn by their father and grandfather, and were a present from their mother after the third generation became members of the order. In the exercises today one of these aprons was worn by Judge Winston and the other by C. B. Whichard.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. Atorpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." John L. Wooten.
