The man who is hardest to please is the one we are glad to have enter our store.

We take pleasure in showing him our immense collection, for we know that no matter what he demands within reason, he will find it here. It is because we have always been able to please such men that our business has grown to its present proportions. This season our stock was far larger than ever before, but although our business has been enormous, we still have a big stock remaining and it includes every style that is fashionable this season. We are reducing it rapidly, however, and at the prices we name there is no use delaying your purchases any longer. This week we have made a selection of Superb Sack Suits for MEN, made up from the newest fabrics and patterns, cut in the very latest designs, and worth from $18.00 to $20.00; but our price is..... $12.50

We have a good assortment of those swell two-button Double Breasted Suits left, at..... $15

We have also made a choice collection of MEN'S OUTING SUITS made up from fine tropical weight fabrics, usually sold for $10 and $12, but our price is..... $7.50

Special for the Boys, 2 1/2 to 8 years old. A swell line of Wash Suits that are actually worth $3.50, we are selling at..... $2.50

Straw Hats At the prices we have named on Straw Hats there is no excuse for you to continue wearing an old or unseasonable hat.

TOO MUCH OFFICE SEEKING.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 22. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Seemingly it may appear presumptuous, and no doubt is so considering brain, yet I cannot resist the temptation in my loyalty to the principles of Madison, Jefferson, Vance and a host of others, in giving expression to my disapproval and utter contempt the methods of the present day as employed by those who constitute the class of office seekers and assume unto themselves the prerogative that upon them, and them alone, depend the success or defeat of these glorious principles.

Traveling from precinct to precinct, from hamlet to hamlet, begging and insisting upon the suffrages of the people for any and every position, and trying to dictate in their own favor who shall be sent as precinct delegates to nominating conventions, has grown monotonous. The best remedy against such is to spurn and treat with contempt these advances from office seekers. The plan of Democracy is sufficiently broad, and the people of the precincts are fully competent to select their own representatives to conventions, and name their own preferences, without so much dictation from those wanting the offices.

Let the office seeker stay at home, and let the office seek the man through the impartially selected representatives of the people, and I believe there will be a better system of government and a more progressive spirit predominating every community. People are getting tired of so much office seeking. JOSEPH M. BLOW.

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo., "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. J. L. Wooten.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE.

Reported for THE REFLECTOR.] The County Teachers Institute for the colored race closed its first week's work with the highest enrollment and attendance ever recorded in Pitt county. Every colored teacher in the county is attending and some from other counties, sixty six in all being enrolled. All seem hard at work, earnest and determined to win out upon their own merit.

The teachers of this Institute seem to be able to inspire, to enthuse and to keep all who are being taught studiously attentive to their subjects.

Some have been heard to say: "Have attended several Institutes before, but this one is by far the best." "I wish I could attend a school like this for six months." "But isn't Prof. Ragsdale a great teacher." "Have often heard of Prof. Bruce and his work at Shaw University training teachers and have wanted to be taught by him, but never had the faintest idea that our race had a teacher so truly great, so clear cut, so full of helpful, practical knowledge on almost all subjects, so easily of approach, so modest and sincerely in earnest as he." "Prof. Brown certainly knows how to teach his subjects, English grammar, geography, reading and writing, etc."

These and similar comments are heard on every hand from the teachers attending.

The colored people are all to be congratulated on the splendid and fairminded broad hearted and liberal Board of Education of Pitt county and especially upon the whole souled and capable Superintendent of Education who is so tireless in his efforts to raise the standard of education for all the children of the county.

This institute continues through this week and both the teachers and colored citizen will greatly profit by attending all its meetings day and night.

A Wonderful Earthquake Experience.

The inscription on a tombstone in a Jamaica cemetery shows that the individual there commemorated had survived an earthquake. The inscription is as follows:

"Lewis Galdy, Esq., who died on the 22nd September, 1737, age 80. He was born at Montpelier, in France, which place he left for his religion and settled on this island, where in the great earthquake, 1672, he was swallowed up, and by the wonderful providence of God by a second shock was thrown into the sea, where he continued swimming until he was taken up by a boat, and thus miraculously preserved."

The earthquake mentioned took place in Jamaica 230 years ago.—London Globe.

Something of a Blow.

The wind Monday afternoon tore up things a bit around town. Limbs were scattered over the streets, an awning or two was torn down and the final to the tower of the Episcopal church was blown off.

The funniest thing in North Carolina politics this year was the manner in which the nomination for judge of the Superior Court was given to E. B. Jones, Esq., of Winston, Tuesday. Mr. Jones was a candidate for the nomination for solicitor and was running for it as hard as he knew how, with a good prospect of getting it, when the other candidates for this office formed a combination and, to his unspeakable disgust, nominated him for judge. When he caught his breath, recovered from his surprise and his good humor returned, he characterized the proceeding as a "conspiracy," but he gracefully accepted the situation and the nomination, and will make a most excellent judge. But the honor sneaked up on him and grabbed him "unbeknownst."—Charlotte Observer.

Notice.

To the Democratic voters of Pitt county.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the nomination for Register of Deeds of Pitt county subject of course to the action of the County Convention when it meets.

I have been a voter since 1871 and have always tried to do my whole duty as a good and loyal Democrat and if nominated and elected I will try to preform the duties of the office to the utmost of my ability. Thanking my friends in advance for their support, and awaiting the action of the Convention, I am for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Very truly,
J. L. Sugg.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dulness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress, Jno. L. Wooten.

Acts Immediately.

Colds are sometimes more troublesome in summer than in winter. It's so hard to keep from adding to them while cooling off after exercise. One Minute Cough Cure cures at once. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Shure cure for coughs, colds, croup, throat and lung troubles, Jno. L. Wooten.

A QUESTION.

While our esteemed contemporary the Charlotte Observer is engaged in discussing Pie, Flying Machines, Poetry, and all similar subjects—scientific, dietetic, and poetic—we would propound a question—this one of a scientific nature—and we are not going to take for answer such a one as was given to the Richmond Dispatch when it asked the Observer why the mane and tail of a mule were sheared.

But our question—How is it possible for the negro to carry on his head a bundle or package of any shape or nature imaginable—anything from a watermelon to a waiter laden with an epicurean dinner, and yet never the least harm happens to it. Is it because of some peculiar cranial construction, or does he walk with a steadier gait, or what? With an impatience born of an intense desire for knowledge, we pause for a reply that will settle this much mooted question.

Will the Observer answer?

We Make Them.

A Massachusetts business firm prints this paragraph at the top of its letter head: "Errors—we make them; so does every one. We will cheerfully correct them if you will write to us: Try to write good naturedly if you can, but write to us anyway. Do not complain to some one else first or let the matter pass. We want first opportunity to make right any injustice we may do." The little sermon deserves a wide audience. Few people that have not had occasion at some time in their lives to regret the sending of a harsh or hasty note of complaint. It may be necessary to assert one's rights in subsequent letters, but there is no better rule of correspondence than to make the first one good natured.—Youth's Companion.

Thomas F. Toon, the oldest son of the late Gen. T. F. Toon, died of heart disease at his home at Atlanta night before last and yesterday morning was found dead in bed. He had retired in apparently perfect health. He was here in February to attend the funeral of his father. He was only 32 years of age and was a book-keeper. He leaves a wife and child.—Raleigh Correspondence Charlotte Observer.

Fate plays queer pranks sometimes. A New Jersey man who was accustomed to having mosquito bills stuck into him from infancy died the other day from the spur of a rooster.—Wilmington Starr Vacation Days.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences. For cuts, scalds and wounds. "I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores cuts and bruises," says L. B. Johnson, Swift, Tex. "It is the best remedy on the market." Sure cure for piles and skin diseases. New Lease of Life for an Iowa Postmaster.

Postmaster R. H. Randall of Dunlap, Ia., says: "I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and resulting evils for years. Being unable to obtain permanent relief, I resolved to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Before I had taken one bottle I knew I had found what I had long looked for. After a few bottles I was cured of a soreness in my left side that I had not been free from for over ten years. I am better today than for years. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure has given me a new lease of life. "If any suffering person will use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I believe, if it is a diseased stomach from which they suffer, that they will receive permanent relief. Anyone wishing can have a sworn statement as to the genuineness and truthfulness of this statement."

This testimonial is the voluntary statement of a man who has suffered, found relief and wants others to receive the same benefits. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure any case of stomach trouble. It rests the stomach by digesting what you eat. The rest alone would restore health. But Kodol Dyspepsia Cure also contains tonics which build up the organ and hasten the good results. You don't have to diet. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. Helps children, too.

Nothing Comes By Waiting.

The saying that "everything comes to him who waits," does not mean that the sitting down fellow is the one that gets all that he wants.

Waiting, in the above saying, does not mean idleness or dreaming, or wishing to take place.

It means eagerness in going after and persistence in following up the something of value to the person seeking it.

The present age is peculiarly a striving one, in the language of the times it is a "strenuous age," and only the persistent seeker can expect to gain anything, and then only by strong effort and work.

It is only necessary to look about to see what produces success and what gives failure.

The person who reaches out after business, by advertising or personal effort, gets the trade and the profits therefrom.

The town or city which presents its commercial possibilities gets the investor and his money, and thereby its own commercial advancement and building up.

Note the waiting merchant who does not advertise and seek out for trade through personal going forth after it!

Note the town or city which makes no effort to gain the attention of the outside business world of progress!

Distinct failure will be found in both, and very notice or care that the first drops out of commercial circles, and the second is unknown in the investment world.

There is failure in waiting, but in going forth to seize, to attain the object, there is every chance of success.—New Berne Journal.

The Big Store to Enlarge.

Mr. C. T. Munford has purchased Mr. W. H. Harrington's block of brick buildings on Fourth street. The latter purchase joins Mr. Munford's store on the rear; and as soon as he gets possession of it, which will be at the end of the year, he will make some decided changes. His present big store will be extended 20 feet deeper, the walls between that and the Harrington buildings removed and the two joined together, thus having entrances on both Evans and Fourth streets. Mr. Munford already has the largest store in Greenville and when these contemplated changes are completed his establishment will be far ahead of anything in eastern North Carolina. During the fall he will have several big stock reduction sales so as to get his goods out of the way in readiness for the enlargement of his building.

MIXED THE SERMON.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:
Kindly permit me to invoke the protection of your Linotype against a libel suit for accusing an eminent divine of preparing a sermon in the pulpit. The minor typographical feat converting "uniformly" into "uniform," and of drawing rather more liberally on your stock of r's in the word "lasting" than is ordinarily deemed sufficient, might pass as mild entertainment for the casual reader; but in substituting "prepared" for "prefaced," your machine subjects the writer to consequences which he trembles to contemplate. REP.

Married.

Mr. T. H. Tyson, of Greenville, recently wedded Miss Lena Roberts, of Lynchburg, Va. The couple are expected to arrive here the latter part of this week to visit the bridegroom's home. Mr. Tyson's host of friends extend congratulations on his marriage.
