NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 23. One of the most delightful pleasures of our lives was realized yesterday in receiving a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Forbes, of Greenville. We have known these two most estimable people all our lives and like all others who are honored with their friendship it is indeed pleasant to have them so kindly remember us. We have known them since we have known anything and for them our regard is exceeded by no one. We would be pleased to have them call oftener.

B. F. Manning has been complaining, but we are pleased to state that Benny is almost our handsome Benny once more.

Rev. W. E. Cox is on a visit to friends in and around Winterville. We have heard that he has received a call from our Episcopal friends to take charge of their church in Greenville.

Misses Ethel Powell and Miriam Johnson are visiting their aunt, Mrs. C. D. Rountree, in Greenville.

John Fulford, of Washington, was here this morning.

Make a note, there are two men who are not occupying great big places in the hearts of their fellow countrymen just at this time. They both died in the political campaign two years ago. A hint to the wise should be sufficient.

Though late in the season there is no abatement in the rush of orders coming in to the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. W. M. Carroll is spending a few days with her parents.

Heber Nichols and sister, Miss Lee, were visiting Misses Bessie and Hattie Nichols Sunday.

Very many of our people are anticipating a pleasant trip on the excursion to Norfolk next Monday.

Mrs. J. D. Cox attended church at Ayden Sunday.

Miss Mimie Cox is visiting in Ayden.

A negro man was drowned while in swimming near Renston Sunday.

Miss Helen Galloway, of Grimesland, who has been spending some time here returned home Sunday morning. Miss Dora Cox accompanied her, but returned in the afternoon.

There will be Episcopal services in the school chapel next Sunday afternoon. Every one cordially invited to be present.

Miss Kate Chapman left Tuesday on a visit to Vanceboro.

Quite a crowd from Winterville attended church at Bethany last Sabbath.

Rev. Mr. Eure filled his regular appointment here last Sunday afternoon.

'Tis wonderfully strange the exalted position held in another's esteem is realized only by one's self and that too on the eve of the political season. Our friends do love us so.

For the best grades of JOB PRINTING send us your orders.

A GENUINE NIGHT MARE.

Results in a Melon-Cholly Look.

Mr. A. L. Potter, living a short distance from town, is the sole owner of a fine melonpatch which he keeps well guarded. Wednesday night on his regular beat he discovered a lot of visitors, and says they were surely there unless he is very much mistaken. He hesitates calling any names, but describes the visitors as follows:

In the corner of his patch was a Tree, apparently Round, that had grown up since he was last there, and in the opposite corner was a White looking man. Thinking it was time to shoot he felt for the trigger, and when the smoke cleared away he saw another man going West. Mr. Potter says the boys had a Horne along, for he heard it blow.

A gentleman in town told him two other young men, Vic Hardee and Duke Forbes, were in the crowd, but being strange names he is inclined to think this a mistake. But for ten minutes after the shooting the rapid tread of Boots was heard down Dickinson avenue.

Those wishing to see Mr. Potter after night will find him at the same old place watching and waiting.

A Moonlight Picnic.

Miss Bessie Patrick entertained the "San Souci" club Friday evening, July 18th, in a very novel and enjoyable manner, by having a moonlight picnic down the river. After enjoying a delightful sail, the hostess proposed that we land at Red Banks. The party landed and were pleasantly entertained with a "proposal contest," the boys proposed to the girls and if accepted, they were given a "heart," and if rejected, a "mitten." Messrs. Mayo and Dail receiving even hearts, drew for the prize, the former drawing it. Lunch was served and after spending some time in social conversation, the party left for home. As the crowd separated, all bade the attentive hostess goodnight, with many thanks for having entertained them so pleasantly.

Those present were:

Miss Medearis, of Winston, with Andrew Moore,
Miss Elizabeth Laughinghouse with Tom Hooker.

Miss Lizzie Jones with Joe Jarvis.

Miss Bruce Forbes with John Ivey Smith.

Miss Mary Blow with Hayward Dail.

Miss Janie Flournoy with Will Hooker.

Miss Bertha Patrick with Major Fleming.

Miss Ada Wooten with Harvey Jones.

Miss Bessie Patrick with Cary Mayo.

STAGS—Charlie Forbes and George Woodward.

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. J. L. Wooten.

ANOTHER RALLY.

The Negro Learning His Place.

Reported for The Reflector:

The negro teachers in attendance upon the Institute here had another large gathering in the courthouse Tuesday night. A large audience of negro citizens and quite a number of white citizens were present.

The teachers organized themselves into a county Teachers' Association, and a program of music and speaking followed.

Prof. Bruce, of Shaw University, was the first speaker, and it is needless to say he gave the negroes some wholesome advice. He said the times were urgent and that the teachers were awakening to the demand for men could and were willing to do something. He advised the negroes of the dangers of racial prejudice, and told that they must cultivate the spirit of love and loyalty and bear their burdens like men. "No negro need fear the true Anglo-Saxon," he said "for they have always fought for justice and liberty." He told them social equality could not exist and was something which no true negro desired; that the negro ought to have hard times, as it was necessary to make either a man or a nation.

Prof. Bruce was followed by several negro citizens of Greenville, all of whom gave timely advice to their race and manifested signs of a new era of thought among the negroes.

After the negro speakers had finished Messrs. W. F. Evans and F. C. Harding were called upon to speak a few words of advice to the negroes, which they did very pointedly.

Lots of fellows like to reach "mau's estate," especially when it belongs to their best girl's father.

Vacation Days.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences. For cuts, scalds and wounds. "I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores cuts and bruises," says L. B. Johnson, Swift, Tex. "It is the best remedy on the market." Sure cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits, J. L. Wooten.

THAT LOAN OF $200,000.

Chairman Simmons, in his speech before the Democratic State convention Wednesday, made public the fact, which has for months been known to many people, that the revenue bill enacted by the last Legislature has failed to raise sufficient money to meet all the appropriations made by that body, and the Governor and Council of State have borrowed $200,000 for this purpose. To be sure the opposition will make the most of this. Senator Pritchard has recently interrogated the State Treasurer on the subject, with a view, of course, to campaign capital, and The Asheville Gazette, Republican, has already opened its campaign on this "issue." There is really little in it. The facts are few and are stated above. As Chairman Simmons said, "This is not the first time there has been a deficit of revenues to meet appropriations in North Carolina." Indeed, there are a few governments of any kind, municipal, county or State, that have not, at one time or another, had to face deficits, they are not necessarily evidences of criminality and are not always alarming. The deficit in question is not the result of any wrong doing, and the appropriations which occasioned it were all for entirely proper purposes. There is nothing about the matter which needs to be or which will be concealed, and the people will not be stampeded because the State had been under the necessity of borrowing $200,000. If this necessity arose from a theft or misappropriation of public funds it would be a different matter, but nothing of the sort is involved.—Charlotte Observer.

Cooked His Goose.

The Concord papers quote Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse as saying that Pritchard's bill to pension deserters "has cooked his goose." This recalls the fact that one of Asheville's leading citizens, appreciative of Senator Pritchard's efforts for the Appalachian Park, had voluntarily said he would support Senator Pritchard for reelection. When the deserter pension bill passed, he declared that no man who would champion such a bill could get his vote.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Insurance Commissioner Young says that both life and fire companies are making money in this State. He says the new law against incendiarism is working admirably; that under it a dozen persons have been convicted and sent to prison, while two rewards are now outstanding. He has two detectives in the field. He is securing more and better examinations of premises to prevent fires.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dulness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress, Jno. L. Wooten.

Twenty counties are using convict labor on the roads, thirteen are using improved machinery, four have recently abandoned entirely the old labor system and now work the roads by taxation. These four are Forsyth, Edgecombe, Gaston and Lenoir. Eighteen are using partly the labor and partly the taxation system, while 52 use the old labor system.—Tarboro Southerner.

Notice.

To the Democratic voters of Pitt county.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the nomination for Register of Deeds of Pitt county subject of course to the action of the County Convention when it meets.

I have been a voter since 1871 and have always tried to do my whole duty as a good and loyal Democrat and if nominated and elected I will try to perform the duties of the office to the utmost of my ability. Thanking my friends in advance for their support, and awaiting the action of the Convention. I am for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Very truly,

J. L. SUGG.

An Old War Relic.

Today while Mr. Wade Butts, the house mover, was doing some work about the house of Mrs. M. A. Rouse, on Pitt street, he found an old gun that is probably a relic of the civil war. The gun has a rifle barrel of about 48 calibre, and a revolving cylinder of five chambers. This cylinder is about 3 inches long, and of the old powder, ball and cap style. It is likely that this gun was hid by a Yankee during the war. It is rusty with age.

It has been said that to move liquor from a town would cause property to decrease in value. Is there anything in a statement of this kind? Property is higher in Ayden than it ever has been. Lots seem to grow in value instead of decrease. As people are being fully educated and being brought to see things as they really are the liquor dealing business will fade away. This will not be done at once, but in a few years we are persuaded that the last open saloon will be seen in the state.—Ayden Baptist.

PARTIES.

The Little Folks Making Merry.

This is a gay social week among the little folks of the town. Master Alfred Schultz, little son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Schultz, began the merry making Monday evening with a birthday party that was attended by quite a number of his friends who enjoyed the pleasant occasion to the utmost. He entertained them handsomely.

On Tuesday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock Master Bascom Wilson was at home to his many little friends, Misses Lillian Burch and Jamie Bryan receiving at the front door, Misses Lucille Cobb and Mattie Moye King at the parlor.

Amid their pleasures about 9:30 they were given a guessing contest. There being five who tried, Misses Hennie Whichard, Florence Blow, Jamie Bryan, Lillian Burch and Master Bascom Wilson, a lucky number was drawn by Miss Lillian Burch. Master Ben Bryan receiving the baby "went away back and sat down."

The prizes were gracefully presented by W. B. Wilson, Jr.

The contest closing each little man drew their partner and marched in the dining room, which was beautifully lighted by candelabras, where dainty refreshments were served.

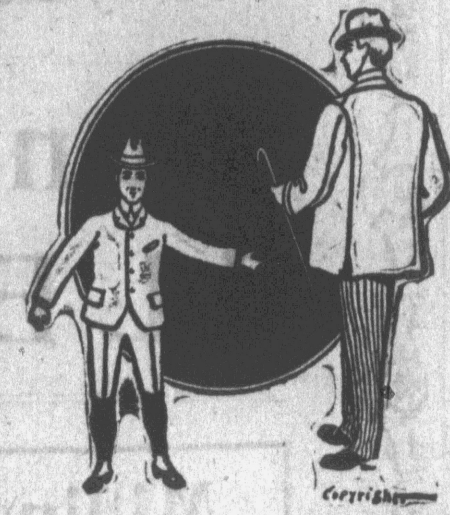

At 11 o'clock with reluctance each bade their host good night expressing themselves as having spent a most delightful evening.

AN ON LOOKER.

There are several more parties scheduled for this week.

The weather last week felt like it had sold out to the coal trust.
