To Congressional Convention.

Delegates from Pitt county to the Congressional convention which meets in Plymouth on the 30th, can have the advantage of a very convenient trip to go and return in one day. The gas boat Bessye will leave Greenville at 5 o'clock that morning reaching Washington by 9 and connecting there with the train for Plymouth. This train will be held at Plymouth until the convention is over and take the delegates back to Washington where the Bessye will be in waiting for them. The round trip fare on the Bessye will be $1 and on the train $1.50, making the entire trip from Greenville to Plymouth and return only $2.50.

Homicide At Shelmerdine

Tuesday night two colored men who worked at the camp of the Beaufort County Lumber Co., at Shelmerdine, had some trouble that resulted in a homicide. Nathan Sessoms shot Osborn Walker several times, and Walker died next day from his wounds. Sessoms was from Ahsokie. He fled from the camp after the shooting and has not been captured. Walker was from near Enfield and his body was taken there on the train.

Good Music.

Mr. E. E. Griffin, THE REFLECTOR jeweler neighbor, has purchased a splendid graphophone and gives his end of the square an occasional serenade through the day. It makes music "to beat the band."

Continuity.

The results to be derived from continuous advertising cannot be over-estimated. That person or firm who desires to have their business grow and expand must continue to advertise. In continuity is strength. The advertising you did yesterday will help your advertising of today, and the advertising of today will help that of the morrow, and so on indefinitely.

The child that makes the greatest progress at school does not attend on Monday, then skip Tuesday, back Wednesday, and then out again until next Monday. No, he is in attendance every school day.

Continuity is strength. Therefore that person who would add strength to his business must keep it before the public continuously.—The Schemer.

The young man who knows how to lay off corn and potato rows, and to regulate the distance of the same so as to get the greatest crop is worth a cow pen full of kid gloved fellows who lead the fashion in dress. Setting a plow just right and adjusting the gear so that the harness will not injure the horses, are worth a thousand fold more to the country than to know how to pose in the parlor. Yes, a girl who can bake a loaf of bread and cook the meat and potatoes just right is worth a whole seminary of those soft headed silly headed angels who sit in the "parlor" and let "moh" do the work in the kitchen.—Ex.

ENDORSES FLEMING.

GREENVILLE, N. C., July 25, 1902. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

In view of the fact that some of my friends have kindly mentioned my name for the Senate and others have inquired of my wishes in the matter, I deem it proper for me to say to my friends, through your columns, that as I have not resided here and heard and known the wants of my people this year, I fear I could not make a representation of them in the Senate satisfactory to myself, and therefore I shall not be a candidate for the Senate this time.

Just here I desire to thank my friends for the kind mention, and also for their hearty support, which sent me to the lower house of our Legislature for two successive terms.

I was pleased to see the name of my friend James L. Fleming favorably mentioned in your issue of yesterday for the Senate.

In the two campaigns in which I was asking the suffrage of my countrymen, Mr. Fleming frequently went to the meeting with us, and his speech was always accounted second to none. He was always fearless in the denunciation of wrong, as well as vigorous in his commendation of the right, and I frequently heard the people say, we will send him to the Senate next time.

It was in the campaign I learned to know Mr. Fleming well. I saw him in Raleigh while in attendance upon the Supreme Court and the Legislature, and I frequently advised with him upon questions before us there, and always found him desirous that the will of the people should prevail in all local matters, and conservative in all things.

He drew with his own hand more bills that became law at the two Legislatures of which I was a member, than any other man in the county of Pitt, outside of members of the Legislature, and I have yet to hear the first word of criticism offered to any bill he proposed. And in all my conferences with him, I never knew him to try to do or even suggest a unfair thing, but he always advocated bold and openfaced work upon all questions, and I do not hesitate to say, that in my opinion the good people of Pitt county will make no mistake in naming him for the Senate. W. J. NICHOLS.

Keokuk, Ia., July 23.—The Mississippi flood reached its maximum throughout the district on the Missouri side and the crest was at Hannibal at noon today when the stage was at a standstill. The river fell four inches at Quincy and ten inches at Keokuk. The commissioners for Illinois levees report them in good condition and the protected country for many square miles is safe. The farmers of the flooded territory are scattering to the cities for work at any kind of employment, some as far north as Dubuque. Hundreds are in a piteable condition of abject poverty. It will require two weeks to uncover the ground.

First love and a first shave come but once in a man's lifetime, and neither one amounts to much.

There was great excitement at the home of Mr. R. W. Freeze last night when two of his small boys failed to show up at the usual time. Calling did no good, so a general search was made, and for a long time without success. About midnight the little fellows were found snugly sleeping among some weeds.—Mooreville cor. Charlotte Observer, 24th.

Big Excursion.

On Wednesday, July 30, there will be a big excursion from Williamston to Wilmington and Ocean View without change of cars. Train will leave Williamston at 6 A. M., reaching Ocean View at 12, returning will leave Ocean View at 4 P. M. and leave Wilmington at 8. Fare for the round trip from all points between Williamston and Rocky Mount is only $2. A good time is promised all who go. A regiment of Georgia soldiers will be in camp at Ocean View, and the Governors of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia are expected to be there on the 30th. Vacation Days.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1902.

The Wayne County Advertiser at Goldsboro has suspended publication, and the editor has become leader of the band. So he will continue to blow, any way.

On Tuesday Mrs. Ida Stafford, of Greensboro, deserted her husband and children and eloped with a man named Harding who had been boarding in the house. Thursday evening the elopers were arrested at Norfolk while trying to board a boat for Baltimore. All the parties are of good family. Mr. Stafford was almost crazed with grief over his wife's actions.

As many candidates as there are in the field, and all expecting to win, it goes without saying that disappointment is in store for a large majority of them. This thing, however, if a man goes before the people seeking a nomination and they prefer somebody else to him, he has no right to raise a kick over their decision. No true man that deserves an office will a bolter if he fails to get it. We just felt like saying this in advance, even though no necessity for it is apparent.

The champion dude of Germany is Prince Albert of Thurn, who wears a new suit of clothes every day, a thousand neckties in a year, and 200 pairs of boots. He is a sweetscented cuss, too, for he has all his clothes perfumed with attar of roses, which costs $25 an ounce. —Wilmington Star.

Mrs. Florence Harris, of just below Yeatsville, was brought to town yesterday afternoon by the U. S. Deputy charged with selling liquor without license. This morning her case was heard by Commissioner Buckman and she was committed to jail to await the next term of the U. S. Court in New Berne, in default of a $300 bond. Her husband is now in jail serving out his sentence for a like offence. —Washington Gazette-Messenger.

Do the Dying Never Weep? KLF

"I have stood by the bedside of hundreds of dying people," said an old physician at Topeka, "and I have yet to see a dying person shed a tear. No matter what the grief of the bystanders may be, the stricken person will show no sign of overpowering emotion. I have seen a circle of agonized children around a dying mother—a mother who in health would have been touched to the quick by signs of grief in a child—yet she reposed as calm and unemotional as though she had been made of stone. There is some strange and inexplicable psychological change which accompanies the act of dissolution. It is well known to all physicians that pain disappears as the end approaches. And nature seems to have arranged it that mental peace shall also attend our last lingering moments. —Kansas City Journal.

The Atlantic City of the South

Charlotte people are considerably interested in the report that Atlanta parties are to build a big new hotel on Wrightville Beach. That there is room there for another big hotel is evident from the fact that several families who wanted to go there this week have been informed that no accommodations can be given until after July 28th, as the big hotel there has all it can accommodate. In fact, it has been crowded to its capacity ever since the season opened. Wrightville Beach is the Atlantic City of the South, and with the completion of the electric road, new and bigger hotels, it will divert the tide of Southern seacoast travel from the North to Wrightville. —Charlotte Observer.

A Game That Is Good Training

Study of Geography. There must be a leader, some one who is "pretty good in geography" and is capable of doing some quick thinking himself. Any number of players may take part in the game. When all are seated, the leader takes his place in front of them and tells them that he is going to give them the name of a state and a letter of the alphabet and is then going to count five slowly.

While he is counting five all the players must be trying to think of a city or town in the state he called whose name begins with the given letter. For example: Suppose he gives Maine as the state and F as the letter, then the players must all try to think of a city or town in Maine the name of which begins with the letter F. It is necessary for them all to do the thinking, for he has a right to ask any one of them for the answer, and they never know which one of them it is going to be.

When he has received a correct answer, he may ask another player to name some other town beginning with the same letter, or he may change the letter two or three times. Then he names some other state and continues the game as long as it interests the players.

If the game is played at home or by a little company of boys and girls, a prize should be offered for the most correct answers. —New York Herald.

The Boy's Long Dream.

How long does a dream last? Sometimes a dream seems to have lasted several hours when really it was not more than a second in length.

A doctor was once sitting beside the bed of a sick boy. He felt the boy's pulse without disturbing him and waited for him to awaken. After a few moments a sleigh passed by on the street with ringing bells. As the first tones of the bells reached the room the sleeper awoke.

"Doctor," he said, "I am so glad that you awakened me, for I had a terrible dream that lasted for several hours. I dreamed that I was sick and that my little brother Bob came into the room with a string of the most horrible sounding bells and rang them in my ears. I could not move or speak to him. The dream seemed to last for so long a time, and I am so glad that you awakened me."

A ringing of those bells for one second had caused all of that dream and just at the waking moment.

A Trick With an Egg.

Make a little hammock of muslin, to be suspended by four threads, and after having soaked this in salt water and thoroughly dried it place in it an eggshell which has been emptied by a blowpipe through a hole drilled in the side. After the supposed egg has been satisfactorily shown to be in the hammock beyond all doubt set the whole affair afire at both ends and the bottom. Within a moment the hammock and its supports will be consumed, but, wonder of wonders, the egg lies on a swinging bridge of ashes high above the floor!

This curious little semiscientific experiment has been performed on a gigantic scale in one of the Lyons theaters, where a manilla hammock and an asbestos baby were used. —St. Louis Republic.

Bodies of young children with their hearts scooped out have been found in China.

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. J. L. Wooten.

Delightful Outing.

The editor for himself and a party of little folks is very much indebted to Mr. G. E. Harris for a delightful trip on his splendid gas boat Nina, Thursday evening. A run some miles down the river was made when the little folks went ashore on a sand beach and, like so many ducks, took to the water. The run back to town was equally pleasant. We never saw a crowd enjoy themselves more.

Big Cotton Purchase.

On Wednesday Mr. Jesse Speight, Greenville's hustling cotton buyer, purchased a lot of 163 bales of cotton from the Messrs. Braswell at Battleboro. This cotton was advertised for sale in the Charlotte Observer and the Raleigh News and Observer, which put a number after it, and it speaks well that a Greenville buyer got it in competition with the whole State. It's a bad day for trading when Jesse Speight gets left on a cotton deal.

PERSONAL NOTES

Brief Mention of People Met
With in the Social World

The gayety of the town waneth not.

Miss Lizzie Hines left this morning for Scotland Neck.

Miss Bessie Keel left this morning for a visit to Robersonville.

Misses Alice and Emmie Smith have returned from Seven Springs.

E. A. Coward returned this morning from a trip over in Green county.

If the weather report can be depended upon the dry spell may soon be broken.

Miss Olivia Watson, of Clinton, arrived this morning to visit Miss Bessye Patrick.

Mrs. W. E. Smith and Miss Nannie Cofield went to Ayden Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Greene returned from Washington on the gas-boat Bessye Thursday evening.

J. J. Willis left Thursday evening for Dunn where he will conduct a warehouse the coming season.

Myer Abram and children, of Norfolk, who were visiting his sister, Mrs. S. M. Schultz, left this morning.

G. R. Dixon and little son, of Rocky Mount, who have been visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Higgs, returned home today.

J. C. Cooper returned Thursday evening from his vacation trip to Wrightsville and points in South Carolina, and is again in his place at the depot.

Don't Wait Too Long.

THE REFLECTOR is glad to print account of the social doings of the town, as it makes interesting reading for our subscribers. But with so many occurring it is just impossible for one person to keep track of them all, and some one present has to be depended upon to furnish the report. In this connection let us offer the suggestion that it would be better to send such reports to the paper while they are news and not let a week or two slip by before doing so. When a thing gets old the reader naturally loses interest in it.

Another Party.

On Thursday evening Bennie Bryan gave a very enjoyable party complimentary to his many friends. The home was brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns and candles and made a most beautiful scene from the street.

The main feature which afforded much laughter and pleasure was a large picture of a donkey and as each little child entered the room he or she was blindfolded and given the donkey's tail to pin in the right place. Miss Mary Lucy Dupree, of Norfolk, won the prize, a beautiful box of paper, and Miss Lillian Carr the "booby," an electric primer.

As each guest departed bid their host goodbye there were many expressions of having spent a most delightful evening.

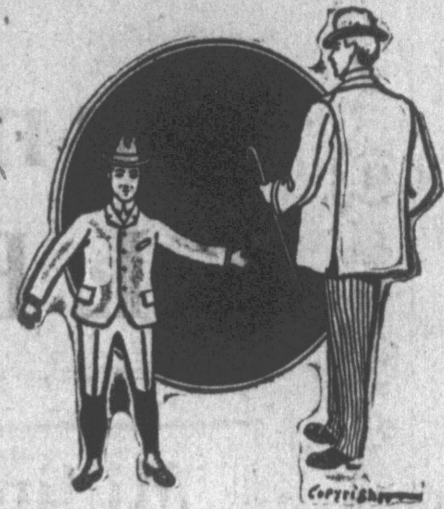

AN ON LOOKER.

E. G. Webb, of Shelby, was nominated on the seventh ballot as candidate for Congress in the seventh district.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dulness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress, Jno. L. Wooten.
