

Ricks & Wilkinson

The man who is an expert in Fabrics and Tailoring can buy his clothes anywhere, but the man who is not an expert must buy where he knows he can depend upon the quality and workmanship, get the latest style without question and have his money back if there's any cause for dissatisfaction. Our old customers know they can depend upon us absolutely, and our new customers find that they are always safe in making purchases here. We want to prove these statements to you today.

We have made remarkably LOW PRICES on our entire stock of Fine Clothing in order to clean them out of the way and make room for the new fall lines which will soon begin to arrive.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, N. C., July 30. Our crops are looking very dull for the want of rain. Dr. C. M. Jones went to Washington Monday. Charlie and Lon Fleming, of Pactolus were here Sunday. Rev. Mr. Tingle failed to fill his appointment Sunday on account of sickness. Misses Queenie McGowan and her sister, Lizzie, Daisy and Eva Cox, of Greenville, were here Sunday. Come again girls, we enjoy your company very much. Mack Holliday and family, who have been visiting his mother, Mrs. Mandy Holliday returned to their home in Dunn Tuesday. Miss Addie Johnson, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. O. Proctor for the last few days, returned to her home in Greenville Sunday. She was accompanied by her brother Frank. H. Gilbert Mayo and D. G. Moore went to Ayden last week to attend the Boyd-Patrick marriage. W. E. Proctor and D. E. Whichard went to Washington Tuesday. Miss Lucy Johnson, of Greenville, and Joe Patrick, of Ayden, were here Sunday. Hon. J. Bryan Grimes gave us a pleasant call Monday. Miss Louise Smithwick, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Mayo, returned to her home in Jamesville Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Galloway left Monday for Norfolk. Misses Maud Lassiter and Jennie Newell, of Lizzie, Carrie and Louise Ward, of Pactolus and Helen Galloway are all here this week. Many a heart made glad. J. O. and W. E. Proctor went to Plymouth today to attend the Democratic Congressional Convention. Guy Tripp, of Kinston, was here today.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., July 25, 1902. Miss Annie White returned Saturday from Plymouth and Washington, where she has been spending the past week. J. J. Mills, formerly of here, died at Vanceboro Friday morning after a severe case of blood poison. The remains were brought here for burial, arriving just after sun up Saturday. The interment took place Saturday at 2 p. m. Services were conducted by Eld. W. H. Laughinghouse, of Greenville. Miss Julia Tyson spent Saturday night with Miss Julia Cox. Little Ethel Mills continues very low with typhoid fever. Mrs. J. H. Mills and little Mattie, and Ed. Clark went to Washington Thursday. John Mills returned Saturday, and will be with us again for a while to the delight of his many friends. You Know What You are Taking When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

The Congressional Convention for the first district was held in Plymouth yesterday. The convention was called to order by W. B. Rodman, chairman of the Executive committee. He named as temporary chairman Hon. T. W. Blount of Washington county Messrs. Jacobson and Arthur of the Progress and Gazette were requested to act as secretaries. The temporary organization was made permanent. W. M. Bond, of Edenton, in well chosen words placed in nomination for Congressman from the First District the present incumbent, Hon. Jno. H. Small, of Washington. F. G. James of Pitt, seconded the nomination in a speech that was pleasing to his many friends in this district. Several others also made speeches seconding the nomination. After the speech making was over Mr. Small was nominated by acclamation.

The convention was a large one considering the fact that Mr. Small had no opposition and most of the counties had already instructed for him in their County Conventions.

The following delegates from Pitt attended the convention: W. H. Lone, A. L. Bow, F. G. James, W. B. Wilson, J. W. Bryan and R. Greene from Greenville, J. H. Cobb, of Beaver Dam township, J. J. Elks, W. W. Tucker, J. M. Jox, W. E. Proctor and J. J. Proctor of Chicod, W. H. Williams and Dr. W. E. Warren, of Carolina, and S. A. Gainer, of Bethel.

The compliment paid Mr. Small by being nominated for a third term to represent his district was one that was deserved. He has made a faithful representative and the district has done well in naming him for another term. His record so far has been without criticism and we predict will remain so through his next term. We hear his speech of acceptance highly complimented. R. W. King was retained as a member of the executive committee from Pitt county.

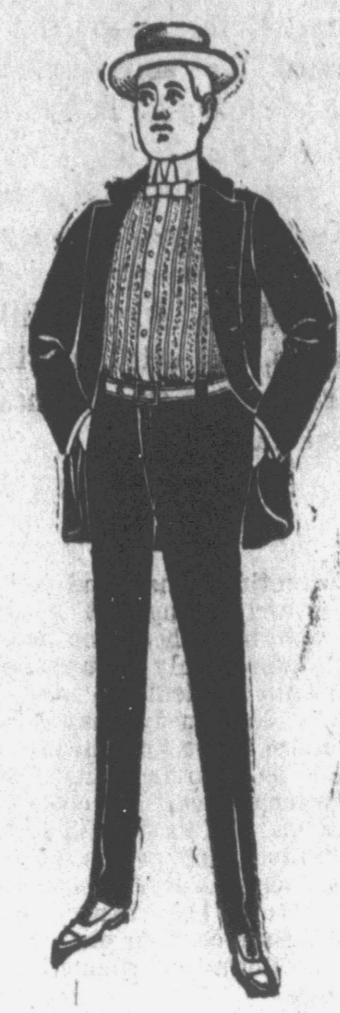

Watch Greenville.

There are some improvements and alterations being made in the warehouses preparatory to the opening sale tomorrow. This sale will attract a large crowd to town. Everything is in readiness for the opening. Greenville contemplates a big season and will have it if a strong market counts for anything. Six warehouses will be in operation and double sales will be run. Most of the buyers are in and the boys all seem ready for work to begin. Watch Greenville this year. She is going to sell tobacco.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dulness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress. Jno. L. Wooten.

Suffrage Decision.

New Orleans, July 28.—The Louisiana district court today decided the case of David L. Ryanes, the negro who brought suit to be registered in order to test the suffrage provisions of the new Louisiana constitution. The money for the suit was provided by negroes by popular subscription, in the hope of having declared null and unconstitutional the new suffrage system which disfranchises most of them.

Raynes' case was taken as a test. The judge decided against the negro, holding that even if the "grandfather" clause, which admits illiterate whites without property to suffrage, is unconstitutional, it does not affect the case of Ryanes, as one of the sections of a constitution may be invalid without destroying the whole constitution. Raynes' right to vote he said, was affected in no way by the "grandfather" clause, and therefore the court could not pass on that question, which is only doubtful provision in the suffrage law. The negroes will carry the case to the United State Supreme court.

The Wrong Man Killed.

Greensboro, N. C., July 30.—Conductor Tuck Hamner of Alexandria accidentally shot and killed his porter, Henry D. McClelland of Danville, at North Garen, Va., this morning. Hamner was trying to shoot a man named Cole who had been very abusive to him and who had struck him several times over the head and chest. As he drew his pistol Cole seized his arm and the weapon went off. The ball pierced McClelland's heart and caused death in ten minutes.

THURSDAY, JULY 31, 1902.

The Board of Education meets next Monday for the purpose of making changes in committees and for filling vacancies. The semi-annual apportionment will also be made to the schools.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Pitt county will meet here next Monday for the purpose of calling the county convention. It has been wisely suggested that an early convention will be better. Candidates are already numerous and will probably increase in number as the days go by. There seems to be no bitterness in the fight as yet, and an early convention might prevent an opportunity for this to arise.

Senator F. M. Simmons has expressed a desire to retire from the Chairmanship of the State Democratic Executive Committee, but says that if the demand is made that he will retain it, he could not disregard the wishes of his party. It appears now that this demand will be made. The party realizes that Mr. Simmons is a wise and safe leader and the people will be loath to give him up as the chairman of the committee. There is no man in the State, surely, who could do better than he has done. It might be properly said it is better to let well enough alone:

That Greensboro affair—the elopement of the young man Hardin and Mrs. Stafford—is not a matter for comment, but we are of the opinion that Hardin's father and friends are not doing themselves credit by endeavoring to persuade him to desert the woman. It is natural, of course, for them to want him to free himself from the alliance, but there is another side to it. The woman deserves no consideration probably but the man took her away from her husband and children—at least he went away with her. If he had not appeared on the scene she might be at home yet. Now that he has taken the woman he should take care of her. If he deserts her he deserves to be shot like a dog.—Statesville Landmark.

Notice.

The County Board of Education will meet on the first Monday in August for the purpose of filling all vacancies in the various communities in the county, and also for making any changes in the committees which may be necessary. All persons having any business of this character will meet the Board on the above named day.

Divorce Was the Bar.

Charlotte, N. C. July 28.—N. G. Salla, a prominent merchant of Anderson, S. C., accompanied by a young woman, arrived in Charlotte on an early train this morning and went immediately to the Manse of the First Presbyterian church and asked to be married.

When Dr. J. R. Howerton, the pastor, learned that Salla was a divorced man he declined to marry the couple, and they then applied to Rev. T. F. Marr, pastor of Tyrone street Methodist church, who performed the ceremony. The couple left today for Boston on a wedding trip.

The woman gave the name of Miss Carrie Sharpe. Accompanying the couple were Miss Kate Sharpe and Mrs. P. A. Hill, of Greenville, who acted as witness. They returned to their homes on the next train.

Vacation Days.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences. For cuts, scalds and wounds. "I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores cuts and bruises," says L. B. Johnson, Swift, Tex. "It is the best remedy on the market." Sure cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits, J. L. Wooten.

Notice.

To the Democratic voters of Pitt county.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the nomination for Register of Deeds of Pitt county subject of course to the action of the County Convention when it meets.

I have been a voter since 1871 and have always tried to do my whole duty as a good and loyal Democrat and if nominated and elected I will try to perform the duties of the office to the utmost of my ability. Thanking my friends in advance for their support, and awaiting the action of the Convention, I am for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Very truly,
 J. L. SUGG.

PERSONAL NOTES

Brief Mention of People Met
Within the Social World

H. M. Hardee left today for Tarboro.

H. B. Phillips left this morning for Rocky Mount.

C. A. Jeffress came in Wednesday evening from Tarboro.

J. B. Cherry, Sr., returned Wednesday from Seven Springs.

Miss Minnie Tunstall left Wednesday evening for Kinston.

Mrs. W. T. Hunter left on the morning train for Jamesville.

Mrs. Fannie Jenkins and children went to Tarboro on the morning train.

Mrs. N. D. Garden, who has been visiting Mrs. L. C. Arthur, return to her home at Henderson
this morning.

Hugh S. Ragsdale returned from Kinston this morning where he has been for several days with Jack Perry.

Mrs. T. R. Moore, Miss Johnson,
Mrs. S. B. Wilson and Miss Myrtie Wilson left on the noon freight for Seven Springs.

J. J. Corey and Sam Flake returned this morning from Beaufort where they had been to take a little summer outing.

Mrs. N. C. Hughes, of Chocowinity and Mrs. Carrie Perkins, of Philadelphia, arrived Wednesday evening to visit Mrs. H. Harding.

Miss Essie Whichard, D. J. Jr., and Sherwood Ragsdale took the editor with them on a jaunt to Rocky Mount today. If they don't lose him they will bring him back.

J. B. Jarvis left this morning for Wilson where he goes to take a position with the Banner Warehouse. J. e's many friends here regret to lose him from our town.

Mrs. Henry Harding, of Washington; Mrs. N. C. Hughes, of Chocowinity; Mrs. Chas. E. Perkins, of Philadelphia, all neices of Maj. Henry Harding, are visiting the family of their uncle.

In Trouble.

J. W. Harrington hailing from Greenville went near Goldsboro to cure tobacco. A few days ago his employer paid him for his work with a twenty five dollar check.
Harrington took it to the bank and got his money. This was so easily done he thought he would draw him some more money. He fixed up a check, signed his employers name to it and presented it to the bank and got his money alright. He repeated this at intervals of several hours. The cashier of the bank suspected something wrong and just as Harrington was about to leave had him arrested. About $90 was found upon his person. He feigned drunkenness. He is not unknown in these parts having been in jail here. While here he had the faculty of going crazy when he wished and finally escaped from jail.

Cause to be Thankful.

We heard one man remark that he believed the crops in Pitt county were cut off 35 per cent by the drought. Another added, "that is not as bad as 50 per cent," so there is something to be thankful for anyway.

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo., "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms.
Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good.
Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food.
It is nature's own tonic. J. L. Wooten.

SACRIFICE SALE OF MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING

IN order to make room
for our Fall and Winter
stock, we have reduced every suit that we have in our house. We are overstocked, and now is the time to make your purchases. Many new styles
yet to select from.

Space forbids to mention
all, but we quote a few of our reductions to give you an idea of what we have.

Our $15.00 Suits reduced to $12.48.
Our $12.50 Suits reduced to $10.25.
Our $11.50 Suits reduced to $9.50.
Our $10.00 Suits reduced to $8.48.
Our $8 and $9 Suits reduced to $6.98.

All boys' Clothing reduced in the same proportion. It's an interesting object lesson to inspect our fine line, whether you buy or not.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES
OF THE
PEOPLE BY
ADVERTISING
IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR
is the easiest part.
