Mr. Small Complimented.

Our popular Congressman, Hon. John H. Small, received Tuesday a sterling silver cup. The inscription in it, which follows, explains itself: "Presented to Hon. John Humphrey Small, member of Congress from N. C., by the officers of the U. S. Revenue Cutter Service as a slight token of friendship and of their appreciation of his able and disinterested efforts in their behalf."—Washington Progress.

In the Chowwinity section of the county forest fires have done much damage. We learn that over ten square miles of fine timbered lands has been ruined. The timber was largely owned by the Beaufort County Lumber Company and the Dr. Way Lumber Company.—Washington Progress.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

THE MARKET OPENS.

Quarter Million Pounds of Tobacco.

The Greenville tobacco market began the new season today with a tremendous break, and no special effort had been put forth to make the opening sale a very large one. But the tobacco came anyway from every quarter, and both warehousemen and buyers had a busy time of it. There were fully $250,000 pounds altogether at the six warehouses.

The first sale was at the Farmers warehouse with something like $35,000 pounds. The price started off well and kept up to the finish.

The second sale was at the Planters which rounded up with about $25,000 pounds.

The Jeffress came next with about the same quantity, 25,000 pounds.

Then the old Greenville pulled off a pretty sale with about 40,000 pounds.

The fifth sale at the Liberty was a little larger than any of the others, crowding 500,000 pounds.

The Star closed the sales for the day with close to 40,000 pounds.

At everyone one of the warehouses there were many loads of tobacco that did not get on the floor for want of time to be unloaded. There was a large crowd to follow the sales through every house and we did not hear a complaint of prices from anyone. The general opinion among the warehousemen and buyers is that the market opened well, and the satisfaction over prices among the farmers show that they are of the same opinion.

The working force of the different warehouses for the season is as follows:

Mr. Holcombe Leaves Aug. 1.

Mr. Hugh W. Holcombe, who represented the American Tobacco Company on the Winston market during the past year, will leave about August 1 for Danville, where he will occupy a similar position in the future. He will be succeeded here by Mr. James R. Green, of Mt. Airy. While the citizens of Winston will regret the absence of Mr. Holcombe from our midst, they are pleased to know that such a capable successor has been found in Mr. Green. He is a well known and popular gentleman and will doubtless prove a valuable addition to the community.—Winston Sentinel.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1902.

And now a man in Asheville has brought suit for $10,000 against the multi-millionaire George W. Vanderbilt. George has enough to spare that amount and not miss it, but that fact should not have any influence on the jury trying the case.

The devil should have his dues. The railroads of North Carolina need protection from the small boy who steals a ride every chance he gets. If there is a law that prohibits swinging on to a moving train, it is not enforced as it should be. Somebody is at fault. I wonder that the death rate, from moving trains in the State, is not greater, for there is scarcely a day passes that I do not see one or more boys clinging to the side of running cars. I have seen it at Charlotte, Salisbury, Newton, Statesville and other places. The conductors and trainmen try to prevent it but are helpless at times. I have seen the steps of cars so full of urchins that it was impossible to leave or enter the train. The little boy killed in Charlotte the other day was trying to board a train. He had no business, there. Two years or more ago I saw the mangled remains of a 14 year old boy who was sent hurling to death by an engine running into the passenger station at Salisbury. The boy was stealing a ride on a south bound train when he dropped into the track behind him and went to sudden death. It was said there and then, before the fragments of the body were cold, that the boy was noted for his ability to bound on and off moving trains. On that particular night he had started up street with a special request from his sick father not to loaf about the station. All the above facts I gathered myself as the time. Later, relatives of that boy brought suit and were given a verdict, by a jury, for $2,000. It may be right but, if so, my training is at fault. If parents cannot keep their children from such dangerous practices the State and the town should help the railroads. The youngster who makes a habit of boarding and leaving moving trains should be locked up until he knows better. I have seen the results of railroad accidents. I have seen the mangled remains of several bright faced boys. It is a sad spectacle. I wish there was some way to teach the little fellows better before it is too late.—H. E. C. B. in Charlotte Observer.

Fragrant Dried Leaves For Insomnia.

The fair insomnia sufferer will be glad to know that a sympathetic genius has been catering to her wants and has placed on the market what is termed a "sleeper's reticule," made of some bright colored muslin or silk in the old fashioned reticule shape. It is lace trimmed and drawn up with ribbons. It is hung within easy reach of the bed and contains a handkerchief, a tiny jar of cold cream, a bottle of smelling salts and a linen colored sachet filled with fragrant dried leaves from an oriental shrub. The odor from this sachet is said to cause nervous and excitable persons who are inclined to be wakeful to fall into a sweet and refreshing sleep.

Cleaning and Polishing Compound.

Take of aqua ammonia one ounce, of prepared chalk one-eighth of an ounce; mix and keep well corked. To use for rings or other smooth surfaced jewelry wet a bit of cotton cloth with the compound after shaking it and rub the article thoroughly, then polish by rubbing with a silk handkerchief or a piece of chamois skin. For articles which are rough surfaced use a suitable brush. It is applicable for gold, silver, brass, plated goods, etc.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

"WHY DON'T YOU KNOW"

on a railway platform when a traveler rushed up and asked, "Has the 9:30 gone yet?" "I really don't know," replied the man in blue. "Why don't you know?" shouted the other angrily. "What are you standing there for, perhaps you will tell me, just like a log of wood? Aren't you a conductor?" "Certainly I am," replied Sousa; "the conductor of a brass band."

Boy Cured of Colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

Comet and Murdered Presidents.

Encke's comet has heralded the death by assassination of three presidents of the United States. President Lincoln was assassinated on April 15, 1865; Encke's comet appeared Jan. 25, 1865, and was visible five months. President Garfield was the victim of the assassin's onslaught on July 2, 1881, and died Sept. 19; Encke's comet appeared Aug. 20, 1881, and was visible to the naked eye. President McKinley was attacked on Sept. 6 and died on Sept. 14, 1901; Encke's comet appeared on Aug. 15, 1901, and was visible for several weeks.—London News.

Notice.

To the Democratic voters of Pitt county.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the nomination for Register of Deeds of Pitt county subject of course to the action of the County Convention when it meets.

I have been a voter since 1871 and have always tried to do my whole duty as a good and loyal Democrat and if nominated and elected I will try to perform the duties of the office to the utmost of my ability. Thanking my friends in advance for their support, and awaiting the action of the Convention, I am for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Very truly,

J. L. Sugg.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L.
Wooten.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES
PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
