A Thought for the Day.

My sympathies in my earlier studies of the labor question went out entirely to the poor, the homeless, the wanderers; who are begging for work; but as I have taken a broader view of the situation I confess that today it is equally divided between these unfortunates and the unfortunates at the other end of the line, the sons and daughters of our well to do people, who are living practically enforced idleness. An "idle brain is the devil's workshop" is an old saw, and a true one, and, to my mind, it is equally true whether the idler is rich or poor. God never made a place for drones in human society. God never provided a place whereby a human being could be happy and idle.—Mayor Jones, of Toledo.

The Hygeia Hotel to be Moved Eight Miles By Water.

The Hygeia will be moved eight miles by water. The owners of the famous hotel received an offer of $50,000 to remove it entire to Willoughby Spit, a point eight miles away across Hampton Roads. If the hotel can be moved entire and set up on the opposite beach another hotel and the Hygeia will again be profitable. The great engineering feat of removing a frame building 400 feet long in the problem. The hotel is practically worthless, but a New York trust company holds a deed for $72,000 on it. The success of the plan depends on the skill of the engineer.—Norfolk, Va., Dispatch.

Gen. Carr a Candidate for Senator.

"Yes, I shall be a candidate for the United States Senate at the next meeting of our Legislature," said Gen. Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina, yesterday at the Shoreham.

Gen. Carr is one of the best known and most popular men in the Old North State. He emerged from the army, after having fought bravely for the Confederacy, with scarcely a dollar, but by dint of pluck and tireless energy, he amassed a big fortune in the manufacture of tobacco and a certain brand of which he was the producer has its merits blazoned on the pyramids of Egypt.

When Marion Butler went out of the Senate Gen. Carr was a candidate, but was defeated by Hon. F. M. Simmons in the Democratic primaries. The friends of Gen. Carr will make a determined effort to have him chosen as the successor of Senator Pritchard, whose term expires next March.—Washington Post.

A couple of young men in New York, sons of wealthy men and with plenty of money in their pockets, were arrested a few days ago for stealing a lot of cigarettes. They protested that they were only fanning, but the matter of fact cop who took them in couldn't see where the fun came in, nor could they when they were run in. There is no telling what may happen to the young man who fools with cigarettes.—Wilmington Star.

A thoughtful Charlotte man was recently commenting upon the racial or tribal vitality of the Croatan Indians of North Carolina. They never needed to be nursed in a reservation like the Cherokees in our own State or other tribes in other States. And yet they have lived, and these are as many or more of them today as there were a hundred years ago. The Croatans never needed any pampering or coaxing to preserve the stock. there is enough intermixture of Anglo Saxon blood in this mysterious human breed, beginning, can we doubt, with the intermingling in marriage with the lost Roanoke colony, to make the Croatan thrive in an Anglo Saxon atmosphere and amid Anglo Saxon environment. There is enough of this strain of blood to make himself assertive and by no means inclined to perish from the earth. The Croatan is here to stay.—Charlotte Observer.

Easy Enough.

The greater part of the subscribers to THE DAILY REFLECTOR who live in Greenville pay for the paper monthly, 25 cents at the time. Some of them want to know how they can come in for a chance at our sewing machine prize. That is easy enough. All they need to do is pay for four months, instead of one, and get a ticket. No payment less than $1 gets a ticket, but as many dollars as are paid gets that many tickets. The 10th of the month is collecting day from our town subscribers, and when the collector goes around then any one wanting a ticket can get it by taking a subscription receipt for $1. Somebody is going to get that $60 Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine at Sam White's store free, and it is worth having a chance at.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1902.

It may be because we notice the present more than the past, but in reading the papers it seems that the number of casualties from lightning is much larger this season than usual.

Governor Aycock has pardoned one of the gold brick swindlers who was convicted at Greensboro and sentenced to seven years imprisonment. Prominent Chicagoans interested themselves in his case and he goes back to that city.

It will be seen from the proceedings of County Commissioners, published today, that they did not wait for a suggestion about building a high fence around the jail, but have ordered the sheriff to have one built 16 feet high. This is the right thing to do to stop those out the outside from furnishing prisoners with tools to cut through the walls.

Speaking of the large edition of THE DAILY REFLECTOR last Saturday a gentleman remarked that he would like to see these double size Saturday issues of the paper a permanent feature. He said the merchants, tobacco people and business men generally ought to co-operate in making such special editions a great factor for good in drawing attention to Greenville and letting the people know the many advantages the town offers. THE REFLECTOR would be only too glad to do this and to have such co-operation from the business community as will accomplish what the gentleman had in mind. There will be another double edition next Saturday and our columns are at all times open to those who want to help Greenville along.

The democrats admit that the state has borrowed $200,000, but the republicans have as yet been unable to point out where the money has been squandered or spent extravagantly. While we do not like the borrowing idea, believing that taxes should be assessed and collected sufficient to support the government, if nothing can be shown up crooked there is little campaign argument in the matter. The democrats may be making a mistake in giving the people better government than they are paying for, but that is all.—Durham Herald

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 6.

Mr. W. J. Jackson, of whose serious illness we wrote in our last items, died Monday afternoon, about 2 o'clock. Mr. Jackson was one of our best citizens, a man of high moral character and a gentleman admired and esteemed for his many christian virtues. He will be greatly missed for there are none that can well supply his place. His remains were laid at rest in the family burying place yesterday evening. He was buried by the Odd Fellows of Greenville and the funeral was preached by Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Cary.

Prof. F. C. Nye, one of the teachers recently elected for the next session of the Winterville High School, arrived yesterday morning. He is a gentleman of very prepossessing appearance and we have not the slightest doubt but what he will take well with our people.

Rev. J. B. Jackson, of Goldsboro, came yesterday to attend the funeral of his father.

We had the pleasure last Saturday of seeing our old friends as they were passing through on the train. Mrs. Sallie Greene, of LaGrange, and Dr. J. W. Perkins, of Greenville. We were indeed pleased to see them.

R. D. "Bo" Cherry and Elma Barrett came down Sunday and spent the better part of the afternoon with us. Come again boys we shall always be glad to see you.

B. F. Manning and J. F. Harrington, our two king merchants, and there are none better, are now in the northern markets, after fall goods.

Prof. Gorrell, of Wake Forest, Professor of Modern Languages, spent Monday night with Prof. Lineberry.

C. A. Fair went to the capital yesterday.

A. A. Forbes and John Jenkins, of Greenville, passed through late Monday evening.

J. A. Nichols left for Aulander Tuesday.

Miss Annie Stox is on a visit to friends in Ayden.

Winterville High School will have seven teachers during the next session and ample preparations have been made for the accommodation of the large patronage in anticipation.

Miss Mary Harper, of Black Jack, is visiting her brother, J. W. Harper.

C. D. Hooks and Herod are over in Greene county, and Mrs. Hooks is in charge of the store as chief clerk, general manager, &c.

Mrs. Gray Sutton, of Greenville, who has been visiting Mrs. G. A. Kittrell, returned home this morning.

The Raleigh Times learns from a penitentiary director that the penitentiary board expects to clear $30,000 above all expenses this year. The penitentiary board ought not to give out such statements, for nobody believes them. The people have been too often deceived about the management of the penitentiary. When the penitentiary board finds that it has cleared $30,000 or any other sum, or has even paid expenses, let it publish a statement accompanied by as many affidavits as it can get, showing the exact facts. Until this is done the people will decline to accept any statement about the penitentiary clearing money.—Statesville Landmark.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

No woman is a heroine to her dressmaker.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A man isn't necessarily an angel because he flies high.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

One active cause of a shrinkage in values is the assessor's visit.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

Most men would rather borrow than be caught begging or stealing.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The poor girl thinks it's positively wicked for a man to marry for money.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

According to the small boy's version, a thin slice of cake is better than no bread.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Always inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. Jno. L. Wooten.

PERSONAL NOTES

Brief Mention of People Met
 With in the Social World

B. F. Tyson returned this morning from Beaufort.

J. R. Bergeron has moved here from Elizabeth City.

Dr. L. C. Skinner returned to Parme this morning.

Miss Carrie Hughes left Tuesday evening for Ayden.

Miss Mittie Bynum, of Wilson, is visiting Miss Ellen Parker.

J. A. Crews, agent of the Wilmington Messenger, came in this morning.

Mrs. E. S. Greene, of LaGrange, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F.
 M. Hodges.

Misses Ollie and Susie Moye, of Wilson, are visiting their uncle,
 E. A. Moye.

Miss Alice Carson, of Virginia, came in Tuesday evening to visit friends here.

Miss Dora Powell, of Goldsboro, arrived this morning to visit her aunt, Mrs. C. D. Rountree.

Miss Noa Brinkley, of Plymouth, arrived Tuesday evening to visit Mrs. W. A. Bowen.

Miss Annie Perkins and little Miss Annie Leonard Tyson returned this morning from Beaufort.

Miss Carlotta Mewborn, of New Bern, who has been visiting Miss Alice Lang, left Tuesday evening.

Parrot at Large.

Mrs. V. H. Whichard owns a parrot. Tuesday morning while the bird was being fed she got out of the cage and flew up a tree in the yard. Up to this afternoon she was still occupying her high perch and showing no disposition to come down.

Scattered Rains.

There is general remark about the rains being so scattered this summer. When showers have come they covered only a small territory, and only a short distance away there would be no rain at all. Riding along the road some farms show they have not suffered for want of rain, while the neighboring one is parched with drouth.
 The rains have just hit about in spots.

The Usual Result.

Tuesday night John Plummer and John Duff, both colored, were amusing themselves snapping an "unloaded" pistol at each other, taking it by turns. There was the usual report, and Duff caught a bullet in the thigh.

Of course Plummer "didn't mean to shoot" and was sorry for it, but he is indicted all the same for pointing a pistol at another person, the law making such an act a misdemeanor, even though the pointing be done in fun. The intent of the law is to prevent just such accidents as this.

Sans Souci Club.

Reported for The Reflector:

On Tuesday afternoon, August 5th, the San Souci Club held its regular meeting with Miss Rosalind Rountree. The President being absent, the Vice President, Miss Bruce Forbes, filled the chair.

The hostess entertained her guests with a "Musical Romance" Miss Elizabeth Jones winning the prize.

The following were present
 Misses Pat Skinner, Mary Biow,
 Winnie Skinner, Elizabeth Jones,
 Bettie Tyson, Mary Belle White,
 Bessie Patrick and Bruce Forbes.

Delicious refreshments were served, after which the club adjourned to meet again Aug. 19th, with Miss Pat Skinner.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
