If any one present failed to be comforted by the beautiful analysis of this grand text, the fault was in the hearing and not in the preaching. Better Literature for the Young.

While our attention is being constantly called to the demoralizing effects of cigarettes and strong drink, and while there is a righteous war fare raging against these two things, why not also spend some of our strength in exterminating some of the foul, dirty literature that is being read by so many of our boys and girls.

Our law makers have seen the evil effects of drink and tobacco, and have tried through legislation, to put a check upon these two things as concerns our boys, but there is a class of literature that is circulating in the hands of our youth that is almost as demoralizing as whiskey or cigarettes.

It is surprising what an influence the literature read in childhood has upon us in future life, and is the children of today become influenced by the typical characteristics of the trashy novels and Jesse James' adventure stories, need we be shocked with the characters shown in the lives of the future man and woman. Surely this question should engage the attention of every parent and every teacher.

MONDAY, AUGUST 11, 1902.

And now some fellow has found out that spirits of turpentine applied freely is better than corn Whiskey for snakes bite.

But my; won't he have a time making some folks believe it.

Well, its about time for our imperialistic citizenship to begin dakin out for another royal show. It is rumored that the crown Prince of Siani is preparing to make us a visit, accompanied by his brother, Prince Chakrabongse and Col. Phya Trajawalebin, his first side de camps, and Capt. Luang Sarasiddhe, his second.

While laying in stores for this occasion, we would suggest some good work on pronunciation as a part of the outfit.

HORRIBLE DEATH OF CAST-OFF DAUGHTER OF RICH PARENTS.

In a lonely house on Long Island near the summer home of the President of the United States there died one day this week a woman who formerly moved in good society in New York and Brooklyn and who at the time of her death had wealthy relatives living in these cities. This woman lived and died all alone. No one knew anything about her or who her family were. She died of starvation and the effects of excessive drinking. Her neighbors say the house rent was paid and money sent her regularly by some one in the city of New York, but by whom no one knew. Her money, though, all went for liquor. The story goes that she had become such an habitual drunkard that her family put her in this house all alone and there kept her, supplying her with money enough to complete her run and bring an end to her miserable life as quickly as the vicious, degrading habit could do its work.

What a blot upon the Christianity and civilization of the American people of this enlightened Twentieth century.

Neighbors seeing no signs of life about the place for several days forced an entrance in the house and a most appalling sight met their gaze. On a mattress in one corner of the room lay the woman. She was alive, but delirious from the effect of starvation and heavy drinking. In the house with her were five dogs living, but in emaciated condition, and two that had evidently died of starvation. Two dead chickens were found near the bed on which the woman lay and several live ones in other parts of the house.—Wilmington Messenger.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Wooten's drug store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c. per box.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. White, Jr., went to Winterville Wednesday. Mrs. J. W. Dixon has been quite sick for the past few days.

Frank Cox and Marshall Dixon, from Clay Root, were here Sunday.

We are glad to note J. K. McGowan and son Madison who were considerably shocked Monday evening are much improved.

Mrs. L. H. White went to Greenville Friday.

Amos Clark accompanied by Miss Lula Smith spent Saturday in Washington.

"Mad Jack's" Naval Prank.

Captain Percival of the navy, whose portrait has just been presented to the navy department, died in 1862. He was known as "Mad Jack" Percival because of eccentricities which on many occasions brought him in conflict with the naval authorities. The portrait was sent by Mrs. William Nicholson, but who she is the department is unable to discover.

Captain Percival was sent to Morocco with his frigate to bring back a cargo of jackasses for the government, and in order to show his contempt for the employment of a war vessel for such a mission on entering New York harbor he ran in all his guns and placed the head of a jackass through each port as the ship sailed in. The sight of a double row of jackasses' heads protruding from the places where guns were looked for created a sensation at the time, and "Mad Jack" narrowly escaped a reprimand.

Ostentation.

"Yes," said the woman with sharp eyes, "those people who moved in next door are inclined to make an ostentatious display of their wealth."

"In what way?" "They go into the corner grocery and order beefsteak in a loud tone of voice."—Washington Star.

Correct, But—

Doctor—Your symptoms seem to show that you ride a great deal in trolley cars.

Patient—That's the truth, sir.

Doctor—Ah, it is plain your trouble is due to your sedentary habits. Now, then, what is your business?

Patient—I'm a motorman.—Philadelphia Press.

A Sign Reader.

"I'm beginning to be able to read signs!" said Harry, rushing into the house to display his new accomplishment.

"No! Are you really?" asked a round eyed small sister.

"Yes, indeed. Listen to this: What do you think it's a sign of when our old gray cat catches a bird?"

The little sister pondered and gave it up.

"I'm sure I don't know, Harry. Do tell me."

"It's a sure sign of bad luck for the bird!" cried Harry, rushing out again in a hurry.

We have such confidence that once you have used Hagan's Magnolia Balm on the face, neck, arms and hands, and seen its instantaneous effects in beautifying the complexion and the skin, you will continue its use and never use any other aid to beauty. Knowing this to be a fact, as we have said, we will forward a sample bottle free to you if you will cut out this coupon and send it with your name and address to Lyon Manufacturing Co., 41, 43 & 45 South Fifth St., BROOKLYN, N. Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

The most painful suspense is hanging.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

The best way to find out whether a tree is hollow or not is to go and ax it.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

'Tis the duck of a girl who marries a quack of a man.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Always inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucus membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. Jno. L. Wooten.

The preferred creditor is the one who waits longest for his pay.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs.—Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

We now wonder if the sand trust will effect the sugar trade.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The valuation of Durham's taxation property this year was an increase over one million dollars.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—E. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

SMITH---LANG.

Wednesday evening, Aug. 6th, at eight o'clock, Mr. Bert Smith and Miss Mamie Lang were happily married at the home of the bride, which was very tastefully decorated for the occasion. After the playing of the wedding march, which was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Lillie Horton, came Mr. Frank Davis as best man with Miss Agnes Moore, maid of honor, who was dressed in pure white organdy and carried pink carnations. Next came John S. Smith, of Tarboro and Miss Lucy Bryant, of Saratoga; J. B. Johnson and Miss Ellie Smith, both of Greenville; Miss Mary Lewis and J. S. Smith, both of Farmville; David Lang, of Reba and Miss Alyce Harper, of Farmville; Roland Lang, of Farmville and Miss Vernessa Smith, of Greenville. Then came the bride who was beautifully attired in white organdy and carrying brides roses, beaming on the arm of the groom. They were met by Rev. D. H. Arnold who solemnly and impressively made them man and wife.

Immediately after the marriage they drove to Mrs. Tom Dixon's, sister of the groom, where a very delightful reception was given them. They received many valuable and handsome presents. The bride is one of Farmville's sweetest and prettiest young ladies, and the groom is a most worthy young man. We congratulate the happy couple and hope their lives may be one of peace, happiness and prosperity.

Perhaps no branch of industry offers more to young men now than architecture. The young man who sets about acquiring an education which looks to a special preparation for a master in high class architecture can promise himself as much as if he should enter what have heretofore been called the learned professions. But young men who think of turning to such practical things often make the mistake of concluding that they do not need a thorough and finished education for such work. No matter what a young man proposes to do he needs an education. One does not know at what time or place an education will bear him out better than anything else.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The Psalm of the Feature.

Man that is born of woman is of
but a few days and full of trouble,
for the trust is his mooter.
In the day of infancy in the moving of life, he rocketh his tired body to sleep in a trust made cradle. His nourishment is trust made food. At noon he worketh for the trust at starvation wages.
In the evening he is sick of a fever. Behold, he is attended by a trust physician takes trust made medicine, and dies only to be buried in a trust made coffin. Behold, he is altogether wretched!

to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring custom-want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.
