The Girl of Fifteen.

The great thing for a young girl to know is that she doesn't know anything. All which life teaches is to come. She has heard much talk, read a few books, looked out of wondering eyes upon the great world, but she has not had a chance to do anything, and until one actually enters into the activities of life can know nothing of realities.

It is true that the school girl has been brought into contact with active young minds, and with teachers and instructors. She is learning something about human nature, something about the play of forces good and bad in the society she happens to be a part of; but unable to compare, to judge, to reason closely, of necessity she remains ignorant of the real, living working world.

When a girl has the sense to realize exactly the place she occupies in the social order she is a most happy girl. Content to be herself, leaving the management of things to older and wiser persons, looking on and learning as she goes, joyous, hopeful, helpful and gay—there is nothing in all nature so beautiful and sweet as this kind of a girl of fifteen. While she defers to the will and advice of her parents in all things, this girl begins to reflect, to reason and compare, and thus she learns as she goes on her way. Later on experience becomes her teacher, an all that she observes now will be translated into what she can understand by experience.—Ada C. Sweet in the Woman's Home Companion, Observe Labor Day.

Voicing patriotic sentiments and calling upon all people in the State to fully observe a day set apart by the General Assembly of North Carolina as Labor Day, Governor Aycock has issued the following:

Labor Day, 1902. A Proclamation: By the Governor,

Whereas, The Legislature of North Carolina has appointed the first Monday in September of each year Labor Day, and a general holiday, the said first Monday in September being the same day set aside by the statute of the United States and the statutes of the various States in the Union.

Now, therefore, I, Charles B. Aycock, Governor of the State of North Carolina, in recognition of said legislative acts and views a view to the continuance and strengthening of the good will which exists between all the people of this State, do request all of the citizens of North Carolina to observe.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1902, as a holiday, and that in every way possible employers co-operate with employes in worthy recognition of the dignity of labor and in the dignity of labor and in the becoming observance of Labor Day. Let there be as far as possible cessation of labor throughout the State. I request that all places of business of whatever character where labor is employed shall be closed to the end that those employed may enjoy a day of rest and thanksgiving. The day ought to be one observed by all people in expression of appreciation of those who toil, for upon them rests the progress, prosperity, success and happiness of the State. Let harmony exist between all employers and employees. Let us foster and strengthen that confidence between those who employ labor and those who work, which is essential to the peace of the State and the best interests of all the people.

In testimony whereof, I have therunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed. This the 13th day of August, A. D. 1902, and in the 127th year of our Independence.

(Signed) CHARLES B. AYCOCK.

King's Recovery Complete.

London, Aug. 14.—The British Medical Journal says the king's recovery is complete. The coronation ceremony and the reviews of the colonial and Indian troops have not been detrimental to his health. The remnant of the wound is infinitesimal and the healing is practically completed.

There is no truth whatever in the rumors which have been current that any second operation is contemplated.

Blood Hound a Witness.

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 14.—Special.—At Plymouth, N. C., today, Tiger, Hurricane Branch's celebrated bloodhound, was a witness in court against William Eanes, accused of wrecking a passenger train. It was through the dog's instinct that Eanes was arrested some days ago, the trail having led to his home. Eanes was held under $500 bond.

Would your suit look any cooler if you saved a few dollars on it? If so, look at the suits we are selling for $5.00, $6.00 and $8.00.

In weather like this you want everything to count for coolness, and hence the fit is an important part. You can't very well keep cool when you're raging mad at that bad-fitting coat that pulls down on your favorite shoulder bone.

Flannel coats and trousers. Oxford mixed flannel, just the thing for men who want to be in fashion, but not way in it. If you buy here, we take the risk. "Money back if you want it."

Lumberton Negro Arrested in Eoston for Murder.

Philadelphia, Aug. 13.—George McFadden, colored, today confessed to the police that he is wanted in Lumberton, N. C., for the murder in November, 1900, of Elizabeth Smith, also colored.

McFadden was employed by a contractor here and he boasted to the other employes of his alleged crime in the South. The police were informed and McFadden was arrested and confessed the crime.

Killed by Lightning.

A negro girl was killed at Evergreen, in Columbus county by lightning on Wednesday night of last week. The bolt came down the chimney and stunned several members of the family. The girl was lying on a bed, and after the others had recovered from the shock they went to look after her and found her dead. It is said that on a bed is the safest place to be during a thunder storm, but this is the second case of the kind we have heard of in the past few days.—Clarkton Express.

No Danger of Lynching.

Boston, Aug. 13.—Governor Crane had a letter to-day from Governor Aycock, of North Carolina, denying the contention of friends of Monroe Rogers, the young negro wanted at Durham, N. C., charged with arson, that if Rogers was returned to North Carolina he could not be given a fair trial. The Rogers case has attracted much attention since the application for extradition, because of the claim that Rogers would be lynched if sent back to the South.

Governor Aycock in his letter stated that the most ample protection would be given to Rogers. The Attorney General of North Carolina, also, has written to Attorney General Parker, of Massachusetts, giving assurances similar to those of Governor Aycock.

Some time last week while Mrs. Bell, of Goose Nest township, was at church, Joseph Lynch, a man who was living on the place broke into the house and stole a gold watch and $12 in money. Lynch was arrested Thursday and the watch and $10 found on his person.—Williamston Enterprise.

Dynamite Cruiser Vesuvius a Failure.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The career of the Vesuvius as a dynamite cruiser is to be ended. Acting Secretary of the Navy, Darling, gathered about him today the members of the naval board on construction and after communicating with themselves for a while. It was decided that the swift and rakish craft which was supposed to be capable of belching forth death and destruction like her namesake of Italy should be declared to be unsuitable for the purpose for which she was built. A board of officers will be appointed to determine whether she shall be sold or whether it is worth while to take out her big pneumatic guns and convert her into a plain ordinary gunboat or dispatch vessel.

Felon Brains His Mate.

Tillery, N. C., Aug. 14.—Two white convicts named Moore and Spivey at Camp Number 2 got into a dispute over a trivial matter yesterday and Spivey, who has only one arm, used an iron bar on Moore's head, crushing his skull in a half a dozen different places. The injured man died in a few minutes.

The murderer is held in irons.

Miss Parloa's Recipe For Making a Delicious Orange Pudding.

In a recent cooking demonstration Miss Parloa showed how to make a particularly delicious orange pudding. The materials were a cupful of finely powdered cracker crumbs, one cupful and a half of granulated sugar, three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, one cupful of water, two tablespoonfuls of butter, the rind of three oranges and juice of six and half a dozen eggs. Soak the cracker crumbs in the cold water for an hour. At the end of this time grate upon them the rind of three oranges, using only the thin yellow part. Squeeze the juice from half a dozen oranges and add to the mixture. Break the eggs, separating three whites from the yolks and putting them away in a cool place. Put the butter in a warm bowl and beat until soft and creamy; then gradually add the sugar. Beat the eggs, except the reserved whites, until light and frothy and add them to the sugar and butter. Stir this into the orange and cracker mixture. Butter a pudding dish holding two quarts and a pint and pour the pudding into it. Bake for an hour in a very slow oven. Use the whites as a meringue.

A Novel Decoration.

That the love of toys is not by any means confined to children is brought to one's attention once more by the newest freaks in table ornaments. The Noah's ark has been put to a novel use and now "decorates" the table and undoubtedly creates an abundance of small talk between courses. The animals are made of silver, well modeled and larger than those stiff wooden creatures of the old time ark. The accepted scheme is to arrange these beasts and birds in a winding procession among the flower pieces, where they are sure of being brilliantly lighted by the lamps or candles. One hostess who never allows conventions to check what she calls her "quaint ideas" arranged her procession of elephants, giraffes, cows and pigs in a letter S, which wound round the silver dishes filled with sweet peas and ferns. At one end of the table was the ark, made of brown bark and apparently floating on a piece of mirror.

To Remove Varnish.

To sandpaper varnished furniture is a tedious job. A much quicker and more satisfactory way of removing varnish and paint is to scrub the surface with a strong solution of sal soda. To each pint of water add enough common washing soda to equal the bulk of a hen's egg, heat it and apply while warm. If the varnished surface is moistened with this, then let stand a few moments. It can be scrubbed off easily, using the solution on the scrubbing brush. All foreign material will be removed from the wood, and it will be just as it was turned out from the mill. Rinse off with clear water, and when dry it may be revarnished.

To My Friends.
 It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

The man who tries to heap coals of fire on the head of another often gets his hands badly burned.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

Friendship, up to a certain point, is stronger than money, but unfortunately that point is soon reached.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Some mothers spare the rod and spoil the slipper.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

"Woman is the apple of man's eye" the apple of discord.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

We now wonder if the sand trust will effect the sugar trade.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A Boy Drowned.

Wilmington, N. C. Aug. 14.—Andrew Cowan, the six year old son of a widow of this city, was drowned in the Cape Fear river today while playing on a raft of timber at a dock on the water front. The boy was with a brother two years his senior when he fell overboard. Workmen on the dock rushed to the lad's rescue, but he was carried under the raft by the swift current and disappeared. An expert diver recovered the body nearly an hour afterwards. Efforts were made at resuscitation but they proved fruitless.
