The South's Greatest Industrial College.

"The A. and M. College is full and cannot receive any more boys, except those previously granted permits to come."

This is the message sent by President Winston yesterday on the first day of the session. The message tells its own story; and the story reads as follows:

An industrial college, growing in three years from 150 students to nearly 500; an industrial State, demanding skilled workers in wood, cotton, iron, tobacco, clays and all forms of agriculture; an intelligent, energetic, strong and ambitious generation of young men seeking for industrial training and education; and the doors of the college closed for lack of room. A part of this story is very bright, but a part is discouraging and discreditable. The last chapter should be revised, and surely will be.

This is an education age as well as an industrial age. North Carolina is now recognized as leading the South both in education and industrial development. Here is the place therefore for the greatest industrial educational school in the South.

The chief duty of the next legislature will be to provide for education, and, in performing this duty, nothing will demand more attention than the needs of the A. & M. College. That institution is not adequately equipped. It lacks dormitories, shops, laboratories, chemical buildings, and buildings for physics and electricity as well as large equipment for agriculture. There is no economy in denying or postponing this equipment. The youth of the State should be educated and properly equipped; especially should they receive the best industrial education that the age affords and demands.

Let rooms and instruction be provided for all who desire to come; and let the A. & M. be recognized as the best equipped as well as the most popular industrial college in the South.—Raleigh Post.

Mr. Hamp West, of near Dover, had an experience the other night that was exciting—to say the least—and he cannot think of it now without a shudder. He was sitting in his room, reading. To make himself more comfortable he opened and placed his feet in a bureau drawer. Soon after he felt something cold and clammy pass over his feet, and upon investigation found a large king snake in the drawer. Mr. West gazed with horror at the serpent and lost no time in getting his feet on the floor. The snake crawled out of the drawer and moved quickly around the room, trying to escape. Mr. West finally dispatched it with a stick.—Kinston News.

G. E. MORRIS, Prop., Greenville, N. C.

FOR SHAME!

There are few backwoodsmen, with the faintest sense of humor, who can fail to be much amused by the reports in the metropolitan papers of the carryings on of the Four Hundred of New York and of fashionable society at Newport, and the temptation to take a shy at their frivolity, the result of absolute idleness, is irresistible. To the backwoods mind the character of some of their entertainments, and their fantastic performances, done in the name of good society, are unspeakably absurd, and the performers are made the objects of a good deal of amiable ridicule, some of which cannot be repressed. But a very different thing from this is the general judgment of unchastity which Col. Henry Watterson pronounces, in The Louisville Courier Journal, of Tuesday, upon the women of that society, whom, along with the men, he characterizes as "unclean birds," and of whom he says they "are equally depraved with its men; they know all the dirt the men know." "The women of the Smart Set," he says, "no longer pretend to recognize virtue as a feminine accomplishment. Innocence is a badge of delinquency, a sign of the crude and raw, a deformity, which, if tolerated at all, must carry some promise of amendment; for among these titled Cyprians, the only thing needful is to know it all!"

This is going a bow-shot too far. It is well enough to denounce, as much as one will, the gilded men of this society, who make a god of money and who spend their days in vulgar ostentation and their nights in revelry. Nay, more, it is allowable to throw a shaft of ridicule at the empty-headed women who parade their nonsense along with their jewels and poodles through the public press before a long-suffering public. But to characterize these women, as a class, and without evidence to support the accusation, as wanton, simply because they are silly, is intolerable, and such wholesale charges of moral delinquency earns for itself the severest reprobation. Coming as it does in this case from a Southern gentleman, it is amazing. American men in general and Southern gentlemen in particular have understood throughout the ages that men are to have the widest latitude in talking and writing about men; the remedy for the wrong is in the hands of the man and he is justified when he uses it, being sufficiently aggrieved. But there is an unwritten law which protects the reputation of women, and Col. Watterson, is the first reputable gentleman to overstep the boundary line and bring a general charge of incontinence against a class.—Charlotte Observer.

Now, Henry, won't you be good?

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. The coal stove is not likely to become enthusiastic over the strike situation.

Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier Journal, is carrying the sensitive article of "The Four Hundred" with Senator Tillman's pitchfork.

It is said that a hungry soldier is the best fighter. Which probably illuminates the canned-beef scandal which brought the Spanish-American war into some prominence.

Gen. Carr has the advantage of the other gentlemen. Being neither in the east nor the west, he can run twice to their once.—Kinston News.

Very, very improper! Senatorial courtesy, General.

We hope that shooting editors will not become over popular as an argument.—Kinston News.

Well, yes. Fact is, that kind of argument is seldom well pointed. The exception is, when the editor is up on the intricacies of manipulating a self-cocker. In that case, the result is apt to prove eminently satisfactory to the coroner's jury, and to the editor.

From certain events which have occurred within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and which may or may not be considered in connection with the attitude of the late convention at Greensboro (it depends on how you look at it, don't cher know), it seems superfluous to observe that, politically, gentlemen of color have been relegated to the innocuous desuetude of the Whangdoodle and the Dodo. Selah!

A government bacterologist in London has discovered about sixteen species of microbes which roam at will, and in myriads, in the average pie sold in that town. Some of them have names longer than the diameter of the pies. The Britishers have been munching these pies with avidity for years, and still there are some of them living.—Wilmington Star.

The surviving Boers and the British pies that are still living should come together for mutual sympathy.

On Sept. 8th, just as the dark shades of night were expanding in to day, the Lord in His wise counsel saw fit to take from among us, our devoted friend and neighbor, Mrs. W. E. Moore. She was a true wife, loving mother and fond sister, and will be sadly missed by her large circle of friends. She leaves a devoted husband, one little babe, father, mother and six sisters. LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county made at March Term 1902 in a certain cause therein pending, entitled "In re probate in solemn form of the Last Will and Testament of Thos. J. Sheppard, deceased." I will, on Monday, October 13 1902, at 12 o'clock m., before the Court House door in Greenville, sell at public sale to the highest bidder, for cash, the following pieces or parcels of land belonging to the estate of the late Thos. J. Sheppard, situate in Carolina township, Pitt county, to wit:

1. One tract lying west of the Washington Branch of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, adjoining the said Railroad, the lands of the heirs of Daniel Hill and the lands of J. H. Satterthwaite, containing 115 acres, more or less, and known as a part of the John S. Smith land and a part of the Langley land.

2. One tract lying on the east side of said railroad and immediately between said railroad and the county road leading from Tarboro to Washington, and adjoining the land of J. B. Little on the south and the land of Daniel Hill's heirs on the north, containing 320 acres, more or less.

3. One tract lying on the east side of the county road leading from Tarboro to Washington, and bounded on the west by said road; on the south by the public road commonly called the Griffin road; on the east by a line running from a pine on said Griffin road, known as Sheppard and Little's corner, a north-west course to a pine stump on the side of a little branch, known as Jenkin's corner, and on the north by Alfred Jenkin's land, containing 380 acres more or less.

4. One tract adjoining the last described tract, the land of Alfred Jenkins, M. A. Wooldard, the high water mark of Sheppard's mill pond down to Frank Pollard's land, thence with Pollard's line to Bryant Whitehurst's line, thence with Whitehurst's line to the high water mark of said mill pond, thence with said high water mark down to the Griffin road, thence with the Griffin road to the 380 acre tract, containing 390 acres more or less.

5. One tract beginning at Sheppard's and Little's corner on the Griffin road and running with Little's line to R. R. Fleming's line to the Tarboro Washington road, thence with said road to the Sheppard mill race,

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

There is nothing more costly than experience, and yet everybody has to have it regardless of the price.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

The reason that chickens are the most religious fowls in the world is because so many of them enter the ministry.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

There are some men on whom praise has no effect.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Leave your relatives plenty of money if you want their flowers on your grave.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

The tongues of some people become younger as they grow older.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

If you are right you needn't tell everybody about it.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Slow Starvation

is the fate of sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion. If your food remains undigested it can't build up the body. In fact, it does actual damage by decaying in the stomach and poisoning the system.

KODOL Digests What You Eat.

Kodol is the sensible remedy. By digesting what you eat it strengthens the body and at the same time rests the stomach. This rest soon restores perfect health. Cathartics and stimulants only reach the symptoms. Kodol cures. It is Nature's tonic.

Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such a hold on me that I could scarcely go. I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines, but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grasps at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles am sound and well.
 GEORGE S. MARSH, Attorney-at-Law, Nocona, Tex.

Some pill maker must think all of the Greenville folks are sick, as nearly everybody here has received a sample package of pills.

PERSONAL NOTES

Brief Mention of People Met With in the Social World

Clarence Whichard is back to the office to-day.

R. L. Smith is on a visit to the horse markets.

Mrs. Ben Batts, of Snow Hill, is visiting Mrs. S. B. Wilson.

Mrs. J. P. Hilliard returned from Bath Monday evening.

Mrs. Herbert Moseley, of Kingston, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Move.

Jarvis Harding returned to A. & M. College, Raleigh, Monday evening.

J. K. Morrissey and W. R. Steadman departed by 8:30 train this morning.

T. E. Barrow and T. U. Lassiter, of Lizzie, took the morning train for Norfolk.

Miss Mamie Cox left this morning for Chocowinity to enter school at that place.

Mrs. F. C. Harding and Miss Martha Harding, left for Center-ville Monday evening.

Miss Dora Carr, who has been visiting Mrs. Alice Harper, left for Wilson this morning.

Mrs. Harry Skinner and Miss Winnie Skinner came in from Rocky Mount on Monday evening's train.

Superb Music.

Is rendered by our Simplex Piano Player attached to one of our fine pianos. It plays perfectly the most difficult music with fine expression. Hear this and see our matchless line of pianos.

THE CABLE COMPANY,
next to D. W. Hardee's.

Has Somebody Gone Mad?

There's not a word that's written, There's not a page that's read, There's not a word that's said, Not even a word unspoken— That does not either gladden, And peace and pleasure send To hearts most dear, or madden, A kindred, foe or friend.

G. G. FINEMAN, of the Steiff Piano Co.

A Tobacco Man.

Mr. T. E. Barrow, of Lizzie, told THE REFLECTOR that he has disposed of the tobacco from eighteen acres, ungraded, for twenty seven hundred dollars. He lost one barn by fire, and had sold some from the same acreage which is not included in the above amount.

The Liberty Leads.

There were 74 wagons of tobacco camped in the Liberty Warehouse, last night, besides the hundreds of loads that came in during this morning for today's sale. This gives an idea of what the Liberty is doing. The farmers know that W. T. Lipscomb & Co., look well to their interest and get the highest prices on every pile of tobacco.

Fire Department.

At its meeting Monday night Hope Fire Company appointed a committee to confer with the Board of Aldermen with reference to the chieftaincy of the Fire Department.

This is the sequel, in part, of the recent action of the Board, contrary to precedence, in appointing a chief of the Fire Department without regard to the recommendation of the Fire Company.

Mr. W. A. B. Hearne has taken a position as assistant editor of the Greenville REFLECTOR. This evidently means increased business for the paper, and we congratulate brother Whichard on his success.

A Great Scheme.

A patent medicine concern heads an ad with the caption "Tot causes night alarm." The article is a remedy for colds, etc. We would suggest that the firm add to its line a patent liniment and work this along with the bronchial specialty. The same ad with slight alteration, would cover both curatives, just as the "Tot" stimulates the demand for each. It might point out that, while the old man is shivering around in the dark, feeling for the paregoric and paying the way to a consumptive untimely end, the proverbial carpet tack comes into play through the unprotected sole of a pedal extremity, in view of which contingency this liniment was especially designed, and if used as directed will shield the happy father from the disagreeable notoriety of a newspaper account, etc.

Orders for JOB PRINTING are solicited. Best work.

FARMS FOR SALE!

One Farm, 1 1/2 miles from here, 171½ acres, 110 cleared. Good land for tobacco, corn, cotton, etc. Splendid dwelling, two tobacco barns and tenant houses.
