Chain Gang.

The Pitt County Chain Gang, comprising thirteen or fourteen members, made its debut at 10 o'clock this morning, and marched off by twos in charge of Messrs. John Rieves and Ed Belcher, for work on the river road about three miles above town. They will cut a new road from a point near Mr. Bob Allen's, across the branch beyond, to an opposite point near Mr. O. L. Joyner's. Those who have climbed down and up the hills at this place will appreciate the good judgment of the authorities in deciding on the change noted. Riding down the old hill between the branch and Mr. Joyner's is certainly the cleverest imitation of shooting the chutes to be witnessed anywhere this side of the Blue Ridge.

Squirrel Becomes a Captive.

We often hear of a wild animal being captured and tamed, but it is out of the ordinary when one comes in voluntarily and becomes a willing captive. Mr. J. J. Elks, of Chicod Township, one of our nominees for County Commissioner, was here today and gave THE REFLECTOR this interesting item. He says that on last Saturday while his children were swinging in the yard, a squirrel nearly half grown came in the yard and commenced playing around the children. One of the little girls picked up the squirrel and it was as gentle as if it had been a tame one. The children seem delighted with their pet, and the squirrel seems equally pleased with its new surroundings.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Sept. 10 1902

Well! we feel like we've left home and gone off visiting. Strangers, Jerusalem! nothing hardly but strangers. It is only once in a while we see something familiar and then we have to look twice. Anyway, it don't make much difference; these strangers are just the cleverest set of ladies and gentlemen one ever did see. Maybe we will know 'em all after awhile and then we are going to feel better. They know us already, for the girls, bless their hearts, always smile when they see us. Our good looks we reckon, anyway we will all be acquainted by-and-bye. The dormitories are just run over, but ample preparation has been made and we can accommodate everybody. Only ten counties so far represented. On every train, the pupils are just coming in. The prospects for Winterville High School are indeed glowing. Everybody pull off hats and let's holler.

Religious services at Reedy Branch and May's Chapel demanded the presence of right many of our fellow citizens last Sabbath.

Hunsucker livery stables are now prepared to accommodate the travelling public and solicit their patronage.

Louie Highsmith and family left for a visit to Tarboro on the 8th.

Miss Mollie Bryan has been visiting in Falkland several days.

Miss Carlton, of the Winterville High School, spent Saturday and Sunday in Greenville, visiting her sister, Mrs. Matthews.

B. F. Manning & Co., have just received a car load of flour.

Misses Bessie and Lala Chapman, who have been visiting in Vanceboro, returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. Hill, of Greenville, was down here Saturday placing a long distance phone in the office of the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Mrs. Hiram Bell, of Pollocksville and Mr. and Mrs. Haynes, of Conetoe, were visiting friends here yesterday.

R. G. Chapman went to Greenville yesterday and again today.

Our farmers are very much depressed in spirits over the price of tobacco. If Greenville wants to be the tobacco market, it must keep up its reputation.

There are several young men visiting our town. Well, we are not surprised, the attractions are sufficient. Oh! they are here.

We like to forget. Frankie went to town yesterday, and he didn't have on a bell either.

Hunsucker buggies are still rolling out of the shop, on the road, in the towns, in the cities, and they will continue to roll for they have no superior, and this is a recognized fact by an appreciative public.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. John L. Wooten.

It is needless to give any outline regarding the merit of the "Stieff" Piano further than to say that for the past 60 years of its existence it has been enjoying an undisputed international reputation having won the prize medals in Philadelphia 1876, at the Paris (France) international exposition in 1878, Atlanta in 1881, New Orleans 1884-1885, Chicago world fair 1893, and at the late Charleston, S. WEDNESDAY, SEPT., 10, 1902.

After Pritchard, the Deluge.

The Progressive Farmer is out in a new suit. Poe man!

The strike situation is in danger of becoming Morganized.

Henry Watterson has cut the Smart Set with a stony stare.

Thomas L. Johnson promises the largest tented exhibition of its kind.

From remarks of the Durham Herald we infer that Greensboro has been caught riding on the tail of the band wagon.

There are doubtless many good and well meaning people among the promoters of the camp meeting at Charlotte, but they are not very much in evidence beside the nightly exhibitions of the pimp and his business relations at Latta Park.

A colored gem'man, returning from Raleigh, where he has been enjoying the hospitality of the State for some time, in consideration of his strenuous imitation of the late Brigham Young, attributes his entertainment to a case of "bigity."

There is hardly a building started up here but what the complaint is heard that material can not be secured fast enough to prevent interruption in the work. But nobody gets imbued with the idea that a brick manufacturing plant here could make money for the promoters. There ought to be such an enterprise.

The Charlotte News turned its search light on a negro camp-meeting, with results that must jar the good brethren and sisters who are sustaining the hands of the elders. For shamelessly conspicuous immorality, the occasion furnishes an opportunity that the devil seems to have taken advantage of to the full, without serious discomfiture to the "Swamp Angel," ex-gubernatorial candidate of Alabama and suspected embezzler of church funds. The unsavory reputation of this fin de siècle evangelist, with the bluish solicitude of the go-be-tweens who circulate around the grand stand, suggest a feeble barrier between the midnight pulpit and the police.

William Jennings Bryan has resumed his continuous performance.

The Kinston Free Press tells of a double suicide at Dover, Monday night. Two young men, J. O. Griffin and Joseph Thigpen, drank poison together, seemingly by agreement and died within a few hours of each other. Both had met with disappointment in love affairs.

It is certainly gratifying that the kind of instruction offered by the A. & M. College has met with the appreciation of so many of our young men. The Alumni of no other institution will prove a greater credit to the state than A. & M. boys. We need them, and the next Legislature should by all means extend the facilities of the College sufficiently to obviate any recurrence of the present situation.

The very latest is a circus combine. The big fellows are to come together, freeze the little 'uns out or attach 'em as side shows, and probably raise the price. Oh, this is a sordid age. First thing you know you won't be allowed to sit on your rail fence and crack jokes with the hired man, without consulting a rate book and a yard stick. We'd rather see (see?) every show bust and have to start all over again.

Has Somebody Gone Mad?

A misprint in Mr. G. G. Fineman's poem, in yesterday's paper, must have given the muse a jolt. In justice to the author, we reprint the poem, as corrected.

There's not a word that's written,
 There's not a page that's read,
 There's not a word that's said,
 Not even a thought unspoken—
 That does not either gladden,
 And peace and pleasure send
 To hearts most dear, or madden,
 A kindred, foe or friend.

G. G. FINEMAN,
 of the Stieff Piano Co.

Cow Bells by 'Phone.

An unusual sale was pulled off "by wire" today. A gentleman living 15 miles from Greenville telephoned to H. L. Carr's hardware store and told S. D. King, who answered the 'phone, that he wanted a cow bell. Mr. King told the gentleman he had two grades of bells, when he was instructed to ring them near the 'phone so the purchaser could hear them.

Report of Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury at the recent term of Court made the following report.

We the Grand Jury of the fall term Pitt Superior court 1902, report that we have examined the Home for the aged and infirm—the county jail, and court house and find them all in good condition. We beg to recommend to the County Commissioners that the lands belonging to the Home be cleared and fitted for cultivation so as to make the Home more self sustaining. ## Mrs. Laura S. Webb,

Vice-President of Women's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

HERE ARE MANY sickly women between the ages of 45 and 55, but there are very few invalids over 55 and 60 years of age. The change of life coming to a woman near her forty-fourth year, either makes her an invalid or gives her a new lease on life. Those who meet this change in ill health seldom live ten years afterward, while a woman who lays aside the active duties of womanhood in health seldom fails to live on in happiness, years after she has passed 60. This is truly a critical time.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, of Toledo, Ohio, recognizes the change of life as a dangerous period and she also has faith in Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"As I had always been troubled more or less at the menstrual period, I dreaded

Mrs. Laura S. Webb.

the change of life which was fast approaching. While visiting with a friend I noticed that she was taking your Wine of Cardui, and she was so enthusiastic about it that I decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax. I do not dread it now, as I am sure that your Wine of Cardui will be of great benefit at this time."

Wine of Cardui is the remedy to re-inforce a woman against the shock that comes with the change of life. It re-establishes healthy functions after years of suffering. In doing this it has saved thousands of sufferers just in time. Do not wait until suffering is upon you. Thorough preparations should be made in advance. Begin the Wine of Cardui treatment today.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

 Gen. Supt.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Benevolence is to love all men; knowledge, to know all men.—Confucius.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

When there has been death in the family, the house seems terribly large.—Atchinson Globe.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Greensboro need not expect much sympathy in her disappointment.—Durham Herald.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Well, Greensboro can sit on the fence and see him go by.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

Orders for JOB PRINTING are solicited. Best work.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

For Job Printing in all the latest styles send us your orders.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.
