OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C. Sept. 15.

The outlook for the new Masonic Temple, which it has been decided to erect in this city, is said to be exceedingly encouraging.

The preparations for a great State Fair next month are going ahead with the most encouraging indications of a great success. Send for premium-list, and whether you make an exhibit or not, be sure and put in your appearance Fair Week—October 27-31.

Lawyer Lindsay Patterson, of Winston, against Lawyer W. W. Kitchen, of Roxboro, is the size of the fight for Congress that is to be made in the new Fifth District, Mr. Patterson having been selected by the independent or "Hill Democrats" at the conference held at Greensboro last Thursday. The general expectation is that the Republicans will endorse Patterson.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate has been enlarged to a 16 page paper, magazine form. Dr. Ivey, its able, devout and plucky editor, is making the "old Raleigh" one of the best religious papers of the South.

The Republican Convention of the Fourth (Raleigh) District has been called to meet in this city September 25th.

At the annual meeting of the Appalachian Park Association, held at Asheville a few days ago, Mr. R. P. Hayes was elected to the Presidency and Dr. Ambler re-elected Secretary and Treasurer. The Knoxville Chamber of Commerce will probably go to Asheville in a short time to have a meeting to boom the park bill. Representatives from towns in Tennessee, Georgia and North Carolina will be invited to attend.

Col. Pearsall, private secretary to Governor Aycock, has issued a statement to the effect that all applications for appointment as State Engineer, to succeed the lamented Joseph McRee, should be made to Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner, who is ex officio Secretary of the State Board of Education, by whom Capt. McRee's successor will be chosen, and not to the Governor, who has no appointive power in this case.

When the leaves begin to turn

AND the cool breezes blow from the north the man who cares to dress well begins to think of a New Suit. There is good sense in thinking about it, for, though often wrong, the world is apt to judge a man by his clothes.

Dress well, but dress economically. Get the most for your money; We aim to supply the Clothing wants of every man in Greenville.

We cater to all classes

It is better for you, Poor Man, because we have the trade of the rich man. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1902.

The Drummer Boy Congressman has probably lost his grip.

It is to be presumed that Robt. Fitzsimmons, in his forth coming encyclopedia of Points on Punching, will utilize a few suggestions from the Hon. Heavyweight Blackburn.

If Hon. D. Boy Blackburn proposes to administer corporal punishment to every editor who quotes remarks about him or intimates the possibility of his non-election, the bookmaker may be expected to take advantage of the opportunity for expansion.

Example For Business Men.

According to the financial report of the Charleston Exposition, $49,479 was spent for advertising. Commenting upon the fact the Columbia State says: "We have never known an exposition so poorly advertised except by newspapers which gave their services to the work without seeking compensation."

This leads the Asheville Citizen to observe: "And, the State might very truly have added, this failure to properly advertise, was, more than anything else, the cause of the poor attendance upon the exposition and its consequent financial failure."

When the exposition closed the News took occasion to remark that the financial failure of the big show was due, almost entirely, to the fact that it was insufficiently advertised, and this opinion was vouchsafed long before any figures were obtainable. It is some satisfaction to learn that that opinion is borne out by the facts and figures.

Many business men may draw a profitable lesson from this shining example.—Charlotte News.

Cut The Weeds.

Weeds are not only noxious in themselves; they beget other evils. They foster slovenliness. A big patch of weeds in a vacant lot or an alley creates an irresistible desire in the careless domestic to throw out tin cans among them, to empty among their concealing leaves the garbage that should be carried away. Such things have the germs of contagion and death. Besides, they are nasty; they are a part of the weed system. Nice customs abhor them. A town to be clean and wholesome and attractive must be cleared of pestilent things. Citizens should cut the weeds. Then there will be fewer tin cans, heaps of ashes and piles of rotting garbage to mar the appearance and impair the health of a fine town.—Kansas City Star.

The People Are "Sawing Wood."

The people of North Carolina have been accustomed to sensational political campaigns. They have been conservative save when there was a man to elect, and then they have been in the habit of opening every vent and allowing the warm streams of patriotism to gush even as a Texas oil well. Who does not remember the mighty uprising of the people of the State in the never-to-be-forgotten campaigns that have marked the last quarter of a century? The blare of horn, the roll of drum, the exultant campaign cry, the tramp of processions, the outburst of impassioned eloquence, the terrible exhortation of the "other man"—all this is so familiar to us all.

But a change seems to have come over the "spirit of our dreams." It is so quiet now. Another political campaign has opened. Monster political meetings all over the State have been advertised, but when the meetings were held the "monster" element did not materialize. It seems that the people are staying at home and "sawing wood." Are they indifferent to the issues? No. Will they forego their rights of franchise? No. Are they thinking? Yes, as never before. They have come to the conclusion that the time has come when they can best study the questions at issue and make up their minds, not amid the beating of tom-toms and flashes of red-light, but before the altars of their conscience where the only questions to be answered are. Is it right? What and whom does my country need?—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

A Brandy Gauger For Judge.

The Republicans of the sixteenth judicial district of this State held a convention at Murphy on the 12th inst., and, according to the Hendersonville Hustler, nominated a Revenue officer, a brandy gauger, for Judge of the Superior Court. The name of the nominee is Dean Sisk, and the paper just mentioned says he is 25 or 26 years old, has had law license for four or five years, and has never tried a case of consequence. Recently a Republican judicial convention met at Blowing Rock and nominated S. J. Turner, of Mitchell, for Superior Court Judge, but he had the grace to decline. It is such cases as these that make the case of the Republican party in North Carolina hopeless and that must give pains to the enlightened and right-minded gentlemen in it—and there are some such. Of course that party does not expect to elect any judge this year, but then it may; it didn't expect to elect in 1894, but then it did; and whether it does, a decent respect for the opinion of mankind ought to suggest to it not to affront the people by offering them notorious unfit men for judges, of all of ficers.—Charlotte Observer.

MISS ROSE OWENS,

No. 720 Seventeenth St.,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

Miss Rose Owens.

If you are a suffering woman we would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs. Jones was cured by following the advice which was freely given her by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

August 13, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes:

"I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

The girl who marries a rake to reform him generally spoils a good wife for a good man.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

Don't wait for extraordinary opportunities; seize common occasions and make them great.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The man who gets sleepy after dinner ought to give up the idea that he is an ornament to society.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skindiseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

If a man does not know a bargain when he sees it, at least he knows the bill for it when he sees it.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Poverty has been called safe, but even poverty must look up its own bread and cheese or go hungry.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

One trouble with the world is that there are so many people in it who are content to drift down the stream.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach, and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Movement to Check Whiskey Traffic.

A meeting was held in the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon, looking to the organization of an Anti Saloon League in Greenville. The meeting did not have the attendance that such a movement merited, but those present showed an earnestness that means something.

The meeting was presided over by Rev. H. M. Eure, and D. J. Whichard was secretary.

Remarks were made by Revs. H. M. Eure and J. N. Booth, W. F. Harding, W. H. Ragsdale and F. C. Harding.

A motion was adopted to organize a league, and twenty-four names were enrolled as members.

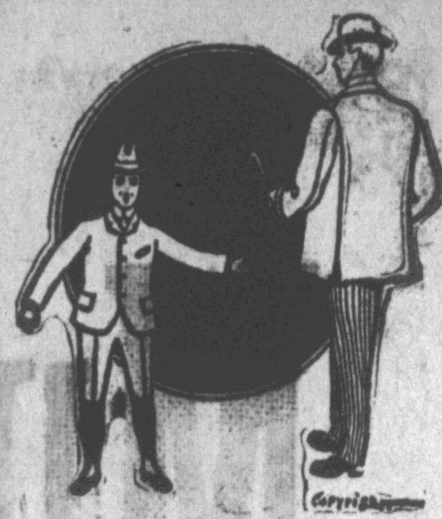

Permanent organization was deferred to a meeting to be held at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon, in the Methodist church, and a committee on permanent organization, consisting of W. H. Ragsdale, J. N. Booth, W. F. Harding, W. T. Lee and D. J. Whichard, was appointed to report at that time.

A committee on program for the next meeting, consisting of F. C. Harding, G. E. Harris and C. M. Jones, was also appointed.

There are many people in Greenville who ought to be interested in this movement, and they should be present at the meeting next Sunday.

Splendid Solo.

Mr. L. M. Lanier, of the Stieff Piano Co., sang "The Palms" at the service in the Baptist church Sunday night. He has an excellent voice and all present were delighted with his rendition of this beautiful song.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employes, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
