SAM JONES.

He Has Been Here, and Greenville is With Him.

Rev. Sam Jones, the famous Georgia evangelist-lecturer, delivered a lecture in the opera house, Wednesday night, and Greenville has something to think and talk about for sometime to come. If the advice and suggestions he gave were only acted upon, Greenville would easily be a much different town from what it now is.

There was a large crowd out to hear him, the opera house being comfortably filled, and from start to finish the closest attention was riveted on the speaker, no one wanting to miss a word.

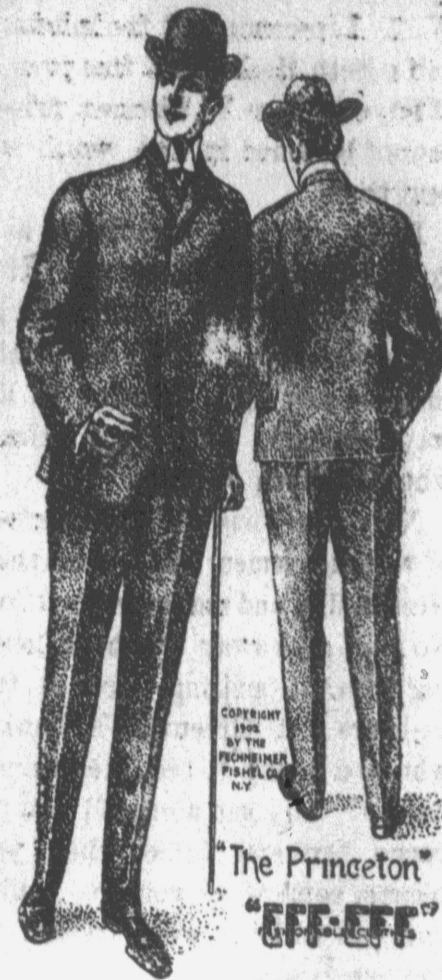

The lecture was preceded by two instrumental piano selections by Miss Clara Bruce Forbes, and a song, "Dream of Paradise" by Mrs. J. B. Cherry with violin obligato by Miss Bessie Patrick. The home and visiting ministers occupied seats upon the stage. The lecturer was introduced by Mr. W. F. Harding.

Mr. Jones caught his audience at once by telling the joke the old negro woman got off on him, in saying that he preached and seemed more like one of her folks than anybody she had ever heard, saying, "Brudder Jones, you'se got er white skin but er black heart."

He said as no subject had been announced for him in this lecture he would make his own selection, "Get There and Stay There." Presbyterians and Methodists ought to be especially interested in this subject, for the former have mighty good staying qualities but are so slow about getting there, while the latter are good at getting there but will get away before breakfast next morning. It ought to suit the Baptists, too, for you all know transportation is one third cheaper by water than any other way.

Mr. Jones said he might talk an hour on how to get there politically, but the game was not worth the candle. There is not a more corrupt cesspool this side of perdition than the politics of this country. Not one man in a thousand has the courage to walk to the polls and vote as he prays. You pray the Lord to remove evil and then you go straight to the polls and vote to send a whiskey soak to the Legislature. You can't run this quiet old town of Greenville with a dozen damnable hog-wallows in it. Where saloons are as thick as lamp posts the moral sentiment is bound to be low. Any man who favors saloons is worse than a horse thief. If a thief steals your horse you can buy another for $100, but if the saloon ruins your boy the ruin is for eternity and cannot be repaired with money. The saloon men are just as good as the people of the town—they would not be in the business unless you kept them there. Any town that will foster saloons deserves to die. What do you do with the tax money you get out of these saloons? Do you spend it improving the streets? They don't look like anything has been done to them in a hundred years. When a town of 2500 people supports 11 saloons there is mighty little money left for the

It's an ideal month. The nights are cool and the air is delightful. With the first Fall month business crosses a trade line. To anticipate what men want in clothing is almost a science. Anybody with money can fill a store with goods; but it takes the right kind of goods to fill it with people.

The Fall fashions are fully set. The Three-Button Sack, the Straight Front, Round Corner Sack, and the Two and Three-Button, Double Breasted Sacks are the accepted styles for business and general wear. Then for semi-dress is the Cutaway, with fancy trousers. We have them all.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1902.

If he stepped on your corns, you stood it like a man.

That sixty-cent sell-out was a pretty warm message, eh?

Jones isn't the man to let one off without the worth of his money.

"Yure uncle" Sam knows how to "hold the mirror up to nature."

It would distress Mr. Jones very much not to have "tuck" well in Greenville.

Sam's medicine is a "searcher," as a fellow said about that spoonful of "castor-ile," to childhood's mem'ry dear.

JUST LOOK AT THIS WILL YOU.

And See What the Liberty Warehouse is Doing.

Mr. T. H. Combs, a prominent and prosperous farmer of Concho, Martin county, is a man of experience, a widower in fine circumstances who lives like a lord on his own industry and good management, and an all right man in every respect. He has 15 acres in tobacco this year—and he does not grow tobacco on the same land only once in three years. He always makes a good crop and brings it to the Greenville market and sells at the famous Liberty Warehouse, W. T. Lipscomb & Co. proprietors, where the highest prices are always found. Tuesday he had 3335 pounds on the floor, and obtained the highest prices, which are as follows:

100 pounds 40 cents, 59 pounds 18 cents, 102 pounds 20½ cents, 70 pounds 19½ cents, 115 pounds 45 cents, 94 pounds 55 cents, 92 pounds 56 cents, 86 pounds 57 cents, 32 pounds 61 cents, 95 pounds 16 cents, 113 pounds 19½ cents, 159 pounds 22 cents, 135 pounds 13½ cents, 46 pounds 21½ cents, 16 pounds 75 cents, 165 pounds 11½ cents, 180 pounds 9½ cents, 213 pounds 15 cents, 37 pounds 14 cents, 192 pounds 11 cents, 174 pounds 17 cents, 169 pounds 41 cents, 170 pounds 45 cents, 105 pounds 12½ cents, 121 pounds 15 cents, 105 pounds 30 cents, 264 pounds 13½ cents, 16 pounds 75 cents.

Making total average of $29.20. This is the largest sale of so large a lot of tobacco that has been made on any market or any warehouse in the state for the season.

There is another notable feature of the great sale. There were a goodly number of pounds of wrappers and every pile of tobacco of that lot, except one, was purchased by that handsome and clever gentleman, Theo. W. Skinner, for the M. P. Jordan & Co. who are so famous for buying wrappers. Mr. Skinner is always on the alert for a fine quality of tobacco and knows a good thing when he sees it, and pounces upon it like an eagle upon his prey.

There is no use in discussing it. Everybody who was present and saw and heard the wild excitement when the tobacco was being sold, will testify that Greenville is the place to get the highest price—that at the Liberty, the "old stand-by," with that old "War Horse" W. T. Lipscomb, and the indefatigable Seth Hooker and that prince of buyers, Theo. W. Skinner, price cannot be found in the world to beat them.

Bring on your wrappers, and you will find the Liberty and Skinner always on deck and you will go home happy. Don't be afraid to come any day. Tobacco is always saleable and good prices, whether much or little.

No market has a more clever set of warehousemen and buyers than Greenville, and money is plentiful. No man goes away without looking into the smiling face of the cashiers of Greenville's banks, who are happy to see the people happy. So come along all you tobacco farmers, come when you please, come when you are ready, and you will always be treated to the best prices.

We have with a committee selected an elegant site for a church in the town of Greenville. We do not think any one could object to the location. It is on what is known as Pennsylvania Avenue and the Farmville road, also near plank road near the depot.—Ayden Baptist.

To combat a signal fault and to reach out towards a single virtue, without ever relaving, is the sign of a great soul.

The object of advertising is to make you better off than you were before.

Cut this out and take it to Wooten's Drug Store or Farmville Pharmacy and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c. per box.

The Best Prescription for Malaria Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simple iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure no pay. Price 50c.

Special Rates.

 To New York and return $18.

The Atlantic Coast Line will sell round trip tickets from Greenville, N. C., to Washington and New York at figures named above. Tickets will be placed on sale October 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th, good to return until October 15th, 1902.

Tickets to Washington will permit stop-over on going or return trip and final limit can be extended until November 3rd by depositing ticket with the Joint Agent at Washington, and upon payment of fifty (50) cents. For further information see agent, or write to W. J. CRAIG, General Passenger Agent, Wilmington, N. C.

Slow Starvation

is the fate of sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion. If your food remains undigested it can't build up the body. In fact, it does actual damage by decaying in the stomach and poisoning the system.

KODOL Digests What You Eat.

Kodol is the sensible remedy. By digesting what you eat it strengthens the body and at the same time rests the stomach. This rest soon restores perfect health. Cathartics and stimulants only reach the symptoms. Kodol cures. It is Nature's tonic.

Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such a hold on me that I could scarcely go. I took quantities of pepin and other medicines, but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grasps at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles am sound and well. GEORGE S. MARSH, Attorney-at-Law, Nocona, Tex.

It can't help but do you good.
 The 61 bottle contains 2½ times as much (actual measurement) as the trial size which sells for 50c. Prepared by E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by all dealers.

Take Care of the Stomach.
 The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

The man who is never too busy to scheme for more business is the man who will record the greatest success.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaints in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Advertising is the power that promotes business progress.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Advertising is the lubricant of the wheels of prosperity.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Never wait until the last minute to make your fall advertising plans—do it during the warm summer months, when there is little else to work on.—The Advisor.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. John L. Wooten.

A great union has been formed by railway trainmen, consisting of the railroad conductors and brakemen on roads operating west of Chicago.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

higher and nobler purposes of life. When we get America sober we can reform America.

They say you get only $150 each a year as taxes out of these saloons in Greenville. That is selling out your people at about 60 cents per capita. Awful cheap lot of folks you are—not worth as much as hogs. You won't allow a hog to be kept in the town but you do allow saloons to stay here. They tell me somebody got out an injunction to stop your sale of bonds. Well, you don't want saloons and bonds too.

Mr. Jones then said he might devote a whole lecture on how to get there financially, but it wasn't worth the time. Money won't buy health. There is not much difference in a man suffering because he has nothing to eat and a man suffering with the colic from eating too much. Money won't buy character. A man's greatest riches consists in the purity of his home and the sobriety of his children.

How to get there socially, was another division of the lecture, but Mr. Jones said this was hardly worth mentioning, for when you get there you haven't got high. Some folks owe for the bread they ate three months ago, and owe their grocery bills, yet go around trying to put on airs. To be in society in Greenville three things are necessary—card playing, dancing and drinking, yet any nigger in town can beat you at all three of them. Some of you send your children to dancing school to make them graceful, when they had as well be thrown in hell. Keep your daughters at home. And girls, you stick to your mummies if you want to amount to anything. Everything depends upon the purity of the home. A girl has only her modesty and her purity to support her character. Take away either of these and she falls, and once fallen she never rises again. More of the old fashion mummies and daddies are needed today. Preachers and teachers have lost the co operation of the home. What we could make this country God only knows if we would just look after the home.

Mr. Jones closed his lecture with a beautiful tribute to a mother's love. He spoke an hour and three-quarters and a newspaper report can by no means do his lecture justice. In the above THE REFLECTOR has only given sentences from him here and there, just jotted down as they most impressed us, and in print they lack the expression and manner of Sam Jones that carries such force with his words. Everything he said was pointed and good, and ought to put our people to thinking of improving the condition of Greenville. Our people have never enjoyed anything more than his lecture. We are glad that it also proved a success from a financial standpoint for those who secured his presence here.

Cotton and Tobacco:

Washington, Sept. 23.—The Agricultural Department's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

Cotton is very nearly all open and picking has been actively carried on, being practically completed in sections. In Florida, Texas and portions of Louisiana and Mississippi, rains have caused considerable damage to the open cotton, but were of considerable benefit to the late planted in Texas and Oklahoma. In Mississippi a light top crop may mature under favorable conditions, and while new blooms are reported from other portions of the central and eastern districts, they will scarcely mature.

It will require about ten days to mature late tobacco in Kentucky. Elsewhere cutting has been finished and the crop is curing satisfactorily.

The Meeting.

Though the meeting was at an earlier hour last night, there was a good attendance at the Baptist church and Mr. Edmundson's sermon was much enjoyed. There was a change in the order of services today, a woman's prayer meeting being at 4 o'clock this afternoon. And at 7:30 this evening three prayer meeting will be held, one in the basement of the church for men, another in one of the Sunday school rooms for boys, and one at Miss A. M. Perkins' home for young ladies and girls. The service in the church will begin at 8 o'clock with sermon at 8:15.

Auction Sale.

Dave Rauh, who is conducting the jewelry auction sale at W. B. Brown's store, will have a special sale for ladies next Monday afternoon. The goods he is selling are from the reliable jewelry firm of J. B. Bennett & Co., Norfolk. Read the announcement.

A Correction.

The notice of the marriage of Mr. Henry L. Burgess and Miss Mollie Dudley, in Wednesday's issue, stated that Mr. and Mrs. Dudley would occupy the Perkins house on Fourth street. It should read Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, of course.

It's funny, but black-haired women want their hair to be red, and gray haired women theirs to be black.

The Thrust of a Lance

is scarcely more agonizing than the recurrent pains in the abdomen which follow the eating of improper food or too free indulgence in ice-water. The immediate cause of cramps and colic is often the distention of the bowels by gas. Quick relief follows the use of Perry Davis' Painkiller. Careful housekeepers give it the place of honor in the family medicine chest.

SOONER OR LATER A CHANGE OF CLOTHING Must BE MADE

Nature is putting on her Fall dress and man must do so, too. Ready for the earliest and most particular buyer here.

Our FALL and WINTER STOCK of CLOTHING for MEN and BOYS.....

is complete and is remarkable in many ways but chiefly for the variety and excellent quality of the suits offered. Our suits are made of selected fabrics of the newest designs and colors. Prices are a pleasing surprise to those unfamiliar with the business methods of this store.
