News and Opinions.

Some scheme for limiting the output of pensions to the Union soldiers who were born after the war might tend also to reduce expenses.—Winston Salem Journal.

A number of bold robberies and attempts to hold up people on the highways have occurred very frequently in this section of late. Two or three have occurred near LaGrange. All efforts to capture the lawless ones have so far proved fruitless. They take the farmer unawares when he is returning to his home from the Kinston tobacco market loaded with money. In several cases the farmers have been too much for the would be robbers and saved their money.—Kinston News.

Jim Wilcox will get a new trial. Such is the decision handed down by the Supreme Court on Tuesday evening last. This decision seems to be based on the conduct of the crowd at his trial, which had a tendency to intimidate the jury. In our opinion this decision is as it should be, and as we have thought it would be all long.

Guilty or not guilty, Wilcox did not have a fair trial.—Elizabeth City News.

Those people who pose as leaders in the march of civilization, who claim to be models of morality, and the prime factors in all progressive movements, and who yet find time to criticize and disparage their town or city newspaper, are good specimens of that class of degenerates that clog the wheels of progress.—Wilson News.

In the balmy weather and bright sunshine with which the people of this section of the country are blessed they cannot realize what a hard coal famine means to those further north, where anthracite coal is almost the only fuel. The poor are already beginning to suffer and those able to pay the exorbitant prices are not much better off. In New York some schools and hospitals have been closed, and already are heard mutterings among the populace which indicate rioting and lawlessness at an early day. In some of the churches of that city last Sunday prayers were offered that the strike might be settled. Meetings have been held in some northern towns and the city authorities petition to grant what relief they could. Some of these meetings petitioned President Roosevelt to take action to ward off the great suffering which faced the people. Down south we know nothing of all this. We feel no apprehension of suffering from cold because of the strike. Here we have wood and soft coal in abundance, and though these articles of fuel will probably be higher because of the scarcity of anthracite coal, we can all keep from freezing; so we are not in condition to fully appreciate what a hard coal famine means to the people of the north.—Wilmington Messenger.

The carnival is now a thing of the past and it would take a search warrant and a pack of bloodhounds to find anybody that regrets it.—Kinston News.

It has ceased to be a question between the Pennsylvania mine operators and the striking miners, and has become one between the mine operators and the public, the consumers of coal. The operators have had their say and made their decision. Public sentiment is crystallizing and will be heard from.—Wilmington Star.

WATSON FOR SENATOR.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—

In a letter just received from a friend (a former North Carolinian) opinions are expressed upon the Senatorial question that I believe will meet the approbation of a majority of the Democratic voters in our section. Please give space in your paper for same and greatly oblige. Yours truly,

J. J. LAUGHINGHOUSE.

"Having always a high respect for your opinion and views on any question and feeling that I can write you without reserve, I will take the liberty of expressing myself and hope to be favored with your views on the same subject, as it is a pleasure to me to hear from you at any time. I think Cyrus B. Watson ought to succeed Pritchard in the United States Senate. I say this because I believe we have no abler man in the state. His record is clean and open, and shows him to stand for the right and with the people always. Since Vance died we have no leader so loved as he was and none to fill his measure in every respect. But in my opinion Watson is nearer the ideals of Vance and more like him in his intellectual and moral attributes than any other living North Carolinian. He is the equal of the best as a debater and advocate, and his strong, practical common sense and powerful grasp of correct political principles make him a statesman worthy of a people's confidence.

"He has always rendered unselfish party service, never seeking its honors or personal favors until his recent announcement as a candidate for Senator, a position which by virtue of his commanding ability and solid, winning traits of character he would fill with honor and credit to his State. I admire Mr. Craig's oratory—he is a splendid champion on the hustings. Mr. Overman is a clear and polished speaker—a splendid type of a true man. And so the others have their merits. But in my opinion Watson is far superior to them all in the qualifications necessary to make a well-equipped Senator. He has the courage of his convictions, and has the ability and wisdom to rank with the statesmen of the country. We are proud to have the dauntless astute Simmons in the Senate, and with Watson as his colleague our State could well be satisfied, and trust her welfare and honor to two such men."

Thanks.

THE REFLECTOR is again indebted to Mr. W. H. Flake for a large bucket of grapes. This time they were the James variety and very fine.

Sans Souci Club.

Reported for The Reflector.]

The Sans Souci Club met with Miss Mary Blow, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 30th, 1902, at four o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the President, Miss Louise Latham. After roll call and reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting, a letter was read from Miss Bruce Forbes, one of the members, announcing her approaching marriage on Oct. 15 and begging the pleasure of entertaining the club Monday evening, Oct. 13th. The Secretary, Miss Flournoy, was instructed to advise Miss Forbes of the club's acceptance of her gracious invitation and also to express its regret at losing so valuable and valued a member. Miss Mary Moyer's name was presented, and accepted by vote of the club, as a member.

Miss Mary Lou Tucker, of Danville, Va., was made an honorary member.

The new books for the winter were passed and discussed. Mr T. Walker, through Miss Pattie Skinner, presented to the club, Richard Harding Davis' latest work "Captain Macklin." A vote of thanks was tendered. Mr. Walker for his kindness. Interesting selections were read (?) by the reading committee.

The pleasing feature of the club's proceedings was the reading of "Items of Interest" by each member of the club at roll call.

The meeting adjourned at 6 and Miss Blow served refreshments in her charming manner.

Miss Richardson, of Reidsville, delighted the club with several vocal selections which were enthusiastically applauded. The club had as guests Misses Tucker, of Danville, Blow, of Greensboro, and Richardson, of Reidsville.

The next regular meeting will be held with Miss Cherry Oct. 28.

The Eskimo will miss Peary.

It's one of two things: a lantern or rubber boots.

Mr. Roosevelt probably didn't know the combination.

At any rate, we are not likely to have a coal winter.

It would be interesting to know how Kinston induced New Bern to do it.

Well, as far as Greenville is concerned, New Bern is perfectly welcome to it.

The man who makes a good resolution generally reserves the right to change his mind.

Wilson might send us a sample of her improved streets, so we can see how it works.

Unless you are devoid of all curiosity you will register anyhow, just to see how it's done.

If "Jordan is a hard road to travel," Dickson avenue should have its name changed.

It is more than likely that the next thing will be something else, so far as Kinston is concerned.

Protecting the infant was all right; but when it comes to the giant—well, that's different.

When we get something to protect the individual as well as the tariff protects the trusts we'll let it go at that.

Coming to Greenville.

Greenville is to enjoy a treat. Next Friday night "The Fruit of His Folly," by Kinston local talent, will be presented in the opera house there. This is one of the best plays, amateur or professional, that has ever been given in Kinston. Every character is good. It is a beautiful story. And there is a vein of comedy running through it that captures an audience and holds them, delighted, from the beginning to the end. Kinston people are anxious to have the play presented here again and it may possibly be done.—Kinston News

The Dinner Pail.

Veracious figures explode boasted Republican prosperity. The full dinner pail is not so full as it once was. A year's supplies for a single individual cost $77.78 on the first of January, 1896, and the same articles purchased January 1, 1900, four years later, cost $101.56, or an increase in the cost of living of 26 per cent. A man working for $1.00 per day had to work 771 days for this year's supplies in 1896, and in 1900, when he receive $1.08 per day, he had to toil 94 days for the very same bill of supplies. A day's work measured by the cost of the necessities of life to day is cheaper than at any time since the first day of July, 1896. A bill of supplies including the necessities of life, costing $60.00 in 1897, cost in 1901 $76.80, which is an increase to the consumer of 28 per cent. Paid for in wheat in 1897 it required 75 bushels, when in 1901 it required 105 bushels to pay the bill. Paid for in cotton in 1897, it required 839 pounds, while in 1901 it required 895 pounds.—E. Y. Webb at Bakerville.

Do Good—It Pays.
A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

'Tis the early chestnut that catches the worm.

Natural Anxiety.
Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often before human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquidifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." Jno. L. Wooten.

The more some people study the less they know.

The Worst Form.
Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers of indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. Jno. L. Wooten.

The heart of the miser is located in his pocketbook.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.
For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—BOLLEY BROS., Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Prosperity is a teacher, but adversity furnishes the books.

He Learned a Great Truth.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Yes, there are some grass widows who are not so green.

Ran a Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.
While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Now the the piano trust is to make the harmony of our commercial system.

Forty Years' Torture.
To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Jno. L. Wooten.

Orders for JOB PRINTING are solicited. Best work.

Look Out For Fever.
Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Riser. These famous little pills do not grip. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. Jno. L. Wooten.

RIGHTS OF NAVAJO WOMAN

The Bowlder Young Sam Clemens Helped Down Hill.
In the Century the Rev. Henry M. Wharton tells this anecdote of Mr. Clemens as a boy, which he heard in Hannibal, the humorist's old home:
A favorite sport of the boys was to go to a high hill near an old mill and start a loose rock down the steep side until, gathering force and velocity, it finally went crashing into the water below. One immense bowlder, partly buried in the hill-side, promised to the mind of young Sam a lot of fun. He called the boys together and thus addressed them: "Fellows, this is a bigger rock than ever rolled down any hill. It will take lots of work to move her, but when she starts all the world can't stop her. We can lift her out. I will be the boss, and you fellows work, and we will see the greatest thing that ever happened." Many Sundays were spent in toiling at the sides and underneath the great rock. The "boss" never for one moment lost his nerve, but cheered the others on in their work until one day they succeeded in turning over the great mass of stone. Over and over it went, faster and faster, till the boys were frightened almost out of their senses. They did not know where or how the thing would stop. It was making for the road which wound around the hill. Some one might be passing, or, even if not, the way might be forever blocked. They watched and wondered. At last it struck the road with tremendous power and, taking a mighty leap, landed in the channel of the Mississippi river. Of course no one knew who did it, but it is said that it was necessary to send a government dredge to take the obstruction from the stream.

Single Beds For Real Rest.
If single beds were more numerous than they are, a great many people would be better off. When one is tired, sick, cross, restless, out of sorts, he or she ought to sleep alone and not communicate by proximity the maladies that affect him. The brute creatures when sick go away by themselves till they die or get over their troubles, and this instinct a great many human beings have. Those that have it are best if indulged in it, not to the slightest degree of neglect, however. Where two children in a family must share the same room in a great many cases they would be better off to have two single beds rather than one wide double bed. We can share a great many things with those we love, but solitude clings to us from birth to death. We come into the world alone; we must go out of it alone, and we live in it alone, in a certain important sense, and to get and keep our "bearings" we must sometimes be left alone. It is good that we should be.—Family Doctor.

Boil Water, Kill Flies.
An epidemic of typhoid fever may develop during the coming fall. The best preventives of this disease are an accurate knowledge of its sources and a willingness on the part of the public to follow rules that will neutralize those sources. Typhoid fever is conveyed by polluted drinking water, infected milk, from soils saturated with its germs and by uncooked vegetables. Flies can also carry infection. All drinking water should be boiled even after it has been filtered. Milk should be sterilized, soils that have become contaminated with drainage should be purified, all closets thoroughly and frequently disinfected and flies exterminated as far as possible.—Philadelphia Press.

Jack Cade's Monument.
At Heathfield, in England, is a farm on which still stand the remains of an old stone house that is said once to have been the home of the notorious Jack Cade. Whether or not Cade ever lived there can never be accurately determined, but there is no disputing the fact that he was killed in that neighborhood. On the main road, not far from the ruins of the house, stands a monument with this inscription: "Near this spot was slain the notorious rebel Jack Cade by Alexander Iden, Esq., sheriff of Kent, A. D. 1450. His body was carried to London and his head fixed upon London bridge. This is the success of all rebels, and this fortune chanceth ever to traitors."

His Sympathies Too Strong.
"You might think," said Meandering Mike, "dat I don't know how to work. If you do, lady, dat's a mistake. I'm a wonderful handy man at a lot o' things."
"Then why don't you get employment?"
"It's me principles dat keeps me from followin' me industrious inclinations. Every time dere's a strike declared I goes on a sympathetic strike to help along de cause. Au' dere's a strike somewhere or another party near all de time."—Washington Star.

Don't Treat Symptoms
Go after the cause. Stimulants and cathartics will never cure indigestion. They may temporarily relieve the system but the next meal clogs it again. The food should be digested. The nourishment—health—strength it contains should be appropriated—absorbed by the system.

Children Thrive on Kodol
purifies, cleanses, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. This new discovery digests all classes of food and assists the stomach and digestive organs in assimilating and transforming it into the kind of nourishment that is taken up by the blood and fed to the tissues throughout the various organs of the body. Kodol cures indigestion and dyspepsia, thus removing the cause of all stomach troubles. Kodol gives such strength to the body that it is invaluable in all wasting diseases.
"I wish to thank you for what Kodol has done for me," writes CHITON GILTON, Collett, Ind. "It cured me of dyspepsia after everything else had failed. When I tried Kodol it helped me right away. I cheerfully recommend it."
Kodol Digests What You Eat.
Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1 bottle contains 24 times as much (by actual measurement) as the trial size which sells for 50c.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers the famous little liver pills for biliousness or constipation. Safe, thorough. They never grip.

She "Wins by a Neck."

Although not possessing a beautiful face, many a lady has received her full share of admiration by judiciously enhancing other charms which Nature has bestowed upon her such as a perfect Neck, incomparable Arms or beautiful Hands.

Greenville's Great Department Store

The one place where you can get your wants supplied without walking over the entire town. Our different departments are open for your inspection.

It has never been our pleasure to show such a superb line of Dress Goods as we are showing this season. Our line embraces the newest weaves and choicest colorings and prices are the lowest consistent with the quality.

Dress Trimmings.

We have the most beautiful Dress Trimmings you have ever seen. This is the opinion expressed by all who have seen them. Our line embraces the latest styles of both foreign and domestic manufacture, ranging from those in popular demand to the most artistic designs.

Silks and Velvets

We pay especial attention to this line of goods—in fact we have rather a "weakness" for pretty silks and velvets. Surely we have never shown such a superbly beautiful line before. We have all the staple shades and newest fancies to suit all tastes. Be sure to see our special values in Black Silks.

Notions and Fancy Goods

We claim to always have the best and most complete line to be found in town. We buy and add to this stock nearly every day. In this way we are constantly showing new things, new ideas, better values. We try to keep what you want, no matter whether it is the best value in an every-day staple article or some new imported novelty idea. Come to see us and we will be likely to have it—and at the right price, too.

Ready-to-wear Garments

Jackets, Skirts and Furs

Please pardon us for boasting about our stock of Ready-made Jackets for ladies, ladies' skirts, furs, and children's jackets, but we are proud of this part of our stock. We think they are pretty, stylish and cheap, too, and our customers say they think the same thing. Must be some truth in it, don't you think? It might pay you to see them. We will be glad to have you do so. It is not too much trouble for us show you anything in our store. If you are thinking of anything that you will need in the future let us show you through our large store.

SHOES.

We would like for everybody to see our Shoe stock. It looks as if we could suit everybody, to judge from the size of the stock. Well, we come pretty near doing it, Ladies, Men, Boys, Children and Infants. We can fit your head, your feet, your purse.
