Washington Letter

Special Correspondence from the Capital of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20, 1902.

Secretary Shaw has finally been compelled to resort to the purchase of bonds. He has long resisted the pressure in this direction for the reason that he did not wish to follow in the footsteps of Secretary Gage but once he began to cater to the demands of the Wall Street interests they forced him to it. It is estimated that the present purchase will amount to $25,000,000, as the Treasury is paying 1361 for bonds of 1925. This purchase when completed will bring the total amount of money released from the Treasury, including the increased bank circulation which Mr. Shaw has made possible, up to $62,000,000. It is claimed that this will end the Secretary's efforts in this direction and will relieve the money stringency although it is hard to tell how long it will remain relieved, as long as the government, by means of a tariff out of all proportion to its needs, continues to collect duties far in excess of the possible disbursements.

As a stump speaker, Mr. Shaw will doubtless prove a diversion, if not an amusement. It is reported that at a recent pow wow in Baltimore, the Secretary stopped abruptly in the midst of his harangue and said "the band will now play that republican campaign song, the Star Spangled Banner." The band did so and the audience was treated to the spectacle of the Secretary of the Treasury singing in a sadly cracked tenor, and in a key several tones above the band, as became one of his exalted station, the entire "republican campaign song". When it became a republican song was not stated. After attempting to charm his audience with music (?) the representative of the Cabinet launched once more into the subject of reforming the financial system of the country but the general impression of his audience was that he was more of a troubador than a financier.

There is something refreshingly guileless about Senator Spooner's recent assertion that the democrats were responsible for the defeat of the President's Cuban reciprocity policy. Apparently, the Senator imagines that the people do not read papers and never heard that the republicans had a majority of two to one in the Senate or very nearly that, and that they controlled a large majority in the House. He must have supposed that they never heard of the republican insurgents led by Senator Burton in the upper chamber and by Representative Tawney in the House. It is certainly a new doctrine that the minority party in Congress must help the majority to make up its mind, but that seems to be the view of the Senator from Wisconsin.

Anti-Saloon League.

The meeting of the Anti-Saloon League in the Baptist church, Sunday afternoon had a larger attendance than any meeting so far held. This indicates a growing interest in the League.

Very interesting addresses were made by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale and Mr. W. F. Harding on the attitude of the women toward the League. Both gentlemen made good talks, and at the close several names were added to the roll of membership. A committee consisting of Rev. H. M. Eure, G. T. Evans and A. B. Ellington, was appointed in connection with the executive committee to look after organizing Anti-Saloon Leagues throughout the county.

It was decided not to hold another meeting of the League until the second Sunday in November, which will be held at 4 o'clock p. m. in the Methodist church.

Escaped.

News reached here this morning that one of the prisoners at work on the road had escaped. Mr. Hines was called on to take his dogs out, but no further information is at hand at the time of going to press.

Our Raleigh Letter

Notes from the State Capital

Special Correspondent of Reflector. RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 20

Next week will mark the greatest industrial and social event of the year in our good Old North State (State Fair Week), and all of Raleigh and the whole State of North Carolina are looking forward to that most enjoyable and profitable of all occasions with anticipations filled with pictures of a happy joll good time.

Senator Simmons is being favorably regarded by national leaders at Washington for the position of Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, vice Senator J. K. Jones, of Arkansas, who has been defeated in his fight for reelection to the Senate, and whose unsuccessful campaign of 1896 and 1900, which resulted so disastrously to the Democratic party and the defeat of Bryan, did not add to his reputation as a party manager.

Next Saturday is the last day of registration—remember that.

Sam Vick, the negro postmaster at Wilson, has been nominated for Congress by the anti-Pritchard negroes of the Second District. This means that Vick will soon be succeeded as postmaster at Wilson by a white man. He is the last negro postmaster in the State (except at two exclusively negro villages) and his present term has already expired, I believe, there being some delay in selecting his successor. It is understood that Senator Pritchard will not recommend Vick, nor will he approve of the appointment of any "colored" postmaster.

On November 11th the State Board of Pharmacy will meet in Raleigh.

The annual meeting of the State Confederate Veterans' Association is called by President J. S. Carr to be held in Raleigh on Wednesday evening of Fair Week, October 29th.

This is the last week of registration. If you don't get your name on the new books by Saturday night you can't vote next month—no matter who you are. Complaints of the unauthorized and illegal conduct of registrars who refuse registration to negroes entitled to vote under the amendment, by raising petty objections of various kinds, continue to come in—notwithstanding Chairman Simmons' very plain and positive letter of instructions issued two weeks ago. One negro was refused because he failed to place a hyphen in a compound word, and other objections on a par with this are detailed in the complaints.

Entertainment for You.

Arrangements have been made with the National Lyceum Company for a series of the best amusement features that will appear at the opera house this season. The promoters of the Pitt County Hospital have interested themselves in these engagements, with the result that each performance under the auspices of the National Lyceum Company will be in the nature of a benefit to the hospital fund. It is learned also that the Atlantic Symphony Quartette, which occupies the boards for Tuesday night, 21st, will share its receipts with the hospital fund.

Hon. John H. Small, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this District will be with county candidates and address the people of Pitt county at the following places: Earmville, Saturday, October, 25th.

Stokes, Friday, October, 31st. Bethel, Saturday, November, 1st.

THE STATE PRESS

News and Opinions.

Mr. D. L. Arey's young son of about seven years has accomplished an unusual feat in taming a bullfrog. Several months since Mr. Arey went seining and caught a number of bullfrogs. He took them home and his little son upon seeing them, determined to make a pet of a large frog. The boy immediately set about cultivating friendship with the frog and in a short while his frogship was on terms of the closest intimacy with his little master. Now, the boy calls the frog and he answers to any command. He gives utterances to a particular order and the frog begins to croak. Another order causes the frog to jump into a wagon in which little Arey takes him for a drive each day. The frog is as much a pet as a kitten and is thoroughly domesticated.—Salisbury Sun.

Mr. Seymour A. Johnson, roadmaster for the Atlantic Coast Line here, tells us that his uncle, Mr. J. W. Popham, of Bunn's Level, Harnett county, probably has the oldest goose in this country. He had a big flock of geese when Sherman's army was on its raid through North Carolina and the bummers got all but five of them. One of the five is still living and up to a recent date has been quite spry, although it has recently become blind in one eye. Mr. Popham says he had the goose a good while before the invaders passed by and it is certain that the goose is at least 40 years old. She is a great pet and when she hears her name called will come out of the field at any time.—Wilmington Messenger.

Gastonia Gazette: The Lory sheets have certainly captured the fancy of the Chinese trade. About six months ago we had the pleasure of mentioning this mill's first order of $100,000 worth for that market. Since that time the Lory has shipped $250,000 worth of goods, and has taken orders enough, besides, for the Chinese trade to keep the mill busy until the first of January. Their commission man finds the Lory products so popular for export that they are offering the mill still further orders for the same class of goods.

Cushion Found.

A horse belonging to Dr. E. A. Moye got loose from his tie-post to day near the doctor's office, and ran away with the buggy. After trying various parts of Main street and the sidewalk in one or two places, he got rid of the buggy and some of the harness. A searching party covering the ground between Five Points and the post office, recovered the buggy cushion, the fifth wheel and a fragment of the spatter-board. Other remnants are known to have been distributed over the same territory, as no part of the buggy was seen to pass the post office. If you happen to see any loose wheels rolling around, or hear of small bundles of kindling wood that resemble buggy material, kindly notify the doctor.

Free Lecture.

At the court house tonight Mr. T. L. Spencer, the boy lecturer, will deliver his lecture on Romanism at 8:00 o'clock, instead of at the opera house at 7:30 o'clock. The lecture and other thing will be given free and everybody should hear.

Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State, will speak with the county candidates at Bethel on Saturday, Nov. 1st.

The Walter L. Main Show.

The street parade given in the morning of the day of exhibition is a revelation of splendor and over a mile in length. Lady and gentleman riders, handsome tableau wagons, allegorical floats, open dens, herds of elephants and camels, five bands of music, steam calliope, jubilee singers, chimes, funny clowns, pretty ponies and handsome horses, will be a sight none should miss. Directly after parade "The Girl with the Auburn Hair," will make her perilous dive and open the outside free exhibition on the show grounds. Wednesday, October 29th the day.

REGISTER.

Let Everybody Register Who is Entitled To Do So.

There is an entirely new registration this year. Your old registration will not entitle you to vote this year. Unless you register before the books close on the 25th of October, you cannot vote this year. The books are now open for registration, and will be open for that purpose every day, Sunday excepted, until sunset, Saturday, October 25th. Let everybody who is entitled to vote under the amendment register at once. Register yourself and get your neighbors to register.

Note first: The adoption of the Constitutional Amendment made an entirely new registration necessary. The disfranchised negro registered in the campaign of 1900, and if the Legislature had not provided for new registration this year the names of all these negroes would remain on the registration books.

Note second: An entirely new registration this year was necessary to put the amendment in operation in this election.

F. M. SIMMONS, Ch'm. Dem. Ex. Com. ALEX. J. FEILD, Secretary.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mrs. Wesley, "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that the registration books will close on the 25th. If you have registered, please mention it to the other fellow.

PITT COUNTY HOSPITAL.

Of several things in prospect for Greenville in the near future, the Pitt County Hospital ranks among the first in importance. Such an institution is alike in its demands upon all classes. In its appeal to every member of the community, it goes beyond the material interests, and touches upon the finer considerations that prompt alleviation of suffering. Such institutions are among the truest expressions of man's better sentiments. They illustrate the spirit of tenderness and of sympathy, embodying the application of the Christian idea of doing unto others.

It is not to be denied that institutions of this character confer benefits upon the communities in which they are situated quite apart from those which are realized through their immediate service. The same is true of the school, the church, the court. Whatever tends to the moral or physical welfare, or to intellectual advancement, has a direct bearing upon the material, the commercial. This is evidenced so obviously and in so many ways as hardly to bear discussion.

The matter of the Pitt County Hospital is in the hands of an incorporated company. No capital was put in by the incorporators, the hospital being a strictly charitable institution. The hospital fund now includes a gift of $500 from Pitt County, with a monthly endowment of $100; a contribution of $1000 from the town of Greenville, with a monthly endowment of $50. Private donations amount at present to $5500; making a total of $7000, approximately, plus an endowment of $1800 a year. These sums represent about half of the actual requirements for putting the enterprise on a sound basis and insuring the success of the undertaking. The promoters have in sight several handsome contributions from outside parties, to be available when our home people show sufficient interest. So that the matter simply resolves itself into this question:

Do the people of Pitt County want a hospital?

Other enterprises have drifted toward Greenville, until an answer to a similar question was required. The answer in too many cases has been emphatically negative. Is it to be so with the hospital? It is a question to the county, to the town, and to you.

Will our esteemed contemporary, the Asheboro Courier, kindly correct the last personal in its "Trinity Items" of the 16th inst? That sort of thing is very jarring to persons of a nervous temperament.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that, "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

November 4th is election day. Are you a qualified voter? Have you registered?

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." Jno. L. Wooten.

This is an entirely new registration. Don't forget to tell your neighbor about it.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers of indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. Jno. L. Wooten.

Look Out For Fever.

Billiousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Riser. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. Jno. L. Wooten.

Don't fail to have your name recorded on the permanent registration record.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Ran a Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Forty Years' Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Jno. L. Wooten.

A CONTRAST IN BOYS

TOWN AND COUNTRY LADS IN THE STRUGGLE OF LIFE.

Of the Men Who Have Achieved Great Prominence in Public Affairs the Rural Boys Are at Least Twenty to One Over the City Lads.

A country boy's lack of opportunity is his best equipment for the serious struggle of life. This sounds paradoxical, but it is true. It is just as true as the opposite proposition, that the greatest hindrance a city boy has to contend with are the opportunities which beset him when young and pursue him till he begins the real business of life, a business which each individual must carry on for himself. For the city boy everything is made as easy as possible. Even pleasure becomes to him an old story before he is out of his teens. Brought up in the feverish rush of a place where great things are happening day by day, he sees the world with a cynic's eyes and despises the small things which, like the bricks in a house, go to the upbuilding of characters and careers. He believes in using large markers in the game of life; for pennies and small units of value he has little taste and scant regard.

The conditions surrounding the country boy are as different as possible. There is a deal of regular work that every country boy must do, and this regularity of employment, mostly out of doors, inculcates industrious habits, while it contributes to a physical development which in after years is just as valuable as any athletic training that can be had. He cannot run as fast perhaps as those trained by a system. He may not be able to jump so high or so far or excel in any of the sports upon which we bestow so much time and from which we get so much of pleasure, but his development enables him to buckle down to the hard work in which hours are consumed and from which very little or no immediate pleasure is extracted. His strength may be something like that of the cart horse, but the cart horse is to be preferred where a long and steady pull is required. The thoroughbred race horse has a fine flight of speed and canters with delightful lightness and grace along the park bridle paths, but the heavy work is the work most in demand, and for that we want the draft animals every time.

Enthusiasm is the spur to endeavor, and at the same time it is the savor of life. The country boy whose ambition has taken him to town comes filled with enthusiasms. Even the little things are novelties to him, and as he accomplishes this and that he feels that he is doing something not only interesting, but valuable. His simple tastes have not been spoiled by a multiplicity of gratifications, and so he is glad of everything good that comes his way. At thirty, if he leads a clean life, he has more of the boy in him than his city cousin has left at fifteen. He does what is before him because it is his duty, while the other is apt cynically to question the value of doing anything and ask, "What is the use?"

Of the men who have achieved great prominence and high influence in our affairs of state the country boys are at least twenty to one over the city lads. Nowadays indeed our cynical city lads look upon men who take an active interest in public affairs as rather low fellows and quite beneath their association and notice. But the country boys are at the top in other lines of endeavor. In finance they are pre-eminent, and the great bank presidents today in the great cities nearly all learned to read and to cipher in country schools where birch and ferule had not succumbed to the civilizing influences of scientific pedagogy. Our great railways were in the main built by them, and today the administrators of these great companies are in great measure from farms and country villages, from places where work began in early infancy and a sense of duty developed while still the lisp of childhood lingered.

Some city boys, however, are of such sturdy stuff and endowed with such natural gifts that they succeed by reason of their inherent superiority. Others succeed abundantly because they have used their opportunities wisely and in real life have pursued the same course which enables so many country boys to win fame and fortune. The more honor to them for having survived their too great opportunities. But the country boy when he comes to town reaches out for the high places. Though not all find seats of the mighty, nearly all of the exalted stations are filled in the end by men of country birth and country rearing, for they usually start out with the sound theory that what is worth having is worth striving for.—John Gilmer Speed in Brandur Magazine.

Scotch Civility.

A lady went out in search of two others who had gone out for a walk some time before. She met an old man and asked him if he saw two ladies pass that way. "Na, nor I wisna lookin' for them."

She met another and asked the same question. "Na, but there might 'a' been ten pass' for onything 'at I ken or sare."

At last she met a boy and asked the same question. He replied, "Na, I didna see ony ladies, but I saw twa sul' wives."—Scottish American.

His Boy's Future.

"Are you educating your son for any particular calling?"

"Yes."

"What?"

"Well, he made his own selection, and as near as I can find out he is educating himself to be the husband of an heiress."—Chicago Post.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb,

Vice-President of Women's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

THERE ARE MANY sickly women between the ages of 45 and 55, but there are very few invalids over 55 and 60 years of age. The change of life coming to a woman near her forty-fourth year, either makes her an invalid or gives her a new lease on life.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb.

the change of life which was fast approaching. While visiting with a friend I noticed that she was taking your Wine of Cardui, and she was so enthusiastic about it that I decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax. I do not dread it now, as I am sure that your Wine of Cardui will be of great benefit at this time.

Those who meet this change in ill health seldom live ten years afterward, while a woman who lays aside the active duties of womanhood in health seldom fails to live on in happiness, years after she has passed 60. This is truly a critical time.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, of Toledo, Ohio, recognizes the change of life as a dangerous period and she also has faith in Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"As I had always been troubled more or less at the menstrual period, I dreaded

Wine of Cardui is the remedy to re-inforce a woman against the shock that comes with the change of life. It re-establishes healthy functions after years of suffering. In doing this it has saved thousands of sufferers just in time. Do not wait until suffering is upon you. Thorough preparations should be made in advance. Begin the Wine of Cardui treatment today.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

Read it Carefully Before You Vote.

Below are the names that appear upon the Democratic State ticket that will be voted on the 4th of November. When you go to vote read your ticket carefully and see that every one of these names are on it. There is reason to fear that bogus tickets will be circulated on election day and every Democrat should be careful not to vote one with a wrong name on it.

From Trees to Newspapers.

A trial was recently made in Austria to decide in how short a space of time living trees could be converted into newspapers. At Elsenthal at 7:35 in the morning three trees were sawed down. At 9:34 the wood, having been stripped of bark, cut up, converted into pulp, became paper and passed from the factory to the press, whence the first printed and folded copy was issued at 10 o'clock. So that in 145 minutes the trees had become newspapers.

The Words of the Prophet.

In the book of Nahum the prophet these words are found: "The chariots shall rage in the streets; they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways; they shall seem like torches; they shall run like the lightnings." Did this wonderfully impressive and vivid description foretell the era of the trolley and the automobile? Even the sultan of Morocco and Sir Thomas Lipton have recently been jostled and shaken up by self motors.—New York Tribune.

Greenville's Great Department Store

The only store in which you can get your wants supplied without walking over the entire town. Every department full.

We first call your attention to our

Complete Grocery Department,

for unless you eat you will die, and that is the last thing you want to do. So if you wish to prolong life buy pure food. We keep that kind. Our is the cream of flours. Bread made from this flour is fit to set before a king. Try a barrel and be convinced. There is a great difference in goods. We handle the best. We have a fine stock of Fancy Groceries, Canned Meats, Canned Vegetables, Salmon, Deviled Crabs, Lobster, Coconut, Pineapples, White Cherries, California Peaches, Prunes, Seedless Raisins, Currants, etc. Fancy Cakes and Crackers, Vanilla and Orange Wafers, Walnut Bon Bons, Five O'Clock Teas, Cracknels, Assorted Ice Creams, Ginger Snaps, etc., in fact any that you may need to support the inner man, or woman, either. You ought to try Aunt Maria's Pancake Flour.

New Buckwheat Just in.

China and Glassware Department.

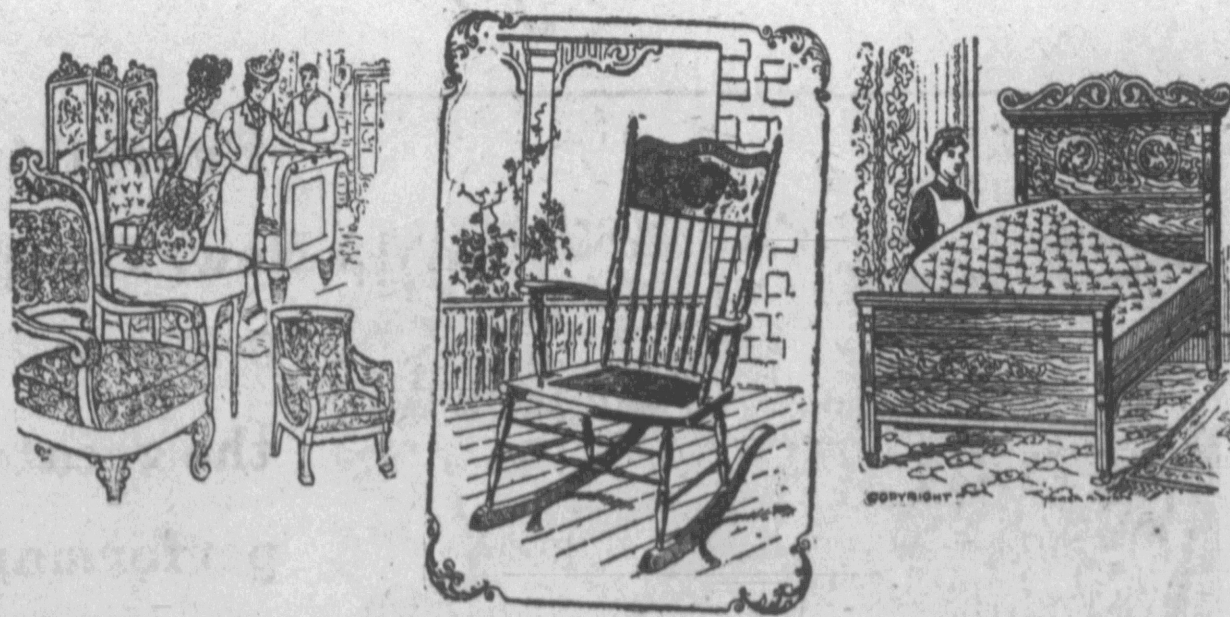

We have no competitor worthy the name in this department. We have the choicest line of goods that we can get. The prices are right. In Fancy China we are at the top notch. The most beautiful goods you ever saw. We are adding to this line every day, and have a superb stock for you to select from. Do not fail to see our line of Cut Glass and Silverware.

A Strike Against Coal.

Coal can not be bought, but you can buy one of our Oil Heaters, or Dawn Wood Heaters, which we guarantee will give you a hot time this winter whether you have cold or coal. All of our goods are sold on this plan: A little margin on everything—a large one on nothing. You are very fortunate if you can afford to buy coal at present prices, but then you are fortunate anyway, because you can buy one of our Oil or wood Stoves and laugh at the coal strike.

FURNITURE DEPARTMENT.

It would take this entire paper to tell you what we have in this department, so we name only a few articles. Dining tables and chairs, bedsteads, bureaus, rockers, center tables, safes, washstands, sideboards, chiffoniers, etc. Be sure to see our white enameled iron beds. They are beauties. We have 450 square feet of floor space devoted to this department. All we have to say is, come in and take a look.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.
