Washington Letter

Special Correspondence from the Capital of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24, 1902.

Secretary Shaw has completed his purchase of bonds and between $22,000,000 and $23,000,000 have been released from the Treasury as a result. The Secretary says that this ends his efforts to relieve the markets and now the bankers must take care of themselves. This, however, is not the first time the Secretary has made that statement and the bankers have refused to take care of themselves and have demanded that Mr. Shaw come to the rescue, a demand which he has promptly heeded. A prominent Treasury official said, after the close of the purchase, that every banker in the country had discounted the released currency many times over and that there was every prospect that the stringency would be worse than ever within a few weeks. The bankers appreciate that a panic in Wall Street would cost the republican party hundred of votes and that any demand they make before election will receive due attention.

A report comes from the State Department that the King of Sweden and Norway has decided against the United States and Great Britain, on the question submitted to him for arbitration, and which involved the right of the countries named to land troops at Apia, Samoa. This will mean that this country and Great Britain will have to pay heavy damages to the citizens whose property was injured by the bombardment which occurred at that time. The claims now amount to approximately $300,000.

The fruit of civil service reform is seen in Washington before each election. Fewer and fewer clerks apply for leave to go home to vote. When their tenure of office depended on their political influence they all felt compelled to journey to their respective states to cast their ballot, regardless of whether they could afford the expense or not. Now they are practically independent of the party organization and their interests lie in the line of performing their duties, so that, with the exception of a few clerks classed as "laborers" and a few who have political aspirations, there will be no exodus from Washington such as there has been in years past.

It is characteristic of the belligerent sentiment of the Roosevelt administration that Secretary Root will, in his forthcoming annual report, ask Congress to authorize the purchase of arms and equipment sufficient for an army of 250,000 men. A large share of the energy of the President and the Secretary of War has been directed towards the perfection of the military organization of late, and even Gen. Corbin has thought fit to pronounce in favor of compulsory military service. Costly maneuvers are planned for this winter in addition to those which have already occurred and Congress will be asked to authorize still further expense in this direction.

Lost Time Counts Up.

We have no idea what the well boring on Five Points is going to cost the town by the time it is completed, but if the time of every person who has stood around looking at the work was computed even at 10 cents an hour it would likely amount to more than the cost of the well. There are so many people who never stop to value lost time.

Winterville Department.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Oct. 25, 1902.

Messrs. Askew and Forbes, of Farmville, were in town yesterday.

Don't forget the Winterville Livery Co. when in need of accommodations in their line at any time. You will always find them anxious to serve you and as clever as you could ask for. Their prices are also very reasonable.

The association crowd, consisting of Mrs. R. H. Hunsucker and Messrs. Lineberry, Cox, Carroll and Wingate, returned yesterday on the freight. They report an enthusiastic meeting and seem favorably impressed with that section of Wayne county.

Southy Cox, who has been in the hospital at Baltimore for several weeks, returned last night. He reports a decided improvement in health, which his friends are very glad to hear.

Uncle Blount Pearce spent last night in town.

If wishes were horses all beggars might ride. They would ride easier in a Hunsucker buggy, however. Make your wishes known to us and we will hitch on a vehicle right away.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Bring your beef cattle to A. G. Cox. He is getting up a rep for paying highest market prices.

The mail boxes for the three rural free delivery routes from this place have arrived and they are the most complete of any we have seen. Packages full size of box may be deposited without unlock, same. They are also equipped with different colored signals which work automatically, signaling both the owner of the box and mail carrier.

The Baptist church here had their annual reunion today. Services begun at 2 o'clock. On these occasions a special endeavor is made to have every member present.

Wanted.—A buggy painter. The great rush of work has forced us to engage another painter and the position is open to the first applicant.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Six or seven of the county candidates were here Thursday and made rousing speeches.

Mrs. J. B. Galloway, of Grimesland, is visiting her daughter at the dormitory.

Sheppard Manning, of Whichards, is visiting M. G. Bryan.

Jim Dixon recently attended the burial of his mother, who died near LaGrange. The remains were interred at the old home place, about 14 miles from here.

Miss Nannie Nichols, of Standard, was visiting in town yesterday.

Raymond Tucker, a student in the High School, was called yesterday to visit his father, ex-Sheriff Tucker, who is critically ill.

Josh Manning attended the Ange-Haddock wedding at Ayden Wednesday evening.

A new crossing has been made and Cooper street now extends westwardly across the rail road. The neat little improvements being put in by the board in the way of edging up sidewalks, repairing and putting in new bridges &c., are much needed.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard came up this morning to fill his regular appointment.

A Hit.

Some ladies were heard to remark that they will be sorry when the well boring on Five Points is completed as it will deprive so many men of the opportunity to stand around and oversee them.

Sneezing Yet?

WELL, you will be shortly, if you are not now. Remedy? Our Men's Medium Weight Underwear, of course. It isn't safe to risk thin underwear these days—too many sudden changes in the weather. The Fall and Winter weights are here in such variety that there's no want in the whole underwear catalog a man can have, that can't be met here.

Underwear at 25c. and 50c. a garment—or at ten times as much—soft, ribbed balbriggans, warm merinos and natural wools—elegant silk and wool—every style, size and shape—the best underwear that your money can buy anywhere, heavy or medium.

Brief Mention of People Met With in the Social World

Mrs. J. J. Willis went to Dunn today.

G. B. King returned to Washington today.

Dr. W. C. Whitfield was in the city this morning.

Blount Pearce took the road again Friday afternoon.

Miss Bettie Tyson returned from Falkland Friday evening.

Miss Daisey Jones, of Durham, is visiting Mrs. B. E. Parham.

Prof. Franklin Shaanon, State entomologist, was in Greenville Friday.

District Attorney Harry Skinner goes to New Bern this evening, to attend court.

Miss Estelle Tyson and Lela Wilkinson, of Farmville, were shopping in Greenville today.

Miss Eula Quinn, who is attending school at Ayden, came in this morning to spend Sunday at home.

Miss Madge Richardson, of Reidsville, who has been visiting Miss Janie Flournoy, returned home today.

Rev. J. T. Edmundson, who recently conducted a series of meetings here, will arrive this evening and occupy the pulpit in the Baptist Sunday morning and night, in place of Rev. J. N. Booth who is conducting a meeting in Nash county.

Bucket Out.

The bucket in the well at Five Points, which the boring force have been fishing for since Friday morning, was brought to light at a quarter to eleven o'clock today, much to the relief of the well boring men and the city fathers. The inner pipe of the two which had been driven into the well was taken out—a tedious job—and a spear-pointed iron rod, secured to a rope, was dropped down into the bucket. The machinery was started and the bucket drawn up.

In Social Circles.

Reported for The Reflector.]

Among the attractions of the week was a reception given the Sans Souci Club by Miss Lillian Cherry Wednesday evening, October the twenty second.

A few magic strokes by skilled and dainty fingers had transformed the home of the hostess into a veritable fairy land of stately palms, graceful ferns and myraids of candles, peeping from every nook and corner.

The most interesting feature of the evening was a spelling match, in which Misses Winnie Skinner and Mary Blow distinguished themselves as excellent spellers.

Two apples suspended from the ceiling by pink ribbons afforded much amusement. Miss Mary Blow again proved herself accomplished by biting the largest piece from one of the apples, and was given the ribbon. Mr. Dail being skilled in the same feature was awarded a tie.

Dainty refreshments were served, and the guests were presented with souvenir cards, tied with pink and blue ribbons. The cards contained this toast:

Three cheers for the land of the Tar Heels,
Three cheers for the Tar Heels themselves,
Three cheers for the Sans Souci Book Club.

For we are Tar Heels ourselves.
All present declared the evening one of rare pleasure and were loth to leave till a late hour.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1902.

A woman's answer would be that a duck waddles "because."

From a man's pocket to his heart is a straight road and a short one.

When a woman "jumps at a conclusion" you had just as well let her have it.

Why should a man look so contentedly happy when you tell him his wife's baby is "just like its daddy?"

When a man stands up and tells the church "salvation's free," you won't miss it far to conclude that it hasn't cost him very much.

When a man admits that "it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all," he is about ready for another dose.

If you will gauge the hard things said about you by the same rule you use to measure the hard things you say about others you won't feel so bad over it.

It would be interesting to know the family history of the twelve men who awarded a man one dollar damages for the alienation of his wife's affections.

Mr. Buttler's assertion that he is "somewhat out of touch with North Carolina politics" reminds one of the farmer who didn't get to town behind that pair of rubber hamestrings.

It is a relief to learn that the Wilmington representative who investigated the situation in New Bern got home without contracting the small pox. An immune, probably. Eh, Kinston?

Rockefeller's Thank Offering.

New York, Oct. 23.—At the meeting-to-day of the trustees of Columbia University, it was announced that John D. Rockefeller had offered to give $500,000 to the college, provided that it could raise $190,000 to pay off the debt of the institution, and $250,000 besides.

Mr. Rockefeller makes the gift as a thank offering to Almighty God for the preservation of himself, his family and household from the fire which recently destroyed his country house.

Which reminds us of the story of the church that needed a new roof, and when the pastor called for subscriptions the wealthiest and stingiest member of the church, sitting in the amen corner, arose and said "put me down for $1." Hardly had his seat been resumed when some plastering fell from the ceiling and struck him on the head, when he immediately got up again and said "make my subscription $50." Where upon a good old brother in the opposite corner exclaimed devoutly, "Oh Lord, hit him again!"

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranhill, of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers of indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. Jno. L. Wooten.

November 4th is election day. Are you a qualified voter? Have you registered?

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that, "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

It is better to have a turn-up nose than a cabbage head.

Forty Years' Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Jno. L. Wooten.

It is folly to offer a wise man a penny for his thoughts.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." Jno. L. Wooten.

Silence may be golden but the golden eagle talks.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Model husbands are the men who never marry.

Ran a Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, N. C.; Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

HE WENT TOO FAR.

What the Sweet Girl Did, Could and Could Not Accept.

Who shall fathom the heart of a woman? If he had not been so young, he would not have tried to.

But the ingenuousness of youth was upon him.

There was no uncertainty about his action as he put his arm around her waist and, drawing her to him, kissed her fervently—kissed her with that acquired ease, that sureness of touch, that lack of embarrassment, that comes from a perfect understanding.

And she did not even blush.

"Dearest," he said, "I have just been thinking that we have known each other a whole week."

"It seems, oh, so much longer than that!" she replied.

"Doesn't it? Isn't it wonderful how much feeling, how much love, can be compressed into such a short time? I like to dwell upon it."

"It is nice."

"Yes," he went on. "The first evening we met as I looked into your eyes I felt that I loved you, and yet I did not dare that night to do anything more than press your hand as we parted."

"But afterward you were—"

"Yes; the next evening, with that sort of confidence that came to me I know not why, I went further. I held your hand in mine, I drew closer, and then I suddenly left you, not daring to frighten you with the sudden intensity of my love."

"And then the next night?"

"Ah, then it was that my arm unconsciously and as it were inevitably stole around your waist, and, inspired by your sweet acquiescence, I kissed you. Since then I have loved you more and more until now I feel I must show you some real substantial token of my love."

He drew from his pocket a small package. He handed it to her triumphantly. She opened it rapidly. It was a diamond pin.

There was a silence. Then she handed it back to him slowly, reluctantly.

"What!" he cried. "Are you not going to accept it?"

She shook her head.

"I cannot," she replied. "Don't you know that it wouldn't be proper for me to accept anything more than flowers or candy from a man I have known only a week?"—Tom Masson in Brandur Magazine.

Took the Order Literally.

A suburban golf club has a Japanese steward named Ocka. He is an excellent cook and his neatness and good taste are beyond question, but he has a very slight knowledge of English, and this sometimes causes him to make ludicrous mistakes. A young woman gave a tea at the clubhouse and sent for Ocka a few days ahead of time, so that all the details of her party might be perfected. She arranged for everything and at the end said: "Now Ocka, at the tea we must have apple pie order." "Yes, madam, apple pie," Ocka returned. "No, apple pie order," said the young girl. "All right. Me understand. Apple pie," Ocka repeated with an obstinate smile. "Apple pie order," the other corrected again, and Ocka took his leave. He served at the tea along with the dainty little sandwiches and cake twenty huge pieces of apple pie.—Philadelphia Record.

Cinders in the Eye.

Persons traveling by railway are subject to continued annoyance from the flying cinders. On getting into the eyes they are not only painful for the moment, but are often the cause of long suffering that ends in a total loss of sight. A very simple and effective cure is within the reach of every one and would prevent much suffering and expense were it generally known. It is simply one or two grains of flaxseed. These may be placed in the eye without injury or pain to that delicate organ, and shortly they begin to swell and dissolve a glutinous substance that covers the ball of the eye, enveloping any foreign substance that may be in it. The irritation of cutting the membrane is thus prevented, and the annoyance may soon be washed out. A dozen of these grains stowed away in the vest pocket may prove in an emergency worth their number in gold.

Future Vengeance.

"You'll be sorry for this some day!" howled the son and heir as his father released him from the position he had occupied across the paternal knee.

"I'll be sorry? When?"

"When I get to be a man."

"You will take revenge by whipping your father when you are big and strong and I am old and feeble, will you, Johnny?"

"No, sir," blubbered Johnny, rubbing himself, "but I'll spank your grandchildren till they can't rest!"—New York Times.

Owls in Asia Minor.

Perhaps Asia Minor is richer in crude and interesting fancies than any other country. When children hear an owl hooting from the cypress groves, they cry, "Good news for you; good messages for you." If they catch an owl they hold it up by the beak and chant, "Palm Sunday owl, how does your mother dance?" The meaning of the rite is lost, but the habit lingers.

Unreasonable.

"Why did she leave him?" "Oh, he was so unreasonable. She wanted to frame her divorce decrees and hang them in the library, but he insisted that they were not artistic and wouldn't have them there."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A simple decoction of hemp was used in China 1,700 years ago as an anesthetic in surgical operations, according to a Chinese manuscript in a Paris library.

Save the Children

All stomach and bowel troubles in child or adult are due to a single cause—Indigestion.

Flux, colic, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery and all complaints of like nature, are the result of undigested foods fermenting in the stomach. The only way to prevent fever and to cure such troubles without injury to the membranes lining the stomach is to restore perfect digestion.

KODOL Digests What You Eat

Kodol is the new discovery which cures all stomach and bowel troubles by removing the cause. This famous remedy checks fermentation, cleanses, purifies and all of the nourishment, health and strength it contains.

Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all Stomach Troubles. "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just the thing for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It has helped me more than anything else in a long standing case of catarrh of the stomach."—Oscar King, Cherry Valley, N. Y.

Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by all dealers. One Minute Cough Cure The favorite household remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, throat and lung troubles. It cures.

The fire alarm at 2 o'clock this afternoon was caused by a small blaze in one of the negro houses on Cotanch street, belonging to R. J. Cobb and Jim King. The fire companies responded promptly, but a few buckets of water extinguished the fire without the use of the hose. The fire originated in an upstairs room. Officer Dudley heard the cries of a small boy in the house and brought him safely out of danger.

Cotillon Club Dance.

On Friday, October 24th, the Greenville Cotillon Club gave the first of its series of dances, which was voted by all present one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season.

Music was furnished by the inimitable Victor Reale band, of Virginia, whose music makes dancing a joy forever. Dancing began promptly at nine o'clock and lasted until half past twelve.

The German was most skillfully as well as gracefully led by Mr. Chas. Forbes, assisted by Mr. Haywood Dail.

During the intermission delicious refreshments were served.

Among those dancing were:

Miss Louise Latham with Chas. James, of Danville, Miss Mary Blow with Harry Skinner Jr., Miss Bertha Patrick with Claude King, Miss Winnie Skinner with F. L. Walker, of Danville, Miss Bettie Tyson with Charlie Forbes, Miss Bessye Patrick with Leslie Newton, Miss Ada Wooten with Andrew Moore, Miss Pattie Skinner with Stewart Carr, Miss Mary Lou Tucker, of Danville, with Jim Cherry, Jr., Miss Brame, of Arkansas, with Mr. Skinner, of Danville, Miss Emily Higgs with Walter Wilson, Jr.

Stags.—Mr. Morton, of South Boston, Va., Mr. Martin, of Lynchburg, Messrs. Parker, Robt. Jefferson, Thos. Hooker, Haywood Dail and Mr. Carr.

Chaperones.—Mesdames Ricks, House and Ficklen.

The next dance given by the club is to be November the 29th.

It takes nine tailors to make a man and one woman to break him. A man is as good as he has to be and a woman as bad as she dares to be.

The WILMINGTON STEAM LAUNDRY will do your work to perfection No breaking or cracking of collars and cuffs. Once tried, forever satisfied.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days.

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.

A Strike Against Coal.

Coal can not be bought, but you can buy one of our Oil Heaters, or Dawn Wood Heaters, which we guarantee will give you a hot time this winter whether you have cold or coal. All of our goods are sold on this plan: A little margin on everything—a large one on nothing.

You are very fortunate if you can afford to buy coal at present prices, but then you are fortunate anyway, because you can buy one of our Oil or Wood Stoves and laugh at the coal strike.

FURNITURE DEPARTMENT.

It would take this entire paper to tell you what we have in this department, so we name only a few articles. Dining tables and chairs, bedsteads, bureaus, rockers center tables, safes, washstands, sideboards, chiffoniers, etc. Be sure to see our white enameled iron beds. They are beauties. We have 450 square feet of floor space devoted to this department. All we have to say is, come in and take a look.
