Dissolution Sale!

On January 1st, 1903, we will dissolve co-partnership, and from now until then we will offer our entire stock of high grade Merchandise at greatly reduced prices. Our stock of Men's, Youths' and Boys' Clothing, Hats, etc., will be sold at and below cost. We have on hand a large stock of Fine Clothing that must suffer the severest cuts. Thanking all our friends and customers for their most liberal patronage in the past, we are, yours respectfully,

Ricks & Wilkinson

CAREFUL attention to details in our Job Department is shown in the high class of work we are turning out. We have the best equipped office and do a class of printing hardly equalled in this section. If you are particular as to the quality of your printing, we want your work. We give you the best.

Winterville Department.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Dec. 10. We are glad to learn that petitions are going up from Greenville, Ayden, Grifton, this place and others asking the Atlantic Coast Line to grant us better transportation facilities.

Rudolph Croom, of Kinston, is in town. He says he came down to hear the boys debate. Have heard it whispered however that he had other business.

As a proof that the wire fence manufactured by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., of this place, is a superior fence, about half a dozen men during the last two or three weeks have bought over a mile each of same making more than enough to reach from here to Greenville, besides all the small lots that have been sold in the short time named. Some of these men had made a thorough investigation, too, having correspondence from several large fence concerns before purchasing here. "Merit will win."

John (Bud) Nobles, Jr., who has been away a year or so, has moved back to his residence on Main street.

Did you know that G. A. Kirtrell & Co. keep almost any kind of grain you want to sow, besides all kinds of feed? Their Grey Winter Turf Oat is the very thing to sow at this season of the year. A car load of hulls just arrived.

J. E. Greene went to Grifton Thursday night and returned Friday morning.

The speaking was very much enjoyed Thursday night and "Anti-Saloon" enthusiasm ran high.

Mrs. A. G. Cox is quite sick. Josephus Cox has opened a stock of groceries at W. E. Hamilton's old stand. You will always find his store headquarters for the best of everything. Prices very reasonable.

C. D. Hooks and G. R. Dixon went to Greenville today.

The merchants must have decided that they would not have fire works enough left for Christmas and quit selling them to the boys. Anyway the nuisance has stopped.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. have started up on cotton planters for January 1st shipment. Orders already received for several hundred.

Winterville Livery Co. have about sold out their horses.

Prosperity.

They raised his salary two years ago last May, The said increase amounting to 30 cents a day.

Since then they've raised the price Of carrots and of beets, Of flour and of meats, Of corn and coal and fruits, Of babies' little boots, Of potatoes, milk and cheese, Of the product of the bees, Of hats and socks and coats, Of all that sinks or floats.

He's paying out the money that he saved before his raise,

But prosperity's upon us, and his heart is full of praise.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE MAN BACKED OUT.

He came from Nebraska to wed an Albarle Girl, but Didn't.

Albarle, Dec. 10.—Some time ago a young woman operative in one of the cotton mills here got up a correspondence with a young Nebraska farmer through the medium of a matrimonial paper published in Chicago. Photographs were exchanged and their letters assumed such an affectionate nature that they decided that they would unite their hearts and hands. Accordingly the man in the case made an appointment with his lady love, whom he had never seen. He arrived here last Friday but the marriage that was scheduled to take place did not occur. The man on arriving here saw so many girls that he thought so much more likely and handsome than the one he had been corresponding with that he changed his mind. And as yet no marriage has taken place. The would-be groom is stopping at the boarding house of the would-be bride and they have had several confidential talks, but it is given out as official that no marriage will occur. The man is of good appearance and claims to own a farm about 300 miles from Lincoln, Neb. He is still here and as his ticket holds good until Christmas he says he expects to stay here until that time, viewing the country. He never saw a cotton stalk or pine tree until he came to North Carolina.—Special to The Charlotte Observer.

Sans Souci Club.

Reported for the Reflector. The Sans Souci Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Jerusha Whedbee, on Greenestreet. This was the regular meeting of the club and proved a most enjoyable occasion. The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Miss Louise Latham, being absent. After the regular business was despatched, Miss Winnie Skinner read, in her usual attractive style, a selection from James Lane Allen, which was highly enjoyed and appreciated by all. Then followed the daintiest of refreshments, served in a most unique manner, reflecting much credit for originality and tastefulness.

The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with holly. Being darkened, the wax tapers lent a charming effect. The hostess gave each one a lovely souvenir of the occasion in the shape of a dainty Christmas calendar.

The next meeting will be held with Miss Bessye Patrick, December 23.

Miss Herring, of Wilson, was the guest of the evening.

All voted the meeting a pleasant one and Miss Whedbee a charming hostess.

All are cordially invited to examine Mrs. Higgs' holiday display. Be sure to call before making your Xmas purchases. Store open at night.

Fine Calf.

A few days ago Register of Deeds, R. Williams slaughtered a 11-month-old calf that weighed some over 80 pounds to the quarter. They do not grow much finer than that for the age.

Xmas presents galore in a nice line of jewelry just received at Mrs. Higgs'. Engraving on purchases without extra cost. Anything desired not in stock can be had by order in 2 or 3 days.

Many smokers are saying they get no better 5 cent cigar anywhere than "The Reflector," and for a twofold "Havana Crook" just leads the procession. These brands found only at Reflector Book Store.

LEGISLATE AGAINST MOONSHINERS.

Senator Simmons Thinks the State and Federal Governments Should Co-Operate.

Washington, Dec. 9.—When Senator Simmons' attention was called to the suggestion that if the liquor stills are driven out of the country districts, their places will be filled by moonshine distilleries, he said:

"I think there are many reasons why this would not happen, but while we are at it, it would be just as well to legislate against moonshine distilleries also, so as to bring the State in co-operation with the Federal government in suppressing them. If the Legislature should stop the manufacture of liquor except in the towns, it might make a violation of that law a crime punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary and the forfeiture of the illegal distillery. In addition to this, there might be a heavy penalty, to be recovered by an action brought in the name of the State, one half for the benefit of the State and the other for the benefit of the informer. This action might be prosecuted at the expense of the State by the solicitor. I think a legislative enactment of this sort would effectually put a stop to moonshine operations."—Special to The Charlotte Observer.

Flames Devour Much Property in Winston.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Dec. 11.—Special.—Winston was visited by a $175,000 fire this morning. The insurance carried on the property destroyed aggregates $119,150.

The fire started on the third floor of the L. A. Vaughn knitting mill, in North Cherry street, and the walls were falling in when the fire department arrived upon the scene. This and three other three-story brick buildings were burned down.

Mr. Vaughn's loss is $10,000 with $6,500 insurance on machinery, stock, etc. The building was owned by E. L. Lockett and cost $18,000; insured for $4,000. The Whitaker Harvey Company, tobacco manufacturers, lost $50,000; insurance on stock, fixtures and buildings, $33,500. On Lipfert, Scales & Co.'s stock of leaf tobacco, insured for $50,000, the loss was very small. The tobacco was stored in Alton. Farrow & Co.'s building, which cost $9,000; insurance $4,500. There was no insurance on tobacco machinery, which cost $6,000. Ogburn, Hill & Co. had $10,000 insurance on one hundred thousand pounds of leaf tobacco, stored in a brick building owned by J. B. Moseley, of Danville, Va. Building cost $9,000; insured for $3,000.

The fire is one of the most disastrous in the history of the town. Only 25 or 30 hogsheads of tobacco were saved.—Raleigh Post.

Wasted Bivalves.

The express horse took a notion to run off while the wagon was being unloaded at the office, Friday night, and dumped a bucket of oysters in the street.

Fewer Gallons; Wears Longer.

Fewer gallons; takes less of Devoe Lead and Zink than mixed paints. Wears longer; twice as long as lead and oil.

Bond Money.

The Board of Aldermen will be ready to refund the money collected on the city improvement and graded school bonds Thursday. Checks will be issued by the mayor.

Call at his office at once and you can get your order.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Second Monthly Meeting.

The second monthly meeting of the Pitt County Teachers' Association was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning in the court house, by the president, Prof. G. E. Linebery.

Devotional exercises were conducted by T. E. Peaden, followed by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Miss Mattie Grimes.

T. E. Peaden made report for the committee on constitution and by laws. The report of the committee was adopted.

On motion a question box was added to the program, giving each teacher opportunity to ask questions on any particular line of work.

The program for the day was then taken up, as previously published; consisting of papers on different subjects and followed by discussions. The papers read were excellent, and THE REFLECTOR hopes to publish all of them at intervals during the next four weeks, as it did those read at the last meeting.

Besides those assigned places on the program for today, interesting addresses were made by W. F. Harding, F. C. Harding, Mrs. R. Otton and others.

Already the good of this association of teachers of the county is evident. It instills in them a deeper interest in their work as well as awakens in the public more interest in education.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather there was a large attendance of teachers and others present today and all were well entertained.

We have just opened the prettiest and most useful line of goods in silver, china, pictures &c that we have ever shown, see them before they are picked over.

Wooten's Drug Store.

A Parker Fountain Pen makes an ideal Christmas present. They are the best make and sold with a guarantee. Nice lot to select from at Reflector Book Store.

Prettiest line of silverware ever shown in Greenville, elegant selections for Christmas and wedding presents, at E. E. Griffin's.

Merchants don't love to see falling weather on holiday trade.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1902.

If the United States has a job lot of good, serviceable philanthropy on hand it might pay Venezuela's debt to the German and British allies. It couldn't be a worse investment than the twenty million we paid Spain for the Philippines.

In Tennessee the other day a woman who was about to be buried turned over in her coffin and asked for a drink. She didn't state whether she wanted it for immediate use or thought it might come in handy when she woke up in the other world.

The democrats of the North Carolina delegation who asked that a white man be named to succeed Vick as postmaster at Wilson were perhaps acting within their rights in doing so, but subsequent developments have doubtless made them feel like a man who attempts to settle a quarrel in his neighbor's family, remarks the Charlotte Observer.

Wonder if "the man who attempted to settle a quarrel in his neighbor's family" isn't the same fellow the calf ran over?

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has made up the figures for the distribution of the first $100,000 appropriated by the state direct to the public schools, based on the number of children of school age in each county. The number of children reported for the entire state is 678,599, making the apportionment about 15 cents to each child. Pitt county has 10,617 children and will get $1,592.55. Greene county will get $598.95, Lenoir $931.35, Craven $1,140, Beaufort $1,263.90, Martin $809.25, Edgecombe $1,552.56, Wilson 81,209.45.

The territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma should not be admitted as states for any consideration. They are not entitled to be by population, wealth, civilization or importance in any respect. Yet, if they are admitted, we shall not regard the act as a political one. In our view, the republicans have too much sense to rely on any of these sage brush and desert communities. They have had experience of admitting unripe territories and of seeing them go careering off after fantastic political phantoms. If the republicans have not a cinch on these United States as they are, they cannot strengthen their hold by admitting any more.—Richmond News.

This is a fair sample of the stuff that eastern papers have been printing regarding the west for 25 years, though it is just about the calibre one would expect from a school boy who had never seen beyond the border of his father's ten-acre farm. There is as much civilization and more common honesty in some parts of the territories mentioned than can be found among the society of the four hundred in the east. Especially is this true of Oklahoma, where, as the traveler and well-informed are aware, may be found a civilization that does not employ child labor, does not starve miners to death, and does not engage in the wholesale purchase of pure women for the purpose of debauching them. Isn't it about time for the east to close its slander mill and stop lying about the west? We are willing to credit the esteemed Richmond News with honest intentions, but hasten to assure it that there are many people in "these sage brush and desert communities" who can wear an evening suit and silk hat in a way that would make the average easterner look like a stuffed mummy of Rameses II.

The Bulletin of the State Board of Agriculture for October affords the following valuable addition to the literature of the Cabbage Snake:

The sea-serpent of mendacious renown seems to have been forced out of business this year by a land serpent which has located in the western part of North Carolina, where it is taken to frighten the owners of the cabbage patches. Many stories have been published concerning the deadly venom of this creature usually referred to as the "Cabbage Snake." Several of these "serpents" have been caught and sent to the North Carolina Department of Agriculture for identification. In every case these have proved to be the common and harmless water worm, or "Hair Snake"—Gordius variabilis.

Snakes and serpents belong to the backbone series of animals. This creature is a nematode worm belonging far down in the scale of created things. It has a soft, boneless body, with only rudimentary organs. It does not bite or chew, but absorbs its food in liquid form through any and every part of its body. It is normally an internal parasite of grasshoppers and other insects. Its presence in cabbage heads is rare and accidental, due to the previous abundance of insects upon the plants. The Gordius worms are never found parasitic upon humans or vertebrate animals. These stories concerning the deaths supposed to be caused by these worms are untrue and ridiculous! There is no venom in them. They may be eaten raw or cooked without any danger to the eater.

The serious part of these stories is that such publications may cause considerable loss by preventing the people from eating the cabbage they have raised or purchased. Such fears are wholly groundless. The worms are not common, and when they do occur upon cabbage, they will do no harm to any one eating the vegetable. They are at worst no more hurtful than the worms so plentiful in apples and peaches some seasons.

The so-called cabbage worm, or Gordius variabilis, is a slender white bodied worm, from four to twelve inches long, and about as thick as an ordinary knitting-needle.

It is hoped that those newspapers which have published the misleading stories concerning this worm, will re-publish this refutation, and thus help to prevent needless loss of good food.

Nuff Sed.

A dog tax simply as a means of raising revenue would be no better than taxation in any other form, if it should be the means of encouraging sheep husbandry it would prove a blessing. The trouble, as we see it, is that those who are asking for the measure are not likely to engage in the latter pursuit.—Durham Herald.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Laugh, and the world laughs with you; but not at your own jokes.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful house wife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The only opening the pessimist expects is that supplied by the gravedigger.

A Cold Wave.

A forecast of a sudden change in the weather serves notice that a hoarse voice and a heavy cough may invade the sanctity of health in your own home. Cautious people have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure always at hand. E. H. Wise, Madison, Ga., writes: "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health, and probably my life." It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes the mucous membranes and strengthens the lungs.

All women may be jewels, but a great deal depends upon the setting.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville. Every box warranted.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, and makes rich red blood, health and strength. Kodol rebuilds wornout tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Goy. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: I have used a number of bottles of Kodol and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends. J. L. Wooten.

It is the struggle and not the attainment that measures character.

What's in a Name.

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's the genuine. J. L. Wooten.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder. If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

A Northern View.

The North Carolinians, Republicans and Democrats alike, are making it quite uncomfortable for Mr. Pritchard. His explanation of the November election returns in that State satisfies nobody. His figures are questioned, and his reasoning is pronounced most unsound. Quite a controversy has arisen, and may continue for some time. The topic is one of wide interest. What has been attempted in North Carolina in the way of reorganizing the Republican party has been attempted in several other Southern States, and the result is anything but encouraging to the leaders of the movement. There was so small a muster of the party in these States last month that it scarcely gave excuse for existence. That way lies extermination. How soon, therefore, and with what energy, shall a return to broader views and fairer methods be ordered and executed.

But if the Republicans of the South were promised a liberal measure of success tomorrow they could not afford to accept it on the terms involved in this so-called "Lilly White" policy. They owe it to themselves to put good men forward for office and for leadership, and to do all in their power to make intelligence and character count at the highest figure at the polls. But for the party of Abraham Lincoln, while still cherishing his memory and conjuring with his name, to turn its back in any section of the country upon a man solely because of his color would be to invite and deserve defeat. The Republican party as a party as a party will never do such a thing; and those members of it in the South who have been bidding for votes at the expense of the party's principles have simply made themselves impossible in the party's future leadership.—Washington Star.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Youth takes the sugar coating, and old age chews the bitter pill of life.

If you feel ill and need a pill Why not purchase the best? DeWitt's Early Risers Are little surprisers, Take one—they do the rest. W. F. Howell, Houston, Tex., writes—I have used Little Early Risers Pills in my family for constipation, sick headache, etc. To their use I am indebted for the health of my family.

The way to do good is to be good. There must be light then it will shine.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

WINE OF CARDUI is a thoroughly scientific and modern remedy, meeting the needs of the modern woman in the modern way—without the torture of an operation. Wine of Cardui has cured them in the privacy of their homes and it has found a place in the hearts of American women that no other medicine has found. In their gratitude over 10,000 American women have written letters commending Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui meets their wants as no other medicine does. It sustains the young girl at the shock of her entrance to womanhood. Women who take Wine of Cardui have little discomfort during pregnancy and little pain at childbirth. When the change of life appears they enter a happy, healthy old age. Every month it comes to the rescue to assist Nature in throwing the impurities from the body.

following praise on Wine of Cardui: "Among the numerous medicines placed before suffering women for their relief none can touch McElree's Wine of Cardui. It towers above them all as a reliable female remedy. It simply drives pain and disease away and restores health in an incredibly short period. I have taken great interest in this medicine for the past two years, since it brought health and strength to me. I have also recommended it to a number of my friends and they who have used it speak of it in the highest terms and I feel that it is praise well bestowed."

If you are suffering from female weakness Wine of Cardui is the medicine you need. You can have health the same as Miss Finley if you will take the Wine of Cardui treatment. If you need advice further than the complete directions given on the bottle, address The Ladies Advisory Department, Chattanooga Med. Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
