LETTER TO C. B. WEST.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sir: The cost of labor in painting a house is three times the cost of paint. You seem to save a little when you buy a lower priced paint, but you certainly add to the cost of labor when you pay for spreading more gallons.

You don't even save on the paint. Devoe Lead and Zinc costs a little more than mixed paints, but it takes fewer gallons, and the cost is actually less.

Wears longer, too—longer than mixed paints, longer than lead and oil.

You don't save a cent. Mr. C. Loch, a painter in Magnolia, Miss., writes:

After years of experiments with mixed paints I find that your paint covers more surface to the gallon than any I have ever used. For density and wearing qualities it cannot be excelled.

Compared with lead and oil: A house belonging to the late President of the Croton River Bank, at Brewsters, N. Y., (cost $31,000) was painted with lead and oil in '84 at a cost of $400. In '87—three years—it was repainted with Devoe at a cost of $350. In '97 the house was still all right.

Results: lead and oil—cost $400, wear three years; Devoe—cost $350, wear ten years.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
New York.

P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Of Value to Cane Growers.

A pamphlet entitled "Fertilizing Sugar Cane," written by a practical sugar planter from Hawaii, has just been published by the German Kall works, 93 Nassau St., New York, N. Y., and a copy of it can be obtained free by writing to them. No doubt many of our readers will be interested to learn how this crop is treated so as to produce large yields of cane and sugar and the pamphlet mentioned contains many valuable points pertaining there to.

Eat hearty and drink Digestine.

Notice.

After January 1st we will not sell any goods on account. This is not personal to anyone.

Business conditions make it necessary to adopt this rule, and feeling sure that we shall thereby be able to render our customers better service, it will be adhered to without discrimination.

WILCOX TRIAL IN HERTFORD

General Opinion is That
He Will be Acquitted.

QUAKERS ON THE JURY.

Many People Believe This Was the Reason Why the Trial Was Removed to Perquimans County.

A great deal has been said and written concerning the underlying motives which were at the bottom of the removal of the second trial of James Wilcox, the alleged murderer of Nellie Cropsey, from Elizabeth City to Hertford, in Perquimans county, and much that has been said has been but conjecture and theory. Different reasons appealed to different people in every part of the State, and it may be interesting to have the opinions of some of the citizens of Perquimans who may be drawn as jurors.

In the first place, let it be said that if Wilcox could secure a fair trial anywhere in the world, it would be in Perquimans, which is regarded as the centre of education and enlightenment of the north-east. The people of Perquimans are law-abiding, God-fearing people, who live as near by the Golden Rule as any in the world.

Hertford, the county seat, is a prosperous, thriving town of 2,000 inhabitants. It is situated on Perquimans river and the Norfolk and Southern railroad, and is the home of the great lumber manufacturing operations of the Fleetwood-Jackson Co.

The court house in which Wilcox will be tried is an ancient but substantial two-story building, built with brick brought from England before the Revolutionary war. It contains the offices of the county officers, jury and lodge rooms, and an auditorium in which court is held, seating about 350 people.

A recent visit to Hertford disclosed the fact that many people believe the trial was removed to Perquimans in order to secure a jury composed principally of Quakers, who are said to be opposed to capital punishment, and being essentially a peaceful people, and less likely to be influenced by passion and prejudice than other people. There are a great many Quakers in Perquimans, some communities being composed almost entirely of citizens of this religious belief. They are pious, self-contained people and in their sequestered lives come into contact with little that is evil and worldly, as compared with people of other faiths.

The opinion is freely expressed in Hertford that Wilcox will be acquitted. A year ago hardly anyone could be found who would voice belief in his innocence, but the sentiment has changed somewhat now, principally owing to the fact that many people believe that the State failed to make out a case at the former trial.

It is not likely that many citizens of Hertford will be on the jury, as nearly everyone has been heard to express decided opinions upon the subject. The coming trial is exciting considerable interest in the town where it is to be held, and the general sentiment is that Wilcox must have a fair and impartial trial at any cost, and that the reputation of the county must be upheld.

An influx of lawyers, newspaper correspondents, &c., is looked forward to and preparations are being made for their accommodation. The trial will commence Monday, January 12th, at 10 o'clock.

Beautiful Marriage in Tarboro

Tarboro, N. C., Dec. 25.—One of the most beautiful marriages that has ever taken place in the city was solemnized in Calvary Episcopal Church at 3:30 on Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. J. Stanley Smith, one of the most popular young hotel men in the state led to the altar Miss Annie Louise Shaw, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of our esteemed townsmen, Mr. H. H. Shaw. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. W. Gamble, assisted by Rev. Mr. Joyner, a cousin of the groom. Promptly at 3:30, to the strains of the wedding march, came the ushers, Maj. Joe B. Pennington with Mr. Robert C. Brown and Mr. William E. Fenner with Mr. Frank P. Gatlen. Following these came Miss Smith of Greenville with Miss Dorsey of Henderson and Miss Whitney of Washington, N. C. with Miss Wheeler of Washington, D. C. Then came the dame of honor, Mrs. J. Stanton Norman of Norfolk, Va.

The bride, on the arm of her father, was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. George E. Pennington. After the ceremony the couples came out in the following order: Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Smith, Mrs. J. Stanton Norman and Mr. Geo. E. Pennington, Miss Wheeler and Mr. Frank P. Gatlen, Miss Whitney and Mr. Joe B. Pennington, Miss Dorsey and Mr. William E. Fenner, Miss Smith and Mr. Robert C. Brown.

After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Tarboro.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shaw gave an elegant anti-nuptial reception on Monday night and many partook of their generous hospitality. —Raleigh Post.

Anti-Saloon League.

The regular preaching services in both the Baptist and Methodist churches was dispensed with Sunday night in order to secure a larger attendance at the meeting of the Anti-Saloon League in the Baptist church. The audience was larger than at any previous meeting of the league and much interest was shown. Addresses were made by Revs. J. N. Booth and H. M. Eure and W. F. Harding.

A resolution was adopted to have printed and circulated at once petitions to the Legislature asking that a law be enacted to abolish the saloon business in Pitt county. The question of petitioning the aldermen to pass an ordinance requiring the removal from the saloons of Greenville all obstructions to view from the street was also discussed and the matter was left in the hands of the executive committee.

The league will meet next Sunday night in the Methodist church.

Girl Type Setters.

A few months ago THE REFLECTOR engaged two young ladies to learn type setting, and the experiment has been a very satisfactory one. They find it agreeable work, and we are so well pleased with them as to decide to engage one more. Those desiring to apply for the position should do so at once. We can also make room for a good, steady boy who wants to learn type setting and printing.

CHRISTMAS

Neckwear

If there is a man on earth who could not use, and would not be glad to receive a new Tie for a Christmas gift, where is he? We would like to see him. It's elegant. Yes, it's elegant. That is the only word that covers the territory and the only way we can describe our Christmas Neckwear display. Every smart swager shape, every new pattern in silk—every new kink is here. Four-in-hands, Ascots, Bows, Tecks, Puffs, Straight Ties, Imperials, etc. All are here in new designs. Our Neckwear display alone is well worth coming to see—what ever is "IT" in Neckwear we've got. Regardless of whatever else you may buy him, you can't miss it if you buy him a Christmas Tie.

Mrs. J. W. Howard, of Conetoe and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gold, of Wilson, came in Saturday evening to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Moyer. Mr. Gold returned today.

Sunday School Mass Meeting.

The first of the quarterly union Sunday school mass meetings was held in the Baptist church, Sunday afternoon, with a good attendance.

Reports were made by the secretaries of the four schools that have joined with the union, giving the enrollment and average attendance of each for the quarter. These reports made the remarkable showing that the average attendance of the four schools combined has been less than 200. This is a poor showing for a town the size of Greenville, and to improve this condition and get more people in the Sunday schools is the prime object of the union.

Very interesting addresses were made by M. A. Allen, W. F. Harding and E. B. Ficklen and enjoyable recitations by Misses Lissie Laughinghouse, Mattie Corey and Nannie Johnson.

A resolution was adopted to take a census of the town to show the number of people belonging to any church or Sunday school.

The next meeting of the union will be held in the Presbyterian church on the last Sunday in March.

Fruits, nuts, raisins, candies, toys, wagons, guns, dolls, and other Xmas specialties cheap at Samuel M. Schultz's.

Family Reunion.

There was a most delightful family reunion Christmas day at the home of Mr. J. Cobb, in Beaver Dam township, his children and children being with him to enjoy the glad day.

There were present Mr. R. J. Cobb and family, of Greenville; Mr. B. P. Cobb and daughter, Miss Mary, of Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cobb, of Norfolk; Mr. Ola Forbes and family, of Greenville; Mr. L. A. Cobb, of Grifton; Mr. J. H. Cobb and family, of Beaver Dam; Mrs. Addie Hooks and children, of Winterville.

A sumptuous dinner was served in the afternoon. Mr. Cobb is now 79 years of age, but hale and hearty. It was a great pleasure to have his descendants gathered about him. We wish him and them many more such happy reunions.

MONDAY DECEMBER 29, 1902.

The City of Brotherly Love (?) is somewhat agitated in regard to a proposition to erect a memorial tablet in Grace Baptist Temple to Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of the great Confederate president. We do not know the origin of the foolish idea, but anyone might have seen the result of it. In Philadelphia prejudice runs high against anything Southern, and it is to be hoped that this stir will be allowed to settle and die out without further controversy. Rev. Russell H. Conwell, pastor of Temple church, is not a man who is likely to regard Southerners who took part in the rebellion as anything but traitors, and Southern people must regret that some loving but indiscreet friends have sought to place a memorial to the memory of the "Princess of the South" in a Northern church, where it could hardly fail to arouse bitter controversies, in spite of the oft-repeated assertion that the hatchet is buried and the chasm bridged. In the South no memorial is necessary to keep green in our hearts the memory of Winnie Davis. Let her friends in the North keep her memory forever enshrined in the recesses of their hearts, and trust to time and eternity to give her that due which is for a pure and noble woman.

It seems that Americans can't get along without thieves in official places. The Isthmian canal commission is the latest aggregation of government sharks to dispense a half million of good American tax money to influential army officers and fleecing sons of senators and congressmen. And the people pay the freight.

The Kinston Free Press was recently leased by Mr. J. W. Grainger and the paper is now under the business management of Mr. L. J. Mewborn. He was for a number of years connected with the Free Press and has had sufficient experience to make it a success.

It's the fashion nowadays to jaw at women for causing the wholesale slaughter of birds, in order to adorn their pretty vain heads, but why doesn't some scientific duffer go after the "sportsmen" who wade into a flock of partridges thirsting for bird gore?

If Alfred Austin ever reads the alleged poem in the Charlotte News of the 22nd, entitled "Lines to a Lady," he will have good reason to assert that the poet laureate of England is not the worst poet in the world, after all.

The Leger, Oklahoma, Times bears this inscription at its masthead. "Truth is mighty—scarce."

An epidemic of marriages and drunks broke out in Durham Christmas eve and Christmas day. About a score of marriages were pulled off and over a hundred arrests made. Durham is bound to have some excitement.

Last week the Raleigh Post brought out Cleveland and Aycock for President and Vice President in 1904. The South has every claim to representation on the presidential ticket.

The South has a few second-hand tree limbs, telegraph poles, etc, good as new for lynching purposes, which it will let to Boston until that city learns how to do the job properly.

In Manchester England, a society has been formed for the purpose of convincing people that it is unhealthy to eat breakfast. This would have been a comfortable doctrine for Mr. Micawber.

Social scandals are not confined to Greensboro. Royalty on the other side of the big pond indulges in an occasional flight of it.

Governor Aycock ought to have a grudge against the Post for trying to place him in Cleveland's class.

Come, now, get busy. Shake off that tired feeling and go to work. Its a year to Christmas.

North State News

The annual meeting of the Baptist State Board of Missions was held in Raleigh last week. Plans were laid for the work in 1903, on a basis of $25,000.

The Atlantic Coast Line railroad has purchased the Georgia Northern railroad, with a trackage of 71 miles, between Pidcock and Albany, Ga.

A stock company is being formed in Kinston with a capital of $10,000 to manufacture smoking tobacco.

Fire destroyed the A. C. L. depot at Tunis Christmas night; four box cars and other property were also destroyed.

Negro burglars made a raid on the Rock Springs Hotel, Wilmington, Friday night, securing $42.00 and other valuables.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

When a servant girl waits until ironing day to demand more wages she believes in striking while the iron is hot.

If you feel ill and need a pill Why not purchase the best DeWitt's Early Risers Are little surprisers, Take one—they do the rest. W. E. Howell, Houston, Tex., writes—I have used Little Early Riser Pills in my family for constipation, sick headache, etc. To their use I am indebted for the health of my family.

When a man compliments a woman she isn't satisfied unless she can induce him to repeat it at least seven times.

Better Than a Plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A man with a lot of money should be satisfied with his lot.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful house wife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

No man is a good talker unless he is able to shut up when he has said enough.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville. Every box warranted.

Some women grow weary trying to look young, but they do not tire themselves half as much as they tire others.

A Cold Wave.

A forecast of a sudden change in the weather serves notice that a hoarse voice and a heavy cough may invade the sanctity of health in your own home. Cautious people have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure always at hand. E. H. Wise, Madison, Ga., writes: "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health, and probably my life." It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes the mucous membranes and strengthens the lungs.

The average man doesn't care what you think of him as long as you don't say it.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, and makes rich red blood, health and strength. Kodol rebuilds wornout tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: I have used a number of bottles of Kodol and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends. J. L. Wooten.

Some people experience but little difficulty in making fools of themselves.

What's in a Name.

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. J. L. Wooten.

NEW YEAR'S IN RUSSIA

In the smaller cities of Russia New Year's day is in the Twelve Days' festival. The Russians in many parts have held to the old ways from time immemorial. The preparations for the season begin early in November. The host of some great house begins to lay in stores of salted beef and sausages, liqueurs, etc. The hostess calls on all her friends and invites young and old. Next day she is succeeded by the nurse, who makes the same rounds of visits. Her duty is to invite especially the young ladies. She is hailed with joy, and the lady of the house hastens to mix for her the cup of wine. She delivers her errand and is pilled with questions as to the invited and rejected. But the most important question is, "Who are the elected?" These are the young men invited by the hostess for the girls, or "fair maidens," as they are called. The duty of the young man thus designated is to look after the amusement and pleasure of his "fair maiden" during the "twelve days." The responsibility of the choice lying with the hostess, she has to be careful in her selection.

But the invitation has again to be repeated, this time by the master of the house in the person of his servant, or "swat," who, with mace in hand, performs his mission. On entering each house he offers a prayer before the shrine of the saint to which it is dedicated. He then delivers the invitation in the name of his master and mistress. At first, according to etiquette, the invitation is refused, but after much pressing it is finally accepted. When the day arrives, the young ladies who are the heroines of the season appear in a sledge accompanied by their mother and favorite companion, generally a girl of inferior rank, who sits at their feet. This sledge is followed by another containing firewomen charged with caskets and dressing boxes. Other sledges follow—the longer the procession the greater honor to the house visited. On the arrival the host and hostess meet the guests at the gate, bow without speaking and conduct them into the house.—New York World.

Self Approval.

"Have you kept your New Year's resolutions?"
"Yes, I have faithfully kept a New Year's resolution that I made three or four years ago."
"What was it?"
"Never to make any more resolutions."—Washington Star.

An Arrested Intelligence.

"Charlie Binks isn't as slow as he seems."
"How is that?"
"He woke up yesterday and asked what year it is."

His Happy Calls.

Wilkins—How many calls did you make yesterday?
Dikins—Three, and, say, it was the best game of poker I ever sat in!

THE OLD and THE NEW

The New Year came to the Old Year's door
When the sands were wasting thin,
And the frost lay white on the Old Year's thatch,
And his hand grew chill as he slipped the latch
To let the New Year in.
And the New Year perched in the Old Year's chair
And warmed by the Old Year's fire,
And the Old Year watched him with wistful gaze
As he stretched his hands to the fading blaze
And cinders of dead desire.

And the Old Year prated, as Old Years will,
Of summer and vanished spring,
And then of the future, with grave advice,
Of love and sorrow and sacrifice
That the seasons' round would bring.
And the New Year listened and warmed his heart
In the bloom of the Old Year's past,
But he gave no heed of the thorns that lay
In the bud and blow of a coming day,
And, nodding, he dreamed at last.
The New Year came to the Old Year's door
And warmed in the Old Year's chair,
And the Old Year talked till the New Year slept,
Then forth in the night he softly stepped
And left the New Year there.

Rheumacide

Is a new and scientific compound made from roots, herbs and barks—contains neither opiates nor poisons. It purifies the blood and removes the causes of rheumatism and all blood diseases. Anyone can take RHEUMACIDE with absolute safety. Does not injure the digestive organs.

TWO CURES.
FLORENCE, S. C., Aug. 16, 1902.
Gentlemen:—I began to suffer from rheumatism about three years ago, and had it very bad in my limbs. At times I could hardly walk. Was treated by a physician without benefit. More than a year ago, Mr. George Wilson, an engineer on the Coast Line, living in Florence, told me that "RHEUMACIDE" cured him. I got a bottle and it benefited me. I took five bottles and am now as well as I ever was in my life. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as a great medicine. I know of others it has cured.
Truly,
S. T. BURCH.

DARLINGTON, S. C., Aug. 19th, 1902.
Gentlemen:—About two years ago I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered great pain and was confined to my bed for five weeks. During the time I was treated by two physicians without permanent relief. Capt. Barker, a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line heard of my condition and sent me two bottles of "RHEUMACIDE." I began to take it and in a week I got up and walked on crutches. After taking three bottles of the remedy I got entirely well and went back to my business. I personally know of a number of other bad cases that were cured by the use of your medicine, in this town and vicinity. It is all that you claim for it.
Truly, J. L. SISKRON.

Sold by Druggists. Will be sent express paid on receipt of $1.00.

Fire in Beaver Dam.

Christmas night the pack house and barn of Mr. Frank Allen, in Beaver Dam township, were destroyed by fire. There being suspicion that the fire was incendiary, Mr. W. C. Hine's blood hounds were sent for. The dogs were taken to the scene and quickly found a trail which they followed to the house of a colored man living in the neighborhood. There have been two arrests.

The Weather.

For North Carolina:
Rain tonight, warmer in eastern portion. Tuesday rain in eastern, fair and colder in Western portion.

Our Christmas.

There was a pleasant incident in THE REFLECTOR office Christmas eve. The employees were finishing up their work preparatory to a little holiday, when Mr. Closs W. Hearn, spokesman for all, stepped forward and presented the editor with a beautiful finger ring as a token of appreciation. It was a large seal ring, handsomely carved and set with Masonic emblem. The editor prizes it very highly, both for its beauty and the message of esteem accompanying it. Every employee on the paper was given a Christmas present.

Miss Lang Entertains.

Reported for the Reflector.]
Miss Alice Lang on Friday evening entertained a number of friends at her home, in which the following participated:

Misses Irma Cobb, Nina James, Minnie Tunstall, Mary Higgs, Lucy Forbes, Glen Forbes, Nannie Coward, Alice Blow, Mary Moyer, Mamie King, W. B. Wilson, Jr., L. M. Newton, T. J. Moore, A. J. Moore, C. H. King, Chas James, Hugh Bennett, of Wadesboro, Robt. Winstead, of Rocky Mount, J. Benj. Higgs, W. A. Parker, S. D. King.

The home was beautifully decorated with holly and mistletoe.

After a very interesting contest of finding the donkey's tail blindfolded, delightful refreshments were served, the dining room being also decorated with holly and mistletoe. W. A. Parker was the fortunate one to carry off first prize and Charlie James the booby.

It was near the hour of midnight when all bade good night to the fair young hostess. Everybody reported a delightful time.

Lost His Buggy.

Mr. A. J. Whichard, of Grindle creek section, came to town Saturday and left his buggy comparatively a new one, in the lot in rear of the Rialto building. When he was ready to return home he found that some one had taken his buggy and left an old one. He searched an hour or more about town, and failing to find his buggy borrowed a road cart to ride home on.
