SPRING 1903

NEW WHITE GOODS WELCOME

COLOR is eliminated from the card today. White Goods first in store displays as they will be in your thoughts, we trust. Ten years ago, yes, four or five years, even—who would have dreamed of the beauty to be brought out in fabric art without a touch from rainbow tints? Pure white, but so varied have been the dreams of designers, so cleverly have loom wizards wrought, that there is hardly a limit to variety. White has only been thought of as a repellent for summer's heat. The sheerest effects have been sought, but now, however, white fabrics, chevrons, madras and piques are brought out in rich style assortment. White has overstepped the limits of summer months and hereafter will be an all-the-year-round factor.

WHITE PIQUES

In a large variety of the up-to-date styles and designs in Imported Piques that are worth your while to inspect at 12 1-2, 15, 20 and 25c.

WHITE DIMITIES

In all of the newest designs and weaves, dots, stripes and lace stripes at 8 1-3, 10, 12 1-2, 15, 18, 20,
22 1-2, 25 and 30c.

WHITE MADRAS

In Crepe de Chine designs with Satin stripes that will retain its lustre after it is laundered at 30 and 35c.

WHITE LAWNS

In Lace Striped and Hemstitched Patterns. Such a line has never before been your pleasure to see in Greenville at the following prices per yard:

10, 12 1-2, 15, 18, 20,
25, 35, 40 and 50c.

FEBRUARY was a month for clearing out all winter goods. Low prices were marked on entire stock of goods that were not wanted. This week and next we must clear the shelves of the remainder of winter stock. Bed Blankets, Comforts, Ladies' Jackets, Skirts, Fur Scarfs, Men's Overcoats, Clothing and Furnishings.

Friday, March 6th, we will sell Comforts that were $1.50 for 98c.

On Saturday, March 7th, we will sell Men's Macintosh Coats, with Cape, 44 inches long, former price, $3.00, for 98c.
SIZES 34 TO 46.

20% REDUCTION

at B. Fleishman & Bros.

We are overstocked with Fall and Winter goods, and in order to close them out to make room for new spring goods have put the knife to prices and will give 20 per cent. Reduction on all these goods. There are bargains in the prices we are offering and it will pay you to buy now.

Our stock was bought low, and this reduction makes our prices far below what you will have another opportunity to buy for.

Come early and get the benefit of this great reduction. All winter goods must be disposed of quickly.

PROCLAMATION

—BY THE—

Mayor of Greenville,
Giving Notice of an Election to be held in said town on the 7th day of April, 1903.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina, at its present session has passed an act entitled "An act to authorize the town of Greenville to issue bonds," to an amount not exceeding sixty-five thousand dollars, for works of internal improvements, if approved by the voters of said town;

And another act entitled "An act to establish a Graded School in the town of Greenville," and providing for the issuing of ten thousand dollars of bonds for the erection and equipment of the necessary buildings therefor, if a majority of the qualified voters of the said town shall so direct;

And whereas, by the terms of said acts, the board of aldermen of the town of Greenville were required at a meeting to be held on or before the first Thursday in March, 1903, to appoint a registrar and two judges of election for each of the wards of said town, to hold and conduct said election;

And whereas, the mayor of said town is required by said acts to issue his proclamation at least 20 days before said election, giving notice of said election and designating therein the persons chosen to conduct the same, and the exact place in each ward where said election is to be held;

Now therefore, I, Harry W. Whedbee, mayor of the town of Greenville, do, in accordance with said acts, issue this my proclamation giving notice to the qualified voters of the said town of Greenville as follows:

1. That an election will be held in the town of Greenville, at the several places in the several wards of the said town, on Tuesday, the 7th day of April, 1903, (it being the first Tuesday in April, 1903,) for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters of said town on the ratification or rejection of the provisions of said acts. Those who favor the issuing of said bonds for the purposes specified in the act entitled "An act to authorize the town of Greenville to issue bonds" will vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words "For Bonds," and those desiring to vote against them shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words "Against Bonds." Those persons who favor establishing graded schools in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish a graded school in the town of Greenville" shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "For the Schools" and those who are opposed thereto shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "Against the Schools."

2. That at the meeting of the board of aldermen of the said town held on the first Thursday in March, 1903, (it being the 5th day of March, 1903,) it was ordered that said election be held in the several wards at the following places to-wit:

First ward, at the old Eborn house on the corner of Second and Greene streets.

Second ward, at the residence of J. N. Booth on Third street.

Third ward, at the court house.

Fourth ward at J. H. Starkey's store at Five points.

Fifth ward, at the Farmers' warehouse, on Dickinson avenue.

That at said meeting on said 5th day of March, 1903, the said board of aldermen appointed the following named persons as registrars and judges of election, to register the voters and conduct the said election in the several wards as follows to-wit:

First ward—Henry Harding, registrar. B. T. Bailey and W. J. Cowell, judges of election.

Second ward—J. N. Booth, registrar. Allen Warren and J. L. Starkey, judges of election.

Third ward—L. W. Lawrence, registrar. G. E. Harris and J. D. Garden, judges of election.

Fourth ward—J. G. Bowling, registrar. T. E. Hooker and G. C. Moore, judges of election.

Fifth ward—J. O. Lanier, registrar. W. H. Dail, Jr., and J. S. Tunstall, judges of election.

I therefore give notice that said election will be held at the places designated above in the several wards and conducted by the persons above designated as registrars and judges of election.

3. It is also provided in said acts that there shall be an entirely new registration of the voters of said town, and that the registrars of the several wards shall attend at the above designated voting places on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next preceding the election, from 2 o'clock p. m. to sunset each day, for the purpose of registering all persons entitled to register, and who have not been registered, but the said registrars may, for convenience, register any person entitled to register at his home or at any other place in said town. Notice is therefore given that all who desire to vote must register before the day of election, as only those can vote whose names are found on the registration books.

4. It is provided by the 9th section of the act entitled "An act to authorize the town of Greenville to issue bonds" that at the same time and places as above set out there shall be elected five citizens of the said town, who shall be known and designated as the Board of Internal Improvements for said town. Notice is therefore given that each voter entitled to vote for or against bonds will also be entitled to vote in a separate box for five citizens to constitute said Board of Internal Improvements.

5. That it is provided by the 6th section of the act entitled "An act to establish a graded school in the town of Greenville," that at the election above provided for, to be held on the 1st Tuesday in April, 1903, there shall be also a separate election to determine and select fourteen trustees of said school and a separate box provided for same, which trustees shall be the trustees of the said school for the terms for which they have been elected, in the event the said schools shall have been established as above provided, to-wit: Two persons whose terms shall expire on 30th day of June, 1904; two persons whose terms of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1905; two persons whose term of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1906; two persons whose term of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1907; two persons whose term of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1908; two persons whose term of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1909; two persons whose term of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1910; two persons whose term of office shall expire on 30th day of June, 1911. Notice is therefore given that all persons who are entitled to vote for or against the schools will be entitled to vote in separate box for trustees as above set out.

Given under my hand at the mayor's office in Greenville this 6th day of March, A. D. 1903.

HARRY W. WHEDBEE,
Mayor.

To the Ladies.

I am now receiving my Spring Millinery. Trimmers will commence work March 15. You can have a hat trimmed from 50 cents to any price desired Flowers from 5 cents to $2.25 per bunch.

Large display entirely new. "Barnet," the new color in hats. "Honeymoon," the newest shape. Grapes, cherries and berries; latest thing in flowers.

After looking through my stock you will pronounce it the largest and prettiest ever shown in this city. MRS. L. GRIFFIN.

The announcement is made that the Boston and Maine railroad has acceded to the demands of its employees and that wages will be increased by probably a little more than 10 per cent. Now, if the public will keep its ear to the ground for a short time it will in all likelihood hear of an advance in freight rates within a few days; and the advance will be more than sufficient to pay the increase of wages.—Savannah News.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March, 7.

Prof. A. A. Forbes, of Greenville, had things lively in the bauld hall last night. The boys are in high spirits and will no doubt be able to make good music by the time Mr. Forbes leaves them, provided he don't leave too soon.

John Fulford was in town yesterday.

A new coat of paint has added a great deal to the appearance of the Cox hotel, or Mrs. J. D. Cox's boarding house, as it is usually called.

G. A. Kittrell & Co. have a big lot of seed Irish potatoes for sale. W. H. Hamilton went to Kingston yesterday on the freight.

Tobacco farmers! It don't matter who you are nor whether you are far or near, do not forget that the cheapest, handiest, most substantial and complete truck in every way for housing your tobacco is the "Handy" which will be manufactured exclusively by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. Only a dozen or so were put out very late last season. Those who have seen them know what they are. Several thousand of them will likely be sold this season. Place your order early so that you will be sure of them. It does not pay you to fool with the old thing you rigged up yourself or that some jack leg made for you. As for the cost, you will never miss the small amount paid for a set of "Haudys."

Mr. Smith, of Ayden, was on our streets yesterday taking orders for flowers, fruit trees, vines, &c.

Mrs. Hunsucker and sister, Miss Dora Cox, drove to Greenville Thursday to do some shopping.

A car load of cotton seed meal just received by G. A. Kittrell & Co. You will find their prices right.

Leonard Hamilton went to Kingston Saturday night and returned Monday. He don't mind a body's knowing his business, but comes right out with it and says that he went to see his best girl.

We notice that Rowan Cooper is taking inventory of store goods preparatory to making a change in business.

Somebody who has a lot of maples nice size for setting out on streets would do well to send a few loads to Winterville. They are badly needed.

A. G. Cox is making some experiments with an incubator. He thinks it is the best "old hen" he ever saw.

J. H. C. Dixon and wife spent yesterday in Greenville.

The orders are in and the goods must go, even if we have to work nights in order to get them ready. Those in need of tobacco trucks, guano sowers, tobacco lines, &c had better place orders at once.

Cat and Mouse.

Some months ago a small tabby kitten was given a home in THE REFLECTOR business office. As the kitten grew its playful disposition made it the pet of the office.

As time went on the kitten met with an unaccountable accident that left it a cripple. When this misfortune came its frolicsome nature and buoyant spirit seem to vanish, and the poor thing just moped around as if looking for sympathy.

The sympathizers were found and the former pet now became the special ward of all.

Friday one of the printing boys got a live mouse, tied it with a string so it could not run away, and brought it over to the lame cat. Naturally he expected to see the cat pounce on the mouse and devour it, but no such thing took place. Quicker than it takes to tell it the cat and mouse had made friends and spent the day as congenially together as if they had been life long companions.

A man may murder his friend and find peace in repentance, but the man who strangles his young manhood may seek repentance but never find it. The ghost of a friend may be laid, but that other shade eternally intrudes upon the musings of his slayer.

Nothing is safe from the rude hand of the iconoclast. The beauty of truth may be dimmed by a harsh shouting from the housetops of things which, though true, can only bring shame and agony to some heart. It is more beautiful charity to silence the lips that would utter a truth so cruel as to sear the soul of a friend.

The ministers of Louisville; Kentucky, have scraped the crust off the 400 and found, as usual, a hideous sore—velvet vice and rotten respectability. It is a good thing that the 400 are not more numerous, and also a good thing that they are killing themselves by their manner of living. With a country full of 400's, Sodom and Gomorrah would be Sunday school diversions in comparison.

The season of the lawn swing, the hammock and the front porch tete-a-tete draweth near, and the summer girl prepareth for conquest, the dude returneth to his Panama hat and the maid to her summer shirtwaist, and the whole family will be in a state of wonderment as to whether Susie will succeed in an effort to change her name for that of the nice young man she met at the seashore.

Great is summer.

If we are to judge by what the Wilson News says from time to time about Wilson's negro postmaster, he is the right man for the right place. The News does not say so, but from the tone of the articles supporting Vick the News thinks there is no white man in Wilson capable of holding the position, and if there is, the News is satisfied with the present incumbent. We decline to believe that this is the sentiment of the people of Wilson. If it is, they should set up a postoffice of their own and install Vick as deity-in-chief.

THE WAIST THAT BUTTONS DOWN THE BACK.

When Mabel squeezes in a waist That buttons down the back, And then cries out, in pleading tones: "Come here and help me Jack," I sigh for those delicious days— Those days when I was free, And Mabel never pleaded to Be buttoned up by me.

Ah, what a privilege would I Have deemed it then to hear Her cry: "Come, please, and help me with These dreadful buttons, dear!" How gladly would I then have gone And given her a smack For each delightful button down The row upon her back.

But things, somehow, don't thrill me now As once they might have thrilled; And oh the waists that Mabel wears Are always amply filled! My temper's warped, my thumbs are sore, My fingers ache, alas! Confound these awkward, foolish waists That button down the back! —Chicago Record-Herald.

READ IT THROUGH.

'Twould Spell this Story to Tell it in the Headlines.

To use an 18th century expression, this is an "o'er true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon, of Melba Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced, as I was." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Those who have most to say, say it in fewest words. Men set up the drinks and the drinks upset the men.

A Remarkable Case.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Jno. L. Wooten.

It's a put-up job on a man when his wife orders a new stove. In the race of life it isn't the fast man who comes out ahead.

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth street, Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Man came after woman and she has been after him ever since. No man can be expected to foot his wife's bills without kicking.

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cleanses, purifies, sweetens and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Jno. L. Wooten.

Even the river banks are unable to stand a protracted run on them. Only when he goes to church is a man satisfied to take a back seat.

Colds are Dangerous.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A headline in a contemporary tells us that the Norfolk negroes have "indorsed Roosevelt and Hayes." Why wouldn't that make a republican ticket in accordance with the fitness of things and in harmony with the president's policy?—Richmond News.

DAILY REFLECTOR

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Hon. John H. Small Makes a Brilliant Record in Congress.

There is nothing more gratifying, now congress is about to adjourn, than the work Hon. J. H. Small has been able to accomplish for his district in the way of free delivery routes, the appropriation for the large government building in Elizabeth City, the outlook for the opening up of the inland waterway, and, indeed, he has left no stone unturned that had for its end the promotion of the interest of his people. And yet how vividly we remember how our republican friends were constantly sounding in our ears before he defeated Skinner that it was the height of folly to elect a democrat to succeed Skinner because none but a populist elected by republican votes of a republican could accomplish anything for the district since the republicans were in control of congress.

We said at the time it was nonsense, and no one would believe it unless he was a fool. While the government is in a measure run by parties it is a business institution also, and in mere business matters not related to partisan politics a democratic representative, if he is the right kind of a man (and Mr. Small is) can effect as much as a republican under a republican administration. It all depends on the man, and the career of Mr. Small during his two terms in congress has proven this is everlasting true.—Washington Gazette Messenger.

A Trifling Congress.

It can be said with truth of the late Congress that it was unfruitful of legislation of a beneficial character to this country or to our colonial possessions. Though the Philippine people are suffering, Congress refused to afford them a reasonable tariff system or to do anything else for their relief. Though the American people are liable at any time to a financial convulsion, such as they suffered in a small way last fall, Congress refused to pass either the Fowler bill or the Aldrich bill, the purpose of each of which is to afford a currency which will expand and contract as the needs of business may suggest. These two—the Philippine tariff and currency reform—were for any way the most important matters before Congress and neither got respectful consideration from it. Nor did any other subject of practical concern. Extravagance ran riot and this goes down to history as a do-nothing, two-billion-dollar Congress. It talked politics and about inconsequential affairs and allowed the business interests to drift. It is for such things that the people pay out their good money. If the Democrats cannot carry the country next year it will not be for the reason that this administration and the late congress have not provided unsavory records.—Charlotte Observer.

Senator Hoar at a Washington birthday banquet in the Union Club, at Chicago, the other night, said this: "The negro has advanced, and negroes like Booker T. Washington are as welcome to my table as at the White House." The people of the South don't object to these sentiments of Senator Hoar, President Roosevelt, and others of their ilk. We do not deny their right to eat with negroes, intermarry with them, or anything else they like. It is only a matter of taste, and it's only when they try to act as umpires of taste for us that we kick.—Lexington Dispatch.

Today congress passes into history, the legislature is on the eve of adjournment and every republican from North Carolina in both branches of Congress retires to be succeeded by democrats. Surely there is much cause for rejoicing in a day that brings so many good things!—Asheville Citizen.

A VALUABLE VOICE

(Original.) The manager had made rapid strides in his profession. He was only thirty, yet was sole proprietor of a successful comic opera troupe. He was very businesslike with the members of his company, but he still liked him. One morning he was receiving applications of auditions for the chorus. A girl with large eyes and comely face and figure was admitted.

"You are to be asked deferentially, looking admiringly at one unusually refined for a chorus singer. "Leonareta Traver." "You sing?" "Soprano." After a trial of her voice she was engaged.

Leonareta sang so well that she was soon cast for one of the inferior parts. At the first rehearsal after the assignment she astonished the manager by singing a deep contralto. Few women could reach the notes she struck. "What's the matter with your voice?" asked the manager, astonished. "Don't know, sir."

"You have been singing soprano for two weeks, and now you have bloomed into a contralto." "Sometimes my voice is much lower than at others."

"Your part isn't written for a contralto. I'll have to change it or change you. I don't want to do either."

"I may be able to sing soprano when I go on in costume." The manager studied the matter, looking the while at the girl curiously. It was a very strange case.

"Well," he said presently. "I'll have to make some change in the part and have it ready in case you come before the audience with those profundo notes."

Leonareta sang contralto till the evening of the first performance, when she came to the theater looking pale and thin.

"By Jove," said the manager, "you look as if you'd been keelhauled! I hope there's no new voice to provide for."

"I've had a sick spell," replied the girl. "I think my natural voice has come back."

"What?" "I shall sing soprano tonight."

The manager hurried off to attend to another matter, but his mind was on the girl and this remarkable change of voice. When Leonareta went on, she sang soprano like a bird and so delighted the audience that the manager was delighted also and cast her for a higher part at the next performance.

One morning Leonareta was in the manager's private office drawing her salary when he looked up at her and said:

"I'm going to put on a piece next week with a man's part in it that would just suit that contralto voice you took on not very long ago. Now, if you could only call it up at will, I'd cast you for the part and pay you $50 a week."

"When is the first rehearsal?" "On the 15th."

"I may sing contralto by that time." "You may!" "Yes."

"What makes you think so?" "Well, I'm liable to a relapse at any time and haven't had one for a long while. It's due now."

"Nonsense." He engaged a baritone for the part, who deserted three hours before the performance. Leonareta was with the manager when he received the unwelcome news.

"I'll take the part," she said. "You? Has your voice relapsed?" "Not yet, but I think it will before 8 o'clock this evening."

"Well, upon my word! Do you mean to say that?" "I'll be here ready for the part, depend upon it." And she skipped out before the manager could recover from his astonishment.

At 8:30 o'clock she went on with one of the finest baritone voices that had been heard in that house during the season. She had been announced verbally as Signor Barilli to take the part of the man whose name was on the programmes. At the end of each act Signor Barilli was called before the curtain and at the end of the opera received a perfect ovation.

"Now, see here," said the manager after the performance. "You're a wonder. You're worth much more than I am paying you. A girl who can sing soprano or baritone at will is worth a fortune. We start on the road next week, and if you'll go with me and will guarantee to sing the different parts as I may require I'll give you a hundred a week and all expenses. You see, I save the salary and traveling expenses of one principal role. I'll make you another proposition." He dropped his businesslike tone and spoke fervently. "You know very well that you have long been my favorite in the company. Indeed, I may say that ever since I first saw you I've been dead gone on you. Will you marry me?"

The girl burst into a laugh. "Come home with me," she said, "and talk it over."

The manager consented, and when they reached Leonareta's lodgings she excused herself for a few moments. She soon returned hand in hand with a young fellow, the very counterpart of herself, her twin brother.

"I am Leonard Traver," said the boy, "and this is my sister, Leonareta. When she fell ill some time ago, I took her part, though I couldn't sing soprano. Tonight I sang the baritone part and received your proposition of marriage. My sister would answer it, but now that you know there would be two salaries and expenses to pay instead of one I presume it is withdrawn."

"You bet it isn't," said the manager, clasping Leonareta in his arms. MARION RUBY BARCLAY.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb,

Vice-President of Women's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

THERE ARE MANY sickly women between the ages of 45 and 55, but there are very few invalids over 55 and 60 years of age. The change of life coming to a woman near her forty-fourth year, either makes her an invalid or gives her a new lease on life. Those who meet this change in ill health seldom live ten years afterward, while a woman who lays aside the active duties of womanhood in health seldom fails to live on in happiness, years after she has passed 60. This is truly a critical time.

the change of life which was fast approaching. While visiting with a friend I noticed that she was taking your Wine of Cardui, and she was so enthusiastic about it that I decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax. I do not dread it now, as I am sure that your Wine of Cardui will be of great benefit at this time."

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, of Toledo, Ohio, recognizes the change of life as a dangerous period and she also has faith in Wine of Cardui. She writes: "As I had always been troubled more or less at the menstrual period, I dreaded

Wine of Cardui is the remedy to re-inforce a woman against the shock that comes with the change of life. It re-establishes healthy functions after years of suffering. In doing this it has saved thousands of sufferers just in time. Do not wait until suffering is upon you. Thorough preparations should be made in advance. Begin the Wine of Cardui treatment today.

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Important Meeting.

The meeting of the Anti Saloon League at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, in the Baptist church, will be an important one and should have a large attendance. That meeting will decide whether to continue the organization, and if continued along what lines the fight against saloons shall be made. By all means the organization and the fight against saloons should be continued. The Watts bill that recently became a law leaves the matter of getting rid of saloons in the towns with the people, and for the people to stop now would be worse than never to have begun the fight. Let there be a large attendance at the meeting tomorrow and steps taken as will lead to ridding Greenville of saloons.

The fifty-seventh congress expired precisely at noon on the 4th of March, after several night sessions and a vain attempt on the part of the republicans to enact two important measures in the closing hours of the session. The Aldrich currency bill, which was introduced and reported to the senate at the eleventh hour, was defeated by the democrats because they held that it had not been debated sufficiently and the Philippine tariff bill met with the same fate. The latter measure as it passed the house would have, it is admitted, accomplished some good and have afforded needed relief to the Filipinos, but as amended by the senate committee would have failed of the purpose for which it was intended. The house granted a reduction of 75 per cent. from the Dingley rates on all imports from the Philippines but the republicans in the senate protested against so liberal a reduction and amended the bill to provide for but 50 per cent reduction on sugar and tobacco and admit all other goods free of duty. As sugar and tobacco are however, the only products which the Philippines can export to this country the emptiness of the amendment is apparent.
