PROF. JOYNER AT WINTERVILLE

Delivered an Admirable Address on Education

Prof. J. Y. Joyner, state superintendent of public instruction, delivered a most interesting address before Winterville High school, at Winterville, Friday night. A large and appreciative audience was present, and the admirable address was greatly enjoyed by all.

Prof. Joyner was introduced by Prof. G. E. Lineberry, principal of the High school. In his introductory he said "It fills us with admiration to read of the valor of men who shed their blood for their country," but he felt that we should accord more honor to the man who was living for his country. He then referred to Prof. Joyner as a man who was devoting the best energy and efforts of his life to the greatest cause in North Carolina, the education of her people.

Prof. Joyner took education for his theme and discussed it under these headings: its power to produce wealth, its power to produce a higher type of manhood and womanhood, the right of every child to have it, the duty of parents and the state to give it to the child.

By forceful illustration and comparison he showed how different nations of the world had risen to prominence and rank as producers of wealth in accordance with the interest they had taken in educating their people. Then by illustrations equally strong he showed that wealth is as nothing in comparison with manhood and womanhood, and the highest types of these are only attained through education of the mind and heart. "A man can make money, but money never makes a man."

The right of every child born in the state to have an education, and the duty of parents and the state to give opportunity for this, was clearly emphasized by the speaker. His comparison of North Carolina's illiteracy was most touching and followed by an earnest plea to take such interest in education as will lift the pall of ignorance that hangs over us. Already, he said, there is a rift in the cloud and he hoped to live to see the day when the full glow of educational sunshine should shine upon us.

The entire address from beginning to end was admirable. Prof. Joyner was eloquent, forceful, and made an impression upon all who heard him. At the conclusion Prof. Lineberry in fitting words thanked Prof. Joyner in behalf of school and audience for the intellectual feast he had given them. County Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale also made some appropriate remarks.

The Tar Heel Band was present and both before and after the address gave the audience several splendid selections.

We find that many subscribers do not pay for this paper. We intend to remedy this as soon as possible. Long experience in this business has taught us that you get nothing but the ill will of the man whom you furnish a paper without requiring him to pay for it.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Large Attendance and Enthusiastic Meeting.

The Pitt County Teacher's Association held its monthly session today with the best attendance since its organization.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. N. Booth.

The minutes of last session were read and the roll dispensed with. The teachers of the public schools gave report of their schools showing the number enrolled, average attendance, interest of the community, and interest of the pupils. These reports were interesting and are calculated to do much good.

The regular program for the day was then taken up. W. F. Evans read a paper on teaching writing, giving practical illustrations.

Miss Mary Brame made a very interesting talk on teachers' salaries, showing that they were too small and should be higher.

Miss Bettie Tyson read an excellent paper on "The Ideal in Education."

County Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale then introduced State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, who addressed the association on the duties of the teacher. He first spoke of their duty to self, in the way of self culture and mastery of subjects in hand; then of their duty to the school, or rather the child; and lastly their duty to the community, or the parents.

It was one of the finest addresses the people of Pitt county have had the opportunity of hearing. Just the right things were said, and it seems impossible that they could have been said in a more impressive manner than Prof. Joyner presented them. No teacher heard him without getting a higher realization of his or her duty.

The exercises this afternoon began with a talk by Rev. D. W. Arnold on grading pupils.

Then came the discussion of where the Teachers' Institute shall be held the coming season. Superintendent Ragsdale stated that nominations were in order.

Prof. A. J. Manning spoke in behalf of Ayden and set forth the advantages and opportunities of the institute going there.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry spoke in behalf of Winterville referring to the pleasant institute held there two years ago, and the advantages it now offers.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, by request, placed Bethel in nomination.

A vote of the teachers was taken resulting as follows: Winterville 39, Ayden 34, Bethel 3.

Prof. J. Y. Joyner then spoke on teaching literature in the schools, and he was followed with a paper on the same subject read by Miss Lizzie Anderson, and the program closed with a paper by Miss Alice Harper, whose subject was "The Teachers work and Reward."

PROGRESSIVE WINTERVILLE.

The Town Keeps Pushing Ahead.

It was the editor's pleasure to spend part of Friday afternoon at Winterville and it was a surprise to find the town progressing so rapidly. Many new residences and other buildings have recently gone up and more are on the way. As soon as a house is ready it finds an occupant, so many people want to locate there.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing Co. were as busy as could be and say they expect to ship more cotton planters this season than in any former year. Every department of their large plant from the smith shop clear down to the wire fence factory, was crowded with work, and everybody hustling trying to catch up with orders.

Another enterprise for Winterville has just been started in that progressive town—the Winterville Manufacturing Co. Good men compose the company and they are putting up a large building in which to carry on their business. They will do all kinds of wood work and make a specialty of furniture.

Harrington, Barber & Co. are putting up another large store building. The Hunsucker Carriage Co was just overrun, selling buggies faster than they can be turned out.

L. L. Kittrell's saw mill cannot near supply the heavy demand made on him for lumber, and he says work as hard as he may he don't catch up with orders.

The merchants all seemed to be busy and having a fine trade.

And the High School keeps abreast with the progress with a large attendance and doing splendid work all the time.

"Bud Joe," or to be more exact Mayor Blow, says his postoffice and court duties keep his hands full all the time.

The cigar factory is moving right along making and selling good cigars.

The Tar Heel Band is a wonder for its age, and the boys say if they can just keep Prof. Forbes with them they are going to be the best in the state.

Many a man reserves the kind words his wife is entitled to for her tombstone.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 14, 1903.

Two hundred people joined the Durham Anti-Saloon League at its last meeting. Durham is the town that can.

They are raising a rumpus in London over the disappearance of Lady Granville Gordon. We had not missed her until our attention was called to it.

We had hoped that Senator Gorman would escape being mentioned for the presidency. He is better as a power behind the throne than the throne itself.

"Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt says she has in her pocket evidence which would send 10,000 New Hampshire men to jail. But no one ever finds a woman's pocket," says the Durham Sun. A lady with a name like that ought to devote her talents exclusively to mice and let the men alone.

Fred L. Merritt, editor of the Asheville Citizen, writes his autobiography as follows:

1. We are not a bachelor.
2. If we are a bachelor we are not a "confirmed" one.
3. If we are a "confirmed bachelor" it is not our fault.

Now you see what darkened the hole.

We are more than pleased to note that "the Wisconsin idea" gets no aid and comfort from North Carolina's wise and just governor. He has refused to appoint delegates to a race trouble convention which the governor of Wisconsin wants to hold in Atlanta, and other southern executives have taken the same course. If those Wisconsin meddlers want to hold a convention let them bring along the whole show and pay their own hotel bill. North Carolina will continue to attend to her own business.

In almost the expiring gasp of the senate that decayed old fraud, Senatorial Courtesy, secured the incorporation of a saloon as a town. The worst thing about the senate of 1903 was that it permitted, on several occasions, Senatorial Courtesy to cause it to do wrong. Senatorial Courtesy ought be buried in the grave with Witchcraft, Ghosts and other superstitions and hoary frauds.—Rhamkatte Roaster.

Mr. Yezo, a gentleman of the Japanese government, fresh from the Orient, is on his way to America, accompanied by his son, who is an American bred youth, to study the culture and manufacture of tobacco in the South. He follows Mr. Niyo, the director general of the tobacco monopoly in Japan, who was recently here on a visit. Mr. Yezo, despite his connections with the government, is also associated with the firm of Japan, owned and operated by the American Tobacco Company. It is thought Mr. Yezo will most probably visit Wilson and spend some time here.—Wilson Thaes.

The Good Sense of Charles B. Aycock.

Last week Governor La Follette of Wisconsin transmitted a bill to the legislature of his state that embodied his ideas on the negro question and had a member introduce the bill. This document provides for a negro race convention to be held in the city of Atlanta. All state executives have been requested to appoint delegates to the convention. Several governors have flatly refused to do so, among them being Governor Montague, of Virginia.

Governor Aycock expressed his views to the Times this morning. His characterization of the Wisconsin executive's idea is brief but typically expressive of the educational governor.

"I think it is a piece of foolishness," said Governor Aycock. "I will not appoint any delegates to attend any such convention to be held in Atlanta. I am going to let Georgia attend to her own race troubles and North Carolina attend to hers."

This is the view that Governor Aycock takes of the matter and he is free to express it. If the race convention is held at all it will be without any delegates from North Carolina.

"We have troubles enough of our own," concluded the governor, "and we have always been diligent enough to meet and overcome them."—Raleigh Times.

PROCLAMATION BY THE Mayor of Greenville, Giving Notice of an Election to be held in said town on the 7th day of April, 1903.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina, at its present session has passed an act entitled "An act to authorize the town of Greenville to issue bonds," to an amount not exceeding sixty-five thousand dollars, for works of internal improvements, if approved by the voters of said town; And another act entitled "An act to establish a Graded School in the town of Greenville," and providing for the issuing of ten thousand dollars of bonds for the erection and equipment of the necessary buildings therefor, if a majority of the qualified voters of the said town shall so direct; And whereas, by the terms of said acts, the board of aldermen of the town of Greenville were required at a meeting to be held on or before the first Thursday in March, 1903, to appoint a registrar and two judges of election for each of the wards of said town, to hold and conduct said election; And whereas, the mayor of said town is required by said acts to issue his proclamation at least 20 days before said election, giving notice of said election and designating therein the persons chosen to conduct the same, and the exact place in each ward where said election is to be held; Now therefore, I, Harry W. Whedbee, mayor of the town of Greenville, do, in accordance with said acts, issue this my proclamation giving notice to the qualified voters of the said town of Greenville as follows: 1. That an election will be held in the town of Greenville, at the several places in the several wards of the said town, on Tuesday, the 7th day of April, 1903, (it being the first Tuesday in April, 1903), for the purpose of taking the sense of the voters of said town on the ratification or rejection of the provisions of said acts. Those who favor the issuing of said bonds for the purposes specified in the act entitled "An act to authorize the town of Greenville to issue bonds" will vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words "For Bonds," and those desiring to vote against them shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words "Against Bonds." Those persons who favor establishing graded schools in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish a graded school in the town of Greenville" shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "For the Schools" and those who are opposed thereto shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "Against the Schools." 2. Second ward, at the residence of J. N. Booth on Third street. Third ward, at the court house. Fourth ward at J. H. Starkey's store at Five points. Fifth ward, at the Farmers' warehouse, on Dickinson avenue. That at said meeting on said 5th day of March, 1903, the said board of aldermen appointed the following named persons as registrars and judges of election, to register the voters and conduct the said election in the several wards as follows to-wit: First ward—Henry Harding, registrar. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the beginning, and after it has reached a certain advanced stage there is no ending except the grave. Any case of consumption that is curable; that is, any one having consumption whose family or friends still hold on to a ray of hope, may take comfort in the knowledge of the fact that One Minute Cough Cure will give instant relief and finally cure. This famous remedy does not pass immediately into the stomach, but lingers long in the throat, chest and lungs, producing the following results: (1) Relieves the cough. (2) Makes the breathing easy. (3) Cuts out the phlegm. (4) Draws out the inflammation. (5) Kills the germs (microbes) of disease. (6) Strengthens the mucous membranes. (7) Clears the head. (8) Relieves the feverish conditions. (9) Removes every cause of the cough and the strain on the lungs. (10) Enables the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood. Cures Croup and all Cough, Lung and Bronchial Affections. CONSUMPTION CURED. "My physician told me one year ago that I would die of consumption inside of a year. I commenced taking One Minute Cough Cure for my lung trouble and it cured me. I have gained 20 pounds and I am a pretty live 'dead woman.'" Mary F. Sullivan, Grand Rapids, Mich. Pleasant to the taste. Good for Children. Good for every body. For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles no remedy is so good as ONE MINUTE COUGH CURE. Prepared by E. C. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO. SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store. It takes a brave man to face a thing after he has refused to countenance it. A red nose may be due to the rays of the sun or to the raise of the glass. A Remarkable Case. One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Jno. L. Wooten.

MISS MAY MARKELL,

A Society Belle of London, Canada.

MISS MAY MARKELL of London, Ontario, Canada, is a beautiful girl who knows what suffering is and Wine of Cardui has brought her back to health. She is one of the social favorites of her home and her recovery to health has permitted her to enjoy the company of her many friends instead of lying on a bed of sickness and suffering. For the health she now enjoys she gives credit to Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"I have found Wine of Cardui an excellent remedy for female trouble. I suffered for three years with terrible bearing-down pains at the menstrual period. I could hardly stand on my feet and was never real well. Wine of Cardui was the only medicine that I could depend on to do me any good, as I tried several with no success. Wine of Cardui cured me and I have now enjoyed perfect health for two years, and give you all the credit for I know you deserve it."

For a young girl Wine of Cardui is the best remedy to guide her through womanhood by starting the menstrual flow in a healthy and natural manner. Menstruation started right is very easy to keep regular through the years of mature womanhood. Then the "change of life" need not be feared. Thus Wine of Cardui is woman's best relief from youth to old age. A million women have secured blessed relief from their sufferings by taking this treatment. It relieves menstrual troubles in an incredibly short time. In a simple case of deranged menses Wine of Cardui never fails. To relieve disordered menses is to remove the cause of other female troubles. Any physician will tell you that to remove the cause of a disease renders the cure easy, in fact seldom fails to complete the cure. If you would have the same relief which Miss Markell secured try Wine of Cardui. You can take it without an examination and without any publicity whatever. You can take it in the privacy of your home and secure just as much benefit as if a doctor had prescribed it for you. Thousands of women are feeling the vigor of returning health by taking Wine of Cardui.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Washington Letter

Special Correspondence from the Capital of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mch. 12.

After twenty-four years service in the senate, broken in health but vigorous in intellect, Senator Vest retires to private life an optimist. "Our people are just as honest and patriotic as in the days of the Revolution, and as willing to make as many sacrifices for their country," he said recently, "but they are too busy to spend much time with the heroic and sentimental," he added. Referring to Senator Gorman's return to the leadership of the democrats in the senate Mr. Vest said, "I think Mr. Gorman would accept the presidential nomination if it were tendered to him but if the tariff question were to become the paramount issue his views on that subject would become a serious obstacle to his nomination. There are, moreover, two important reasons why the democratic candidate should come from New York state. First, the nominee should control the electoral vote of that state; second, Mr. Roosevelt is certain to be nominated and should be confronted with an opponent from his own state. Referring to president Roosevelt, Mr. Vest said he regarded him as the strongest candidate in the republican party. Speaking of the removal of the tariff on coal he said it had forced the republicans to admit that the removal of the tariff caused a lowering of prices, something they had disputed in the past.

One of the most interesting of the two new members of the senate is Mr. James B. McCreary, for twelve years a representative of Kentucky in the house, and once governor of his state. Speaking recently of the political situation, Senator McCreary said, "the democrats must observe three points in the selection of their next presidential candidate. First, he must be a man thoroughly fitted for the office; second he must be a leader around whom all the members of his party will rally; third, he must be a man capable of being elected, that is of commanding the respect of the great independent vote which decides presidential elections." Asked to name some men whom he regarded as fulfilling these conditions, Senator McCreary said, "among the names mentioned I regard as the strongest those of Arthur Pue Gorman the senior senator from Maryland, and Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York. As to the issues they should be of a practical character such as tariff reform, the trusts and the economical administration of the government."

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Jno. L. Wooten.

Colds are Dangerous.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store.
