What Constitutes Satisfaction?

The Century Dictionary is the most able authority and we will give it first say. "Satisfaction—the state of being satisfied; a gratified or contented feeling or state of mind; tranquility resulting from a gratified desire; content; gratification."

It is so simple to say "satisfaction guaranteed" the motto is trite, though its justification is rare enough. The mere returning of money paid for goods that prove unworthy is by no means satisfaction. This slight act of justice by no means repays a customer for the time spent in making the purchase, and for having to go and do it over again. It gives no gratification, produces no tranquility of mind. This kind of questionable satisfaction can be obtained almost anywhere nowadays, demanding varying degrees of insistence and inconvenience to secure it. The assurance of real satisfaction before the event as well as afterward is secured only in a store that is particular about its merchandise. This store has established a standard of quality that is universally maintained by expert knowledge. Thus we know, and that part of the public familiar with this store knows, that all purchases made here will, in the matters of quality, price and service throughout, give the satisfaction that produces in the purchaser a gratified or contented feeling or state of mind, tranquility resulting from a gratified desire.

Our Raleigh Letter

Notes from the State Capital

RALEIGH, March 16, 1903.

The usual reaction and scarcity of news has followed the rush of business in and adjournment sine die of the general assembly—so there's little to write about this week.

This week warrants will be issued on the state treasurer and sent out, looking to the carrying out of the pledge of maintaining four months' school in all the counties. The $100,000 for that purpose is now available.

The Legislature made a grave mistake in the amount of bonds issued. It would have been much better if the Senate amendment to the House bill, increasing amount from $300,000 to $500,000 had been adopted. This amendment was offered by Senator Brown and was adopted in the Senate by a goodly majority. It would have been still better if even a larger amount had been authorized and the State had come to the scratch and met the crying needs of the Asylums for the Insane at Raleigh (especially) and at Morganton, and taken from the jails and poor-houses the 500 and more indigent insane. The present conditions, which have already been tolerated entirely too long, are a disgrace to the state and every citizen in it. Already the cry has gone out from official sources in the capitol building that the $300,000 bond issue will be inadequate to meet the pressing needs it was designed to relieve.

There seems to have been absolutely nothing doing of late towards raising funds for the Sir Walter Raleigh monument, which was started with such a flourish of trumpets more than a year ago. The "fund" amounts to only $400 so far. The children are to have "first chance" at raising this money, and as I write these lines Mr. W. J. Peele comes in and tells me that it has been decided to have a general school collection of pennies on next "North Carolina Day," and that a calendar is now being prepared by him, to contain all the principal events in Raleigh's life, and will be distributed among the school children at that time. There are 700,000 school children in North Carolina—children of school age, at least—and they can raise $700,000 by giving only one cent each. That's the way we want to raise the fund, if we can.

There is considerable criticism of the result of the "investigation" of the alleged cruelty to penitentiary convicts, and the report of the legislative committee appointed to make the investigation. All who read the testimony are more or less convinced that there were inhuman guards, subordinates who mistreated convicts and practiced cruelty—although the official incharge possibly did not personally witness their inhumanity, nor can Superintendent Mann be charged with direct responsibility for it. But there ought to be no more of it. Still, no one charged is "convicted," no one even "reprimanded," and no guard has been discharged for that cause as anybody has heard of. Hence the prevalent criticism. There are brutes, or at least there have been, among these guards—there's no gainsaying that—and there have been, probably are yet, attendants at other public institutions in North Carolina who are of a too brutal nature to be kept in the employ of the state another day. There's a remedy for these wrongs every day in the week, and it ought to be applied. If it is not, there's going to be more "criticism."

WEDDING BELLS THIS EVENING

Mr. Charles J. O'Hagan Will Wed Miss Ella Clarke.

A marriage of much interest to many friends here of the bride and groom elect will take place this evening, the parties thereto being Miss Ella Clarke, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clarke, and Mr. Charles J. O'Hagan, of this city. On account of the illness of Mrs. Clarke the marriage rites will be solemnized at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. D. W. Bagley, on Taylor street. Than Miss Clarke there is no more charming and cultured young lady here, and the man who has won her heart and hand is indeed to be congratulated. Mr. O'Hagan is a large land owner in Sumter county, and represents in this territory the Plano Machinery Co.—Americus, Ga., Times-Recorder, March 10.

The marriage at 7:30 o'clock last evening of Miss Ella Clarke and Mr. Charles O'Hagan was one of the most deeply impressive and beautiful home weddings witnessed in Americus in a long while and one of greatest interest among a wide circle of friends.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. W. E. Clarke, mother of the bride, the marriage took place at the residence of her uncle, Mr. D. W. Bagley, on Taylor street.

Quite a number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, impressively solemnized by Rev. R. E. Neighbor, and united in extending sincere congratulations to the handsome couple, thus beginning the voyage of life together.

The parlors of the Bagley home were tastefully decorated, vines and rare cut flowers adding beauty and fragrance to the scene.

The fair bride was becomingly gowned in cream silk tissue over white satin. She is one of Americus' most cultured, winsome and charming young women and Mr. O'Hagan is indeed to be congratulated upon winning her as his pretty bride and life companion.

Upon the conclusion of the wedding ceremony, and after congratulations had been offered, the guests partook of an elegant wedding menu, temptingly served.

The groom is the son of the late Dr. Charles J. O'Hagan, of Greenville, N. C., who was one of the most prominent physicians of the South, being for many years vice president of the American Medical Association.

Mr. O'Hagan recently came to Georgia to look after his large farming interests in this county, having come in possession of the old Clark plantation near Americus. He was so well pleased that he has decided to erect a handsome country home and reside permanently on his plantation.

Mr. O'Hagan has made many friends in Americus by his engaging personality and he will prove a most valuable acquisition to the community.—Americus, Georgia, Times-Recorder, March 11.

SHOOTING AT TARBORO

One Physician Mortally Wounds Another. [Special to Reflector]

Tarboro, N. C. March 16.—Dr. Julian M. Baker shot and fatally wounded Dr. H. T. Bass here this morning. The shooting occurred in front of the postoffice about 8:30 o'clock. The two physicians met in the postoffice when Dr. Bass made a fist attack upon Dr. Baker, pulling him out in the street and knocking him down. Baker shot Bass twice in the abdomen before they were separated. Two parties grabbed Bass and prevented further shooting, although he shot once in another direction after being pulled off of Baker.

Dr. Bass is mortally wounded and cannot live. Surgeons have been telegraphed for and they are coming on a special train from Norfolk.

Dr. Baker is under arrest. There has existed some bad feeling between the two physicians for some time which grew out of a controversy over a case of charity at the hospital.

LATER. The immediate cause for the attack is unknown though presumed to be the outgrowth of professional differences. Both men had been for sometime going armed for one another.

At 3 p. m. Dr. Bass is sinking rapidly and there is but the faintest hope for him.

Baker's friends claim self defence.

Anti-Saloon League Officers.

At the meeting of the Anti-Saloon League, held Sunday afternoon in the Methodist church, the following officers were elected:

F. C. Harding, president.
W. R. Parker, vice president.
L. H. Pender, secretary and treasurer.

It was decided to meet once a month hereafter, and the next meeting will be held in the Christian church on the third Sunday in April. A committee was appointed to organize a league choir from the different churches.

Fist Fight.

A difficulty occurred late Saturday afternoon between Messrs W. B. Albritton, and Buck Forbes. They were having an argument over some money when Forbes cursed Albritton and the latter gave him several blows in the face.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 16, 1903.

A QUESTION OR TWO.

There is a suspicion that President Roosevelt would not object to Ex-Senator Pritchard as a running mate. Else why did Pritchard allow his name to be used in connection with the vice presidency? Surely Koscoe Mitchell, who professes great love for the North Carolina federalist, would not run him without his consent. And if he did consent, was it with a knowledge that he was to be attached to the Fairbanks boom? Isn't Jeter playing too fine a game for a second-rate politician like the president?

Right gladly do we extend the glad hand of fellowship to the Orange, Va., Observer upon the occasion of its 22nd natal day. The Observer moves into its new home and announces that it will be printed in a parlor hereafter. To the editorial energizer of the Observer, Mr. Robert Newton Robinson, and the associate editor, Miss Bertha Gray Robinson, we extend our sincerest good wishes. (We are a little uncertain about the "Miss" part of the last name, but she's all right, anyway—anybody connected with the Observer is bound to be the best there is.)

A Missouri man made an ante-nuptial agreement with his fiancée to the effect that he was to cook his own breakfast after they were married. Now the woman is suing for divorce because her lord refuses to stand by the agreement. A man who is fool enough to make a contract like that does not need a wife—he needs a keeper.

The esteemed Smithfield Herald enters into its 22nd year as a clean, wholesome paper. The Herald occupies a high place in Tar Heel journalism and its success and prosperity is well deserved. We wish our friends many years of usefulness.

If those devotees of "the Wisconsin idea" can be induced to come South in August and get themselves sandwiched in a colored camp meeting, no farther argument will be necessary and the only race trouble will be the race back to Wisconsin.

We are willing to take Ex-Senator Vest's word for it that Theodore is the strongest candidate the republicans can run. The G. O. P. is going down the hill like a ten ton toboggan loaded with logs.

The Morning Post says Tar Heel republicans are opposed to Roosevelt and in favor of Hanna. Shows their business sagacity anyway. Hanna can furnish the best references as to his financial standing.

If Charleston deserved her earthquake as a visitation of the wrath of God, there won't be a splinter of some Northern cities left when another visitation comes.

If used for newspaper advertising that $10,000 appropriated by the state for an exhibit at St. Louis would pay 100 cents on the dollar. Such a niggardly amount at St. Louis will be wasted.

We fail to see what it matters whether Mr. and Mrs. Pennell committed suicide or were accidentally killed. Wherever they are they'll have to answer for themselves.

We would like to see the jury in a murder case composed of 12 editors we could name. If there wouldn't be something doing in the way of justice—well, there would.

No matter how perfect a lover a woman finds her husband to be, she never quite forgets the pleasure she used to have in making up quarrels.

The Russian can now worship God according to their conscience—that is, if their conscience happens to jibe with that of the officials.

A dead man was found in the lavatory of a Fall River steamer recently. He had Paris green in his pocket. Never knew it was fatal taken that way.

We request our contemporaries to cut out the ground hog business for awhile. If you don't we'll try some fresh spring poetry on you.

Don't chew the end of a stick of dynamite. A man did that very thing in West Virginia recently, and hasn't come down yet.

A woman was the cause of the last Honduras fracas. Same old history repeating itself in the same old way.

The last legislature appointed a dead man to office. N. B.—He is not expected to return and accept.

Strawberries are selling for $1 per quart. Wonder what a picture of one would cost?

There's plenty of time yet to talk the Parker boom to death.

The Madison Ga., Advertiser notes that "many a man sits in the amen corner and sings 'Jesus paid it all' as though that fact relieved him of his past due grocery account or the last year's subscription to the local paper."

Stand behind the truth, and the devil can't hurt you.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Jno. L. Wooten.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store.

The public will surely soon see the vinegar trust.

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cleanses, purifies, sweetens and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Jno. L. Wooten.

God loves the man who is not afraid of giants.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store.

Be a worker. A loafer is never happy anywhere.

A Remarkable Case.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Jno. L. Wooten.

Where was time raised? In the laps of ages.

Colds are Dangerous.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

It is real gain to lose that which keeps us from God.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Rheumacide

Thoroughly eradicates the excess of Uric and Lactic Acids from the system, starts the kidneys into healthy action, cures constipation and indigestion.

THIS DONE, YOU ARE WELL OF

RHEUMATISM,
AND ANY OTHER DISEASE CAUSED BY IMPURE BLOOD.

Do not be discouraged if other remedies have failed. RHEUMACIDE has made its reputation by curing alleged incurable cases. Does not injure the organs of digestion.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 25, 1902.

Gentlemen—Some six years ago I began to have sciatica, and also a chronic case of muscular rheumatism. At times I could not work at all, my business being baggage master on Southern R. R. For days and weeks at a time I could not work. My suffering was intense. Physicians treated me, without permanent relief, however. Tried a number of advertised remedies without permanent benefit. Finally I tried "RHEUMACIDE." It did the work, and I have had excellent health for three years. I can cheerfully say that all rheumatics should use "RHEUMACIDE," for it is by far the best remedy.

Electric Lights for Ayden.

The progressive town of Ayden, which now ranks as the second largest town in the county, will soon have electric lights. Contracts have been made for the machinery and equipments and the plant will be installed as soon as these arrived. This gives the blush to Greenville, that even smaller towns are getting ahead of us in the way of needed public improvements.

No Court This Week.

Owing to the sickness of his wife Judge G. S. Furgerson, who was to hold the March term of court, could not come this week, but wrote that he would try to get here in time to hold court next week. Sheriff Harrington and Clerk Moore assembled the court this morning, called over the list of jurors for the first week and discharged them, and gave notice that there would be no court until next Monday.
