What Constitutes Satisfaction?

The Century Dictionary is the most able authority and we will give it first say. "Satisfaction—the state of being satisfied; a gratified or contented feeling or state of mind; tranquility resulting from a gratified desire: content; gratification."

It is so simple to say "satisfaction guaranteed" the motto is trite, though its justification is rare enough. The mere returning of money paid for goods that prove unworthy is by no means satisfaction. This slight act of justice by no means repays a customer for the time spent in making the purchase, and for having to go and do it over again. It gives no gratification, produces no tranquility of mind. This kind of questionable satisfaction can be obtained almost anywhere nowadays, demanding varying degrees of insistence and inconvenience to secure it. The assurance of real satisfaction before the event as well as afterward is secured only in a store that is particular about its merchandise. This store has established a standard of quality that is universally maintained by expert knowledge. Thus we know, and that part of the public familiar with this store knows, that all purchases made here will, in the matters of quality, price and service throughout, give the satisfaction that produces in the purchaser a gratified or contented feeling or state of mind, tranquility resulting from a gratified desire.

PITT COUNTY STOCK LAW.

An Act to establish a stock law for certain portions of Belvoir township.

The general assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That from and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and four (1904) no person shall allow his or her live stock to run at large in that portion of Belvoir county embraced in the following boundaries, to-wit: Beginning on Conetoe creek in the Edgecombe county line at the double bridges across said creek near the town of Conetoe, from thence with the public road leading towards Bethel to a point at or near M. A. James mill; thence a southerly direction to the canal on the Jesse Stancill farm; thence down said canal to the public road leading to Gum Swamp; thence down said road to the cleared land of the Henry Stancill farm; thence with the cleared land of said farm and the cleared lands of John A. Bullock, J. B. Bullock and E. B. Hathaway, so as to include the cleared lands of said persons within the bounds of this territory, to the said road leading to Gum Swamp church; thence with said road to Gum Swamp church; thence with the road leading to Tar river to the line of D. S. Spain; thence with the line of D. S. Spain and Richard Harris line to the Richard Reeves' place; thence with Spain's and Reeves' line and across said D. S. Spain's land to the Bensboro place thence with the line of the Bensboro farm to the back line of W. H. and J. E. Reeves; thence with said Reeves line to the Gorham line; thence with said Gorham's line to the main public road; thence with said road to the Clark and Brown line to Tar River; thence up said Clark and Brown line; then with said Clark and Brown line to Tar river; thence up said river to the Edgecombe county line; thence with the Edgecombe county line to the beginning. Provided the fence commissioners shall have the power to take into or leave out of the territory named in this act, as a stock law territory, lands adjacent thereto along the line, as they may deem best for the common interest. And that Tar river is hereby declared not a lawful fence so far as it is bordered by said stock law territory.

Sec. 2. That the word stock in the preceding section shall be construed to mean horses, mules, colts, sheep, goats, jennies, cows, calves, and other cattle, swine and geese.

Sec. 3. That D. J. Holland, Richard Harris, J. A. Bullock, G. A. Stancill and Charles Parker be and they are hereby appointed fence commissioners in said territory with power to contract with any person or persons to erect and maintain a good and lawful fence along said boundaries from the beginning point on Conetoe Creek with its successive calls to Tar river as described in section one (1) of this act, and to keep the same in good repair and have good and sufficient gates placed across public roads where necessary. The said commissioners shall hold their offices for the term of one year from the fifteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and three (1903) and on the first Monday in April, nineteen hundred and four (1904) and every two years thereafter, the commissioners of Pitt county shall elect five fence commissioners for said stock law territory for the term of two (2) years from the fifteenth (15th) day of said month. The said fence commissioners before proceeding to act as such shall take an oath before some person qualified to administer oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of their said offices, after which they shall proceed to organize by electing one of their number as chairman and one as secretary. They may meet at such times and places within said territory as they may deem best, and they shall on or before the first Monday in June of each and every year, recommend to the county commissioners of Pitt county the necessary tax to be levied upon the real estate in said territory for the erection, maintenance and repair of the fences and gates thereof, not exceeding the sum hereinafter specified.

Sec. 4. That for the purpose of erecting, maintaining and keeping in repair said fence and gates, the board of county commissioners of Pitt county shall on the first Monday in June of each and every year, levy a tax upon all real estate within said territory sufficient to raise the required amount, which tax shall in no case exceed 20 cents on the one hundred dollars in value; said tax shall be levied, collected and paid over to the county treasurer or other county taxes and to be disbursed by order of said fence commissioners with the approval of the county commissioners, for the purposes contemplated in this act.

Sec. 5. Any live stock as above defined that may be found running at large in said territory may be taken up, impounded and dealt with as provided in chapter twenty (20) of the Code, volume two (2) and all laws amendatory thereto, and any person who shall wilfully or maliciously burn, destroy, remove or otherwise injure the fence or gates of said territory, or leave open the gate, rescue or release any impounded stock, or obstruct the erection or repairing of such fence shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and the provision of said chapter twenty (20) volume two (2) of the Code, are hereby made applicable to the above described territory in the same manner as if it had established under said chapter: Provided that the punishment for all offences against this act and said chapter, so far as applicable to said territory, shall not in any case exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for thirty days.

Sec. 6. If any person shall negligently or wilfully permit fire to communicate to said stock law fence he or she shall be liable in a suit to be brought by the county commissioners for all damages resulting therefrom.

Sec. 7. If the owner of any land shall object to the building of any fences here provided for a right of way for said fence not exceeding twenty (20) in width shall be condemned for that purpose upon application of the fence commissioners to any Justice of the Peace in Pitt county, which Justice of the Peace shall at once proceed to summon disinterested freeholders, who shall together with himself proceed to lay off and condemn such fence way over said land, after giving the owner of the same, or their agent, two days' notice they shall then assess such damages as they think proper and just.

Sec. 8. That any person owning lands adjacent to the above stock law territory may have his lands included in said territory upon such terms as may be agreed upon between him and the fence commissioners.

Sec. 9 That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified this the 6th day of March A. D. 1903.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 23, 1903.

We hasten to assure the esteemed Charlotte News that we have no doubt that its patriotism is on straight in the matter of the $10,000 appropriation for an exhibit of North Carolina's resources at the S. Louis exposition. The News did truly stand out for a larger appropriation, and failing to get a satisfactory amount, the News now hopes that private contributions will make the fund some where near the amount required. This is another matter, and one to which neither THE REFLECTOR or the Durham Herald has objected. Our claim is simply that $10,000 is too small an amount with which to try to fill up a $20,000 or $30,000 hole, and would not do the state $10,000 worth of good. The Durham Herald is strikingly sensible when it says that so long as we had to borrow the money, it were best to have borrowed enough to do the thing properly.

The national guard of the state of New York have set the balance of the country a splendid example in refusing to accept the provisions of the Dick militia bill, which have been explained in these columns. In many respects this action is the best thing we've heard of as coming from New York in 20 years. The militiamen simply state that they do not desire to enlist in the United States army except in time of war, and that the money offered by the government is no inducement for self respecting men to hire out to be bullied by ignorant asses in official places. This is the fate the Dick bill deserves, and what we have all along hoped it would get.

The time has passed for opening a discussion as to whether money was unduly used to secure Senator Overman's nomination. If the squealers can't bring any better evidence than "I heard somebody say," they are poor politicians and mighty ungraceful losers.

"Baltimore is going to try an experiment with wooden paving," says the Wilmington Star. Isn't the esteemed Star a trifle mixed as to grammar? An experiment is a trial; would the Star say "Baltimore is going to try a trial?"

In the current issue of his paper Mr. Bryan hands Senator Gorman a bunch of soft sawder and then slams the door in his face. But Senator Gorman didn't want to come in anyway.

Theodore was bound to have his Crum anyway, even if he did have to wait until the conscript fathers had talked themselves deaf, dumb and blind.

The Virginia legislature is getting into the sere and yellow leaf and its second childhood.

The various organs will probably last until the watermelon season of '04 is over.

A Burlington Tragedy.

Visitors from Burlington brought the intelligence to Charlotte yesterday of a very tragic occurrence that took place in that city a few days ago.

In a trial in a magistrate's court Mr. Daniel Hugh McLean, secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina railway, and a well known lawyer, and Mr. Carroll, of Burlington, also a lawyer, accused each other of unprofessional conduct.

A printer by the name of Haughton, who bears some reputation for being a wag, told both Mr. McLean and Mr. Carroll that each had threatened to shoot the other on sight.

A few hours later Mr. McLean and Mr. Carroll, suddenly turning a corner, confronted each other.

Mr. McLean reached for his hip pocket and said:

"Sir, if you proceed another step I will riddle you with bullets."

"I perceive," said Mr. Carroll, also reaching for his hip pocket, "that you are armed. But if you move on me, sir, you are a dead man."

Horrified citizens and a policeman interfered, and the belligerents were searched as a precautionary measure.

Both were unarmed.

Passing? It has Passed.

Rosco Mitchell is a clever fellow but the person who attempts to run a newspaper in the interest of one man, unless that man is the editor, can't expect to interest other people in his enterprise. The day of the political organ is passing, and one of the reasons is that it cannot be conducted on strict business principles.—Durham Herald.

He Always "Makes Good"

Those who know Mr. Simmons will not be suprized at the attention his speeches attract from the senators of other states. The compliments paid to his last effort in the senate are by no means confined to members of his own party. When it comes to speaking or writing Mr. Simmons knows when and how as well as most men.—Raleigh Times.

It is announced that Colonel Cunningham will become a candidate for governor. Being as how he was not a candidate for the senate we do not know that he will be considered eligible.—Durham Herald.

An entirely new registration is ordered by said Acts and every person who desires to participate in said election must register, as only those whose names are found to be upon the registration books on the day of said election will be allowed to vote.

R. A. TYSON JR., Registrar of Fifth Ward

By the careless throwing down of a lighted match by a guest in his room, the Clarendon hotel at Grand Rapids, Mich., was destroyed. One life was lost.

A Remarkable Case.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Jno. L. Wooten.

During a dense fog on Long Island sound the passenger steamer Plymouth and a freight boat came into collision. Six people were killed and many others injured.

About as was expected, the president has given Dr. Crum, the negro, a recess appointment as collector of the port at Charleston.

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cleanses, purifies, sweetens and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Jno. L. Wooten.

Only one-sixth of the surface of Japan is arable.

Colds are Dangerous.
 How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

An automobile made at Worcester can carry ten tons.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
 "When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store.

Canada's exports and imports have almost doubled in six years.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Notice is hereby given to the voters in the First Ward of the Town of Greenville, that the registration books of said ward will be open at the old Eldon House, at corner of 2nd & Greene streets from 2 o'clock p. m. to sunset on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 2nd, 3rd and 4th days of April, 1903 (and upon application to the undersigned at any time before said date) for the purpose of registering the qualified voters of said ward for an election to be held on Tuesday the 7th day of April 1903, relative to the issuance of Improvement Bonds and the establishment of graded schools in said Town, under the provisions of two certain acts of the general assembly of North Carolina, passed at its recent session—one entitled "An Act to Authorize the Town of Greenville to issue bonds," another entitled "An Act to establish a Graded School in the Town of Greenville."

Heading Off A Country Girl

(Original.)
 Matilda Thorne, a country girl, received an invitation for a visit to her fashionable aunt, Mrs. Treadle, who lived on Central Park East, New York. The reason for the invitation was that Matilda was down on a list of legatees for small amounts in the will of Schermerhorn Wrinkle, Mrs. Treadle's brother, a bachelor, aged forty, and he insisted on seeing each and every beneficiary. When Matilda arrived, Mrs. Treadle, struck with her beauty and freshness, was at once terrified lest her brother might fall in love with and marry her. Since the bulk of his fortune was to descend to Mrs. Treadle that lady determined to head off any such possible result.

"Matilda," said the lady, "it is my duty to warn you against the men of New York. Now, there's my own brother, Schem. He has no conscience whatever in the matter of a conquest. He has broken many a girl's heart and would not scruple to send you back to your home jilted and disgraced."

"Oh, aunty, how awful!"

"Shun him as you would an adder."

"But he is my uncle."

"Only by marriage. Even if he were I don't think that would protect you."

This was not the only safeguard Mrs. Treadle threw out against a possible loss of her brother's fortune. She gave Reginald Knickerbocker, a young prodigal with whom she had been carrying on an intimacy, instructions to win Matilda, thus preventing Schermerhorn from doing so. Having thus put up the bars, Mrs. Treadle felt that she had her brother corralled.

"Oh, aunty," said Matilda a few days later, "what do you think? Mr. Knickerbocker— But I suppose I shouldn't tell."

"Tell me everything, my dear."

"Last night when we were alone he put his arm around me."

"Indeed? What else did he do?"

"Oh, I don't like to tell!"

"You'd better, my dear."

"He kissed me."

"Well, my child, I congratulate you. Mr. Knickerbocker is one of the few fine young men in New York fashionable society."

"Isn't it nice that he's not like Uncle Schem?"

"Very nice. I trust it will all come out right and you will be very happy."

A few evenings later Matilda entered the drawing room in her accustomed timid and noiseless way and saw Mrs. Treadle and Reginald Knickerbocker sitting on a tete-a-tete hand in hand. The young man dropped the hand and the lady looked annoyed, but she was equal to the emergency.

"Come here, Matilda. I want to congratulate you. Reggy has been giving me his confidence just as if he were my own son. He has told me of your engagement to him."

"Oh, Aunty, how you surprise me! Mr. Knickerbocker hasn't proposed to me." She turned away with her eyes bent on the floor.

"That is only because I was waiting," said Knickerbocker, rising and advancing toward her, "for your aunt's permission."

"Why for that?" asked Matilda, turning a pair of wondering eyes on him.

"You dear, unsophisticated child," said her aunt. "In our set it is not considered honorable for a man to win a girl without permission."

"Oh, dear!" said Matilda, a mild disappointment in her voice and eyes. "I'm so sorry! You can't be honorable. You didn't have permission when you kissed me."

Mrs. Treadle put a lace bordered handkerchief to her lips to hide a smile. "Mr. Knickerbocker had my permission to win you from the first," she said.

Matilda looked as if she were going to cry.

"What's the matter, child?" asked her aunt.

"Oh, nothing! Mr. Knickerbocker asked permission to love me, then loved me afterward. Suppose he hadn't got permission. I should have been so disappointed." And, putting her handkerchief to her eyes, she glided out of the room.

A month passed, during which Reginald Knickerbocker spared no pains to make himself agreeable and restore confidence. One day Schermerhorn Wrinkle asked his sister if she were not going to give Matilda an entertainment.

"An entertainment! Why, Schem, are you crazy? Give that country chit an entertainment? It would cost me my position in society."

But Schem insisted on it in a quiet way as the proper thing, and Mrs. Treadle did not dare disobey. On the evening of the entertainment Matilda appeared in a simple white dress, with a rose in her hair, looking for all the world like a Greek statue. Mrs. Treadle was astonished to find that the introduction instead of injuring her reputation in society had made a hit.

"Mrs. Treadle," said a guest, "what a pity to introduce such a charming girl and announce her engagement at the same time!"

"Her engagement?" stammered the hostess. "Ah, yes—to Mr. Knickerbocker. But I did not know it was to be given out tonight."

"Mr. Knickerbocker! Why, your brother announced to me himself that he was engaged to Miss Thorne." Mr. Wrinkle at the moment was passing with Matilda on his arm and heard the remark.

"Martha," he said to his sister, "this little chit has consented to be my wife."

"Little chit! Little cat! She has been stealing around like a snake and deceived us all."

"Not at all," said Matilda, with dignity. "You deceived yourselves."

Rheumacide

Continues to make Miraculous Cures

READ THIS LETTER:
 ALMOST A MIRACLE.

DILLON, S. C., Aug. 18th, 1902.

Gentlemen:—In September, 1899, I took rheumatism in a very bad form. In a month after the disease started I had to give up my work and go to bed. It continued to grow worse until my arms and hands were badly drawn, so much so that I could not use them. My legs were drawn back until my feet touched my hips. I was as helpless as a baby for nearly twelve months. The muscles of my arms and legs were hard and shrivelled up. I suffered death many times over. Was treated by six different physicians in McColl, Dillon and Marion, but none of them could do me any good, until Dr. J. P. Ewing of Dillon, came to see me. He told me to try your "RHEUMACIDE." He got me one bottle of the medicine and I began to take it and before the first bottle was used up I began to get better. I used five and a half bottles and was completely cured. That was two years ago, and my health has been excellent ever since. Have had no symptoms of rheumatism. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as by far the best remedy for rheumatism on the market. I cannot say too much for it. I have recommended it to others since and it has cured them.

Will say further, that I began to walk in about six days after I began to take "RHEUMACIDE," with the aid of crutches; in about three months after I began to take it, I could walk as good as anybody, and went back to work again.

Very truly,
 JAMES WILKES.

Murdered by a Negro Boy.
Reidsville, March 20.—One of the darkest crimes in the annals of Rockingham county was committed in the Carmel section, about five miles from Reidsville last night. John Broadnax, a negro boy 16 years old, killed Mr. Sidney Blair, a most estimable citizen of that section, and wounded Miss Sallie Walker, who was a school teacher and housekeeper for Mr. Blair. Miss Walker was shot in three different places.

The capture of the murderer and his confinement in the county jail within a few hours after the crime was committed without any danger of lynching, was a creditable piece of work for the citizens of that section and for Deputy Sheriff John Faucette.

About dark yesterday afternoon while Mr. Blair and his wife, Miss Walker, were at supper, the negro John Broadnax, entered the house, and engaged in a conversation with Mr. Blair. Without warning he drew his pistol and fired upon them. Mr. Blair was killed almost instantly, two balls taking effect. One entered at the collar bone and the other pierced the bowels. He fell heavily to the floor, Miss Walker was wounded at three different places, one ball taking effect just under the skin of the neck, another went through the muscle of the arm, while still another grazed the thigh. With rare presence of mind and realizing that the pistol chamber was empty, Miss Walker rushed on the negro and pushed him through the door, barring it, and placed a quilt underneath the prostrate form of her uncle, removed her shoes and left the building to notify the neighbors, who rushed to the scene.

When they arrived at the scene of the crime the negro was found in the kitchen in the act of pillaging the room. He was ordered to surrender and he did without resisting. He was taken unawares, as he had thought both his victims had died from their wounds. When they arrived his pistol was found to have been re-loaded, and but for the prompt action of the gentleman who rushed in on him and thereby exciting him he could and probably would have made his escape.

A message has been received from Governor Aycock stating that he had ordered a special term of Rockingham Superior Court to try Broadnax.—Charlotte Observer.

In the Year of Grace 1903.

EDITOR REFLECTOR: If there has been a doubting Thomas in Greenville concerning street improvements in the past, we invite Sir Thomas to take a stroll either on foot, or in any kind of a conveyance, from a wheel-barrow to an automobile, on any of the streets of the town, especially the famous thoroughfare, Dickinson avenue, and it will not require that he shall use his finger to satisfy, that these are the identical same old streets that have been crying so loud for help and salvation. Today would be a fine one for town election on town matters, bonds, etc. If there is a single qualified voter in Greenville opposed to issuing bonds for street improvements, we would like to have his autograph and photograph at once, with a substantial, or other good reason why. If we don't get either before election day we shall believe the votes will be unanimous for bonds—"So mote it be." "Pedro."

Eight Years Ago.

Many people have lately remarked that this has been the warmest March they ever saw. Mr. Allen Warren tells us that eight years ago we had a March very similar to this one in temperature, but on the 23rd of the month in that year there came a hard freeze that killed all the early fruits and vegetables. We hope there will be no such freeze this year. Vegetation has rapidly advanced in the last few weeks and a freeze on it would be disastrous.

Cattle Industry.

Cattle fattening on a large scale has begun in Hyde county. Mr. James Sprunt of Wilmington owns some 50,000 acres of land there, and is going to wire fence this, dividing it into five sections of 10,000 acres.

Around one of these the fence has been put up, and 900 head of high grade short horn cattle from Iowa and Illinois have been placed.

Mr. Baker of Illinois is associated with Mr. Sprunt in this business, of raising beef cattle. The range for cattle there is an excellent one, and this is the beginning of what will be a great industry.
