Interesting ?

Yes, this store is interesting. If the store lacked interest it would not exist—could not. Consider this point a moment, please. Spring time is here. With it comes the new things in merchandise in all lines that have an adaptation to season. This fact has interest for every woman. What will the Spring Dress Goods be? Just now the scores of styles are interesting, intensely so. Human needs create human questions. On one side, the public is a vast array of question marks. On the other side this store with its answers innumerable. It matters not whether the question concerns a real or fancied need. A want is an incite inquiry. Human sympathy goes out to human things. This explains the popularity of this store. We extend to you a most cordial invitation to visit our store when in need of fine merchandise.

The Postoffice investigation still continues, the latest development being charges filed by Bingham & Company of Philadelphia alleging that under the administration of the Division of Supplies which has heretofore existed, no firm had any opportunity of selling rubber stamps to the government save Herman Baumgarten of Washington. The charges are being investigated.—Washington Letter.

New Jersey is going to punish railway officials instead of employes for not providing against accidents. We propose to take back every word we have said about that state.—Charlotte Observer.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April, 11.
Cards will soon be out announcing the second advent of the little "Handy Tobacco Truck," manufactured by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., which is now dignified with a patent. Farmers! Look out for trucks as well as the cards and do not be satisfied with looking, but try them for yourselves.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hunsucker went to Greenville Friday evening.

Miss Daisy Mumford returned to her home yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Mimie Cox.

Dr. J. W. Perkins, of Greenville, and Miss Bessie Greene, of LaGrange, passed through on the freight train Thursday.

D. J. Whichard and H. A. White made us a short visit Thursday afternoon.

At the home of Eld. T. N. Manning Wednesday evening, Henry Nelson and Miss Reba Manning were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Justice of the Peace J. M. Blow officiating. The band went around and gave them a few of their best selections.

Tobacco growers! Don't give yourselves any uneasiness about the width of your rows. Handy trucks are not hard to suit. They run anywhere. See or write to A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., for full particulars.

At the convention for the election of town officers last night, the following ticket was nominated. Mayor, J. R. Johnson; Commissioners, J. F. Harrington, R. G. Chapman and Roan Cooper; policeman, E. F. Tucker; L. L. Kittrell, B. W. Tucker and Josephus Cox, executive committee.

Rev. W. L. Bilbro, a former pastor here, was in our little town a short while yesterday afternoon. He compliments us on our new factory, and we him on Ayden's electric lights.

Aunt Sally Stocks is visiting A. G. Cox and relatives in town. She is very old, somewhere near ninety.

Those who want wire fence right now can get it in Winterville. We are not dependent upon northern factories, but have one in our midst, weaving, shipping and delivering daily.

Boys, see C. A. Fair and get your laundry in with the others.

Any man who wants a buggy and visits Hunsucker's carriage shops without purchasing one is made out of different stuff from the most of them. A "Hunsucker" buggy stands for all that is first class in material, workmanship and looks.

Suicide in Kinston.

Special to Reflector.

Kinston, N. C., April 11—John A. Braxton, a prominent young citizen of this place, committed suicide at 9:30 this morning by jumping into a slough in Parrott's Park, just across the Neuse river. Of late Mr. Braxton has been growing despondent, but the cause is not known. He was 20 years of age. The remains will be interred in the cemetery tomorrow afternoon. The suicide has cast a gloom over the town.

Music for Sunday.

The choir of the Baptist church have prepared an excellent musical program for tomorrow's services, and those who attend that church may expect some good singing. The selections are as follows:

MORNING SERVICE.

Voluntary—"The Lord is my Light."
Hymn—"Joy to the World."
Hymn—"Bethlehem."
Offertory—"He is Risen."
Hymn—"Christ Arose."

EVENING SERVICE.

Hymn—"In the Cross of Christ I Glory."
Hymn—"He Came Upon a Midnight Clear."
Offertory—"Tarry With Me."
Hymn—"We Praise Thee, Oh God."

Teachers' Association.

The county Teachers' Association held its monthly session in the court house today. The attendance was smaller than usual, but the exercises were interesting.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. D. W. Arnold.

The first paper read was by Miss Eula Cox on emphasizing studies, and a discussion of it followed by Rev. D. W. Arnold.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale discussed the new school law, calling the attention of teachers to some changes in the law. He was followed with some remarks by H. T. King.

Miss Addie Johnston read a paper on physiology, followed with a discussion by W. F. Evans.

At the afternoon session the question box was opened and there was a general discussion on several questions of interest.

Miss Ada Ward read a paper on the best methods of teaching, followed with a discussion by Prof. Nye.

The association decided not to meet during the summer, and the next meeting will be held the second Saturday in September.

A vote of thanks was extended the press of the town for the aid they have given the association.

A committee was appointed to look after establishing a teachers' library.

A Fortune in Animals.

Gentry Bros. Famous Shows, which have been united for this season, number among the personnel of their Company no less than one hundred superb, perfect, Shetland Ponies. At the consolidation of Gentry Bros. Shows the stock was carefully inventoried and only the very best retained, consequently, this season those appearing in the exhibition are the most aristocratic, well bred, intelligent, animals in the entire world, and their cost alone, not including the many painstaking years of slow tuition would represent an immense fortune.

The animals are all seen to advantage in the superb street display, which in its augmented appearance makes it exceptionally and is doubly worth seeing. The date of exhibition of Gentry Bros. Famous Show United has been definitely fixed in this city for Thursday April 16th.

The remains of Mr. Charles A. Hamilton, who died here Thursday evening, were sent by express to Lansing, Mich., this morning.

EASTER Greeting.

The coming of Easter, the Dawn of Spring, an important event in a Clothing house. Every man and boy expects to appear in fresh new clothes on Easter morning, and an up-to-date house like ours must be prepared for the event.

For the past two months we have been receiving new Spring wearables daily. The choicest and best of Clothing, Hats and Haberdashery are here, and the men and boys we clothe will be the best dressed men and boys you'll see on the street Easter morning. May we serve you?

The New White Front

This store has been crowded with visitors and customers from the first day it was opened, and feels very grateful to its friends for the kind words of praise and the liberal patronage which it has received. The stock is large and complete in each line shown. The weavers have certainly outdone themselves in bringing forth novelties in fabrics.

An elaborate and noteworthy showing of all the new ideas.

Space forbids mentioning the different lines, but we wish to call especial attention to the Beautiful Dress Goods, Trimmings, Summer Lawns and Thin materials.

The White Goods Showing is a feast of beauty. The many beautiful things shown here for Ladies' wear easily makes this

Come to see us and we will please you.

THE KING'S PARK.

"Notwithstanding that numerous notices had been given to the outside world that no newspaper man would be allowed in the Yellowstone park while the president was there, one enterprising reporter tried to force his way in yesterday. He rode a horse and had a dog with him. The man was arrested before he had proceeded far and the dog was shot. Later the correspondent was released."

Here's an American king for you! Shades of Washington! What are we coming to? If this business of a plain president setting himself up as lord and master of American soil keeps on it will soon be "lese majestie" to put on a clean collar without first making a salaam in the direction of His Majesty's throne at Washington. We may be ordered to have especial prayers said in our churches for His Majesty, and may have to fast when His Lordship feels unwell. We may have to ask his consent before getting married, moving into a new house, or dying.

If we must have a king, why can't we have a royal looking one? Why have a mighty hunter for a king? Why have a spectacular buffoon? Why not have a king of men in reality, on whose brow shall sit the round and top of sovereignty?

Picture the immortal Washington, the democratic Jefferson, the rugged Lincoln in the present role of the president. Impossible. Imagination balks.

Oh! the times, the men! It was an evil hour in the life of the nation when the assassin's bullet took away the life of McKinley, the American.

"The papers continue to report strikes, and yet we are told that the country was never more prosperous and labor better employed. The unrest and dissatisfaction is becoming very great," says the Durham Sun. Don't worry. The full dinner pail or something just as good will amble along in good time.

"Every now and then the news of a terrible loss of life by some natural phenomenon in another state serves as a comforting reminder that from all these dreadful disasters North Carolina continues happily free" states the Greensboro Telegram. Always and eternally excepting the deadly six-shooters.

Thomas S. Rollins, Pritchard's son-in-law, has inherited the latter's crown and scepter as chairman of the republican state executive committee. Of course this was Pritchard's dictum. The North Carolina radical ambassador to the court of Theodore the Strenuous is still lord of the home clan.

The Greensboro Telegram has changed from an afternoon to a morning paper. Editor Hayward will stick to the local field for the present. Greensboro and the Telegram ought to be proud of each other.

"As nobody thought to put a bell on the Hearst presidential boom it seems to have strayed off somewhere," says the Newport News Times-Herald. When last heard from this boom was somewhere in the vicinity of Edenton, N. C. It is supposed that its intention is to cross the bay and capture Plymouth.

Our friends of the Winston-Salem Journal have done themselves and their city proud in their Easter number. The Journal hesitates not at all in "doing things."

We take no stock in the stories of discord in republican ranks. As long as the financial end of the party is as strong as at present there'll be no serious difference in the ranks.

The law-making body of Holland has made striking a crime. And some American judges seem inclined to make it a hanging crime.

The Buffalo police department is about to come to the conclusion that a man was murdered in that city about two months ago.

The Greenville REFLECTOR thinks the use of the telephone is sometimes made a nuisance. We have also reached the conclusion that the telephone is a great convenience to people who have nothing to do and plenty of time in which to do it. Durham Herald.

The Gaffney Ledger wants a law passed disfranchising any man found with a deadly weapon on his person. This would be one way to get at the pistol toter very effectually.—Durham Sun.

An Honor to Greenville.

Greenville has done herself honor by selecting Gov. T. J. Jarvis on her school board.

Gov. Jarvis was one of the State's best governors. He has ripened in wisdom (as he has grown older) and any community is to be congratulated upon securing the service of such a man in such an important work at this particular time.—Kinston Free Press.

Greenville History.

Greenville, N. C., is to have a graded school. Gov. Jarvis was very much interested in securing the school for his town. Greenville will support a first-class school, in fact, the town has had a good school for quite a number of years. Prof. John Duckett, now secretary to the state superintendent, taught in Greenville quite a while, succeeding in building up a good school. Then later Prof. W. H. Ragsdale came and has been very successful in his efforts to build up a good school. Prof. Ragsdale is still there, and is also county superintendent of schools for Pitt county. So Greenville is accustomed to good schools, and the history of these schools and the spirit of education they have created insure the success of the new enterprise.—Raleigh Times.

A Prominent Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Rev. Francis J. Davidson, pastor of the St. Matthew Baptist church and president of the Third District Baptist Association, 2731 Second St., New Orleans, writes as follows: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps and pains in the stomach and found it excellent. It is in fact the best cramp and colic remedy I have ever used. Also several of my parishioners have used it with equally satisfactory results." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

What shall it profit a church if it sell all its oysters and lose its spiritual power?

A Demonstration of What Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Can Do.

"One of our customers, a highly respected citizen of this place, had been for ten years a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea," writes Walden & Martin, druggist, of Enterprise, Ala. "He had used various patent preparations and had been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of his statement." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

If you would prohibit men the vices that seem to you to be dangerous you must deny yourself those that seem to you to be pleasant.

Too Great a Risk.

A reliable remedy for bowel complaints should always be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy never fails and when reduced with water is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

Our children are not likely to find a father in God unless they see something of God in their fathers.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

When a man boasts of his broad-mindedness he is usually trying to hide his swallow-headness.

The best physic: Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take; pleasant in effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

In the fights against evil the losers are not those who are beaten, but those who do not fight.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, White Plains Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Jno. L. Wooten.

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.

They always effect a cure and save doctor bills.

Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Jno. L. Wooten

WEAK LUNGS

Weak lungs are mostly due to a neglected cough. Only a small per cent. of the millions who have consumption inherit it. A slight cold, a tickling or hacking cough is the beginning, and after it has reached a certain advanced stage there is no ending except the grave.

Any case of consumption that is curable; that is, any one having consumption whose family or friends still hold on to a ray of hope, may take comfort in the knowledge of the fact that One Minute Cough Cure will give instant relief and finally cure.

- This famous remedy does not pass immediately into the stomach, but lingers long in the throat, chest and lungs, producing the following results:
- (1) Relieves the cough.
 - (2) Makes the breathing easy.
 - (3) Cuts out the phlegm.
 - (4) Dries out the inflammation.
 - (5) Kills the germs (microbes) of disease.
 - (6) Strengthens the mucous membranes.
 - (7) Clears the head.
 - (8) Relieves the feverish conditions.
 - (9) Removes every cause of the cough and the strain on the lungs.
 - (10) Enables the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood. Cures Croup and all Cough, Lung and Bronchial Affections.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

"My physician told me one year ago that I would die of consumption inside of a year. I commenced taking One Minute Cough Cure for my lung trouble and it cured me. I have gained 20 pounds and I am a pretty live 'dead woman.' One Minute Cough Cure saved me." MARY F. SULLIVAN, Grand Rapids, Mich. Pleasant to the taste. Good for Children. Good for every body. For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles no remedy is so good as Old Friends.

 There are no friends like old friends, And none so good and true, We greet them when we meet them, As roses greet the dew; No other friends are dearer, Though born of kindred mold; And while we prize the new ones, We treasure more the old.

There are no friends like old friends, Wh'er'er we dwell or roam. In lands beyond the ocean, Or near the bounds of home; And when they smile to gladden, Or sometimes frown to guide, We fondly wish those old friends Were always by our side.

There are no friends like old friends, To help us with the load, That all must bear who journey O'er life's uneven road; And when unconquered sorrows The weary hours invest, The kindly words of old friends Are always found the best.

There are no friends like old friends, To calm our frequent fears, When shadows fall and deepen Through life's declining years; And when our faltering footsteps Approach the Great Divide, We'll long to meet the old friends Who wait the other side.

How It Was Cured.

Out in Ohio an earnest advocate of Christian Science noticed a very lame man passing her house morning and evening and determined to effect a cure through absent treatment. After several days of prayer she was delighted one morning to see that his limp had almost entirely disappeared. That evening she accosted him as he approached and joyfully related what she had done for him. "Yes ma'am," said he, "it has been very bad lately, but yesterday I had it fixed. You see, ma'am, it's a wooden one."—Biblical Recorder

The Man Who Does Things.

Every institution wants him; He is not looking for positions; positions are looking for him. He does not complain, he acts. He accomplishes results, and these accomplished results speak more loudly in his favor than acres of subsidized newspapers. What the world wants, what the world rewards, is the man who does things. Discouragement and failures are meaningless nothings to him; results are the substantial things for which he strives and attains. There is settled air of assured success in his manners and movements. There is no trouble in selecting him from a crowd. He can be picked out just as unerringly as his opposite, who abides with discouragement and failure, and they leave a more attractive imprint on the countenance. Men who do things in industrial, commercial and financial life are as scarce as their opposites are plentiful. Opportunities are not scarce, they are plentiful, more plentiful than ever since history was written. They await the poor boy who does things without looking at the clock. People who are always looking at the clock never amount to much in anything. Men who do things never consult the time to see if they can stop; they know time "was made for slaves," not for virile men who enthusiastically do things. Employees who frequently consult the clock will always be employees with no hope of rising. The man who does things may in his absorption forget his meal or his bed, but his opposite will be ever ready ahead of time for both or either.—Taken from the November number of The Woman's Magazine.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

BOSTON, MASS., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.
 After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement.
Betha Ricker
 President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves free from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

Although members of the administration are a unit in declaring the currency question closed, preparations for the meeting of the commission which is charged with devising a scheme for establishing a gold standard in silver using countries and colonies still tinne. Incidentally, the commission hopes to do "something for silver." The commission on now consists of H. H. Hanna, chairman of the executive committee of the Indianapolis Monetary Convention just appointed, and Charles A. Conant and Professor Jeremiah W. Jenks, previously appointed. The commission will meet with the representative of Mexico in London the latter part of May.

The plan under consideration will be that adopted for the coinage of the Philippines, namely the issue of a limited amount of silver token coins redeemable in gold at a ratio of 32 to 2. It is significant that even this plan as put into operation for the Philippines has already enhanced the price of silver, which has gone up a cent an ounce since the War Department attempted to purchase the bullion necessary to coin the 3,000,000 silver pesos authorized by the last Congress.—Washington Letter.

If the "land-lubber" editors, most of whom do not know a close-reed jib from a cat-o-nine-tails, do not let up on their prognostications of the cup race and their exhaustive reviews of the respective merits of Reliance and Shamrock III, Cousin Tom Lipton will have just cause for offense.—Charlotte News.
