Interesting ?

Yes, this store is interesting. If the store lacked interest it would not exist—could not. Consider this point a moment, please. Spring time is here. With it comes the new things in merchandise in all lines that have an adaptation to season. This fact has interest for every woman. What will the Spring Dress Goods be? Just now the scores of styles are interesting, intensely so. Human needs create human questions. On one side, the public is a vast array of question marks. On the other side this store with its answers innumerable. It matters not whether the question concerns a real or fancied need. A want is an incite inquiry. Human sympathy goes out to human things. This explains the popularity of this store. We extend to you a most cordial invitation to visit our store when in need of fine merchandise.

We sympathize with Brother McKenzie, of the Maxton Scottish Chief, in his great loss a few nights ago. ### GRADED SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

The Board Organizes and Elects Officers

The board of graded school trustees held a meeting Friday night, in the office of W. L. Brown for the purpose organizing and electing officers.

The following were unanimously elected officers of the board: T. J. Jarvis, president; M. A. Allen, vice-president; G. E. Harris, secretary.

T. J. Jarvis, W. L. Brown, M. A. Allen and F. C. Harding were appointed to prepare a code of laws for the government of the board.

E. B. Ficklen, D. S. Spain and Charles Cobb were appointed to confer with the board of alderman and request that the $10,000 of school bonds be sold as early as possible.

M. A. Allen, W. H. Bagwell and F. C. Harding were appointed to select site for location of school buildings.

It is the purpose of the trustees to go forward as rapidly as possible and be ready to open the schools next fall.

There will be services at the Episcopal church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

Carnival Closed.

[Special to Reflector.]

Tarboro, N. C., April 18.—Tonight marks the close of a veritable gala week for Tarboro. Despite the inclement weather that prevailed until Friday, old and young, white and black, have all enjoyed alike the gay festivities of the Knights of Pythias street fair and carnival presented by the Haten Adams Co., whose aggregation is composed of an orderly, peaceable set of clever artists.

There have been no jakirs or rowdyism and no hesitation is made in proclaiming the carnival a success. A grand ball was given in the hall of the Edgecombe Club on Thursday evening in honor of the carnival's queen, Miss Lizzie Howell, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. B. G. Howell.

Brodnax to Hang.

Reidsville, N. C., April 16th—The jury in the Brodnax case at Wentworth brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree last midnight and this morning at 10 o'clock Judge Long sentenced the prisoner to be executed on Friday, May 22nd, between the hours of 12 and 2.

Brodnax, it will be recalled, killed Sidney Blair near Reidsville on the night of March 19th and was brought here and afterwards sent to Raleigh to keep him from being lynched. The trial was merely a legal formality. Brodnax had no defence whatever.

For a nice hat go to B. Fleishman & Bro.

Site for Graded School.

M. A. Allen, W. H. Bagwell and F. C. Harding, the committee appointed by the board of graded school trustees to procure a site for the buildings, will be glad to receive propositions with prices from any persons having suitable property to offer. The committee desire this information promptly and any property owner interested should act at once.

The Manufacturers' Association, at New Orleans, passed resolutions condemning organized labor. There may be reasons why employers of labor should organize and the laborers themselves should not, but such reasons are rather beyond the average person—Greensboro Telegram.

CHURCH SERVICE.

Where You Worship Sunday.

As the State Sunday school tour party will be in Greenville tomorrow the following will be the order of services in the different churches:

At the Methodist church the Sunday school will be attended by Rev. Walter Holcomb who will also preach in that church at 11 a. m.

At the Baptist church the regular Sunday school will be held at 9:30 a. m. and Rev. Charles E. Farman will preach at 11 a. m. Sunday school mass meetings will be held at 3 and 8 p. m. with all the tour party present.

At the Presbyterian church Rev. Charles E. Farman will address the Sunday school at 10 a. m. No other service in that church.

At the Christian church Prof. S. M. Smith will attend the Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and preach in the same church at 11 a. m.

At the Episcopal church Sunday school will be held at 9:45 a. m., sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. W. E. Cox.

Gov. Jarvis' Fine Example.

Greenville has honored herself by electing Hon. Thomas J. Jarvis, ex governor, ex senator, ex minister and ex legislator, as the chairman of her school board. The incident recalls to the mind of the editor of the Raleigh Post the fact that "John Tyler, after retiring from the presidency of the United States, was chosen road overseer of his county in Virginia, and served out a full term, and they do say that he proved the most efficient overseer that or any other county ever had. And if we mistake not, it was either Weldon N. Edwards or Nat Macon, perhaps both, after long careers in congress, returned home to serve their country as justices of the peace and members of the county court."

In accepting a position on the school board of his town Governor Jarvis has set a fine example for our public men in future. There is no reason why men, after retiring from the higher positions of honor should not accept service in behalf of the local concerns of their neighbors, and to the great and lasting good of the service.

Certainly in the present instance this will be true. Governor Jarvis will fill his present position with the same fidelity and devotion to duty that characterized his administration as executive head of the state and with the same honest desire to promote the public good that influenced his career in the United States senate. The people of Greenville are most fortunate in having secured his counsel and guidance in their school affairs.—Asheville Citizen.

Sunday School Meeting.

The State Sunday school tour party arrived in Greenville this morning and began the series of meetings in the Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. An other meeting will be held in that church at 8 o'clock tonight. Announcement for Sunday services is made in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb gave a reception at their home, Friday night, complimentary to Misses Holt and Steele who are the guests of Miss Irma Cobb.

A 14-year old Smithfield girl whose father forbade her corresponding with a boy, wrote her father a note that he would never see her again, then hid herself. The whole town was excited over her disappearance, and after searching several hours the girl was found asleep in a trunk in her home.

COMPULSORY MILITARY SERVICE.

From the discussion of the new militia law going on in various parts of the country it seems that the fathers of the bill are doomed to some disappointment in their efforts to sneak the bill through and leave the soldier to find out the cheat after it is too late. Discussing the old and the new militia law, the Virginian-Pilot says:

"Briefly put, the change is that under the new law the president can compel the militia or any part thereof at any time by direct order from him to enter the service of the United States, whereas under the old law he could do nothing of the sort. When a man enlists in the militia now he subjects himself to conditions that formerly he would have subjected himself to only by volunteering for active service in the United States when the president called upon the governors of the states for volunteers."

This is exactly what THE REFLECTOR has maintained since the law was passed, and we intend now to bring the matter nearer home than we have done heretofore.

Suppose North Carolina state soldiers join the national guard, which will become nothing more or less than the regular army. By so doing they place their lives in the hands of the president, no matter whom he may be. Then suppose the Supreme court should declare the new constitutions of the Southern states which have disfranchised the negro to be invalid and unlawful. Does anybody believe that the South will suffer negro domination again? And does anybody believe that such a president as Theodore Roosevelt would hesitate to call upon the soldiers under his command to suppress and destroy the Anglo-Saxon regime now in power in the South? Can the acts of his administration be interpreted in any other light? Does anybody believe that the man who once declared that democrats ought to be stood up against a wall and shot as traitors, and who is now, by grace of assassin's bullet, president of the United States—does anybody believe that he holds a contrary opinion now?

The whole underhanded scheme is so palpably un-democratic and un-American that it ought not to fail to receive the condemnation of Americans. It sounds more like a bit of German or Russian military policy than anything else, and we do not believe that such a thing would have been considered for a moment by the makers of the constitution and the founders of the republic. The sole argument brought forward by its supporters is that it will be the means of furnishing the militia with better equipment. Not a word is said about the necessity of preserving law and order. No claim is made that any institution is in danger. No need for the change is claimed. It is not only a thing to be considered by civilians, but by the soldiery as well, as the Newport News Times-Herald says:

"Many men may join the militia of their own state and be willing to serve within its borders when occasion requires, but if the new law is accepted they are liable to court martial for refusal to enter the federal service when called by the president. It is a thing to be considered by the soldiery."

The reader has only to note the names of the officers chosen by the board of graded school trustees to see the wisdom of the board in its choice. In the unanimous selection of ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis as president of the board the trustees not only honor themselves, but confer an honor upon the town and upon the schools to be established. No man has the education of the children more at heart than Gov. Jarvis and no one will take greater interest in the success of our schools. The board was equally wise in naming Mr. M. A. Allen vice-president and Mr. G. E. Harris secretary, both of whom are most excellent gentlemen and earnest advocates of education. The trustees have begun well and the people applaud their action.

It has recently been stated that Asheville is the worst place of its size in existence, and the charge must be true. A warfare is being waged there against saloons and dens of infamy, the ministers of the town being prominent in the movement for reform. One of the ministers has received an anonymous letter, evidently written by a depraved woman, threatening him with trouble if he does not stop agitation against disorderly houses.

Theodore is so cocksure of being elected for a second term he is said to be preparing to succeed President Elliott of Harvard college. If Harvard can stand it, we would not object to the president quitting Uncle Sam without the customary two weeks' notice.

The proverb to the effect that "figures do not lie" is receiving various and sundry jolts at the hands of the General Educational Board. That institution can come as near to proving by figures that Adam was a Chinaman as anyone we know.

Another of the hyphenated has come over on this side of pond to see how our folks do things. His name is Gen. Baden-Powell, and the object of his visit is said to be a study of American cavalry tactics and methods.

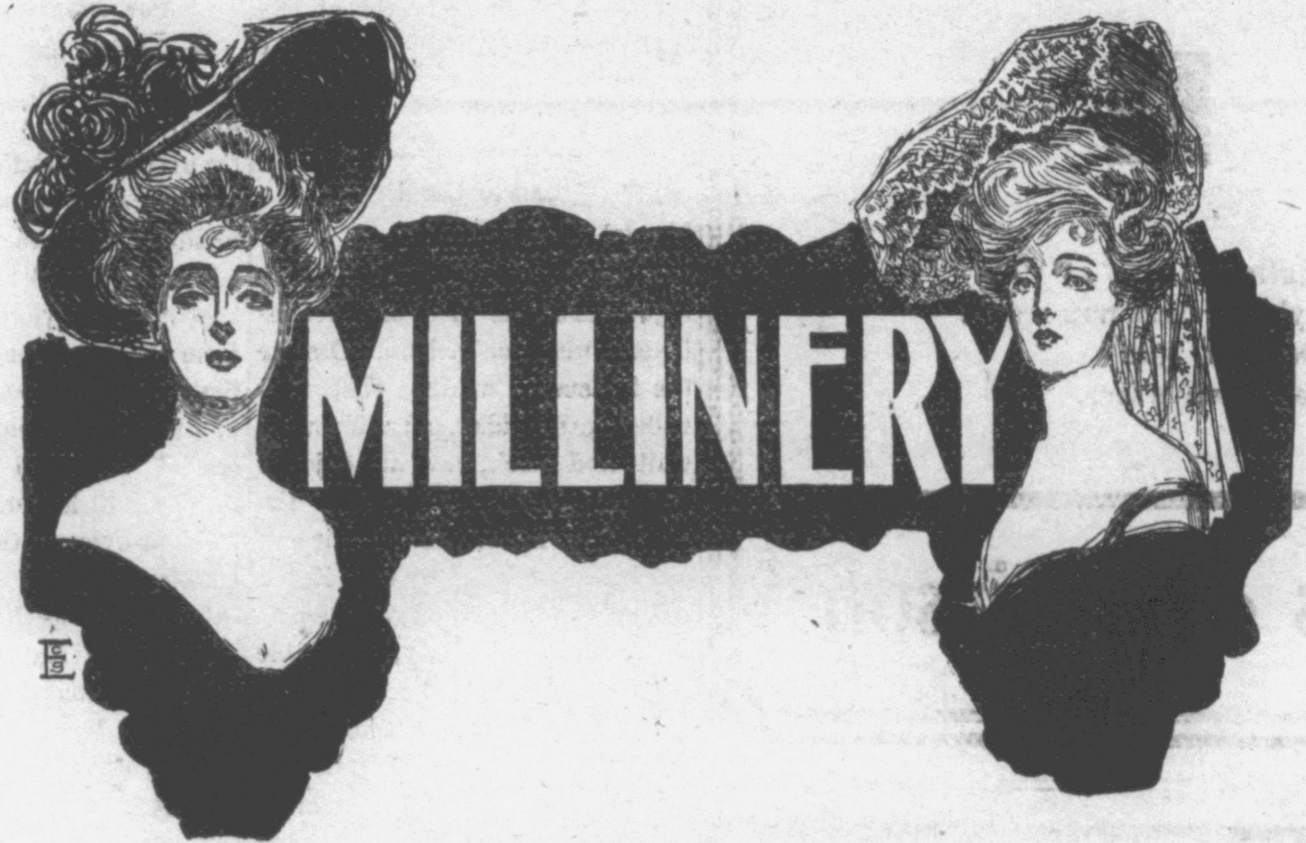

The current issue of the Edenton Transcript contains a lurid ghost story. The Transcript began business with a fairy story, and probably rings in the ghost to be consistent.

"He had used various patent preparations and had been treated by physicians without any permanent benefit. A few months ago he commenced taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a short time was entirely cured. Many citizens of Enterprise who know the gentleman will testify to the truthfulness of his statement." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy Farmville.

By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

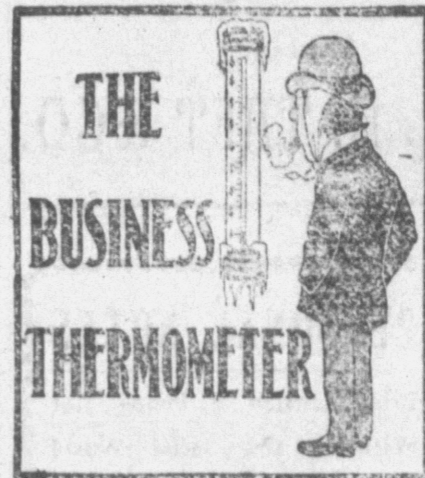

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery.

In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Mabel Cook
Sec'y, Woodman's Circle No. 70.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April, 18.
Misses Annie Stocks and Laura Cox are in Greenville shopping today.

Maj. Jno. B. Neal, of Scotland Neck, is with us again this week. The major is one of those "makes you insure whether or no" kind of men, but delights in reasoning with a man.

B. F. Manning, A. A. Forbes, W. H. Rouse and others attended Tarboro fair one day this week.

Postmaster M. G. Bryan was coming from Ayden one day this week riding his wheel down the rail road when he ran in a little washout on the embankment in Swift creek, and was thrown violently to the bottom of the embankment. Becoming tangled in his wheel both went together and he had his leg badly wrenched by being fast in same. Some of the sinews were broken. He is getting so he can ride again now. Mr. Mack says if he had been an old man or (if he had not been a young man rather) he would have likely have been very badly hurt.

Miss Clyde Dawson returned to Grifton yesterday.

Miss Effie Kittrell and little sister Janie spent Friday in Greenville with their father.

Insurance Agent Wooten, of Kinston, was in Winterville yesterday.

Last night the hearts of the Winterville Tar Heel band boys were made glad by the presentation of the handsome sum of over $26, by the citizens of the place and surrounding community. After all, the spirit of the gift was probably more appreciated than the amount itself. The long list of names showing that nearly every person had contributed some amount, however small, was truly encouraging. A resolution of thanks was passed by the band. Especially do Joshua Manning and Leonard Hamilton deserved credit, as they went to no little trouble to carry around the list. Of the total amount Hamilton turned over about twenty dollars and Joshua something over six.

It was recently suggested that to facilitate matters it would be a good idea for the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. to have a travelling painter to paint goods while being shipped. A later idea has been suggested by one of the hands, as some of the material, such as plauter handles, &c, seems to be slow in coming, and that is that one of our boys be dispatched to the factory to paint the handles as they are coming so that they will be ready to put on when they reach here. We admit this is a fast age, but this seems to be carrying the matter a little too far and may not go into operation this season.

"Diamonds and Hearts" by Trinity School Dramatic Co., in the opera house Monday night.

One account of the Sunday school mass meeting here tomorrow the meeting of the Anti Saloon League will be postponed until the fourth Sunday, when it will meet at 3 p. m. in the Christian church.

Sincere prayer strikes the heavenly pitch for the soul's songs.

Hardness of heart is not a sign of strength of character.

Men will trust in the churches when the churches cease to trust in man.

For liver troubles and constipation There's nothing better in creation Than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills They always effect a cure and save doctor bills.

Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. Jno. L. Wooten.
